

HE BELIEVES IN IMMERSION.

Rev. C. B. Allen Formakes Me-hedian For the Baptist Profession.

HIS SCUPLES CONCERNING BAPTISM.

Sprinkling Not Sufficient—Dr. Lamar's Sermon on the Occasion—What Dr. Harsha Hopes For the Indian.

There was a very large audience at the First Baptist church last night. Rev. A. W. Lamar, who has been pastor of that church for four years, preached his first sermon and baptism and he could not conscientiously baptize people by sprinkling or pouring. He informed the Methodist presiding elder of this fact and the elder told him kindly but firmly that there was but one thing for him to do under the circumstances, that was to retire from the ministry of the Methodist church, since he could not administer the ordinance of baptism in every form recognized by the church as being Christian baptism.

Dr. Lamar said that the prophet Joel had a wonderfully clear vision of the redemption of Israel and of the human race. In the midst of darkness and desolation he prophesied behind the glory of the coming day. He saw by prophetic vision the salvation that the Lord would procure for the human race. He comprehended the extent of that salvation. It did not call a few, a single race or people, but every body, the whole race of every generation and of every clime. "Whoever" was the word. The conditions were made easy to understand.

Dr. Lamar said that the prophet Joel had a wonderfully clear vision of the redemption of Israel and of the human race. In the midst of darkness and desolation he prophesied behind the glory of the coming day. He saw by prophetic vision the salvation that the Lord would procure for the human race. He comprehended the extent of that salvation. It did not call a few, a single race or people, but every body, the whole race of every generation and of every clime. "Whoever" was the word. The conditions were made easy to understand.

INDIAN AS A MAN.

Rev. Dr. Harsha Talks About the "Promised Land" and the "Promised People."

"The noblest man and the noblest trodden race" was the way that Rev. Dr. Harsha made sentimental reference to the Indians last night at the First Presbyterian church in his discourse on the work of Indian Commissioner Morgan. The Indian was ennobled and the commissioner revered for the work he was trying to do for the former.

The attendance at the church was not large, but those present were interested and listened to the reverent gentleman's remarks with rapt attention. Dr. Harsha, in his introductory remarks, stated that Indian Commissioner Morgan, who is a Baptist minister, was to have been in the pulpit, but was obliged to cancel his engagement on account of having to be in Lincoln. He was anxious for his congregation to hear Mr. Morgan talk about Indian affairs, but he was sorry that his hearers would have to be disappointed.

Dr. Harsha believed that Mr. Morgan was filling his office in an admirable manner, and that he would be successful in his efforts on his educational plans for elevating the outcasts of the country's south. He said that the brighter things are in store for the red men, thinks Dr. Harsha. Renewed attention was being given them. They were pauperized and compassed only by a cruel and unfeeling government. They had been compelled to accept what the government saw fit to give or allot them. They did not have the property of the white people of the United States. They were practically in absolute slavery and had been driven about and robbed as though they were worse than dogs.

Commissioner Morgan, the speaker said, held an anomalous position. He finds that he is hampered by things that cannot be overcome. One of these things was lack of funds. Another was that the commissioner was interfered with by the lingering superstitions of the Indians, such as the ghost dance and the Messtah fancies. The commissioner was also interfered with and could take no action on the deal with the Indians on account of a dilatory congress. With the Indians on one side and congress on the other, and a man between them trying to elevate the race, Mr. Morgan was doing excellent work.

In his feeling talk for the welfare and elevation of the red man Dr. Harsha said there were both some good and noble men and women in the race. When one was a Christian he or she was a earnest and devoted one. They prayed earnestly for the white people to open their hearts and give the Indian his just rights. The speaker strongly asserted they should have the protection of the laws of the country and cited a case of Standing Bear, who was arrested and taken before Judge Dundy and a court on general humanity principles held that an Indian was a person and should be protected. Dr. Harsha hoped that the time would come when the Indian would be protected as well as the white people. Progress had been made, and he trusted the time would come when the Indian nation would be recognized as a nation.

Water Rents Due Jan. 1.

Payable at company's office, Box building. Five per cent discount allowed if paid on or before Dec. 31. Failure to receive bill will not entitle consumer to discount.

TIERS AND INTERVIEWERS.

It looks like the Omaha Board of Education will have trouble in connection with the Kellom school site. When the site for the building was purchased the board failed to get a strip of ground fifteen feet wide running along Twenty-second street the full length of the school grounds. Several times the board had verbal agreements with Mr. Harbaugh about the purchase of this strip of ground, but a binding agreement has never been secured, and the board now finds itself with a $40,000 building almost completed and entirely shut off from the principal street that runs past the site.

SOUTH OMAHA'S POSTOFFICE.

Reasons Why a Government Building Should Be Erected There.

THIRD BUSIEST OFFICE IN NEBRASKA.

Only Two Others Do More—Headquarters Needed for the Government Employees—What the Committee Intends.

"South Omaha must have a postoffice," says Miss Lee, a member of the committee appointed by the Board of Trade to present to the city council a report on the subject. "Not only are we entitled to it on account of the population of south Omaha, but also because of the enormous amount of business done in our city. There are only two cities in the state that do more business, and they are Omaha and Lincoln."

"Then again, I believe that there are more government employees in South Omaha at this time than there are in any other city in the state excepting Omaha. Why should we not have a building for them instead of having them scattered over the city and the government paying office rent for them. There are no grounds all for the government by having a building of its own."

"It goes without saying that all the government offices should be in one building. There are no grounds all for the government at that question. Certainly South Omaha is as much if not more entitled to a postoffice building than many more cities in the state that have them already."

"The entire people of South Omaha are a unit on this question. They feel the necessity of a public building, and our delegates in congress may make up their minds that they will know no peace until they procure an appropriation for a public building in South Omaha."

"Suppose a person wishes to find any of the government mail inspectors or other government employees connected with the packing house industry, they have to hunt the city over to find them. Further, our office facilities are entirely inadequate to the needs of our people at the present time."

Christmas Religious Exercises.

Christmas day will be celebrated in a fitting manner at St. Agnes' and St. Bridget's churches. Rev. Father Moriarty, the rector, has made arrangements for additions to the excellent choir and the religious celebrations will be of an unusually impressive character.

At St. Agnes' church there will be high mass and a sermon at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Father Moriarty, and low masses at 6, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock, and solemn high mass and sermon at 10:45 a. m. St. Clair's mass in 10th street, between Franklin and Douglas, a very convenient location. They pay 5 per cent interest and appreciate new accounts.

At St. Bridget's there will be high mass and sermon at 9 a. m. The local choir will be reinforced with a portion of the St. Agnes' choir and the singing will be in C from the "Memorabilia" with the beautiful "Adeste Fideles" for an offertory piece. Father Hennessy will preside on the altar and will hear confessions between the two masses.

Low mass will be held at 8 o'clock and high mass will be celebrated at 6 a. m. at the mother house of the Sisters of Mercy on Castellar street, by Rev. Father Hickley. A fine new altar, costing $400, is now presented to the sisters by Mrs. Hennessy, which it is expected will be in place by Christmas day.

One More Night.

By urgent request it has been decided to hold the Catholic night, so the evening will terminate the affair. The good watch contest, which was the most spirited feature of the fair, ended in Miss Lovell capturing the prize, she having received 1,870 votes. Miss Carlos, her fellow competitor, gave her a hard run, as she stowed 1,870 votes.

The lucky contest was a tame affair, Paddy McMahon, the winner, stowed 2,600 votes, while Tom Ryan, his only competitor, received only 300. The elegant chair which was by Frank Walcott street.

This evening the prize of $10 to be awarded to the bidder of the season ticket having the lucky number will be awarded. A large number of articles are to be raffled off.

Jack Irwin Promoted.

The numerous friends of Jack Irwin, recently the head shipping clerk at Cudahy's packing establishment, will be glad to know that his executive ability has been recognized and that he has been promoted to the position of chief packmaster.

Magie City Miniatures.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoegson, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Aveca, Ia., were in the city today, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hill.

Mr. Dudley Sullivan died yesterday afternoon at his residence, Twenty-eighth and R streets, of a lingering case of consumption. He was aged 22 years. He was a member of the United Order of United Workmen.

The Willing Workers of St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal church will give an entertainment Tuesday evening in the Methodist church, Twenty-third and N, for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Wilson. There will be songs, recitations and dialogues and will conclude with a tabernacle, "The Two Blind Beggars."

Will Be Born Again.

Omaha Newspaper Men Decide to Form New Press Club. The call published in the daily papers for a meeting of the newspaper men of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs resulted in a large assemblage of press workers yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Omaha Press club in the Ben building.

Mr. J. B. Haynes was made the temporary chairman of the meeting and Mr. E. C. Hunt secretary. Mr. Haynes on taking the chair stated the object of the meeting to be the consideration of whether the old club, which has been dormant for several years, should be reorganized, or whether a new organization should be effected upon broader lines than that which characterized the old organization.

A discussion followed, the sentiment of the gentlemen present being that a new club should be created, and as a result of their intention, a pledge was signed to the effect that they would become members of a new list being as follows: E. C. Hunt, F. R. Morrissey, F. B. Miller, Victor E. Bedner, Julius F. Foster, A. E. Glick, E. O. Mayhew, J. M. Gillian, E. H. Hemming, Hovey P. Barrett, William H. Simpson, Will M. Maupis, W. D. Percival, W. McCullough, W. J. McFarland, R. B. Peattie, A. G. Perkins, Sol Davidson, Henry C. Akin, D. L. Cartan, Charles Wilson, E. C. Snyder, John Roscoe, Mr. Frank Morrison moved that the temporary officers consist of a president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and an executive committee of five members, and prevailed and the following temporary officers were elected: President, R. B. Peattie; vice president, E. C. Snyder; secretary-treasurer, Victor E. Bedner; executive committee, T. W. Blackburn, Henry C. Akin and D. L. Cartan.

SOUTH OMAHA'S POSTOFFICE.

Reasons Why a Government Building Should Be Erected There.

THIRD BUSIEST OFFICE IN NEBRASKA.

Only Two Others Do More—Headquarters Needed for the Government Employees—What the Committee Intends.

"South Omaha must have a postoffice," says Miss Lee, a member of the committee appointed by the Board of Trade to present to the city council a report on the subject. "Not only are we entitled to it on account of the population of south Omaha, but also because of the enormous amount of business done in our city. There are only two cities in the state that do more business, and they are Omaha and Lincoln."

"Then again, I believe that there are more government employees in South Omaha at this time than there are in any other city in the state excepting Omaha. Why should we not have a building for them instead of having them scattered over the city and the government paying office rent for them. There are no grounds all for the government by having a building of its own."

"It goes without saying that all the government offices should be in one building. There are no grounds all for the government at that question. Certainly South Omaha is as much if not more entitled to a postoffice building than many more cities in the state that have them already."

"The entire people of South Omaha are a unit on this question. They feel the necessity of a public building, and our delegates in congress may make up their minds that they will know no peace until they procure an appropriation for a public building in South Omaha."

"Suppose a person wishes to find any of the government mail inspectors or other government employees connected with the packing house industry, they have to hunt the city over to find them. Further, our office facilities are entirely inadequate to the needs of our people at the present time."

Christmas Religious Exercises.

Christmas day will be celebrated in a fitting manner at St. Agnes' and St. Bridget's churches. Rev. Father Moriarty, the rector, has made arrangements for additions to the excellent choir and the religious celebrations will be of an unusually impressive character.

At St. Agnes' church there will be high mass and a sermon at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Father Moriarty, and low masses at 6, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock, and solemn high mass and sermon at 10:45 a. m. St. Clair's mass in 10th street, between Franklin and Douglas, a very convenient location. They pay 5 per cent interest and appreciate new accounts.

At St. Bridget's there will be high mass and sermon at 9 a. m. The local choir will be reinforced with a portion of the St. Agnes' choir and the singing will be in C from the "Memorabilia" with the beautiful "Adeste Fideles" for an offertory piece. Father Hennessy will preside on the altar and will hear confessions between the two masses.

Low mass will be held at 8 o'clock and high mass will be celebrated at 6 a. m. at the mother house of the Sisters of Mercy on Castellar street, by Rev. Father Hickley. A fine new altar, costing $400, is now presented to the sisters by Mrs. Hennessy, which it is expected will be in place by Christmas day.

One More Night.

By urgent request it has been decided to hold the Catholic night, so the evening will terminate the affair. The good watch contest, which was the most spirited feature of the fair, ended in Miss Lovell capturing the prize, she having received 1,870 votes. Miss Carlos, her fellow competitor, gave her a hard run, as she stowed 1,870 votes.

The lucky contest was a tame affair, Paddy McMahon, the winner, stowed 2,600 votes, while Tom Ryan, his only competitor, received only 300. The elegant chair which was by Frank Walcott street.

This evening the prize of $10 to be awarded to the bidder of the season ticket having the lucky number will be awarded. A large number of articles are to be raffled off.

Jack Irwin Promoted.

The numerous friends of Jack Irwin, recently the head shipping clerk at Cudahy's packing establishment, will be glad to know that his executive ability has been recognized and that he has been promoted to the position of chief packmaster.

Magie City Miniatures.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoegson, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Aveca, Ia., were in the city today, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hill.

Mr. Dudley Sullivan died yesterday afternoon at his residence, Twenty-eighth and R streets, of a lingering case of consumption. He was aged 22 years. He was a member of the United Order of United Workmen.

The Willing Workers of St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal church will give an entertainment Tuesday evening in the Methodist church, Twenty-third and N, for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Wilson. There will be songs, recitations and dialogues and will conclude with a tabernacle, "The Two Blind Beggars."

Will Be Born Again.

Omaha Newspaper Men Decide to Form New Press Club. The call published in the daily papers for a meeting of the newspaper men of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs resulted in a large assemblage of press workers yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Omaha Press club in the Ben building.

Mr. J. B. Haynes was made the temporary chairman of the meeting and Mr. E. C. Hunt secretary. Mr. Haynes on taking the chair stated the object of the meeting to be the consideration of whether the old club, which has been dormant for several years, should be reorganized, or whether a new organization should be effected upon broader lines than that which characterized the old organization.

A discussion followed, the sentiment of the gentlemen present being that a new club should be created, and as a result of their intention, a pledge was signed to the effect that they would become members of a new list being as follows: E. C. Hunt, F. R. Morrissey, F. B. Miller, Victor E. Bedner, Julius F. Foster, A. E. Glick, E. O. Mayhew, J. M. Gillian, E. H. Hemming, Hovey P. Barrett, William H. Simpson, Will M. Maupis, W. D. Percival, W. McCullough, W. J. McFarland, R. B. Peattie, A. G. Perkins, Sol Davidson, Henry C. Akin, D. L. Cartan, Charles Wilson, E. C. Snyder, John Roscoe, Mr. Frank Morrison moved that the temporary officers consist of a president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and an executive committee of five members, and prevailed and the following temporary officers were elected: President, R. B. Peattie; vice president, E. C. Snyder; secretary-treasurer, Victor E. Bedner; executive committee, T. W. Blackburn, Henry C. Akin and D. L. Cartan.

SOUTH OMAHA'S POSTOFFICE.

Reasons Why a Government Building Should Be Erected There.

THIRD BUSIEST OFFICE IN NEBRASKA.

Only Two Others Do More—Headquarters Needed for the Government Employees—What the Committee Intends.

"South Omaha must have a postoffice," says Miss Lee, a member of the committee appointed by the Board of Trade to present to the city council a report on the subject. "Not only are we entitled to it on account of the population of south Omaha, but also because of the enormous amount of business done in our city. There are only two cities in the state that do more business, and they are Omaha and Lincoln."

"Then again, I believe that there are more government employees in South Omaha at this time than there are in any other city in the state excepting Omaha. Why should we not have a building for them instead of having them scattered over the city and the government paying office rent for them. There are no grounds all for the government by having a building of its own."

"It goes without saying that all the government offices should be in one building. There are no grounds all for the government at that question. Certainly South Omaha is as much if not more entitled to a postoffice building than many more cities in the state that have them already."

"The entire people of South Omaha are a unit on this question. They feel the necessity of a public building, and our delegates in congress may make up their minds that they will know no peace until they procure an appropriation for a public building in South Omaha."

"Suppose a person wishes to find any of the government mail inspectors or other government employees connected with the packing house industry, they have to hunt the city over to find them. Further, our office facilities are entirely inadequate to the needs of our people at the present time."

Christmas Religious Exercises.

Christmas day will be celebrated in a fitting manner at St. Agnes' and St. Bridget's churches. Rev. Father Moriarty, the rector, has made arrangements for additions to the excellent choir and the religious celebrations will be of an unusually impressive character.

At St. Agnes' church there will be high mass and a sermon at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Father Moriarty, and low masses at 6, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock, and solemn high mass and sermon at 10:45 a. m. St. Clair's mass in 10th street, between Franklin and Douglas, a very convenient location. They pay 5 per cent interest and appreciate new accounts.

At St. Bridget's there will be high mass and sermon at 9 a. m. The local choir will be reinforced with a portion of the St. Agnes' choir and the singing will be in C from the "Memorabilia" with the beautiful "Adeste Fideles" for an offertory piece. Father Hennessy will preside on the altar and will hear confessions between the two masses.

Low mass will be held at 8 o'clock and high mass will be celebrated at 6 a. m. at the mother house of the Sisters of Mercy on Castellar street, by Rev. Father Hickley. A fine new altar, costing $400, is now presented to the sisters by Mrs. Hennessy, which it is expected will be in place by Christmas day.

One More Night.

By urgent request it has been decided to hold the Catholic night, so the evening will terminate the affair. The good watch contest, which was the most spirited feature of the fair, ended in Miss Lovell capturing the prize, she having received 1,870 votes. Miss Carlos, her fellow competitor, gave her a hard run, as she stowed 1,870 votes.

The lucky contest was a tame affair, Paddy McMahon, the winner, stowed 2,600 votes, while Tom Ryan, his only competitor, received only 300. The elegant chair which was by Frank Walcott street.

This evening the prize of $10 to be awarded to the bidder of the season ticket having the lucky number will be awarded. A large number of articles are to be raffled off.

Jack Irwin Promoted.

The numerous friends of Jack Irwin, recently the head shipping clerk at Cudahy's packing establishment, will be glad to know that his executive ability has been recognized and that he has been promoted to the position of chief packmaster.

Magie City Miniatures.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoegson, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Aveca, Ia., were in the city today, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hill.

Mr. Dudley Sullivan died yesterday afternoon at his residence, Twenty-eighth and R streets, of a lingering case of consumption. He was aged 22 years. He was a member of the United Order of United Workmen.

The Willing Workers of St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal church will give an entertainment Tuesday evening in the Methodist church, Twenty-third and N, for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Wilson. There will be songs, recitations and dialogues and will conclude with a tabernacle, "The Two Blind Beggars."

Will Be Born Again.

Omaha Newspaper Men Decide to Form New Press Club. The call published in the daily papers for a meeting of the newspaper men of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs resulted in a large assemblage of press workers yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Omaha Press club in the Ben building.

Mr. J. B. Haynes was made the temporary chairman of the meeting and Mr. E. C. Hunt secretary. Mr. Haynes on taking the chair stated the object of the meeting to be the consideration of whether the old club, which has been dormant for several years, should be reorganized, or whether a new organization should be effected upon broader lines than that which characterized the old organization.

A discussion followed, the sentiment of the gentlemen present being that a new club should be created, and as a result of their intention, a pledge was signed to the effect that they would become members of a new list being as follows: E. C. Hunt, F. R. Morrissey, F. B. Miller, Victor E. Bedner, Julius F. Foster, A. E. Glick, E. O. Mayhew, J. M. Gillian, E. H. Hemming, Hovey P. Barrett, William H. Simpson, Will M. Maupis, W. D. Percival, W. McCullough, W. J. McFarland, R. B. Peattie, A. G. Perkins, Sol Davidson, Henry C. Akin, D. L. Cartan, Charles Wilson, E. C. Snyder, John Roscoe, Mr. Frank Morrison moved that the temporary officers consist of a president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and an executive committee of five members, and prevailed and the following temporary officers were elected: President, R. B. Peattie; vice president, E. C. Snyder; secretary-treasurer, Victor E. Bedner; executive committee, T. W. Blackburn, Henry C. Akin and D. L. Cartan.

SOUTH OMAHA'S POSTOFFICE.

Reasons Why a Government Building Should Be Erected There.

THIRD BUSIEST OFFICE IN NEBRASKA.

Only Two Others Do More—Headquarters Needed for the Government Employees—What the Committee Intends.

"South Omaha must have a postoffice," says Miss Lee, a member of the committee appointed by the Board of Trade to present to the city council a report on the subject. "Not only are we entitled to it on account of the population of south Omaha, but also because of the enormous amount of business done in our city. There are only two cities in the state that do more business, and they are Omaha and Lincoln."

"Then again, I believe that there are more government employees in South Omaha at this time than there are in any other city in the state excepting Omaha. Why should we not have a building for them instead of having them scattered over the city and the government paying office rent for them. There are no grounds all for the government by having a building of its own."

"It goes without saying that all the government offices should be in one building. There are no grounds all for the government at that question. Certainly South Omaha is as much if not more entitled to a postoffice building than many more cities in the state that have them already."

"The entire people of South Omaha are a unit on this question. They feel the necessity of a public building, and our delegates in congress may make up their minds that they will know no peace until they procure an appropriation for a public building in South Omaha."

"Suppose a person wishes to find any of the government mail inspectors or other government employees connected with the packing house industry, they have to hunt the city over to find them. Further, our office facilities are entirely inadequate to the needs of our people at the present time."

Christmas Religious Exercises.

Christmas day will be celebrated in a fitting manner at St. Agnes' and St. Bridget's churches. Rev. Father Moriarty, the rector, has made arrangements for additions to the excellent choir and the religious celebrations will be of an unusually impressive character.

At St. Agnes' church there will be high mass and a sermon at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Father Moriarty, and low masses at 6, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock, and solemn high mass and sermon at 10:45 a. m. St. Clair's mass in 10th street, between Franklin and Douglas, a very convenient location. They pay 5 per cent interest and appreciate new accounts.

At St. Bridget's there will be high mass and sermon at 9 a. m. The local choir will be reinforced with a portion of the St. Agnes' choir and the singing will be in C from the "Memorabilia" with the beautiful "Adeste Fideles" for an offertory piece. Father Hennessy will preside on the altar and will hear confessions between the two masses.

Low mass will be held at 8 o'clock and high mass will be celebrated at 6 a. m. at the mother house of the Sisters of Mercy on Castellar street, by Rev. Father Hickley. A fine new altar, costing $400, is now presented to the sisters by Mrs. Hennessy, which it is expected will be in place by Christmas day.

One More Night.

By urgent request it has been decided to hold the Catholic night, so the evening will terminate the affair. The good watch contest, which was the most spirited feature of the fair, ended in Miss Lovell capturing the prize, she having received 1,870 votes. Miss Carlos, her fellow competitor, gave her a hard run, as she stowed 1,870 votes.

The lucky contest was a tame affair, Paddy McMahon, the winner, stowed 2,600 votes, while Tom Ryan, his only competitor, received only 300. The elegant chair which was by Frank Walcott street.

This evening the prize of $10 to be awarded to the bidder of the season ticket having the lucky number will be awarded. A large number of articles are to be raffled off.

Jack Irwin Promoted.

The numerous friends of Jack Irwin, recently the head shipping clerk at Cudahy's packing establishment, will be glad to know that his executive ability has been recognized and that he has been promoted to the position of chief packmaster.

Magie City Miniatures.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoegson, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Aveca, Ia., were in the city today, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hill.

Mr. Dudley Sullivan died yesterday afternoon at his residence, Twenty-eighth and R streets, of a lingering case of consumption. He was aged 22 years. He was a member of the United Order of United Workmen.

The Willing Workers of St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal church will give an entertainment Tuesday evening in the Methodist church, Twenty-third and N, for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Wilson. There will be songs, recitations and dialogues and will conclude with a tabernacle, "The Two Blind Beggars."

Will Be Born Again.

Omaha Newspaper Men Decide to Form New Press Club. The call published in the daily papers for a meeting of the newspaper men of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs resulted in a large assemblage of press workers yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Omaha Press club in the Ben building.

Mr. J. B. Haynes was made the temporary chairman of the meeting and Mr. E. C. Hunt secretary. Mr. Haynes on taking the chair stated the object of the meeting to be the consideration of whether the old club, which has been dormant for several years, should be reorganized, or whether a new organization should be effected upon broader lines than that which characterized the old organization.

A discussion followed, the sentiment of the gentlemen present being that a new club should be created, and as a result of their intention, a pledge was signed to the effect that they would become members of a new list being as follows: E. C. Hunt, F. R. Morrissey, F. B. Miller, Victor E. Bedner, Julius F. Foster, A. E. Glick, E. O. Mayhew, J. M. Gillian, E. H. Hemming, Hovey P. Barrett, William H. Simpson, Will M. Maupis, W. D. Percival, W. McCullough, W. J. McFarland, R. B. Peattie, A. G. Perkins, Sol Davidson, Henry C. Akin, D. L. Cartan, Charles Wilson, E. C. Snyder, John Roscoe, Mr. Frank Morrison moved that the temporary officers consist of a president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and an executive committee of five members, and prevailed and the following temporary officers were elected: President, R. B. Peattie; vice president, E. C. Snyder; secretary-treasurer, Victor E. Bedner; executive committee, T. W. Blackburn, Henry C. Akin and D. L. Cartan.

TODAY

Elegant Silk

SUSPENDERS

45c.

Regular Dollar Goods

TO-MORROW

IT'S

SILK

UMBRELLAS

Nebraska Clothing Co

Open Evenings till 9 o'clock. Saturday, 10 p. m.

RADWAY'S PILLS

THE GREAT LIVER AND STOMACH REMEDY

Cures all disorders of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nervous system, loss of appetite, headache, constipation, colic, biliousness, indigestion, flatulence, fever, piles, etc., and renders the system less liable to contract disease.

Dr. DOWNS

1316 Douglas Street, Omaha, Neb.