

THE OMAHA BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE: - NO. 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier to any part of the city. H. W. TILTON, MANAGER.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS. Hon. W. H. Ware Declares the Fate of Prohibition in Doubt. LITTLE WORK DONE ON THE SUBJECT. Iowa Legislators Have Been Getting Acquainted Thus Far, But the Storm is Beginning to Gather and Will Break Early.

his wife, of whom he had lost all track. He stated that she had been visiting with her brother, Jerry Lannan, who lives at the corner of Sixteenth and Avenue C, for the last two weeks, and that he had seen her during the afternoon and made arrangements to meet her at the Rock Island depot and take her to the Rock Island depot. She did not show up at the appointed time, although her sister-in-law claimed to have put her safely aboard the motor in plenty of time for the train. Mr. Holman telephoned to Underwood, but nothing had been seen of her at that end of the line, and he was very certain that she could not have gotten on board the train anyway without his seeing her. His anxiety knew no bounds, but up to 11 o'clock nothing had occurred to allay his fears.

company, Mahaska district, affirmed. L. W. Clark vs. J. M. Raymond, et al, appellants, Harrison district, reversed. ON THE WAR PATH. Sixth Warders Meet and Bitterly Denounce a Lot of People. The Sixth Ward Republican club had a high time Friday night and indulged in vocal fireworks to their hearts content. President Messick announced that the meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the proposed action of the city administration with reference to the consolidation of appointive offices.

MAKE A MIRACLE. Mrs. Frank Waiters, Residing at 2507 Patrick Avenue, St. Peter's Relief Through the Successful Treatment of Drs. Copeland, Shepard and Mansfield. My disease had been in my system for a long while, would take hold of my head and would stop up and feel heavy and when I only paid slight attention to the matter, it would grow so much worse that it caused me serious trouble and I made rapid strides and kept me in a constant pain and misery.

for all our disagreeable symptoms have disappeared. Her Hearing Restored. "I had constant ringing in my ears and the droppings from the back of my throat kept me always distressed. Every time I tried to swallow, it would come out of my mouth and I was obliged to spit it out. I had no appetite and my health was gradually failing, until I was a complete wreck."

W. Sherman and Mrs. Albright entertained the Whist club last evening at the residence of Mrs. Albright, on South Seventh street.

Hon. W. H. Ware was in the city yesterday on a short visit to his home and returns to Des Moines today to resume his seat in the legislature. While here he was asked his opinion as to what would be done about prohibition this winter in the legislature. "Well," was the reply, "it is hard to tell just what the outcome will be. Of course we all know what the attitude of the democrats is on the subject, but the question now is whether we can get enough republicans to vote with us on an aquaforte license bill to carry our point. I don't believe we can get more than three republicans to vote with us, and the very outside who will stand with us will take six votes to knock out the prohibition majority. The appearance of things may change before long, but that is the way it looks now. We haven't been agitating the prohibition question very much down at Des Moines, but have been devoting most of our time to getting acquainted."

A Fifty Cent Burglar. George E. Williams was arrested yesterday afternoon on an information filed before Justice Swearingin charging him with burglary. The information alleged that he had entered the house of one John Morgan and had taken there two bunches of lard valued at 50 cents. His bond was fixed at $100 and he was committed to jail on Monday at 10 o'clock. Morgan states that a neighbor of his was building a house and Williams had been working for him. On the night of the burglary he had gone to Morgan's house to see if he had any more work for him. When he returned he had two bunches, and when he got home he found them gone. Morgan's house was found to have been broken open and not only the lard but a large amount of other property amounting to about $25, had been taken. He claims to have pretty positive proof that Williams took all the missing lumber.

They Have Heard from Thine. I learn this morning that a cable dispatch has been received from Senor Pedro Monti, Chilean minister at Washington, stating that Secretary of State Blaine requests the Chilean government to regard the contents of the dispatch as confidential for the present. I am, however, given to understand that the tenor of the dispatch was decidedly peaceful, and indicated a speedy and harmonious settlement of the trouble. Senor Barros Luce, replying for the government, said that the questions pending were assuming an eminently pacific tone, and there was absolutely no foundation for the alarming rumors. When the negotiations were concluded, at an early date, documents in relation to the matter would be laid before the Chamber.

Garza Successfully Evades Capture by the Troops and Rangers. Loma Prieta ranch, on the line of Encinal and Durango counties, where Garza and his friends were located the first part of the present week, failed as far as the finding of Garza was concerned. Garza had been there, but did not camp on the ranch, preferring to keep in the brush. There is no possible doubt but that Garza has scouts and spies who keep him continually informed of the movements and whereabouts of the troops, rangers and United States marshals, which enable him to effectually keep out of their way, and it begins to look as if they will never effect his capture while acting under the present plan of operations against him.

"ON YOUR HONOR." This is the Condition Upon Which a Lady Correspondent Asks a Direct Question. "Is catarrh curable? Answer for your honor as gentleman." No, it is not curable and very emphatic question was the introduction of a letter which Dr. Copeland and his associates received the other day from a lady who writes: "I have catarrh curable? Answer for your honor as gentleman." With the question implies considerable doubt as to the curability of catarrh, or perhaps the public is misled by the statements of some of our physicians, who have been induced to believe that catarrh is curable, and who, in the interest of their own signatures, and in interviews accompanied by their partners, that they have been cured.

Had Catarrh Ten Years. "My life for the past ten years has been one of constant suffering. I had constant ringing in my ears and the droppings from the back of my throat kept me always distressed. Every time I tried to swallow, it would come out of my mouth and I was obliged to spit it out. I had no appetite and my health was gradually failing, until I was a complete wreck."

WOOL GOODS FOR ALMOST A SOLE. The Great Semi-Annual Clearing Sale at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia., Opened Wednesday morning. The store was closed all day Tuesday to mark down goods and make preparations for this great event, which will look on from the very outside who will stand with us and will take six votes to knock out the prohibition majority. The appearance of things may change before long, but that is the way it looks now. We haven't been agitating the prohibition question very much down at Des Moines, but have been devoting most of our time to getting acquainted."

Will Start in Business Again. Messrs. Kimball & Chamn have determined to resume the loan and investment business in Council Bluffs, and with this purpose in view they have received many earnest assurances of confidence from eastern capitalists, from whom they have had business relations for years, and after a careful consideration of the situation they have concluded that Council Bluffs offers the best opportunities to rebuild their shattered fortunes.

Swanson Music Co., Musical temple. WENT DOWN WITH ALL ON BOARD. Burning of an American Oil Ship in Mid-Ocean. LONDON, Jan. 22.—The British steamer Egyptian Monarch, from New York, whence she sailed January 5, reported that on the morning of January 16, the steamer then in latitude 48 north, longitude 19 west, suddenly disappeared, and the remains of an American built iron and burning furiously. Judging from the dense black smoke and the odor, Captain Irwin came to the conclusion that the burning vessel was laden with oil. At the same time he reported that two men could be seen clinging to the bowsprit.

STORY OF ROBBERY RECALLED. Charles Baxter's Arrest at St. Louis Freshens Memory of Captain Woodruff. In a recent issue of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat there is an account of the arrest of one Frank Farrell, alias Charles Baxter, for grand larceny, and his subsequent release by Police Judge Claiborne on what proved to be a straw bill on account of misleading statements made by the witness, Henry Neifer. Shortly after Baxter, by which name he is better known, was captured a photograph and description were sent to Chief Seavey, of this city, by a letter from the St. Louis office, giving a history of Baxter's arrest and a description of the man, and the statement that the man was an all-around crook. Before Chief Seavey's letter reached the St. Louis police, Baxter had been released on flimsy bail and had skipped.

ROCK ISLAND TRAIN DITCHED. Six People Injured by a Wreck on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific. CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 23.—The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific passenger train No. 3, which left this city at 10:30 last night for Danvers, Ill., was wrecked near Blue Island and rolled into the ditch. The train consisted of an engine, baggage car, three passenger coaches and two sleepers. The Rock Island officials in the city reported at 2 a. m. that they had been notified that six persons were injured. No fatalities had been reported.

KEEPING OUT OF HARM'S WAY. Garza Successfully Evades Capture by the Troops and Rangers. Loma Prieta ranch, on the line of Encinal and Durango counties, where Garza and his friends were located the first part of the present week, failed as far as the finding of Garza was concerned. Garza had been there, but did not camp on the ranch, preferring to keep in the brush. Faithful Work. "At times I would become almost blinded by my own tears, and my eyes were so sore that I had to wear glasses. I had a constant ringing in my ears and the droppings from the back of my throat kept me always distressed. Every time I tried to swallow, it would come out of my mouth and I was obliged to spit it out. I had no appetite and my health was gradually failing, until I was a complete wreck."
