WILL NOT HOLD WATER NOW N. B. FALCONER. Famous Union Pacific-Northwestern Traffic Compact Ready to be Dissolved.

BOTH PARTIES IGNORE THE CONTRACT.

While the Union Pacific Feeds the Missouri

Pacific the Northwestern Helps Out the Sania Fe - "Maple Leaf" Plans:

"Of course the officers of the Union Pacific and the Northwestern systems deny that there has been any break in their traffic agreement," said a responsible railroad man yesterday, "but there are plenty of evidences that it is not being lived up to, and among the fraternity it is thought an open rupture is merely a matter of time.

"For example, the Union Pacific has brought to Omaba a number of consignments from Colorado billed for Chicago, but instead of turning them over to the Northwestern at of turning them over to the Northwestern at this point they have been sent over the Mis-souri Pacific to Kansas City and thence to Chicago. Of course that is an un-natural and round about route, but it is done to help out day Gould's southern system. The rate from Omaha to Chicago by way of Kansas City is the same as by a di-ent south or one on the flow lines, but rect route over one of the Iowa lines, but under the Gould scheme the Missouri Pacific gets 40 per cent of the freight charge and the

"In one case a snipment originated at Pueblo and it might have been carded direct to Kansas City by the Kansas division of the to Kansas city by the Kansas division of the Union Pacific, but that would have left the Missouri Pacific ont in the cold. S. H. H. Clark is thoroughly wedded to the Missouri Pacific, and the agreement with the North-western will not stand in the way of divert-"Railroad men have cause to think the agreement between the Union Pacific and the Northwestern is not very oliding," said another gentleman who has been closely watching the current of events, "and they look for a break almost any time. It is gen-erally known that the Union Pacific has di-verted east-bound traffic from its ally, and the Northwestern seems to be returning the compliment. "At the time that agreement was made the Northwestern had a traffic arrangement with the Santa Fe by way of Superior, in south-ern Nebraska, for California business, but it at once arbitrarily set aside that arrange-ment. Several months since it agreed to restore the joint rates by way of Superior and "Under the much talked of compact the Northwestern for a long time turned over to the Union Pacific a large amount of lumber bound for Colorado points. It was carried by a Northwestern line from Minneapolis and delivered to its connection at Norfolk, Neb. Some time ago the Northwestern people dis covered that they could make a few cents more per hundred by extending the haul to Superior over their Elkhorn line, and a lot of that traffic has thus been diverted from the Union Pacific to the Santa Fe."

How to Increase Immigration.

Assistant General Ticket Agent Smith of the B. & M. railroad, has called THE BEE's attention to the work his department is doing to induce immigration into Nebraska. He says that Mr. Francis, general ticket and passenger agent, has addressed the following note to the editors throughout the state: While it is true that the vacant lands of the west are being rapidly taken up, and that Nebraska during the last decade shows an yet remains west of the Missouri river a vast demain awaiting the hand of the husband-man. At a very modest estimate, the unimproved or vacant lands west of the Missouri river, in localities traversed by the B. & M. railroad, would make 100,000 farms of 160 acres each. While other states have an organized immi-gration bureau backed by liberal appropria-tions, Nebraska has relied entirely on private efforts to place her advantages before the The question may very well be asked, is it not possible for the press, with but little effort and practically no expense, to ma-terially aid in soreading information regard-be the mast expense. people of the east, ing the west among eastern people! Will Build to Omaha.

About a year ago the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City railroad had its plans made for a line giving it an eutrance into Omaha, but the depression in financial circles compelled the temporary abandonment of the project. General Manager Egan now states that the arrangements have all been made for carrying out the long deferred enterprise.

The plan is to build to Omaha from a point on the present line near Des Moines, though it is possible the Humeston & Shenundoah or the Omaha & St. Louis will be bought for a part of the new line.

Mr. Egan says the "Maple Leaf" will buy the Chicago & Great Western to give it an entrance of its own into Chicago, and also a line west of the Missouri that penetrates both Kansas and Neoraska. He refuses to name the latter.

When interviewed on the project for an Omaba line by a BEE reporter a year ago Mr. Egan declared very emphatically: "To with a railroad west of the Missouri. I wouldn't give a cent a mile for one." He seems to have changed his mind. He states that the money for these two projects has been secured and that they will make one of the biggest railroad deals in the west. The "Maple Leaf" has had a sensawest. The "Maple Lear has had a sensa-tional career. President Stickney took a detached piece of road in Iowa known as the "Diagonal," beginning at nownere and ending in the woods, and one morning the railroad world awoke to find that by a series of lightning combinations he had organized an extended system with lines connecting Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City.
