

MAY MEAN WAR THIS TIME.

Chili Requests Permission to Submit an Entirely New Proposition.

HOW THE YORKTOWN RUMOR STARTED.

Torpedo Boats, Drilling, Manoeuvred Close to the American Cruiser—Yorktown Has Sailed From Valparaiso—Summary of the Situation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Chili was this time to make a proposition to the United States...

When the proposition is made it may be interpreted by the United States as warlike...

What Chili Has to Say. Up to this evening Minister Montt had not received his instructions...

It remains to be seen whether the representation made to the minister in Santiago will be carried out...

Discussing the Situation. It is not to be seen whether the representation made to the minister in Santiago will be carried out...

Not Materially Changed. There seemed to be but little idea that the developments from Chili would cause any change in the position of the United States...

Peaceful Indications. While the cabinet as a body did not assemble for deliberation today the joint presence of Secretaries Blaine, Elkins and Tracy at the white house this afternoon bore a strong resemblance to a meeting of the cabinet...

NO TROUBLE APPREHENDED. Chili's President Thinks the Dispute Will Soon Be Amicably Adjusted.

VALPARAISO, Chili (via Galveston, Tex.), Jan. 20.—[By Mexican Cable to THE BEE.]—The Herald can state positively that President Montt yesterday told an official high in the Chilean service that there was not the slightest doubt but what all matters at present in dispute between the United States and Chili would be amicably settled within a short time...

It is a deliberate lie that the Yorktown torpedo boats were practicing in Valparaiso bay without torpedoes, only spars being used.

One of the boats chanced to get near the Yorktown and about thirty meters away steamed around. That was absolutely all the foundation there was to the report.

Commander Evans, happening to be ashore shortly after this took place, talked a good deal about it to our officials here, and notably to Consul McCreery and Lieutenant Harlow...

Other Chilean officers are usually at a loss to understand why such a manoeuvre should have been deemed provocative of ill feeling.

The Chilean ships Esmeralda, Huascar and Cochrane, and two torpedo boats have sailed on a practice cruise. They will go first to Quintero bay and then to Talcahuano.

The ships are under command of the sailing master and will endeavor to obtain recruits.

None Wants to Fight. The sentiment of all classes of the Chilean people, as far as I can discover, is in favor of amicable relations with the United States.

They are anxious to avoid war. Despite statements to the contrary, the people are all and believe that the matters in dispute between the two countries are settled in accordance with the terms and conditions suggested in the Herald.

It must be considered that while the Baltimore case has dragged slowly along the procedure is only in accord with the customs of Spanish countries. In addition to this, the permanent government, which plots the just now of excitement, has only been established since January 1, 1892.

Then again, Señor Matta's conduct in his recent visit to the United States is to be remembered as bringing about complications in the new cabinet, which even now is not by any means working harmoniously.

Before war can be declared with any show of justness domestic demands must be made by the United States, and I am given to understand through Chilean official sources here that nothing of the kind has yet been made by the American government.

Highly Colored Reports. As I have intimated you, these warlike reports are, in my opinion, sent out from this country by persons who seem anxious to bring about serious trouble between Chili and the United States.

These dispatches are invariably colored and in many instances are sent with the connivance of those who wish to profit on exchange.

HE WAS DETERMINED TO DIE.

Arthur Wingert of Bennett, Ia., Ends His Life in Chicago.

DELIBERATELY TURNED ON THE GAS.

All the Cracks in the Suicide's Room Were Found to Have Been Arranged to Prevent the Escape of the Deadly Fumes.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Arthur A. Wingert was found dead in a room at the Stafford hotel, corner of Van Buren street and Pacific avenue, this morning.

Wingert went to the hotel last night and registered on Block 25. His name was assigned to a rooming house. This morning about 9:30 o'clock the chambermaid found gas escaping from the room occupied by Wingert and notified the clerk.

The door of the room was forced open and Wingert was found lying on the bed—dead. He had on his trousers, shirt and stockings, and his legs were partially covered with blood.

Death had resulted from asphyxiation, and from all the circumstances it appeared to be a case of suicide. The deceased was about 35 years of age, of medium height, and of a fair complexion. The body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held.

They Will Purchase Their Lands. FORT DOUGLAS, Ia., Jan. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Scores of river land settlers who were deprived of the last shadow of title to their homes by the recent United States supreme court decision, are now making efforts to purchase their farms.

The office of the agent of the Litchfield, who hold the legal title to the lands, is besieged daily by settlers anxious to buy. The agent announces that a schedule of prices, ranging from $20 to $25 an acre, will be fixed, the settlers to give the agent a check for the amount.

Two years ago half that amount would have bought the land. Jacob Cronz, one of the most well-to-do of the settlers, says: "I know how I feel."

He is negotiating for the purchase of his land. Present indications are that the Winchester rifles recently scattered about among the settlers will not be used and those who do not buy will give up their homes peacefully.

But they will not give up their homes without a fight. They are determined to buy their lands at a price which will not be less than the value of the land.

STRIKES FROM THE SHOULDER.

A Young Woman Whose Pist is a Terror to Tormentors.

A TRAMP PRINTER'S RECORD.

Experience of a Globe Trotter and His Fellow-Travelers.

In the ranks of the tramp printer no more adventurous careers are known than that of globe trotter Robert M. Smythe.

When San Francisco became monotonous young Smythe drew on his bank account and boarded a sailing vessel for the Sandwich Islands.

Every city in the erstwhile empire of Maximilian had a case ready for the young adventurer, but he set up last week's telegraph on the sluggish Mexican dailies until the plating of novelty had worn away.
