Ti-ree Cars Derailed. The fast mail, which leaves the transfer over the Burlington at 5:30 p. m., met with an accident last evening near the bridge over Indian creek. A misplaced switch was encountered, which sent the engine and three front cars bounding along the ties in a very uncomfortable manner for the passengers. One of the cars was tipped over on its side and the passengers were neatly dumped into the sisle before they know what was the matter. Strange to say, however, no one was hurt, with the excep-tion of a few who were scratched and bruised slightly. The cars and engine were somewhat battered up, and it took several hours for the track to be cleared so that another train could be sent out. Dell G. Morgan & Co., druggists, 742

THE OMAHA BEE. NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Street Car Francisco Finally Granted to the Transit Company.

WASHINGTON AVENUE NOT INCLUDED.

Several Other Important Questions Considered by the City Council Last Night-Salaries May Be Reduced.

The city council at its meeting last night granted the oft asked for ordinance to the Council Bluffs Transit company. It is supposed that the transit company desired the right to construct a motor line to the Chautauqua grounds and for that purpose wanted the right of way on a large enough number of streets to make its business profitable, and, incidentally, a direct route to the Chautanqua grounds. After considerable discussion the ordinance was passed, Washington avenue being cut out of the list of streets over which right of way was to be granted, in accord-auce with the domand of a number of the property owners on that avenue who were present and in readiness to tear in pieces buy alderman who opposed their wishes.

Alderman Casper introduced an ordinance for the purpose of reducing the cost of advertising for bids ou paving, grading and sidewa as, making three general periods for the publication of such advertisements. The ordinance fixes the regular meetings in January, May and September as the dates upon which the council shall advertise for upon which the council shall advertise for all work ordered prior to the various dates. The alderman explained that this arrangement would save the tax-payers about $2,000 a year. The ordinance went over under the rules. An ordinance that fell like a wet blanket over the council chamber was found among the big stack of papers on the clera's desk, where it had been placed by Alderman Wood. It was an ordinance fixing the salaries of the mayor, marshal and treasurer at ies of the mayor, marshal and treasurer at $1,200 and providing that all fees in excess of that amount should be turned into the city treasury. It was received in cold-blooded silence and laid over under the rules

A. A. Hart, the jeweler was has been the victim of numerous burglaries, was granted a remission of taxes upon his showing that nearly all of his stock had been taken within thirty days after the assessment was made, so that his loss entitled him to exemption from taxes.

The question of dividing the Fourth and Fifth wards and creating a new ward to be called the Seventh, was presented by Alderman Smith. It designates that portion of the two wards south of Eleventh avenus as the territory to be incorporated in the new ward. The city attorney was instructed to prepare the necessary ordinance and report it at the next meeting of the council. Alderman Smith was fortified in his demand by a netition with the names of 180 voters attached.

J. P. Bushnell asked the city council to take twenty-five copies of the new city directory which is soon to be published, to be used in the city offices. Alderman Smith used in the city offices. Alderman Smith said he would be in favor of the scheme if the book was to contain the portraits of the alderman. Mayor Mocrae retorted that he saw no reason why Smith should seek to hinder the sale of the book to any such plan as that by any such plan as that, and after considerable good natured banter the matter was referred to the committee of the whole. A petition of property owners for an arc light at the corner of Harrison street and McGee avenue was laid on the table until the next meeting.

Still After Schurz. Attorney W. H. Ware reopened the damage suit of J. H. Koblenz against N. Schurz yesterday in the superior leave to refile the answer and cross-petition filed by his client several months ago. As reason therefor he filed an affidavit in which he stated that the papers had been prepared a long time and properly filed with the clerk of the court but the clerk had neglected to make any entry on the appearance docket, so that they could not be found. He claimed to to have learned of the fact until yester-lay morning. The allegations in the answer and cross-petition are the same as in the damage suit which was dismissed last Saturiay on account of the instillity of the plaintiff to furnish cost bond. The amount asked for, however is reduced from $20,000 to $7,000, and in the present case the filling of a cost bond will not be peressary.

Immediately there were loud calls of "Crisp!" "Crisp!" and a committee was ap-pointed to notify the successful candidate of his selection and escort him to the chair. Applause and cheers greeted the appearance of the gentleman from Georgia and after bowing his acknowledgments, Mr. Crisp spoke as follows:

Cris a's Sentiments.

Cris i's Sentiments.

Representatives, I am profoundly grately for this mark of your confidence and esteem. I piedge myself here and now to devote whatever industry and ability I possess to the advencement of the real interests of the democratic party. [Great applause, I bog to say to you now, as I speak to you my first words since I am your selection for speaker, that my election means nostep backwards in tariff reform. [Prolonged applause and cheering, I bog to say to you that there is in our party today no man who more earnestly believes in the democratic doctrine of tariff reform than I do Renewed cheers and cries of "bravo."] After the long struggle through which we have passed, when representatives are fatigued, when other officers are to be nominated it does not necome me to consume your time. I beg to say, however, that during the progress of this canvass. I have said no word respecting any individual which would at all justify him in having any harsh feelings of any kind against me-jappause. I have felt that it was a friendly struggle—[renewed applause]. I have felt that we were all democrats, and I have folt that whoever might be chosen speaker whenever this house meets and or, and itsees we stand as one body, working and i-horing for a common cause—the principles of the democratic party. [Cheers.] I thank you again for your confidence and for your kindness, and I assure you that the whole contest has left in my bosom no unkind feeling toward any member of the house. [Prolonged applause].

For Minor Officers. applause.

For Minor Officers.

The following nominations were then made for the minor offices: Mr. Kerr of Pennsylvania for clerk, unanimously: Mr. Yoder of Ohio for sergeant-at-arms, unanimously (after it was seen that he was far in the lead of Murphy of Iowa); Turner of New York or doorkeeper by 178 votes to 27 for Fields Dalton of Indiana for postmaster by 122 to 9 for Wright of North Carolina, 36 for Barney of Wisconsin and 36 for McClammy of North Carolina.

of North Carolina.

Then Mr. Springer of Illinois stated that he would not at this time present any candidate for chaplain, but that he would do so m open house tomorrow, and that he would re-nominate the old chaplain, Dr. Milbura of llinois. So at haif past 11 adjournment of the caucus was taken, which, in length and n its proceedings, is the most memorable of any in the history of the house since the war.

Mills Refuses to Talk. After the caucus Mr. Mills was invited to furnish the press with his views upon the re-sult, but answered: "I have nothing to say to the press."

In commenting upon the result of the contest Mr. riaten said: "I am entirely satis-fied with the result. I voted for Mr. Crisp because I believe he possesses in the most eminent degree all the qualifications to make an able, conservative and successful speaker. I have never at any time during this campaign shared in the feeling against Mr. Crisp that be was not as able and conscientious a tariff . former as Mr. Mills or any gentle conscientious nan in this congress. I am better satisfied with his record on the silver question than that of Mr. Mills, since the latter gentle-man's speeches in Ohio. I have no regrets to express in regard to the result."

Springer Unburdens Himseif. Mr. Springer said to an Associated Press reporter: "The canvass for the speakership, so far as I am concerned, has been conducted upon the theory that good politics required that the speakership should go to the north west, and especially to the state of Illinois where it would contribute in some degree to the success of the democratic party in the presidential election of 1892, but it seems that the representatives of the democratic party in congress do not take that view of the question, and while I had not contemplated a choice between Mr. Crisp and Mr Mills, when the time arrived at which it was necessary for me to act. I those that course it seemed, would be the best for interests of the democratic party generally.

Mr. Crisp will make an able and impartia; presiding officer. So far as the question of tariff reform is concerned. I have taken pains to satisfy myself than in Mr. Crisp's election it will be preserved as the paramount issue of the presidential campaign of 1892. But there are other issues which must be public expenditures. We must make a record in this congress which will convince the peo-ple that we are in favor of an honest and conomical administration, and that no money should be expended except such as is absilutely necessary for public purposes. The election of Mr. Crisp will not complicate the presidential contest. No candidate for president will receive any advantage or disadvantage from it. The na-tional convention will be left perfectly free to make the choice of our candidate uninfluenced by the result of the speakership The democratic party is of the people and not a party of combina
