Quarrelling Officials Finally Get Together—New Plans for the Exposition and the Comfort of Guests—Fare City Gossip.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE BEE.

It is said the Whisky trust has come to the conclusion that it cannot fight the big whisky houses and the government, too, and has decided to attempt to absorb them all. The trust figures that this will only require doubling the present capital of the concern, which is $50,000,000.

President Greenhut laughed today when shown the story of the alleged intention on the part of the trust to absorb the distilleries by the increased capitalization plan. "It's all moonshine," he said.

District Attorney Mitchell will leave for Washington tomorrow to confer with the officials of the Department of Justice regarding the prospective prosecution of the trust.

Peace has again taken up her abode in the World's Fair. The conference between President Baker, Director General Davis and the committee on rules, it was decided that Davis should retain supervision over the exhibit devoted to him by Baker.

Public comfort at reasonable rates is the object of a gigantic bureau organized to take care of visitors to the fair. This organization is the World's Fair Hotel and Boarding Bureau, incorporated with a capital stock of $300,000 and backed by men of responsibility.

Mr. John Hicks, United States minister at Lima, Peru, writes the department of state affairs that there is an unusual activity on the part of shipping agents connected with the South American trade.

A morning paper, which has been making a vast amount of statements through its correspondents as to the attitude on the republican nomination for governor next spring, announces as a result that Fisher is in the lead.
