E. R. Fonda yesterday filed a bond of $3,000 and took out letters of administration in the estate of Robert Parkhill, the late Union Pacific switchman.

Frank Epps was arrested vesterday on a charge of vagrancy. In the information upon which he was arrested he is charged with having no occupation and being a terror generally to his neighbors.

An entertainment will be given this evening in the Baptist church for the Sunday school. An attractive musical and literary programme will be presented, in which the ibers of the school will take part. All will be welcome.

A watch meeting will be held a week from tonight at the Odd Fellows hall by the Re-bekah degree of the order. The old year will be sped on it way in the most approved fashion with games and other amusements and refreshments will be served. All friends of the order are invited.

St. John's English Lutheran Sunday school has prepared a musical and literary program which they will render on Christmas hight at 20s Broadway, foot of Glen avenue, in the room formerly occupied by Bracket's book store. There will be a Christmas tree and a visit from Santa Claus. The Board of Trade has appointed a com-

The Board of Trade has appointed a com-mittee to rustle for funds to make up the bonus which is necessary to secure the Kim-hall Bros. Elevator Manufacturing com-pany of Anamosa for Council Bluffs. Quite a sum has already been subscribed, and it is thought there will be but little trouble in raising the rest of the $2,000.

Henry Moore, the colored man who was nrrested several days ago in Omaha, was brought before Justice Hammer yesterday for a preliminary examination. He was bound over to the grand jury to answer to the charge of larceny from the person, and his bail was fixed at $300, in default of which he was sent to the county jail.

Meschendorf's market has been given an attractive holiday appearance by decorations of flowers, artistically arranged by Miss Eva Meschendorf and Miss Louise Wagner of Omaha. One of the show windows contains the original lamb which followed Mary school. A miniature lake and other skill ful landscaping adds to the attractiveness of the scene.

Marriage licenses were issued vesterday to Marriage incenses were issued yestering to the following parties: Henry Schnack of Scribner, Neb., and Eivina Longmack of Council Bluffs; James D. Holmes of South Omaha and Julia Ferrell of St. Joseph. Mo.; O Blues of Mardten and Marsha, Corr L O. Baker of Mapleton and Mary L. German of Council Bluffs; Daniel O'Connor and Katie Dunn, both of Council Bluffs; William Zentz and Lida Mina Davis, both of Pottawattamie county.

A match game of pool was played last evening in the Columbia for $50 a side, C. H. Johnson and D. f. Martin being the contest-ants. The one who won six games first was to be the victor. Martin led his antagonist from the start, taking four games from him in succession. At the end of nine games Martin had six to Johnsen's three, and he was declared the winner. The game was watched by a number of local sports.

Receiver Appointed to Take Charge of a Stock of Clothing Now in Omaha for a Judnment Creditor.

Attorneys Suns and Saunders, who appear for a number of eastern creditors of the firm of H. Eiseman & Co., have jumped upon the neck of L. Ottenheimer, the cicthing merchant who tried to move his stock to Salt Lake, and propose to show him that a court cannot be monkeyed with with impunity.

It is charged that a number of circumstances in connection with the removal tend to show that Ottenheimer was undoubtedly intending to place his property beyond the reach of his creditors, and those of the Eisemans. The goods were packed up in an evident hurry, all day Sunday being occupied in the work of preparation, and were moved from the store at 4 o'clock Monday morning. The expressat 4 o'clock Monday morning. The express-man who moved them was made to promise that he would say nothing about it to any one. The goods were taken to Omaha, where they were loaded on the cars and con-signed to Joseph Simon of Sait Lake, U. T., half over the Union Pacific, and half over the B. & M. Who Joseph Simon is is a matter of conjecture, and an attempt will be made to solve the nearborn when the case be made to solve the problem when the case comes to trial.

The contempt is alleged to consist in his moving his prop-erty by stealth out of the state while a suit was already pending to subject it to the claims of Eisemau's creditors. -An amendea petition was filed in the dis-

-An amendou petition was filed in the dis-trict court yesterday in the case of Arnold, Constable & Co. and others against H. Eise-man & Co. and others, making the Union Pa-cific Railway company, over whose line the goods are now being slipped to their western destination, a defendant in the case. An effort will be made in this way to secure the mode as that they must be laying upon by term. goods so that they may be levied upon by the creditors. In the case of John Annisfield & Co against L. Ottenheimer and others, which has been pending for some time past, a de-fault was entered up against Ottenheimer yesterday for the sum of $3,703.25 and a special lien granted on the stock. Sheriff O'Neill was appointed receiver and an order was issued by the court that the stock now held by the Union Pacific be delivered to him, to be held subject to this lien. T. C. Dawson, who appears as attorney for Ottenheimer, claims that his client's actions were not in contempt of the court, but re-sulted from a fear that the precious all-wool pants would be taken away by the creditors as soon as they learned that he had decided to sell them. Whether this is the correct statement will probably appear when the case is aired in court.

Cattle Case submitted.

After three weeks in which it has nearly conopolized things in the district court, the case of the Citizens State bank against J. C. Abbott was completed yesterday. Attorney McCabe made an argument in behalf of the plaintiff that lasted all day up to 4 o'clock in he afternoon, when Judge Smith read his instructions, to the jury, and the case was finally submitted shortly before 5 o'clock. In case the jury comes to an agreement, and it is not thought any of the jurymen will forego the pleasure of cating Christmas linner at home for the purpose of seeing that the pinintiff or defendant gets absolute jus-tice, a sealed verdict will be returned.

This morning the criminal docket will be taken up. The number of cases for trial was reduced yesterday by the filing of plens of guilty by three of the indicted parties—L. Harrison, who burglarized the Columbia, the Case and Labor Descipation of the start Furf and John Beno's; Frank Martin, who broke into the residence of T. S. Couch; and Edward Butler, indicted for the larceny of a horse and buggy be-longing to Peter Hansen. There are only four criminal cases left to be tried and none of them are of any great importance. It is probable that they will not take up more than two days at the outside. As soon as they are completed the law docket will be again resumed.

BISHOP NEWMAN'S RETURN.

Litur :y.

Bishop Newman, the resident bishop of the Methodist church, has returned to Omaha after an absence of about six months, looking well and full of his usual enthusiasm for the city of his choice and the work of the Methoextension society meeting, then to Cleveland to the bishops' and missionaries' meeting and then to New England, where he dediated a number of churches. He spent a week in Washington visiting with friends and preached in the church where he was pastor for so many years dur-ing Grant's administration. He then went of the larger churches have a form of liturgy, but the trouble is it is not uniform and fre-quently the bishop must ask what coves next when he is conducting service in a church where he is not familiar with the order of exercises employed by the pastor. Mr. Wesley sent over to this country in 1784 a liturgy which was an abridgement of the liturgy of the Church of England. I think it is quite probable that the matter will be presented at the general conference, and an effort will be made. I presume, to have one specific form for general use in the Methodist church."

The defense moved for dismissal on the grounds that the body of Larson had not been found and to marry Miss Higelow or to murdered, and that the fact that he had a wrife at the time, was known to Miss Bigelow and her family. The bill alleges that on Tuesday last, while standing at Calvert and Lonnoard streets, Mr. murder had not been proved. This was overruled and evidence for the defense was begun. They will attempt to prove that Bowers was approached by the father and brother of Miss Bigelow, who compelled him at the point of a pistol to enter a carriage Larson was not murdered, or if murdered, that the crime was committed by a land agent. The state think they have a clew to the location of Larson's body as it divulged on the testimony by Larson's brother that he at the point of a pixtol to enter a carriage with them. They were driven to the house of the Bigelows, where Mr. Bowers was placed in a room. Expert With the Pen.

Charles G. Meyers, a young man who was tried and convicted a couple of years ago of stealing a horse, and has just finished a term in the penitentiary for the offense, is wanted for another fracture of the laws of Iowa.

Charles Osborn, a farmer who lives a short distance out of the city, and for whom Meyers has been working, charges him with the crime of forgery. According to the story he tells Meyers delivered severals loads of wood for him a few days ago to George A. Keeline and that last Saturday Keeline paid him off. Meyers wanted the pay in the form of money, but Keeline pay in the form of money, but Keeline refusd, tendering bin instead a check for $22 payable to Charles Osborn's order which was accepted. It is alleged that Meyers forged Osborn's name to the check and drew the mean form the Council Black the money from the Council Bluffs Savings bank. Hopkins-Searles Will Case. Bosrov, Mass., Dec. 23 .- The Hopkins-Searles will case came up in the supreme court this morning in the matter of filing creasing the import duty on tin 1 cent per pound. It is alleged that as the tariff now stands the duty is insufficient to afford adequate protection, as it leaves an opening for old established tinned plate factories in the old world to deluge the American market at a time when such action would be decidedly detrimental to the industry.

AVagant Seat.

"Oh, no; you take it." "No, I'd rather stand."

"So would I. "Oh, take it. I've been sitting nearly Ill day.

"So have I."

"But I really don't care to sit," "But I don't mind standing in the east

"Neither do I. Indeed, I often prefer to stand.

"But you look tired." "Oh, I'm not a bit. Now you sit lown.

"No. you."

"No, no, you. I get off first." "Then you ought to sit down now and

'll take the seat afterward." 'But I really don't care for it."

"Neither do L." "Please take it."

This goes on until both women try to t down at the same time and one of them sits in the lap of the weary looking young man who jumps up and goes out and stands on the platform, thus making room for both women and the torment ing dialogue comes to an end.
