

SENSATION IN LINCOLN CASE

Chief of Police Dinges Accused by Gamblers of Robbery.

THEY THINK HE GOT THEIR MONEY

Exciting Scenes of Last Fall Revived in Which the City Officers and Constables Narrowly Escaped a Battle—Other News Notes.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 27.—[Special to The Bee].—The most sensational trial that has taken place in Lincoln for many months occurred today before County Judge Lansing, the case being that of the State against O. P. Dinges, chief of the Lincoln police.

Dinges was arrested on a warrant issued by Dennis Hammond, who charged him with the robbery of $50. The case is one of the number resulting from the famous raid upon the gamblers last September. On the 10th of that month the police, acting under orders of Mayor Weir and Chief Dinges, raided the gambling dens of the city. Among the places visited was the resort known as the Ivy Leaf. Here Dennis Hammond and other gamblers were arrested and the implements of their "profession" were seized. The gamblers repaid their property upon a writ issued by Justice Foxworthy, but the chief refused to surrender it. Thereupon the constables undertook to break into the vault where the money was stored. They were promptly arrested, but afterwards were released. Yesterday they brought an action against the chief for making an improper return of the writ of habeas corpus served upon him, but the case was dismissed.

Chief Dinges Accused of Larceny.

Dennis Hammond, one of the gamblers, in a desire, as he expressed it, to get the last week had Chief Dinges arrested on the charge of larceny. He founded his charge upon the assertion that in one of the tables confiscated by the chief was $50, which the chief had taken out and appropriated to his own use. The case was set for trial today and the county court room was crowded with interested spectators who had gathered to hear the testimony in what, promised to be the most sensational trial of the year.

Chief Dinges took the stand and testified that he had taken the money from the drawer of the table and transferred it to his right hand to his pocket. He testified that he had taken the money from the drawer of the table and transferred it to his right hand to his pocket. He testified that he had taken the money from the drawer of the table and transferred it to his right hand to his pocket.

Chief Dinges' Defense.

For the defense the first witness called was Captain Miller. He testified that he was present when the raid was made. He was positive that Chief Dinges took nothing from the drawer of the table out of the $50. He testified that he had taken the money from the drawer of the table and transferred it to his right hand to his pocket.

It Was Complete Refutation.

Chief Dinges took the stand in his own defense. He denied emphatically that he took the money. He testified that he had taken the money from the drawer of the table and transferred it to his right hand to his pocket.

Explodes a Sensation.

Byron C. Yeomans, a detective formerly in the employ of the city, took the stand and at once exploded a sensation that had been looked for. He swore that previous to the raid Chief Dinges had informed him that he had entered into an arrangement with the gamblers by which they were to be permitted to run their places undisturbed during fair week. He testified that he had taken the money from the drawer of the table and transferred it to his right hand to his pocket.

Permanent Home Desired.

The congregationalists of Nebraska are looking for a permanent home for Doane college now located at Crete. At a meeting of the State association held last fall at Fremont it was decided that but one college should be maintained in the state. Doane college was founded at Crete over twenty years ago, and until recently has enjoyed the united support of the church in this state. Gates college, located at Neligh, has been trying for the past few years to get recognition as a congregational college. Gates has many friends in the northern part of the state, and at the present time is making a hard but unsuccessful fight to obtain recognition. The association passed a resolution that it would maintain but one college, and a committee was appointed to select the college of preference and report at a future meeting of the association.

The committee met at the congregational church at this place yesterday.

The members of the committee present were Rev. Mr. Pindley of Weeping Water, Prof. Fred Franklin, Rev. Mr. O'Connell of Omaha, W. H. Russell of Omaha, F. S. Knapp of Bertrand and Rev. Mr. Cochran of York. After perfecting the organization, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to receive and report at a future meeting of the association.

The committee of five be appointed to receive and report at a future meeting of the association. The committee of five be appointed to receive and report at a future meeting of the association.

An inventory was recently made of the property now owned by Doane college at Crete, which amounted to $194,000.

An inventory was recently made of the property now owned by Doane college at Crete, which amounted to $194,000. The property now owned by Doane college at Crete, which amounted to $194,000.

A footpad made a bold and desperate attempt to rob F. E. McLaughlin, a Wells Fargo express messenger late last night.

A footpad made a bold and desperate attempt to rob F. E. McLaughlin, a Wells Fargo express messenger late last night. The footpad made a bold and desperate attempt to rob F. E. McLaughlin, a Wells Fargo express messenger late last night.

DR. GAPEIN'S CASE IN

Quo Warranto to Oust Dr. Somers Commenced at Lincoln Yesterday.

SLOUCH LAW HELD TO BE CONSTITUTIONAL

Habeas Corpus Asked by Liquor Seller White of Boone County Denied—Validity of Seward County Bonds—Other Supreme Court News.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 27.—[Special to The Bee].

Dr. Clark Gapein of Omaha proposes to settle the dispute between himself and the powers that be in Omaha by an appeal to the supreme court. Yesterday his attorneys called upon Attorney General Hastings and requested him to commence proceedings in quo warranto to oust Dr. Somers from the office of commissioner of health in the name of the state. The attorney general declined to do unless an indemnifying bond was put up. Dr. Gapein's attorneys then withdrew their request. Today an information in the nature of quo warranto proceedings was filed with the clerk of the supreme court by Dr. Gapein, who presented the case in his own person. The petition, stripped of its legal verbiage, sets forth that on April 28, 1891, Dr. Gapein was duly appointed commissioner of health for the city of Omaha, as provided by law, and his appointment was confirmed by the council. His term of office was to continue two years. On June 16, 1891, Dr. Gapein, Dr. A. B. Somers, did invade the office of the mayor and without warrant of law did usurp and assume the rights and functions of the commissioner of health of the city of Omaha. Dr. A. B. Somers, did invade the office of the mayor and without warrant of law did usurp and assume the rights and functions of the commissioner of health of the city of Omaha.

Liquor Law Constitutional.

Among the important opinions is that of the application of D. A. White for a writ of habeas corpus. White alleged in his petition that he was being unlawfully held in prison by the city of Omaha. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

The court held that the liquor law was constitutional. The court held that the liquor law was constitutional.

GREAT UNREST IN BRAZIL

Discontent of the People Taken Advantage of by the Monarchists.

ATTEMPTS TO STIR UP REVOLUTION

Armed Bands of Republicans Try to Suppress All Evidence of Sympathy with the Old Regime by Brute Force.

[Special Correspondence of the Associated Press.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 30.—Close observation indicates that the mass of people of Brazil are indifferent to any particular form of government. There are undoubtedly some sincere republicans and earnest monarchists, but the two classes combined form a very small part of the total population. The great danger to the republic, then, proceeds not so much from the strength of the monarchists as from the weakness of the republicans. Under ordinary circumstances the conservative feeling of the people would compensate for the want of devotion to the republican cause, but at present this feeling is in abeyance, being supplanted by a widespread spirit of restlessness and discontent, which, having no particular object in view, may be used for almost any purpose by able schemers who can succeed in controlling it. The overthrow of monarchy in November, 1889, was the result of this feeling, and of the long yearning for republican institutions. After November 33 the agitation in favor of monarchy became quite active and it was rumored that the army and navy would support the emperor's birthday, a revolutionary movement would be attempted by the monarchists. Mutilous error on the part of the monarchists, however, in the naval installation, strengthened the belief in the republic, and the troops were held in readiness during the day, which, however, passed off quietly.

The enthusiasm of the monarchists.

The death of the emperor on the 5th, far from dazing the enthusiasm of the monarchists, greatly contributes to increase it. The pathetic circumstances under which it occurred, the extraordinary honors paid to his memory, appealed strongly to the imagination and caused monarchial feelings, temporarily at least, in many bosoms in Brazil. The monarchists are now active, and by counter demonstrations on the part of the republicans.

On the emperor's birthday, cries of "Long live the monarch!" were frequently heard.

On the 17th a small steamer engaged in the coast trade entered the harbor flying the imperial flag. The steamer was perceived, and was sent out from one of the ironclads to investigate the matter, and the captain of the steamer, on being questioned, stated that he had been informed that monarchy was re-established in Brazil.

Retaliation by the Republicans.

On the evening of the previous day, a band of armed republicans attacked a small garrison of monarchists, and after dispersing them proceeded to the office of the Journal do Brazil, which it caused to host the republicans.

On the morning of the 17th, another band of armed republicans, composed, it is said, principally of roughs headed by cadets from the military school, made an attack on the curbstone brokers and put them to flight, afterwards parading the streets in triumph with shouts of "Death to the monarchy!" and "Long live the republic!"

Trying to Maintain Order.

The officers of the garrison have passed resolutions promising to maintain order and to uphold republican institutions, and the example has been followed by the officers of troops stationed in other parts of the country. In the city of Rio de Janeiro, the troops are prohibiting assemblages in the streets.

These republican demonstrations have effectively checked the monarchists, at least for the present. The editor in chief of the Brazil, after a long interview with the minister of justice, decided to discontinue the publication of the monarchist press. He declared that he would not be destroyed by a republican mob, but while many persons are convinced of the good intentions of the government, no one, in view of the number of printed organs of the monarchist press, believes in its ability to keep its promise.

Dr. Aristides Lobo, who represents this city in congress, says that the republicans of America should form an alliance against monarchism.

Cough Following the Grip.

Many persons, who have recovered from the grippe, are now troubled with a persistent cough. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure the cough, soothe the throat and relieve the lungs, effecting a permanent cure in a very short time. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

FILLMORE COUNTY CANDIDATES.

What a Geneva Man Has to Say About Two Possibilities.

Mr. V. C. Shickley of Geneva was at the Paxton yesterday. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same.

"My friend Peter Younger, Jr., of Geneva has not fully made up his mind yet about the nomination for state senator."

"My friend Peter Younger, Jr., of Geneva has not fully made up his mind yet about the nomination for state senator. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days."

"The town clock in Dubuque was seven minutes slow the other day, and dozens of people missed their trains for several days. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed."

"Leonard Ryan, a Dubuque moulder, had his hand and arm so badly burned with molten iron that the bones were exposed. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport."

"There are 108 regular teachers in Davenport. He is not down on the list of political wheelhorses, but he knows a few things just the same."