WELLING TO WARRY " 回复任 学习技术任 人行人议的 甘田平 THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, JANUARY 24, 1892-SIXTEEN PAGES.

RING THE LENTEN REST

is of the Social World the Past Seven D178.

MISES OF FUTURE ENTERTAINMENTS

viving Private Dancing Parties-The Doane Reception-Miss Wakeley's Pretty Kensington and Other Fashionable Affairs.

The gay world was busy with its gaiotles ast week, a firmament of stars shining " the blue of dull cars, which it is , s function to drive away.

There were a number of thoroughly deightful functions and the belies and beaux, he sires and matrons of the haut monde and opportunity to rub off the dust which ad accumulated upon their clothes by reason If the quietness of the previous week.

In addition to the Hosgiand dancing party which gave the Society Man an opportunity o grow a bit reminiscent, there were also no nd to dinners, lunchoons, receptions, teas and miscellancous affairs both in town and throughout the suburbs, enough to keep any pro well on the go from week's start to Weik's end.

The Hoagland Dancing Party.

It was like old times to see the gay crowd of dancing men and women at the Hoagland Cancing party Thursday evening, in honor of the Misses Wadleigh of Clinton, Ia., who, for several years, have brightened the social life of Omaha by their presence. The Society Man was reminiscent as ne stood in a corner of one of the pretty rooms and looked bu at the men and maids enjoying the music of Irvine's orchestra. It reminded him very much of the private parties of four or five wears ago, when some of the fair sex even name alone to join in the pleasures of the night. He contemplated the parkling jewels and the extravagant and low cut gowns of the belies be fore him and smiled : "No," said he slowly beto a little group of men abovestairs in the interim of a dance, "a belle of today could not come to one of these swell private parties on horseback. A score of years ago, I quite gemember, a famous beauty riding a dozen miles to a ball and, after dancing all night chiffor o home in the gray of the morning the way to came. Times have changed"-"And," the came. ome one of those fin de siccle mon remarked, "for the better too."

clear complexion to excellent advantage. In past days a party at the Hoagland house was sure to bring out the "youth and beauty" of the town, and what is very pleasant, the reputation has grown with the years, and Thursday evening the life and fashion of the now metropolis were there to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. George W. Hongland and her charming daughters. The tions, hyacinths, smilax prettily arranged on mantels in alcoves, and wherever a rose bowl could be stood out of the way of the dancers. black lace. The whole lower floor was used for dancing pper being served abovestairs. The chestra was stationed in the nallway beupper hind a screen of paims and ferns. There were no programs for the dances, no ban There ners on the walls as in past seasons, the annsic indicating the style of dance to the ghests, a feature much enjoyed by the n, who danced with whomever they found ot dancing. Miss Hoagland wore a pretty plaitings of cream crepe. rded yellow silk, with turquoise trimming Miss Laura Hoagland was in a lovely foreign made costume of pink and white striped br After 10 o'clock the young people danced until the small hours of the morning, round ade, decollete and entraine, with garlands of iny rosebuds encircling the skirt. Miss Wadleigh wore a smart gown ing out a most delightful reception. In fact it reminded one of "ye olden days" when dancing men and maids were always in the white silk with a graduating ruffle of red preps, the waist trimmed with creps of the me color, and a coral coronet in her hair. Miss Maud Wadleigh appeared in a flowles, with a garniture of pink satin and pink strich feathers. Miss Wyman wore a nile green embroidered Miss Yost was very lovely in a costume of raslight green striped tulle over silk. Miss Grace Wallace of Salt Lake wore a but quite pretty, dress of terra cotta Balcombe, Wyman, Beckwith, Chambers, Rawles, Williams, McClelland. The men loth trimmod with passementerie, gloves and shoes to match, high neck and long were, Saunders, Cartan, Morgan, Crowder,

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrie, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jaynes, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Curtis. served at small tables pinced throughout the parlor and library. A pleasant feature of the afternoon was he number of songs rendered by the guests, several of the singers displaying voices of ex-

Entertaining Their Male Friends. The young ladies in the north part of the ceptional sweetness and purity. Miss Charity Babcock gave the "Answer;" Miss Mary Poppletch sang "You;" Miss Rawles a pretty "Lullaby;" Miss Disky Donne, "After-wards," while Miss Bishop's deep contrailo city gave one of the pleasantest leap year parties of this presidential year Thursday evening at Erfling's ball, the committee having the function in charge being Misses Minvoice was heard to excellent advantage in "The Journey Was Long," which was fol-lowed with a sacred song showing off the nie Bauman, Aggie Livesey, Maud Church, Doline Bailey, Inez Haskell, Gussie Bauman, Angle Boyce and Mrs. J. D. Foster.

In honor of the pleasant occasion the young ladies decorated the hall very pretty with large American flags, draped about the room, while in each corner were handsome stands of paims, ferns and other hothouse plants. In one corner stood the runch bowl, ornamented with roses and smilax. Not content with supervising all the essential details of the party the young ladies acted in the capacity of floor managers, an councing extras, and seeing that their genlemen friends had a good time. And so ac ceptably was their work done that one longed for a change in social customs that yould make them always the real promoters such entertainments. Light refreshments were served in the balmy, everything being thoroughly well considered. The costumes were particularly handsome and the varied colorings represented gave a kaleidoscopic tinge to the ball room. Miss Rena Strang wore a blue crepe with chiffon trimming, blue slippers and white suct . home as you expect a learned justice inh: iting for whom the world has had a Miss Tillie Fried appeared in a very be coming gown of red henrietts, chiffon trim vil) agear and a sympathetic heart. T e decorations were tasteful and quietly ning, tan colored gloves Miss Angle Boyce wore a dark blue silk costume with black lace overdress, square eler ant, carnations, roses and smilax being universally used. There were lots of pretty cut neck, white roses.

nooks for quiet tete-a-tetes, and it goes with Miss Minnie Bauman wore a combination out saying they were always occupied during gown of nile green and figured China silk, Judge and Mrs. Doane, Mr. and Mrs. C. B ink coral necklace

Misss Free graced a pretty pink crepe gown trimmed in chiffon and silver, pink gloves and Keller, Miss Hargis and Miss Doane received in the front drawing room on the right of the pink roses. Miss Fannle Bishop was very prettily wide hallway. Mrs. Doane wore a heavy black satin gown iressed in a combination gown of heliotrope with canary brocade and carried a beautiful and white henriotta. bouquet of yellow roses and ferns. Mrs. Keller graced an attractive Greeian Miss Birdie Kolly, cream henrietta, red arnations. costume of white crepe trimmed with gold bands, and gold bands in her hair. Miss Carrie Giacomini looked particularly well in a pink surrah with green velvet

Miss Hargis looked particularly sweet and protty in a white embroidered liste over Mrs. R. P. Hamilton wore a gown of navy blue satin, trimmed with cut steel passemen Miss Doane, who is one of the beauties of terie, pink gloves, diamonds, Omaha social circles, was very attractive in a costume of pink creps, made effective by Miss Gussie Bauman, a cream crope costume trimined with pink rosebuds, diamonds, Miss Nellie Staughter, figured China slik, shirring. Miss Nelsie Hughes wore an exquisite lav-pink roses. Miss Aggle Livesey wore a very heavy ender bengaline with violet trimming and black silk and lace gown, decollete and en-Miss Emily Wakeley was beautifully gowned in a yellow silk, with feather trim-ming, a wreath of violets bringing out her Miss Minnie Collett, a combination dress of white albatross and figured China silk, Miss Tony Tzschuck wore a pretty gown of Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who is always lovely no matter in what costume she may ream crope, red roses. Miss Dollie Bailey, one of the favorites in appear, wore a pretty red crope with Ameri can beauty roses. Miss McKenna wore white tulle with dots social circles of North Omaha, wore a blue surah trimmed in tigured chiffon. of pink chenille running through it, trimmed Miss Cora Weaver, pink silk, with fan and with pink ribbon. Miss Balcombe, whose ambition to be oses to match. Miss Flynn of Lincoln looked very stylish

"an everyday newspaper woman," is being in a gown of yellow crope trimmed with silgratified, wore old rose silk with ruffles of r passementerie, red slippers and red carnations. Miss Mary Poppleton, wore with a charm-Miss Irene Byrne, brocaded brilliantine, ing grace a costume of white slik with an effective girdle of Persian passementeria. cream roses. Miss Ida Hammond, grey henrietta and Miss Sadle Nash, whose summer in Eu-rope gave her abundant opportunity to supgrey gloves. Miss Wedge wore a blue silk gown and carried a blue fan and bride roses. ply her wardrobe with lots of pretty gowns, wore a blue and pink surah with cream silk.

Miss Goorgia Rich, blue silk with slippers Miss Fritza Barnard, a clever and exceed to match. Miss Nettie Rich, a dark green silk with ingly interesting girl, wore a beautiful gown of blueish gray crepe cloth, made up with white silk bodice. Miss Mary McMahon looked well in a Miss Wallace of Salt Lake wore a fetching costume of old blue silk, plainly made. cream silk crepe, trimmed with duchesse lace and ribbons.

Miss Hallie Osborne graced a figured china silk, very prettily made, white fan and slippers. Miss Carry McLean wore a striking cosume of red crepe, V-shaped neck, red roses, Miss Marie Giacomini, paie green China silk, black point lace, white roses. Miss Sue King, cream albatross, trimmed with brown velvet, brown gloves, white Miss Maud Church, a pronounced brunette,

Rich, Tzschuck, Georgia Rich, Carrie Giaco-mini, Marie Giacomini, Weaver, Flynn of Lincoln, Strang, Free, McLean, Wedge,

Byrne, Collett, King, Kelley, Lena Forester of Los Angeles, Cal., Barker of Scranton, Pa., Mrs. Crandall, Messrs, Gruinger, Smith, wheeler, Dr. and Mrs. Spenser, Mrs. Clara McCreary Wicks, Misses Stella Hamil-ton, Yost, McKenna, Mary Poppleton, Bara-ard, Balch, Tad Balch, Hughes, Reese, Menie Hambleton, Nash, Chandler, Brown, Belenibe, Wuman, Backmith, Chandler, Brown, looked very captivating in a gown of green aibatross and white silk crepe. Miss inez Haskell, a charming young word a cream India silk, simply voman. made with lace, square neck, dancing length, red roses. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hamilton, Mr.

vesterday, will be "The National Pageant," to be given under the direction of Mrs. Cora Scott Pont-Pope, who will

Mrs. Cora Scott Pont-Pope, who will arrive February 5 to ibagin the re-hearsals for this beautiful performance. The entertainment will condist of a series of historical tableaux, presenting bruefly but most strikingly, tarilling and inspiriting scenes of our national drama from the days of Columbus down to the fin de seicle days. As arranged the tableaux will be as fol-

L Columbus at the Court of Queen Isabella. Patronesses, Mrs. Adolph Meyor, Mrs. G. A. day

^batronesses, Mrs. Adolph. Bleyer, Ars. 6: 10.
^c Landing of the Pilgrins.^d Patronesses, Mrs. Warren Switzler, Mrs. 6: W. Hicks, 3. Courtship of Miles Standish. Patronesses, Mrs. W. J. Connell, Mrs. George Paterson, Mrs. W. B. Millard, 4. The Old Colonial Klichen, Woman's Sphere 1620-1520, Patronesses, Mrs. J. T. Duryen, Mrs. W. F. Allen, 2. Reception to Washington find Lafavette, The Minuet, Patronesses, Mrs. J. Brooke, The Minuet, Patronesses, Mrs. J. Brooke, The Minuet, Patronesses, Mrs. J. Brooke, Mrs. J. C. Brooke, Mrs. J. Statematical Millard, Milla close.

he Minuet, Patronesses, Mrs. J. K. Brooke, Irs. James McKenna, Mrs. Lyman Richardvisit away.

Battle of Bunker Hill. Patroness, Mrs. tella Hamilton. from New York.

6 Battle of Bunker Hill. Patroness, Mrs. Frank Wheaton.
7. The Declaration of Independence. Pa-troness, D. H. Wheeler, Jr.
8. Departure of the Thirteenth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers. Patronesses. Mrs.
Harry McCormiek, Mrs. H. B. Mulford.
9. Woman's Patriotism—Her Sphere from 1801 to 1855. Patronesses, Mrs. J. B. Christian, Mrs. F. M. Richardson.
10. The Emancipation Proclamation. Pa-tronesses, Mrs. W. N. Babcock, Mrs. J. W. Cot-ton. guest of Miss Yost. Orchard this week.

Mrs. A. M. Kitchen.

II. Woman's Work-Her Sphere Today. Arizona on Thursday. Mrs. Haskell of Chicago is the guest of All these tableauxs will be given in cos tumes, the leading young men and women of the city being invited to assist in making the Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bennett, Mr. Charles Hill has gone to St. Joseph. fair a success where he will make his home.

The Woman's Christian association is officored as follows, and upon whom devolves party at his home last evening. the work of this undertaking: President, Mrs. P. L. Perine; Secretary, Mrs. C. W. Hull, executive committee, Mrs. Tilden, Mrs. making the rounds of social events. Luddington, Mrs. Cadet Taylor, Mrs. F. L. Haller and Miss Ella Bracken. club was largely attended Monday.

Drinking Tea in the Crypt

if taste in farmishing the rooms and tact in entertaining the guests be conceded to be

Thursday the ladies of the Guild of Triaity decorated the crypt or the cathedral in that color in honor of the tea which they gave.

Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Truit presided at the tea tables, while Miss Chandler and Miss Chambers had charge of the chocolate tables, Among those present were: Mrs. S. D. Bar-kalow, Mrs. Cowin, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Ralph, Mrs. Haller, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Cornish, Mrs. Harry McCormick, Mrs. Lander, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs Lundt, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. A. J.

Mrs. Byron Reed, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. A.J. Poppleton, Miss Edna Cowin, Miss Rawles,

Mrs. Bowen, Miss McConneil, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. Wessells, Mrs. Williams, Kessler and Shonquist.

Kessler, and Miss Emma Shonquist took place at the home of the parents of the bride

Coming Social Functions

Mrs. L. J. Drake will give a card matinee

Mrs. Love, Mrs Heth.

at 2 o'clock Thursday.

formally Monday evening.

street.

There were present at the meeting vestor-day: Mesdames, Tilden, Perine, Richard-ion, Ludington, Allen, McKenna, Duryea, a card matinee at 2 o'clock on Thursday. In honor of Miss Beckwith, Mrs. S. D. Hull, Connell, Christian, Switzler, Joslyn, Babcock, Adolph Meyer, Cadet Taylor. Barkalow gave a lovely kensington yester day.

Mrs. Judge Dundy has gone on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Newman at Bayonne City, New Tea plays so great a part in the social life ersev.

of the season, and one tea is so like another, Mrs. Thomas Kilpatrick entertained a few congenial friends at luncheon on Friday iu honor of Mrs. Hasket!.

MADIC CIPY SOCIAL NOTES.

Minor Mention.

Mrs. M. S. McCormick and Miss McCormick will be the guests of Mrs. Ben Galla gher for two or three weeks.

entertaining the guests be conceded to be universal as they ought to be, that novelties if they are of a pleasing kind make the guest bear away a recollection of "an ex-tremely pleasant afternoon." Pink is such a general favorite for the color scheme of an The G. G. G. club gave a pleasant evenresidence of Miss afternoon affair that the ingenius nostess wishes to find another idea. Yellow hap-pens to be in great favor this year and on ing's entertainment at the Carrie Butler, 1613 South Tenth street last week.

J. Sanders Carr left for Philadelphia Wednesday evening. His address for some time to come will be the "Philadelphia Club."

Ed and Dwight Swobe, Dick and Fred Gray, Russel Burt, Charles Weller, Robert Easson left for Shattuck school, Faribault, Minn., on Wednesday.

Miss Lena Forrester of Los Angeles and Miss Alice Barker of Scranton, Pa., are the guests of Mrs. J. D. Foster, 1514 North Nineteenth street.

The engagement is announced of Miss Bettie Seligsonn of this city, to Mr. William L. Hacris of Milwaukee. The wedding is to take place in April.

Mrs. Frank Colpetzer gave a kensington Friday afternoon which for beauty and ele-gance deserves to be ranked among the pleas Wednesday night the wedding of Mr. Charles Kessler of Omaha, son of Gustus antest of this season's events.

> Mrs. L. B. Williams and Miss Williams left for Sunderland, Fla., on Friday where they will join Mr. E. B. Williams, who is there for the benefit of his health.

in Vail, Crawford county, Ja. Only the near relatives of the couple were present, never-theless a great number of ' their friends sent The North Omaha Musical club gave one of their enjoyable entertainments at Mrs. Chase's residence, 2223 Burt street, Thursthe young couple their congratulations. The oride was a school teacher at Vail and was well known near her home. Mr. and Mrs. Kessler arrived in Omaha Thursday night and took up their residence in 'a new house day afternoon. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. McAlvin's, 2101 Wirt street next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. on So th Thirteenth street near Spring

Mrs. Ben Smith entertained at luncheon on Wednesday at 1:30, Mesdames Barton, Yost, McCord, Pritchett, Richardson, Mc-Kenna, Nash, Cowin, Bennett, Morsman, Mrs. Riall, Miss Smith, Miss Orchard and Miss Dewey served tea for the ladies.

Miss Jennie McCielland entertains in-The Leap Year High Five club met Tues-day evening at the home of the Misses Giacomini on North Twenty second street. Mrs. George H. Boggs announces a recep-Those present were: The Misses Allen, Bauman, Collett, Giacomini, Gussie Bauman, tion from 3 to 6 on Thursday, Ecoruary 4. The Omaha club will give a reception and dancing party Wednesday, February 3. Mrs. E. M. Morsman, a high tea on Fri-day to meet Miss Wallace of Salt Lako City. Rich, Nettie Rich, Carrie Giacomini, Wilson, Gibbs, Haskell, Messrs, Brown, Ross, Mathews. Miller, Myers, Beach, Boss, Knouse, Woodard, Palmatier, Pawhinney.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., will give a ken sington Friday at 2:30. Mrs. Frazar lectures at the Lininger gal-A very pleasant leap year party was given Wednesday evening at Forest Hall. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Williams, young lady's voice finely. The guests present were Misses Babcock, Bache, Balch, Theodora Balch, Mrs. Newton Barkalow, Miss Amy Barker, Misses Barnard, Barber, Doane, Hamilton, Hughes, Mrs. Charles Hull, Misses McClelland, Mc-Mrs. Charles Hull, Misses McClehald, Mc Kenna, Moore, Nash, Poppieton, Mrs. John McCormick, Mrs. Harry McCormick, Misses Ida Sharp, Georgie Sharp, Sherwood, the Misses Stephenson, Misses Wallace, May Wallace, Yost, Wyman, Beckwith, Hipp, Hartman, Hambleton, Rawles, Reese, Hartm Creighton, Bishop, Mount, The Doane Reception. No pleasanter reception has been given this present season than the Doane reception Wednesday evening from 8 until 11 o'clock, in onor of Miss Hargis, who is the guest of Miss Daisy Doane. There was not a large crowd in attendance, the number of men being particularly remarked, and when the dancing came on later, the young women were in their element, for so many dancing men have not been seen at another 'event' this season. Judge Doane lives in a peautiful home, just

white slik

Miss Orchard, pretty and piquante, wore a oteign made costume of pink brocale. Miss Emily Wakeley was very happy in a andsome gray and pink creps. Miss Stella Hamilton wore a pretty blue ma silk. Miss English, a thoroughly effective gown red crepe, trimmed with ruffles. Miss Chandler, whose beauty has been the abject of so much pleasant comment, wore a rejeful toilette of white silk enriched by

Miss Doane was a picture of glorious young manhood, in a frock of heliotrope and ink crope

Miss Hughes, with health and beauty beted in every line, wore a pink china silk mmed with roses and chiffon. Miss Mary Poppleton was becomingly at fired in a white silk and gauze, trimmed ith pearl passementerie. Miss Williams, white silk and white owers Miss Menie Hampleton's beauty was en anced by a white and pink china silk immed with pink ribbons.

Miss Sherwood, white and pink silk. Miss Clara Brown, one of the brightest of boriety's fair devotees and an universal fa-worite, wore white and pink brocade with sementerie.

Miss Hargis was very fascinating in town of white over ciel bine silk, the round aist confined with broad blue ribbons Reese wore a frock of white china terie; Mrs. Beckwith, a train gown of black silk and jet; Miss Beckwith, a yellow striped Miss Reese wore a frock of white china ilk fustooned about the skirt with thuy bows. Those present wore: Mr. and Mrs. A. U. Wyman, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wyman, Dr. and Mrs. Duryoa, Dr. and Mrs. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Colpetzer, Miss Wyman, Miss Emily Wakeley, Miss Brown, Miss Bal-omue, Miss Reese, Miss Yost, Miss Wallace Control Laka City, Miss Chardian Miss tulle, deconette and entraine; Mrs. S. D. Barkalow, black silk and lace; Mrs. Newt Barkalow, white brocade with gold passe-menterie; Miss Stella Hamilton, pink crepe, accentuated by many ruffles, Misses Yost, Sherwood, Wallace and May Wallace as-sisted throughout the rooms. Mesdames Truitt, Hill, Fonda, McCormick, Yost, Mc-Cord, Catlin, Thayer, Metcalf, Allen, Adolph Meyer, Falconer, Burns, Yates, Kellar, Mor-ris, Carter, Morsman, Pritchett, Bennett, Saunders, Meikle, Reid, Barker, Perrine; Misses Yost, McCielland, Copeland, Hughes, May Yates, Wallace, May Wallace, Bishop, Rawies, Chambers, Ogden, Ammell; Mes-danes Haskell, Klipatricz, Jones, Wessels, Smith, Morris, Cornish, Meday. Barkalow, white brocade with gold passe-Salt Lake City, Miss Chandler, Miss hambers, Miss Rawies, the Misses Mo-ague, the Misses Hibbard, Miss Hambleton, Tague, the Misses Hibbard, Miss Hambleton, Hague, the Misses Hibbard, Miss Hambleton, Hiss Jamilton, Miss Sharp, Miss Hambleton, Miss Orchard, Miss Doane, Miss Hughes, Miss McKenna, Miss Poppleton, Miss Eng-fan, Miss Hargis, Miss Margaret Pratt, Miss Sherwood, Miss Barker, Miss Knight, Mr. S. Berlin, Mr. Algernon Patrick, Mr. Robison, Mr. Hastings, Mr. Fay, Mr. Bax-er, Mr. Henry Wyman, Mr. Will Wyman, Mr. Henry Wyman, Mr. Will Wyman, Mr. Henry Wyman, Mr. Will Wyman, Mr. McMillan, Mr. Saunders, Mr. Tuttle, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Hall, Lieutenant Book-niller, Mr. Arthur Gulou, Mr. Will Doane, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Coles, Mr. Will Doane, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Coles, Mr. Will Cartan, Mr. McCague, Captain Crowder, Mr. Clif-d Smith, Mr. Fairfield, Mr. Charles Hill, Mr. Gannott, Mr. Reed, Mr. Jordon, Mr. Traise Mr. Barlow, Mr. Augustus Kounize, residing in the vicinity of South Tenth street availed themselves of the privilege given them by leap year to entertain them gentlemen friends, and certainly they suc-

Ale Mr. Barlow, Mr. Augustus Kountze, Sharp Mr. Buchanan, Mr. K. C. Barton. A Pink Luncheon.

Mrs. Richard C. Moore, Park avenue, gave most elaborate and beautiful luncheon on adnesday to twenty five young women, in of her daughter and Miss of Cincinnati, names familiar the social life of Omana. The rations were in pink, la Franco roses tavishly used throughout the rooms. mena was delightfully considered, ser-being had at small tables, which were the being had at small tables, which were factly ornamsneed with fairy lamps with ink shades. The meau was artistically inted on bolting cloth. After the luncheon ards were played and prizes awarded. Those enjoying the afternoon were Misses Poppieton, Chandler, Walace, May Wall aco. Isrgis, Hipp, Emily Walcoley, Balch, Tad alch, Mrs. McCormick, Pratt, Parrotte, dibert, Tatum, Nellie Moore, Manue Moore, Ismilton, Mrs. Chester F. Barnard, Mrs. Yewton Barkalow, Katherine Barker.

The Wakeley Kensington.

The week was anspicionaly inaugurate d fonday by Miss Emily Wakoloy's Kensing-ou, given in honor of Miss Hargis of Louisile, Ky., one of the belles of that famous ne of beauties, an exceedingly vivacious petite blonde, with eyes that dim the isty of "the grayness of the seas," of which sod and gray post speaks so feelingly. would abe hard to imagine a prot ties p of young women, and the charm of the ternson was beightenod by the delightful r of informality which pervaded the apert-wise of Judge Wakeloy's remidences at Nice-shils and California. The house was protify decorated with in move and bride cases out smills, tos being majority, but now the men go and herd by themselves and the maids must do them

Bookmiller, Powell, Smith, McMillan, Coles Turner, Guiou, Doane, Fairfield, Baidridge Clapp, Drake Cook, Chat Redick, Charles Hill, Vernu, Warner, Caldwell Hamilton, Frank Hamilton, Gannett, Ross, Drake Augustus Kountze, McCague, John Patrick.

Among the guests present were, Mr. and Ars. Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nhceler, Dr. and Mrs. Spenser, Mrs.

dancing alone.

Mrs.

Wheeler,

Mrs. B. B. Wood's Matinee.

Notwithstanding the frigid condition of the atmosphere on Tuesday, Mrs. B. B. Wood's reception in honor of her guests, Mrs. Beckwith and Miss Beckwith, was very largely attended, a graceful compliment to a charming hostess. The house was elaborately decorated with

A Sleighing Party.

On Monday night a party of young ladies ceeded to a degree that was perfection be-

Played High Five.

youd description.

a Hasie

Barrett, Sherman, Palmatier, Goodman, Adair, McConnell, Woodard, Strang, Miller, Brown, Knouse, Johnson, Champlain, Ochil-tree, Metz., Dickey, Fales, Kimmel, Teitz, Moran, Hastings, Sherwood, McDonald, roses, the absence of any one particular color in the decorations being remarked. The Miller of Lincoln.

rooms were lighted with many lamps, which added to the effective work of the florist, and made the apartments particularly inviting Mr. and Mrs. Bosche Entertain. In honor of Miss Hipp of Cincinnati, Mr. and restful. In the dining room white and and restrict. In the draining room white and pink were the predominating tones. The table was exquisitely covered with a pink moire prettily trimmed with lace as nar-row ribbons, on which stood a cut-glass bowl and Mrs. Augustus F. Bosche gave on Monday evening a thoroughly delightful card party which is yet the pleasant subject of talk with those who were present. Color has filled with white roses and hyacinths. become so necessary a feature at social Candelabra stood at either end reflecting soft rays throughout the room. The Mando functions that Mrs. Bosche, with charming line club played during the afternoon and was one of the features of the matinee. Mrs. Wood wore a magnificent Paris gown ingenuity, decided to vary the predominating yellow and pink at social affairs by making her decorations blue, and the change was of cream embroidered mousselline de sole: Madame Barkalow, her mother, wore a dainty gray crepe, trimmed with passamenvery welcome and restful. Throughout the rooms there were blue lamps prottily shaded in blue, the draperies were of blue surah, while all the tables were covered with light blue cloth. The prizes were tied with blue ribbons and enclosed in blue paper, every-thing partaking of the predominating color, even the guests who failed to win any of the even the guests who failed to win any of the dainty prizes looking extremely "blue." The ladies' prize was won by Miss Tad Baich, a silver framed narror for use on the dressing table. The second was carried off by Miss Moore, being a silver mirror the same as the first prize only of a different shape. The third ladies' prize way won by Miss Nellie Moore, a blue fairy lamp. The first great won by Mr.

The first gentlemen's was won by Mr. Compton, a silver handled whisk broom; the Compton, a silver handlod whisk broom; the second was taken by Mr. Risk, a silver pen and pencit tray, the third by Mr. Art Guiou, an antique watch holder. Those playing were the Misses Balch, Tad Balch, Doane, Hargis of Louisville, Wakeley, Bar-nard, Hughes, Pratt, Hoagland, Laura Hoag-and Wadhards Mand Waddalch of Chitten and, Wadleigh, Maud Wadleigh of Clinton, Parker, Ada Parker, Moore, Neille Moore, Tatum, Pounsford and Mesdames McCormick and Barnard. The gentlemen were Gulou, Doane, Clapp, Baldridge, Drake, Redick, Chat Redick, Risk, Cooke, George Compton, Fonda, Pease, McCormick and

Barnard.

The ladies had planned a steightide, with The Hawley Kensington mowbells, cracking whips and tinhorn at-Mrs. Hawley and the Misses Hawley, 2514 tachments, to be followed by supper. And throughout the entire affair had pledged Capital avonue, gave on Friday a very elaborate kensington, which was thoroughly enthemselves to wait on those "lords of crea oyed by the guests fortunate enough to be present. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, and the service of re-freshments all that could be desired by the most exacting of social leaders. A pleasant

Yesterday the patroneases interasted in ar-ranging the tableaux for "The National Pageant." which is to be given at the Grand Judge and Mrs. Shields entertained the Kountre Place High Five club at their rest-2) and 20, had their first meeting at the realdence on Emmet strast last Friday evening. Mrs. H. Lawris was the successful winner of Dodge streets.

The neeting was cothustastic and asage ances were given that the entertainment would be a financial as well as social autheiadies prize, a fancy glass basicol, heau-tifuily aroausented. Min. Van Court carried off the gents' price, an ach recolver. The fullowing ware present Judge and Mra. Bradiny, Mir. and Mrs. E. V. Lewis, Sir. and Mrs. E. Minahan, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Van Court mont thoroughly unique one that never has been before, that possibly will areas be seen. Nucli, from all that could be learned

Paris and Mrs. Van Court, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Miss Nealy Stevens gives a plano recital Mr. and Mrs. Jaynes, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Joselyn, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Haskell, Misses Livesey, Minnie Bauman, Gussie Bauman, Boyce, Haskell, Church, Baily, Bishop, Fried, Slaughter, McMahon, Nettie under the appices of the Ladies' Musical so-ciety at the residence of W. J. Connell at 2:30 relock on Saturday. Mrs. Frazar at the Lininger Art gallery will lecture on "Genoa. Pisa and Rome."

Friday evening.

South Omaha Society,

The leading social affair of the week was the marriage of Mr. James Parks and Miss Mary J. Kenny and the wedding reception same evening. The nuptials occurred at St. Agnes' church in the forenoon and were witnessed by a large number of friends. The widsome bride was attired in a lovely cream colored satin with a bouquet of roses at the throat. Mr. Robert Parks accompanied the groom to the altar, while Miss Ella O'Donnell acted as bridesmaid. Father Moriarty pronounced the holy words that united the two for all time. In the evening the wedding reception was given at the hospitable homes of George, Robert and John Parks, Seventeenth and Missouri avenue. Some of the most promin-ent people in the city were present. One house was devoted entirely to the lovers of terpsichore, and spiondid, music made the impulse to dance irresistible. At the other house were tables for high five and both liquid and ediple refreshments. An elegant supper prepared by the groom's mother was served. Among the guests were

Rev. Fathers Moriarty, McGrath, Hickey and Mugan. Messrs, and Mesdames Tom Hoctor, P. H. McMahon, J. J. O'Rourke, Patrick Rowiey, Daniel Rafferty, Thomas Flem-ing, J. J. Breen, C. A. Melchev, Ed Contey, J. G. Irwin, Miles Weish, Patrick Trainor, A. B. Haley, John Kearney, James McGuire, L. O'Keefe.

The Missess J. King, M. Molloy, M. O'Brien, K. Boyle, F. O'Donnell, K. Gooley, M. Hunt, N. Hughes, M. Storms, M. Fitz gerald, Lettie Scanlon, M. Doherty, N Ivnes, M. Kane. Messrs. R. Ebbitt, James Doherty, E. B

Towi, William Brennan, M. Flaherty, M. McNamee, John Doherty, P. Butler, A. A. Donnelly, T. Crawford, M. Kelly, M. Mur-Dohnelly, H. Crawford, M. Reby, M. Shir-phy, John Murphy, Fr. Boyle, Joe Toner, Morgan Heafey, D. McKeon, M. McHalo, Pat Martin, Tom Looney, J. J. O'Brien, M. Doherty, O. Doherty, Dan Egan, C. J. Clinchard, John Boyle, John Parks, Robert Parks, George Parks, M. O'Donnell, Daniel Quinn, P. J. King, Ellis Niciflon.

A JACK HORNER PE PARTY.

Yesterday was the fifth, birthday of Mas-ter Dale Taloot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud L. Talbot, residing at the corner of Twenty-third and H streets, and it, was made the occasion of a happy gathering, of the younger The afternoon was spent in games and other anusements suited to the jurgerile funcy, and closed with the opening of file Jack Horner pic, from which each youngstor extracted a good sized plum. The following young folks were present: ere present: Dalo Falbot, Hugh McCullash, Roy Young,

Dalo Taibot, Hugh McCultaga, Koy Young, John McNee, James Phillips, Grant Caughey, Cecil Francisco, Mabel, Eganoisco, Lois Francisco, Blancho, Berry, John Roberts, Katle Roberts, Maud Weiz, Mary Brocket, Alvin Broczet, George Marriman, Amos Merriman, Harry Heyman, Erusst Hoy-man, Wade Gorman, Ether Haty, Lura Kerr, George Korr, Ross Wood, Heins Lano, Lie Wileford, Clifton Carnenter. Lie Willeford, Clifton Carpenter.

BINTHISAT PARTY.

A vory measant birthday party was given by Miss Minnie Maak to her many little friends on her tenth birthday, January 16, at 1429 South Tenth streat. Each guest received a bandsome sourcentr. These present were Ethelyn Forbes, Edith Longes, Hortie Kin-die, Fairy Lemming, Gradie Lemming, Ella Durr. Ursula Smith, Nealy Butler, Aconia Sommers, Annie Sommers, Neithe Birney. Sommers, Annia Sommers, Nettie Dirney.

PUTHERN DANCE The Knights of Pythias had a very pleas-ast gathering Tuesday even my at their half on N streat. The programs was well arrainged and successfully carries out. It was as for hows: Address of selection matter of care maning. Mr. C. P. Miller leatenmental music by the churr, nuartistic bleadance T. G. Laur and C. J. Column and Messer, James Builts and Charles March, and Messer, James Builts and Charles March, and Messer, James Builts and Charles March, and Messer, James Builts Trainer, M

Pieronet, Smith, George Mesdames Guy Palmer, A. Walker, Misses Farmer, Smith, Robinson, Weeks, Haray, Furman, Rasine, Suit, Kose, Taren, Woodard, Curtis, Messrs. Goodman, Grannich, Wright, Wilhams, Reagan, Eponeter, Peironet, Pjerio, Vanquist.

Ike New is the recipient of a valuable and beautiful diamond locket, which was pre-sented to him by the members of the Motropolitan club, of which association he is secretary. The present was made in appreciation of Mr. New's services and shows the esteem in which he is held. The gold locket is handsomely engraved on one side and on the other the diamond is set. The stone is said to be worth $250.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Ri-Lardson enter Mr. and Mrs. Cyman Rivardson enter-tained Tuesday evening at diziner Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barton, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yost, Mr. and Mrs. McCord. Mr. and Mrs. Pritch-ett, Mr. and Mrs. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Cowin, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Morganan After dinner the ruests Mrs. Morsman. After dinner the guests adjourned to the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson in the Paxton and played cards. Miss Clara Brown gave a luncheon Monday afternoon to some of her former classmates at Brownell Hall. Those present were Mrs. Will Pike, Miss Kountze, Miss Hall, Miss Lella Shears, Miss Hibbard and Miss Chandler. To remind them of their school days, luncheon was served in dainty little white baskets, and the participants sat to gether cozily as in school days and nibbled their sandwiches and olives, maccaroons and other dainties.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Backer, Mr, and Mrs. George Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. McCord, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Wes-selis, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, Judge and Mrs. Thurston, Judge and Mrs. Cowin, Mrs. Beckwith, Mrs. Haskell and Miss Grant were delightfully entertained at cards by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Benuett Thurs-day evening. day evening.

In honor of Miss Bettie Seligsohn and Mrt William Harris, whose engagement was an nounced last week, a pleasant dancing party was given at the Metropolitan club Monday evening, ten numbers being danced and nearly a hundred guests participating in the uffair. The gentlemen having the arrang-ments in charge were Julius Meyer, August Detches, Phil Rose, Alex Wessel, Sam Frank, Jerome Raufman and Mr. Rosenau. Supper was served during the evening and consts were arunk in honor of the betrothed couple.

The Social Hour club met with Dr. and Mrs. Paul at their residence, 2023 Burt street, Thursday evening. The prizes were won by Mr. R. E. Allen and Mrs. J. N. Pulips, the gentlemen's a pretty royal Worceser vase, and the lady's an ivory bound poer by Tennyson. The members present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lyon, Mrs. A. Treynor and Mrs. M. Jones, the absent members places being filled by Mr. C. C. Howell of Chicago, Mr. C. C. Phelps and Mr. Harry Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. P. Froom entertained their friends at high five Thursday evening at their residence on Burdette street, Clifton Hill. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. William Anderson and the ladies' s prize by Mrs. Penny and Mrs. French. prize by Mrs. Penny and Mrs. French. The gentlemen's first prize was awarded Mr. George Lavidge and Mr. William Anderson earlied of the available of the second carried off the second prize. Those present were Messrs and Mosdames Durkes, French, Penney, Cadwell, Lawing, Hayward, Bur gess, Millar, Anderson, Misses Pfeiffer and gess, Millar, Anderson, and Baldwin, Uhi, Mesars, Lavidge and Baldwin,

Branch No. 3, Catholic Mutual Benefit association gave its first card party Priday evening at their rooms with great siccess, high five being the feature of the evening until 11 o'close, when lined, was served, after which dancing was included in. Miss Me-Stahen and Mr. H. Human had the lamor of taking home the dreet prime, which the Brady and Mr. White did the same with the has bring home. The clust is indebted to Miss Learn Lingperg for and and able assistance. The following were gunate Mr. and Mrs. P. Truffy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Atsroud, Missen Switz, Brady, Rinder, Mullin, Chary, Mainna, Rings, O'Bruran, White, Flabarty, Mainna, Ring, McMatan, Shamon, N. Mainer, Longprey, Massia Swift, Custing, Corpor, themselves to wait on those "lords of crea-tion" and assist them to sigh and smile, and, if necessary, protect them, in a manner sig-gestive of the good old motto, "Do unto others," etc. At 8 o'clock the party assembled at the home of Miss Manie Maione. Shortly after ward the sieligh, drawn by four horses, was in readingers the quest, empared and off in readiness, the guests embarged, and off they started with a flourish, defying the Frost King, who was out that night with a force not known for years. After driving around the suburbs the party stopped at "Cetty's," where an elegant supper was served, after which the indies escorted each

IIIJAMES I

Mme Muentsfering and Mrs. J. R. Buchanan, Mme. Muentsfering particularly winning praise for her artistic work. The guests present were: Mrs. Popple-tou, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Sheridan, Mrs. O. M. Carter, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. T. L. Kun-ball, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Worden, Mme. Muentsfering, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Creigie, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Burt, Mrs. Wallace, Miss Grant Miss Kim-ball, Miss Kimbali of Denver, Miss Barker, Miss Jessie Willard, Miss Mary Poppleton, Miss Vest, Miss Wallace of Salt Lake. contionian to his home in true leap year The following named participated: Mes-dames Mary Murphy, Marguerite Murphy, Misses Coffey, Mamie Maiono, Jeanio Goff, Mamie Kennedy, Hoimes, Hanna Bronnon, Mary Bronnon, and Masara, John Coffey, J. Mahoney, R. Wallace, Tom Baifor, H. Bium, George Hoimes, Ed Connoll, Sam Malono, M. S. Hasie

Miss Yost, Miss Wallace of Salt Lake "The National Pageant."

opera house Monday and Tuesday, February ance of Mrs. P. L. Porine, Twentieth and Class in a schile there comms an entertain-feature of the afternoon was the singing of Miss Mary Poppleton and the plano music of Mme Muentefering and Sirs, J. R. Buchanan,