GAIETIES.

Society Shaking Off the Lethargy of Holiday Time.

DOINGS OF THE FASHIONABLE SET.

A Brilliant Afternoon Reception at the Millard-"Jack the Ripper" in Omaha -Mention of Prominent People.

The distinctive social event of a rather quiet week in the realms of fashion was the reception given by the ladies of the Millard Thursday from 2 until 5 o'clock. The day was an ideal one and the maids and matrons of the haut monde embraced the opportunity to meet the leaders of social life for the first time since the holidays. The pariors and adjoining rooms on the econd floor of the hotel were magnificently decorated with palms, ferns and smlinx, while immense rose bowls, filled with roses, Christmas lilies and other bothouse flowers. added their wealth of color to an inspiring scene, made doubly so by the presence of beautifully costumed women. Refreshments were served in the rooms off he ordinary and were on an elaborate scale, much more so than is usual at an afternoon affair such as this was. Nothing was spared by Mr. Swobs, who tendered this reception to the laites who make the Millard their home, and from beginning to end the afternoon was crowded with pleasure.

There have been many beautiful balls and parties at the Millard in times past, but none of them have even equalled the reception of Thursday last. During the hours of the reception Omaha's four hundred graced the occasion by their presence, the abscence of stiffness and formality being particularly

The guests were received by Mrs. Swobe, Mrs. Levi Carter, Mrs. Frank Muir, Mrs. Dietz, Mrs. Andrew Rosewater, Mrs. R. R.

Ritchie and Mrs. Victor Coffman. Mrs. Swobe were a most beautiful costume black lace and turquoise zilk, decollete and entraine in addition to supure diamonds. Mrs. Carter, who is always one of the best dressed of the women, wore yellow bro-cade and crepe trimmed with cut jet passe-menterie and black ribbons. Mrs. Dietz, whose gowns always attract attention, wore a becoming costume of red silk combined with black net. Mrs. An-combined with black net. Mrs. Audraw Rosewater were a handsome Imported toilette of maize colored silk, combined with green, heavily embroidered with pearls. Mrs. Coffman was gowned in black silk with jet passementerie. Mrs.

Muir, a strikingly pretty woman, was lovely in an old rose and white silk, the bodice belag organization with silk. Mrs. Blacket ing ornamented with pink. Mrs. Ritchie, whose first introduction it was to many of the Omaha fair sex, was prettily arrayed in black not. In addition to the receiving party, Miss Nash, Miss Brown, Miss Sherwood and Miss Moore assisted throughout the parlors

Miss Moore assisted throughout the parlors in entertaining the guests.

Among those present were Mesdames Dr. Duryea, Reed, J. P. Williams, Thompson, Nichols, Sioan, W. V. Morse, Miner, Babcock, Squires, Thurston, Dewey, Snyder, T. J. Rogers, Warren Rogers, Adolph Meyer, Hopkins, Yost, Brown, Thayer, Catiin, Dan Wheeler, Harry McCormick, Remington, Barkalow, Gilbert, Rosewater, Feli, Barker, Carter, Barkalow, Ames, Riley, Meday, Colpetzer, Paxton, Sharp, Burns, Kennedy, Call, Richardson, Harvey, Ludington, Westenna, Clarkson, Wakeley, Doane, Kilpatrick, Kimbail, Nash, Dundy, Coe, Pease, Moore, Pratt, Drake in addition to a large number of unmarried women.

One of the most delightful afternoon affairs of the winter was given by Mrs. C. F. Cathie on Wednesday evening last at her handsome rooms 1720 Dodge street. It was a "progressive high-five," and given in honor of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Thayer of Colorado. Some sixty ladies sat down at 3 and chatted and played industriously till 5, when the cards were removed and dainty refreshments took their place, which claimed the attention of the fair guests who had played and lost and played and won. Hand-some favors were distributed immediately after the refreshments, as follows: The first prize was won by Mrs. Judge Thurston, a lovely, hand-painted, chamois table cover, the work of the hostess. The second prize, "Wild Flowers of the Pacific Coast," was handed to Mrs. Gallarber, and was a gift from Mrs. Thaver, the authoress. The third prize fell to Muss Mellona Butterfield, a pen and ink sketch in the shape of a banner. The solation prize was carried away by Mrs.

The floral decorations were smilax, roseand carnations, but the most attractive decorations were the beautiful paintings and ketches which covered every available pace of the walls, the work of the artistic ostess.

The score cards were in the shape of autumn leaves, painted in water color, each lady being presented with one for her count and as a souvenir.

Miss Catlin was assisted in keeping the

And as a souvenir.

Miss Catlin was assisted in keeping the tally of games by Miss Dundy, Miss Moore and Miss Loring.

The invited guests were: Mesdames Rustin. Boyd. Horbagh. Bourke. Brooke. Gilbert, Van Nostrand, R. C. Moore, Clinton Briggs, Cornish, Metceif, Barker. Lehmor, Congdon, Parker, Gallagher. McCoskell, Dickey, Wakely, Pratt, J. J. Brown, Green, Dietz, Swobe. Beunett, Cudaby, Colpetzer. DuBois, Esterbrook, Clowry of Chicago, Levi Carter, W. F. Allen, Lininger, Moneli, Mrs. J. J. Monell, Carrier, Remington, Yost, Morseman, Chase, Wheeler, Orr, Russell, Brall, Powell, A. C. Powell, Nickols, Windsor, Doherty, Lake, Burns, Asnton of Leavenworth, Arthur Wakeley, Cushing, Wallace, Thurston, Paxton, Cowin, Barkalow, Redick, Wood, Joseph Barker, Lacey, O. M. Carter, Hamilton, Cuming, Barton, Haller, G. L. Miller, Drabody, Poppielord, Rogers, Webster, arage, Meredeth. Demise, Morse, Yates, McCormick, Bishop, Coutant, B. B. Wood, Inc., Barkalow, Dundy, Jr., Baiche, Bierbower, Burt, Sharp, Hoagland, Mercer, Mrs. Dundy, Loring, the Misses Butterfield.

Eastern Star Social.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Atkinson entertained the order of the Eastern Star Friday evening at their residence, 529 North Twentythird street, but before the evening was over the members realized that the entertainment was really the celebration of the twentyfifth anniversary of their marriage. A very large number of costly presents were received from friends at home and abroad, which testified the regard of weil wishers for and Mrs. Atkinson's continued health and happiness.

The house was nicely decorated for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson showing a pleasant, discriminating taste in the manner f entertaining their brethren of the Eastern

These were present: Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Nason, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Coon, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mount, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Korty, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Merriam, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McEchron, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dailey, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. C. Allisco, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stoney, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rees, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rheem, Mr. and Mrs. H. Noville, Colonel and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Osterman, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, Mesdames Edholm, Alverson, Rice, Van Buran, Misses E. Anderson, Korty, J. Van Buran, Misses E. Anderson, Korty, J. Alverson, Aden, V. Alverson, Carson, Powell, the Misses Osgood, Captain Osgood, Messrs, Black, Peterson, Batterton, Halligan, V. White, Bamford, O'Brien and Playing High Five.

The "R. and V. or V. and R. High Five glub" met at the residence of L. H. Korty, 238 Poppleton avenue Tuesday evening. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. J. A.

ake, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Shuli, Mr. and 18. J. B. Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. approbe, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Shull, Mr. Will Dyball, Mrs. Dyball, Mrs. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. duston, Mr. and Mrs. Draper Smith, Mr. nung, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Nattinger, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rucom Miss Nellie Morse, Mrs. Paris and

Mr. Bryson, second by Mr. Dyball; first prize for ladies was won by Mrs. Manchester, second by Miss Fosdyke,

The rules for the government of the club are quite worth reproduction, being as fol-

i. The membership shall be limited to thirty-one persons, who shall be residents of the city of Omaha and naturalized citizens of the United States. No Irish or White Caps the city of Omaha and naturalized citizens of the United States. No Irish or White Caps need apply.

2. The neetings of the club shall be held at the houses of the members as designated by the president, secretary and treasurer, and on the control of the club shall be held at the houses of the members as designated by the president, secretary and treasurer, and on the president, secretary and treasurer, and on the president secretary and treasurer, and on the president secretary and treasurer, and on the past so clock and the play shall commence at S:15 and close at thirty-three minutes past so clock, unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors. The number of points in each game shall be 32. The players at any table making 39 points first shall announce the same by blowing a whistle, ringing a bell, blowing a horn, shooting off a revolver or cannon, or pounding the table, as the board of directors shall decide.

3. Play at all other tables shall stop when the signal announcing that 39 points have oven made, is given; and the players who have the greatest number of points shall advance to the next table and chance partners; the players remaining at the table shall also chance partners. In case of a tie the cards shall be cut by the two indies, high card winning, the ace being counted high card.

4. Each player shall be furnished with a card on which the number of games won by them shall be marked by a purch—by some one appointed by the board of directors for that purpose—and whose title shall have authority to appoint as many decuties as he or she may think proper, or as the board of directors may order.

5. The lady and gentlemen players winning or she may think proper, or as the board of directors may order.

5. The lady and gentlemen players winning the highest number of games shall receive a prize, and the lady and gentleman players winning the next highest number of games shall also receive a prize; all prizes to be furnished by the hostess. In case of a tie for first or second prize the players tied shall play or cut to decide the tie as they may elect. Any player los mg on a tie for the first prize is not entitled to the second prize.

6. The average of all players shall be kept throughout the series by the secretary, and the lady and gentleman players making the highest average shall each receive a prize, and the lady and gentleman making the next highest average shall also receive a prize. All ties on averages shall be decided as specified in rule 5. No player attending less than two-thirds of the meetings shall be digible to the prize for the best average play. The prizes for the highest average shall be furnished by the four gentlemen players making the lowest average.

7. The cost of the game prizes shall prize for the best average shall be furnished by the four gentlemen players making the lowest average.

7. The cost of the game prizes shall not exceed 50 cents for each article. The minimum cost of the average prizes shall be fixed by the board of directors; and the maximum cost shall not exceed the value of the real or personal property of the parties compelled to furnish them. No second mortgages will be accepted by the board of directors.

8. The refreshments shall be furnished by the Hostess, and shall consist of coffee and sindly chest, or such other articles as the board of directors may designate. Any violation of this rule will be punished by the club meeting at the house of the violator or violatress on the occasion of its next following session.

9. Linea napkins don't go with this club; paper wipes alone will be tolerated. The object of this rule is to protect the host from the hundilation of having to use up a large lot of napkins that are not quite soiled enough to wash and are too tired to use with confort.

19. All piaying and counting cards and the punch shall be furn shed by the club, and shall be in the custody of the secretary.

11. The does of the club shall be such as the board of directors may determine, and shall be paid on demand. An initiation fee of 50 cents shall be paid by each gentleman on demand of the treasurer, and no back talk.

12. Any player who cannot be present at a meeting must send his or her regrets to the hostess at least two days before the date of the meeting, so she can arrange for a substituter any one violating this rule shall be fined 50 cents, to be paid to the treasurer.

13. The scores of all substitutes shall not be counted in the xeneral average.

14. Immediately after the close of play ten minutes will be devoted to a disussion of hired girls.

15. Any member calling for more than three cups of coffee or eleven saniwheles ought to be ashamed of him or herself, and will be fined 50 cents on conviction.

16. The Host shall-furnish each gentleman, when leaving

The Dance of the Soldiers.

The Omaha Guard's armory presented a very gala appearance last Monday evening, being the regular monthly inspection drill. an informal dance was indulged in. The drill of the company did credit to the Omana Guards and the city of Omaha, arousing the patriotic feelings of all present. The Gatling gun section deserve great praise or their excellent work, it being the feature of the evening.

The committee on arrangements, Sergeant W. B. T. Belt. Corporal Frank J. Mirrow and Private M. Defkoberts, were unremitting in their efforts to make the party the most successful given by the Guards this

Among those present were the following and a great many more whose names it was impossible to ascertain: Mesdames Withers, and a great hand more winds a mass it was impossible to ascertain: Mesdames Withers, Burleigh, Belt, Demnie and Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, ex-Captain and Mrs. Mulford, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Will Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Will Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Will Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. A. G. Rose, Mr. E. Montgomery, Misses Kitty Morse, Standish, Ada Parker, Van Kuren, McKeown of Sioux City, Allen, Ketchum, Moore, Helen Smith, Manchester, Turner, Kate Donalson, Powell, Reed, Riley, Bridenbecker, Vincent, Foster, Carver, Witman, Anna Witman, Haskell, Aniabaugh, Burnes, Gilliland, Meyers, Powell, Duncan, Higgins of Cincinnati, Bauman, Church, Lund, Berne, Strang, Smith, Messrs, Joplin, A. Metz, A. Strang, Smith. Messrs, Joplin, A. Metz, A. Schmidt, Van Court, Dallas Bache, Wilber Schmidt, Van Court, Dallas Bache, Wilber Christian, Leo Strang, Gibbs, Wood, Lawrance, Gibbon, Smith, Barrett, Wesner, Templeton, F. Day, W. Metz, Allen, Beaton, Bridenbecker, Jay Boyd, Manville, Gould Dietz, Bert Downs, Mulvihill, Rhoades, Pumpelly, Knouse, Townsend, C. Montgomery, G. Montgomery, Graves, Captain Bamford, First Lieutenant Mulford, Second Lieutenant Faye, First Mulford, Second Lieutenant Foye, First Sergeant Wilson, First Sergeant Beit, First Sergeant Cone, First Sergeant Morrow, First Sergeant Markin, Quartermaster Hodgins, Corporal Goodman, Corporal Knapp, Corporal Weeks, Corporal Mills, Knapp, Corporal Weeks, Corporal Mills, Private Day, Miner, Murray, Squier, Conck-ling, Witman, Rose, Lund, Clofax, Stoutenborough, Palmatier, Bovelle, Elliott, Coos, DeRoberts, R. Burleigh, F. Burleigh, Mc-Cormick, Blair, Farnsworth, Ten Eyck,

The Sons of Veterans Social. One of the most enjoyable events of the passed week was the installation and social given by General George Crook camp, No. 1, Sons of Veterans, at the Grand Army hall last Monday evening.

At 8:30 o'clock the camp was called to order by Captain U. K. Jacobs, and the installing ceremonies were conducted by Cotonet Frank J. Coats, assisted by Attorney M. P. O'Brien.

The officers-elect for the ensuing year are C. M. Rawitzer, captain; Wirt Thompson, C. M. Rawitzer, captain; wirt Tabapson, first lieutenant; A. L. Foster, second lieutenant; and the camp council, C. E. Burmester, John Culton and J. L. Gidalon, After the officers were installed Attorney M. P. O'Brien made a rousing speech and presented Captain U. K. Jacobs with the iron captain badge, the Insigna for post captain.

cross badge, the insigna for post captain.

The hall was then cleared and the dancing began, Captain Rawitzer leading the grand nurch, followed by the other officers, accord-

Refreshments were served at 10:30 and dancing resumed until midnight. A large number of the Grand Army and woman's Relief corps were present and enjoyed themselves in a most eujoyable manner

The Sons of Omaha, Nearly the entire membership of the Sons of Omaha was represented at the third annual banquet of the organization given at the Omaha club on Friday evening. The ciub dining room was very tastefully deco-rated for the event.

Dr. George L. Miller, an honorary mem-ber of the organization, entertained the members with an interesting address filled niniacences of early days in Omaha and Nebraska.

The members present at the banquet were:
R. W. Patrick, Martin Kahn, C. D. Sutphen,
William G. Doane, M. C. Hamilton,
Augustus F. Kountze, Fred Metz, Jc. C. W.
Hamilton, G. Sam Rodgers, Oscar H. Pundt,
F. R. S. Parmetee, Luther M. Kuhns, Harry
T. McGrenick, G. Chatham Redgick, W. W. The first prize for gentlemen was won by T. McCormick, O. Chatham Redick, W.

Hoagiand, Arthur P. Guiou, J. E. Patrick, E. E. Sherwood, W. S. Poppieton, H. V. E. E. Sherwood, W. S. Poppleton, H. V. Burkley, Albert Kahn, Frank T. Hamilton, A. Clark Redick, Charles F. Beindorff, A. L. Roed, Curtis C. Torner, J. L. Lindsay, Joseph P. Frenzer, John N. Frenzer, George W. Pundt, Paul W. Kuhns, Bert, Wilkins,

Don B. Allen. A Silver Wedding Anniversary. From the Los Angeles Times of December s the following account of a silver wedding anniversary' is taken, many of those interested being former well known Omaha people

"The most notable society event of the past week occurred on Saturday evening at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Mc-Koon, corner of Grange and Kip streets, on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Fully 250 invitations were extended, but many were unable to accept on account of the prevalence of la grippe. Not-withstanding this the rooms were throughd with guests and scores of letters of regret and congratulations were received, many of them coming from Omata, the former home of Mr. and Mrs. McKoon.

The rooms were handsomely decorated the parlors hung with smilax, ferns and graceful pepper boughs studded with white roses. The cozy little study at the right of the hall was a charming nook with its artistic decorations in yellow, a network of smilax falling like a vell over the window The dining room was brilliant with scarlet blossoms in a setting of green.
Mr. and Mrs. McKoon were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. S. Hawyer, old Omaha friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Forrester, Mr. and Mrs. Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ross. The bride of twenty-five years on whose bright face time has lingered lightly, wore an elegant evening dress of duli bine, on traine, with meshes of soft lace about the trhoat.

During the evening the busy hum of conversation was hushed long enough to listen to a fine piane sole by Mrs. Hillman, a song by Mrs. H. L. Hawyer, whose glorious voice filled the house with melody, and a duet beautifully sung by Mmes. J. H. Book and W. H. Book and

W. H Bes J. Rev. R. S. Cantine, for five years the pastor of the host and hostess, was present and made one of his characteristic speeches full of pleasantry, at times eliciting peals of laughter from the guests as he referred to the rhyming tendencies of the groom, etc. Turning at length from this lighter vein, in a few earnest words he expressed on behalf of himself and the company gathered the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. McKoon are held. He concluded his remarks by uniting again in marriage the couple who for twenty five years have lived together in harmony introducing some extraordinary propositions decidedly in favor of the bride, who cheer-fully assented, but which met with mute remonstrance from the groom, who shook his head rather doubtfully.

In a side room were displayed the presents comprising a quantity of elegant silver nut baskets, fruit knives, card cases, napkin rings, vases, and everything in the way of useful and beautiful ware. Many gifts were from Omaha friends. A beautiful collection of Hawaiian Island ferns in a silver frame, gathered and pressed by a friend in Honolu-lu, and a piece of linen woven eighty-four years ago and etched by an aunt of the host 88 years old, wore valued gifts.

Refreshments were served from a handsomely laid table in the diningroom to the guests who were seated about the room, a coteric of pretty young girls, friends of Mr. and Mrs. McKoon, deftly serving the dileacies, all of which were prepared under the personal supervision of the hostess. The bride's cake was ornamented by a laider, on one round of which was inscribed in silvered letters, "25 years," and everyone echoed the wish that life's ladder might lengthen to the round above whereon should shine in gilded type the fifty years of the golden wedding day.

Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs.

Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Groff, Hon. and Mrs. John R. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Woodhead, Prof. and Mrs. Newkirk, Mrs. M. Dodsworth and Miss Dodsworth, Mrs. S. J. Dodsworth and Miss Dodsworth, Mrs. S. J.
Oliver, Mrs. G. R. Crow, Mrs. A. E. Pomery, Mrs. Gay and Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Chubb and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bosbyshell, Mr. and Mrs. Hawks, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murray,
Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vischer and daughter of Pasadena, Captain and Mrs. J. F. Cressey,
Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Smith, Mrs. Cushbert and son of Long Boach Mr. and Mrs. G. W. and son of Louis Beach, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lawrence, Dr. and Mrs. Urmy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Nettleton, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Book, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Wyman, Misses Lawrence, Nettleton, Maynard, Ross, the Misses Crow. Mae Forrester, the Misses Smith, Messrs. N. Merriam of Omaha, J. S. Ogi'vie, Horton, Stone, Matthewson and others.

A Pretty Wedding. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Conrad, 2516 Davenport street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, their daughter, Edith Belle, being united in marriage with Mr. Arthur M. Cowie. The house was artistically decorated for the happy occasion and the air was fragrant with the delicate perfume of roses, hyacinths and lilies. At 7:30 the bridal party entered the south parlor, Mr. Cowie with his best man, Mr. W. D. Townsend, followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church was performed by Rev. Mr. Lloyd, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, after which the congratulations of the assembly were showered upon the newly wedded couple. The bride, who is a handsome brunette, was gowned in a graceful and dainty costume of Nile green slik crepe with ostrich feather trimming and diamonds, and carried a cluster of bride's roses carelessly tied with white ribbons. At 8:39 the party repaired to the dining room, where a deligntful wedding supper was served. The long tables were prettily ornamented with maiden hair ferns and roses, and at the head stood a huge bride's cake, its snowy whiteness gleaming amid sprays of smilax and hyacinths. At the plate of each guest lay a toothsome souvenir daintily wrapped and tied with tiny white ribbons, which, according to a long established superstition, un-doubtedly settled the fate of more than one fair maiden present. Another superstition was recalled when the bride, standing at the head of the staircass, tossed her bouquet to the group below, the tell-tale roses being caught by Miss Sepple Standish. Conspicuous among the guests were seven young gentlemen, members of the Octagon club, each wearing a badge of mourning emblematic of their loss as a society, Mr. Cowie being the first to break "the tie that binds."

The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome and costly remembrances, among them being a set of spoons exquisitely engraved, from ex-Governor and Mrs. Alvin Saunders, after dinner coffee spoons from Mr. Charles L. Saunders, a beautiful antique oak chair, richly uphoistered, from the oak chair, richly uphoistered, from the Octagon club, and many other presents, both useful and ornamental. Those attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ryerson, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Merrow, the Misses Seppie Standish, Mac MacKewon, Grace McAllister, Julia Burkett, Jessie Powell, Myrta Evans, Messrs. Charles L. Saunders, W. G. Perfect, Fred Pearce, H. H. Rhodes, O. Epeneter, J. Clara, W. D. Townsend, W. H. Head, A. Luneberg, Mr. Lapsley, Ed Knapp, William Lampman, Mr. Standish, Louis F. Swift.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowie will continue to reside

Mr. and Mrs. Cowie will continue to reside in Omaha and will be at home to their friends at 2316 Davenport street after January 12.

News of the Garrison. The garrison has been unusually quiet since the holidays. Nothing in the way of entertainments whatever, except the Friday evening hop, has occurred since New Year's Lieutenant Colonel Park, who has just returned from a trip abroad, arrived yesterday with his wife and niece and are now the guests of General and Mrs. Wheaton.

General Whoaton is still east. He will visit his daughter, Mrs. Rowell, at Grove
City, Pa., before he returns to the post.

In Honor of Visiting Friends.

3007 Pacific street, in honor of her guests,

Miss Beile Fiyan of Rockford, Ill., Miss

Thursday evening Miss Cora Weaver,

Effic McIntyre of Hastings and Miss Naomi Weaver of Lincoln, gave a thoroughly pleasant high-five party.

The house, while not elaborately, was very prettily, decorated, the predominating colors being pink and yellow. Here and there pink and yellow tapers burned throughout the rooms, while Chinese lauterns added their many-hued brightness to a very tasteful scene. The individual cards were little pink and yellow hearts, and the counters were the same design, but mech larger.

Fifteen games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served. A pretty feature of the occasion were the little punch servers, Misses Alma Claffin and Mabei Boyd, who during the progress of the game served punch to the players.

The prizes for the gentlemen were: First prize, box of imported cigars, won by Mr.
Burt Downs; consolation brize, a silver pepper and sait box, won by Mr. Gyger; the booby prize was captured by Mr. H. Joplin.
The first prize for the ladjes was a silver sait

The first prize for the ladies was a silver sait bowi accompanied by a diminutive gold spoon, won by Miss Ada Parker, and the consolation, a large desert spoon, was awarded to Miss Churchill.

The following guests enjoyed the hospitality of the charming hostess: Mesdames Day, Dr. Campbell and Claffin, Misses Hart-Day, Dr. Campbell and Claffin, Misses Hart-man, Mills, Margaret Moore, Churchill, Hig-gins, Naomi Weaver, Lincoln, Alroe and Ada Parker, Helen Smith, Cleaver, Butts, Dollie Balley, Louise Johnson, Nettie John-son, Williams, Leila Alexander, Georgie Sharp, Grace Slaughter, Burns, Effie Moin-tyre of Hastings, Belle Flynn of Rockford, Ill., Zetta Churchillt, Mosars, Oscar Good-man Harry Nott, Chartes George, Clarence Ill., Zetta Churchill; Mesars, Oscar Good-man, Harry Nott, Charies George, Clarence Brown, E. McMahon, A. E. Hutchinson, Burt Downs, Fred McCormick, Joe Joplin, F. H. McCov, Will Clarke, Day, Barrett, Ike Fosbenuer, Louis Dale, Gould Dietz, J. M. Campbell, Ward Burgess, Hugh Joplin, Ed. Gyger, J. W. Robbins, Will Johnson of Lin-

A Leap Year Party. A very enjoyable and at the same time ex clusive solree dausante was held at Metropolitan hall Friday evening, the ladies tendering the party to their gentlemen friends. Mrs Carl Dunmire and Mrs. A. T. Stewart were the prime movers in arranging for the event, which was pleasant in every particu-Fourteen numbers and four extras were lanced, the Musical Union orchestra furnishing the music for the occasion. The guests were received by Mesdames Car! Dunmire and A. T. Stewart, Misses Jessie Powell and Mabel Smith.

Miss Esmond was prettily gowned in cream with lace, decollete, menrietta trimmed gloves and slippers to match.

Miss Ella Eswond appeared in a new shade of cardinal henrietta cloth, trimmed with Mrs. John Waite wore a pretty cinnamon brown crepe.

Miss Wright, red henrietta trimmed with a dark shade of velvet, gloves and slippers to Mrs. Stewart wore a very smart maizeolored henrietta, trimmed with black lace Mrs. Hough wore a heliotrope silk, cut square, with crope waist.

Mrs. Dunmire graced a pretty French gray henrietta, with gray net and pink rib-Miss Jessie Powell was very handsome in black lace with corsage bouquet of illies of the valley. Mrs. Arthur Cowie, a blushing bride, wore becoming gown of black silk and red roses. Mrs. William Bell graced an imported brown embroidered suit en traine. Mrs. John Epenster, dark red silk with red fish net. Among those present were: Mrs. James Forsyth and Mr. Coughlan, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. John McVickar, Mrs. John White and Mr. Clark Forsyth, Miss Lena Peacock and Mr. Charies Forsyth, Miss Lena Peacock and Mr. Charies Forsyth, Miss Elien Esmond and Mr. John White,

Miss Mary Esmond and Mr. John White,
Miss Mary Esmond and Mr. Denny, Miss
Ceita Carlos and Mr. Charles Breck, Mrs.
William Gyger and Mr. Shank, Miss Jessie Powell and Mr. William Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fahs, Miss Wright and Mr.
Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. Grezory, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hough, Miss Prudence Pearman and Mr. Charles Dunham, Miss
Mabel Smith and Mr. Bert Griffith,
Miss Hortense Smith and Mr. Griffith, Miss
Vincent and Mr. Robee, Miss Featherstone Miss Hortense Smith and Mr. Griffith, Miss Vincent and Mr. Robee, Miss Featherstone and Mr. Cheney, Miss Frances Gyger and Mr. Cheney, Miss Frances Gyger and Mr. Gav Bittenger, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cowie, Miss McAllister of Grand Island and Mr. Conrad, Miss Evans and Mr. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelley, Miss Kamp and Mr. Meanors, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dunmire, Miss Goldsmith and Mr. Frank Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith and Mr. Frank Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Shriver, Mr. and Mrs. John Epeneter, Mrs. Williams and Mr. Harry McCloon, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hull. Mrs. F. P. Hull

Tie Starlight Club. Monday evening the Starlight Social club ndered a reception at the residence of and Mrs. H. B. Kennedy to their daughter, Miss Ina Kennedy, and her cousin, Miss L Sims, which was the finest they had ever given. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens, smilax and ferns, and ribbon streamers. High-five occupied the first part of the evening and dancing the latter part. Some very delightful violin solos were also given by Mr. A. Clark.

Miss Lillie Sims were a costume of pale blue with a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Ina Kennedy looked charming in gown of pink crepe dechene and sitk faille with hyacinths. Mrs. Kennedy wore a becoming gown o ashes of roses on traine, with diamonds. Miss Tyson wore a full dress costume of black silk.

Miss Gloscuth wore a becoming gown of black and red silk. Miss Page were a beautiful gown of scaret gauze and chiffon. Miss P. Reese was becomingly attired in a suit of cream with hyacinths.

Miss Hutchinson wore a dainty costume of pink china silk.
Miss Clark wore a handsome gown of cream silk with flowers.

Miss Nelson was attired in a gown of pearl.

Mrs. Dixon were a gown of black Bedford cord with jets. Among those present were the Misses P.
Reese, M. Marley, R. Patrick, F. Groscurth,
S. Tyson, L. Hutchinson, F. Winters, E.
Culbert, B. Ellingwood, S. Winters, E.
Bassett, M. Nelson, M. Johnson, E. Rosenberg, A. Siatter, J. Finnagan, J. Clark, M.
Patrick, M. Beck, P. Page, M. Fitzpatrick,
P. Mosley, B. Hyatt, M. Davis,
J. McWilliams, K. Clark, K. Marnell, D.
Biendorff, Mrs. A. Clark, Mrs. Divson, and
the Messrs, O. Blendorff, G. M. Southmayd, W. H. Means, E. Fisher, T. F. Flakerty, J.
C. Lang, W. E. Sloane, W. Hanson, F.
Evans, R. M. Burnell, B. Hansy, J. C. Godington, D. Corte, A. Kelpin, T. Kelley, B.
Miller, J. Little, W. D. Divson, W. Pixley,
J. O. Goodsell, H. Muenterfering, E. Fitzpatrick, F. Morford, F. Ryan, Kelley,
Carrol, F. Kinney, J. Ochenbein, Kennaedy,
Clark, Club members present were H. A. Among those present were the Misses P.

Clark, Club members present were H. A. Stephens, A. Longprey, C. E. Porterfield, E. Marnell, C. T. Butler. A Quiet but Pretty Wedding.

The wedding of Mr. Jesse Lowe and Miss Altie Ruggles Pratt was celebrated on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. E. Pratt, in the presence of their nearest friends, the ceremony being conducted by Rev. F. S. Blayney of Abilene, Kan. The house was darkened and enchantingly decorated with roses and palms. At the appointed hour the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," beautifully rendered by the most intimate friends of the bride, heralded the appearance of the bride and groom. The bride was tastefully attired in a modest traveling costume, and carried a lovely bou-quet of bride roses.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and At the conclusion of the ceremony and after many warm congratulations an elegant luncheon was served previous to the departure of the newly weighed couple, who, after a stay in New York and the east, will be at home in Denver February !

Numerous and costly gifts were received from friends who had become appraised of the auspicious occasion.

Auong those who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. George B. Christle of New York, Mr. Victor Spangberg of Denver, Mr. Stuart H. Brown of Chicago and Mr. Alfred P. Maclay of Savannah, Ili.

The Chief Plays High Five. Tuesday evening Chief and Mrs. W. S. Seavey gave a thoroughly enjoyable high five party to a number of their friends at their residence, 1514 North Twenty-second street. The house was pleasantly decorated for the occasion and the games were lively to a degree. After the game was suded pleasing refreshments were served to the following guests who were present: Mr. and Mrs. Noel Abbott. Dr. and Mrs. Gapeu. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gliek. Mr. and Mrs. Hyan, Mr. and Mrs. Honming, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Deoley, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dooley, Mr. E. J. Davis.

Miss Luiu Davis, Miss Tanie Snowden, Mr. Snyder, Others invited who had other engagements (notice being so short) were, Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Bender, Mr. T. J. Mahoney, Miss Mame Fitch, Mr. Carl Smith and Mr. McGrew.

Events of the Week. Mrs. E. A. Cudahy will give on Thursday afternoon a lun seen followed by high-five. Mrs. G. I. Gilbert announces a kensington for next Saturday in bonor of Mrs. Emma Herman Thayer of Salido, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Weels have issued invitations for a card party for Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Reese. The Metropolitan club will give the opening party in their new club house Saturday

Mrs. C. E. Yost, a kersington tea Tuesday The Ladies Musical society meets at Elizabeth place on Wednesday afternoon.

Friday evening the Elix will give their first ladies' social at the club rooms, and dancing at 8:30 p. m.

Minor Mention. Mr. Charles Kountze left for Yaie Monday

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blair have removed to 1910 Capitol avenue. Stuart Havden left yesterday on the Bur-ington for New York.

Mrs. Russell Harrison anticipates leaving on Wednesday for Washington. Mrs. W. J. Burgess, wife of the manager of the Farman Street theater, is quite ill with la grippe.

Miss Ijams has gone to Chicago to engage n business with a lady friend and will do lecorative work. Mr. Adolph Rosenthal, recently from hina, visited his brother, Mr. B. Rosenthal, and left for the east vesterday. Mr. Joseph Garneau had about 100 of his men friends at his home on Friday evening, cards being the chief amusement. Mrs. S. Rosenthal, who was on a visit here to her daughter, Mrs. A. Mandelburg, left for her home in Baltimore vesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burns, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Nellie Burns East-man, returned from Chicago yesterday. Mrs. H. W. Yates accompanied her daugh ter Jentie as far as Chicago last week, on the latter's return to her school in Philadelphia

The Elas will give their first ladies' social of the season Friday evening of this week in their rooms in the Continental building Dancing at 8:30 o'clock. The officers of Union Pacific council, Royal Arcanum, will be installed Monday evening at their rooms in the Continental block by District Deputy Regent J. W. Maynard, Miss Mills, who spent a few days with Miss Orchard, left Monday for Cedar Rapids, where she will visit Miss Hama prior to returning to her home in Des Moines. Miss McClintock who has been visiting Lieutenant and Mcs. Brooke at Fort Sidney, left Saturday for Fort Russell, where she will be the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs.

A quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. Charles Melins last evening. Mr. Rob-ert H. Willis, R. P. I., class of '91, of Omaha, Neb., carried away with him to his western home Miss Carrie Lee Melius,—Albany (N. Y.) Journai, December 31.

Mrs. A. D. Brandeis returned from a two months' visit to Detroit and accompanied her husband vesterdey on a month's visit to Florida. She will spend the balance of the winter in New York City.
Mr. George Hobbie and family left last

Mc George Roome and Talling left last.
Wednesday for Chicago, which city they will make their future bome. Master Ray will remain for the present in Omaha, making his home with Dr. Tilden's family, whose son has always been his friend and comrade.

BEE Reader-Mrs. Frank Leslie married a short time ago Mr. William K. C. Wilde, a brother of Oscar Wilde, and for several years an editorial writer on the London Times. Mrs. Leslie lectured through the west some years ago, but the subject we do not now re The wedding of Mr. Frank Poque, cashier of the local freight office of the Union Pacific, and Miss Cora Louise Goodwin was solemn ized at St. Barnabas church. Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Boque will be home at 2628 Charles street Thursdays after February 1. Mrs. Muentefering, Mrs. Cahn, Mrs.

Cotton and Mr. Cahn will repeat the same program at the residence of Miss Poppleton Wednesday afternoon for the benefit of the Laties Musical society which thoy gave on St. Sylvester's night at the Muentefering Mrs. Henry Hiller on Thursday afternoon entertained in the neighborhood of thirty lady friends at her home, 2017 Leavenworth street, the occasion being the twelfth anni-versary of her marriage. The afternoon was spent at chat and high five and ended with a Mr and Mrs. Wessels entertained at cards Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wakeley Mr. and Mrs. Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Mors an, Mr. and Mrs. Cowin, Mr. and Mrs. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Dean Gardner. Miss Eva Manchester entertained a few Miss Eya Manchester entertained a few friends at high-live Friday evening. Those present were: Misses McKewan of Sioux City, Standish, Thomas, McDonaid, Mc-Ausland: Messrs, Vanbechan of Salt Lake, Graves, Warrick, Shoemaker, Beaton, Dale. The prizes were won by Miss sickewan and Mr. Shoemaker.

Mr. E. E. Whitmore left Thursday morn ing for San Antonio, Tex., where he will spend a fortnight, later crossing into Mexico, where he hopes to regain health and vigor, and this wish will find an ecbo in the hearts of Whit's friends who hope to have him back in their midst thoroughly recovered by the time spring comes around.

The Misses Wallace entertained at luncheon Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Beckwith, when the table decorations were all white and blue. Those present were Miss Beckwith, Miss Nash, Miss Rawles, Miss Chambers, Miss Brown, Miss Clara Hawley, Miss Mary Hawley, Miss Jessie Millard, Miss Barber and Miss Stan-

Prof. William Lighton, a musical instructor and composer of some note, has lately taken up his residence in Omaha, and will make it his permanent home and will shortly organ ize classes for the piano. The professor is also an ardent microscopist and is recognized as an authority in that branch of science He will will be a valuable acquisition to the musical and scientific circles of the city.

Mrs. M. G. Cole and Mrs. Charles Squires gave a delightful 5 o'clock tea on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Leveland of Dakota, a former resident of Omaha. Eighteen ladies of the First Congregational old time church working commutee gathered at the round table and udited their voices in praises of the delicious tea, the beautiful china and exqui-site embroidery decorated and stitched by the hostess.

The members of the Social Hour club were pleasantly entertained Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Allen at their resi-dence, 2019 Webster street. The prizes were carried off by Mrs. M. Jones and Mr. B. F. Masters, both being panel pictures of pansies in water colors. The members present were Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lyon and Mrs. A. Traynor.

The marriage of Colonel Thomas Parker, and Mrs. Madeline Dysart of Omaha. celebrated a few days ago at the home of the bride in Hyde park, was an agreeable sur-prise to their large circle of friends. The wedding was strictly private. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter H. Moore. Those present included the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Symonds. Colonel and Mrs. Parker will reside at 516 West Moore. street.-Chicago Saturday Evening Heraid. Quite an unusual number of ladies ex-changed greetings and enjoyed "tea" with the members of the Ladies' auxiliary on Friday afternoon last in the crypt of Trinity cathedrai. Music was a delightful inno-vation the early part of the afternoon, both instrumental and vocal, songs being rendered by Mrs. Wessels, Miss Barker and Miss by Mrs. Wessels, Miss Barker and Miss Williams, choice plane selections by several members of the auxiliary. Later in the afternoon the room was quite filled with ladies, a number from other churches having dropped in. Tea, coffee and conversation became so very general and enjoyable that enoir practice time came and found the ladies very loth to part.

Mr. Thomas M. Crane of the law firm of Bartlett, Baidridge & Crane, gave a delightful 5 o'clock dinner to some of his gentlemen friends on Wednesday at his beautiful residence, 1502 South Thirty-third street, the occasion being the gentleman's birthday, and in the evening a unsicale and high five party. Time present were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Nat-tinger, Miss Jonnie Pair, Mr. and Mrs. Baldridge, Mrs. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Allen, Mr. Bert Crane, the Mossrs. Law of Chicago, Mr. C. E. Bancock, Mr. Ernest

The following were the guests at a delight-The following were the guests at a delight ful kensington tea given by Mrs. Caspar E. Yost on Thursday afternoon: Mrs. J. J. Brown, Mrs. Poppleton, Mrs. Creich, Mrs. W. F. Allen, Mrs. H. P. Allen, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. R. R. Ringwalt, Mrs. Peririne, Mrs. Howard Smith, Mrs. Watson Smith, Mrs. Connell, Mrs. Charles Green, Mrs. Catlin, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Holdrege, Mrs. S. R. Brown, Mrs. Pritchatt, Mrs. Morsman, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Pinney, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Sprague, Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Saunders, A very pleasant, Mrs. Vear. Supplied Wats.

A very pleasant leap year surprise was that given on Mr. Thomas Coory by his lady friends, Wednesday evening last, at his home, 2206 Emmett street, Kountze place. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing cards, music and dancing. Those present were Misses Maggie Ritey, Rose Brady, Neille Nestlebush, Maggie Mc Carthy, Kale Nestlebush, M. Harkens, M. Carthy, Kale Nestibush, M. Harkens, M. Costello, Mabel Inhichen, D. Nestlebush, Jennie Finnagan, Kate Reagan, Minnie Brennan and Mary Roagan, and Messrs, W. McGinnis, C. Dugdale, J. Riley, J. Reagan, C. Haya, W. Cobry, D. Brady, J. Kirk, J. Flanagan, J. Cobry, F. Ribak, J. Morrissey, W. McDougal, J. Martin, Ton Cobry.

Wednesday evening was the ninth birth-day of Master Alonzo Thompson, jr., and the occasion was combrated at the home of Hon. Alonzo Thompson at 1031 South Thirtieth avenue in a unique and novel manner. In the center of a silver laid table in the dining room was placed a big cake studded with name lighted waxen tapers graduated from the tiny midget just showing the light to the brilliant larger size, showing the years of the child's growth and increasing brightness to his fond parents. He is an only son and cherished beyond all else. The little ladies were in nice wraps and protty dresses and the boys were in gay clothes. Their games and plays filled the halls and house with and plays filed the halfs and house with merry shouts of childish glee. Eqn bons, fruits, sweet meats and ices were served, and the little folks dispersed feeling that they had indeed enjoyed a rare and happy even-Personal friends in Omaha have received ards announcing the marriage of Edward jardner Patterson and Annie Doremus Schrotor, at Denver, Friday, January 1. Mr. Patterson is now the city ticket agent of the Union Pacific at Denver and is a rising and opular young railroad man. He began his uccessful railway career as a clora in the flice of the auditor of passenger accounts in office of the auditor of passenger accounts in this city about twelve years ago. He is a nephew of C.S. Stebbins, formarly general ticket agent of the Union Pacific, and of George P. Stebbins, the assistant superin-tendent of the Pacific Express company. As chief clerk in the general ticket office at Den-ver, traveling agent at Portland, and in sev-eral other important railway positions, he has shown himself to possess those qualities which bring success in his business. He will have the warmest congratulations of iosts of friends in Omaha.

AMUSEMENTS BOYD'S Theater. Seventeenth and Harney Streets, ONE NIGHT ONLY.

SUNDAY, JAN'Y 10 THE FASHIONABLE EVENT. Carnival of Magic. A Flow of Mirth. A Front of Mystery.
STROBEIRA. BLACK ART. THE GREAT

HERRMANN. Vanishing LADY. LEGERDEMAIN.
An Elaborate Program of MYSTIC NOVELATIES. Prices as usual. Scals on sale Saturda moraling.

Grand Opera House. TONIGHT. - - TONIGHT. Grand Hustration of Spiritualism by

NELLIE LESLIE

EDEN MUSEE.

Week Commencing Manday, Jan. 11th, ONE WEEK ONLY.

KRAO

The bull-way point in the evolution of man from ps. The wonder of scientists. Behold the flying onlimition of the Darwinian theory.

Bright Light Comedy Co.

THEATRE NO. 2. IOHNSON'S ALL STAR CO. ADMISSION ONE DIME. Ocea I to 10 p. m. dully

Michael -:- Angelo PAINTING

Room 109 Bee Building Beginning Tomorrow. ADMISSION 25 CENTS. 10 to 4, 6 to 9 p. m.

STREET THEATRE.

 Popular Prices.

Once More the Leader Shows the Way. The Peff x of Regal Rome, The Heroic Di-grama of the Co den Age. Enchanting Visions, Classic Masterpi c.s. Lilly Clay's

GaietyCompany

Stamped with the broad scal of appr vil from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the British Possessions

ROWER OF BEAUTY.

-DON JOSE. The Sensational Burlesque (in

FIVE NIGHTS, COMMENCING --WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13

VEWTON BEERS

Beautiful Emotional Actress. JESSIE LEE RANDOLPH

Magnificent New Scenery Used in This Production.

Saturday Matinee, Tennyson's Beautiful Romance, ENOCH ARDEN!

COMING THEATRE.

One Night Only.

Sunday Night, Jan. 17th.

NEW

You'll Like It

NEXT SUNDAY.

RICH & HARRIS

Comedy Co.

BOYS AND GIRI

THE BOYS GEORGE F. MARION. IGNATIO MARTINETTI, WM, B. WOOD, FRANK SHEPARD, OTIS HARLAS, JIS. J. STURGIS. JUSEPH MITCHEL.

MAY IRWIN,
FLO IRBIN,
RIANGIE M. HOWARD.

RIANGIE M. HOWARD.

LAUGH J. HU-SELL.

NELLIE F. PARKER.

RITGERINE BRANCE

ROXY HILLES.

NEW AND ORIGINAL MUSIC.

ARE YOU HARDER

Assisted by Dr. Walte, Harry H. Walte, at it has Baby Medium Robbie. Myriads of live pless Box sheet open Friday

THE MISSING LINK

THEATRE NO. 1:

A GENUINE

'Christ Bearing the Cross.

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Jan. 10, 11, 12, at 8:15 p. m. MATINEES, SUNDAY AND WEDNESDAY, 2:30 P. M.

40 ARTISTS, 40

to South America. Presenting the Musical Soirce Grand Realistic Bull Fight presented in the Gorgeous Eurlesque.

N w Dress)-ROHN HOOD.

PARNAM STREET THEATER

Special Engagement of the Distinguished Actor

-In His Masterpiece of Melodrama.