

WHISKY AND FINE COMBS

Medical Luxuries Prescribed by Dr. Keogh for the County's Sick.

EXAMINATION OF PECULIAR WORK

Members of the Board of Education Express Their Opinion of the Council's Call for a Statement of Expenditures.

Ever since the organization of the new Board of County Commissioners in last year's election, the administration had an African concealed in the wood pile, or at least in that portion relating to the dealing out of drugs to the county poor.

So thoroughly did the members become convinced of this fact, that a couple of weeks ago the committee on court house and jail inaugurated an investigation for the purpose of satisfying their own minds upon the subject.

The members of the committee are very cheerful when it comes to the question of talking and absolutely refuse to give their findings to the public in advance of the report that will be made.

It is a well known fact that last year the contract for supplying drugs and medicines was awarded to Alfred Schroeter, he being the lowest bidder.

It is in the prescribing that the commissioners find some things that are of considerable interest to the public.

There was another man who was a severe sufferer, and after learning that Douglas county first class whisky was the best, he had a hair brush, but the directions telling how the remedy was to be taken were omitted.

Members of the School Board Don't Like the City Council's Plan. The city council is not likely to find the Board of Education in a mood favorable to furnishing the itemized statement of expenses called for in the Jacobson resolution at the last council meeting.

Can You Eat

Heartily, with relish and without distress afterwards. We do not recommend to you Hood's Sarsaparilla, which creates a good appetite and so invigorates the stomach and bowels that the food is properly digested and all its nutriment assimilated.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, effective, but do not cause pain or gripes. Be sure to get Hood's.

REASONS AWFUL MAD.

An Inmate Passenger Who Had Been Confined and Fined.

It is an outrageous imposition!

This spoke a man in a crowded street car last evening, as he rammed a copy of the World-Herald into the car stove.

I thought that since because the newboy cried out the assassination of Minister Egan, I found only three lines on the subject.

The heading states positively that Egan was assassinated, while the faded dispatch, probably written by the Omaha editor, discredits the first statement.

One or two boys have been killed while up to such antics, and it is to be feared that a constant dread that more will meet their death in a similar manner.

The tug of war contest, an all-absorbing topic in South Omaha, and Bim's hall was crowded with visitors last night.

After being troubled with a frozen toe for eight years, Joseph Egan, a Holt county farmer, had the member amputated.

Frank Everitt, a Red Willow county farmer, had the member amputated.

Henry Bender and Thomas Askey were out rabbit hunting near Oxford, and the former was about forty-five feet ahead of the latter.

The World-Herald in its South Omaha department speaks of a "father who is soon to become a mother."

Magie City Miniatures.

One minute remedies make a great difference—a one minute remedy for bronchitis, choking up of the throat, lungs, etc.

Any grocer can supply you with Quail rolled oats—delicious for breakfast.

Mr. Kimball Opposed to Putting Them on Exhibition—Railroad Notes.

It having been suggested to President Kimball of the Union Depot company that he put the two sets of plans for the structure on public exhibition at an uptown business place.

Mr. Kimball thinks very few people have the time or patience to examine these papers, even if they have the technical knowledge to understand them.

Use Haller's Barbed Wire Liniment for cuts, cold sores and sprains—horses and cattle always get well.

Quail rolled oats are the finest made in this city.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Reckless Boys Who Daily Defy Death and the Motormen.

Malicious Meanness Which Makes the Conductor's Life a Wery Round of Profanity—How the Tug of War Went Last Night.

The motormen complain that a number of impudent boys, constantly growing, are constantly annoying them by stealing rides between H and Vinton streets.

Nebraska is famous for its fine oats. Quail rolled oats are made in Nebraska.

Pilger Methodists are preparing to build a parsonage.

The public school at Pilger, which has been the cause of some trouble among the Methodists, has reopened.

The Farmers Banking and Loan company of Superior has announced its intention of going out of business.

The defunct Hyannis Round-Up has been resurrected by O. Warner and rechristened as the Grand County Round-Up.

After being troubled with a frozen toe for eight years, Joseph Egan, a Holt county farmer, had the member amputated.

Frank Everitt, a Red Willow county farmer, had the member amputated.

Henry Bender and Thomas Askey were out rabbit hunting near Oxford, and the former was about forty-five feet ahead of the latter.

The World-Herald in its South Omaha department speaks of a "father who is soon to become a mother."

Magie City Miniatures.

One minute remedies make a great difference—a one minute remedy for bronchitis, choking up of the throat, lungs, etc.

Any grocer can supply you with Quail rolled oats—delicious for breakfast.

Mr. Kimball Opposed to Putting Them on Exhibition—Railroad Notes.

It having been suggested to President Kimball of the Union Depot company that he put the two sets of plans for the structure on public exhibition at an uptown business place.

Mr. Kimball thinks very few people have the time or patience to examine these papers, even if they have the technical knowledge to understand them.

Use Haller's Barbed Wire Liniment for cuts, cold sores and sprains—horses and cattle always get well.

Quail rolled oats are the finest made in this city.

REFORMERS STRIKE A SNAG

They Cannot Agree on the Question of a Prohibition Plank.

BUT THEY FINALLY ADOPT AN ADDRESS

Issues on Which They Favor a Consolidation of All Political Elements—Plans Certainly Calculated to Bring About the Millennium.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 28.—The national conference of representatives of the reform party, in session in this city, struck a snag when it came to the adoption of a platform.

The principle bone of contention was the liquor question. G. F. Washburn, national secretary of the people's party, and the other members of this organization present, labored in the general meeting, and afterward in the committee, for an address of the following:

We believe the solution of the liquor problem lies in abolishing the element of profit which is a source of constant temptation, evil and corruption.

The fight for "nationalizing the liquor traffic" was largely ineffectual, however, for it found no place in the address adopted by the committee to be presented to the convention of the people's party in St. Louis, January 27, 1892.

The address in its present form would not be acceptable to the people's party, and referred to the number of foreigners in the party, and said the prohibition clause should be modified so as to save to them the idea of individual right in the matter of beer drinking, held by them so tenaciously.

After the vote Taubek announced that he had the majority, and that he would not accept the address because it was in conflict with his statement of the prohibition question would not be acceptable to the people's party.

We are in favor of a consolidation of all political elements for the purpose of securing reforms in these matters.

That money should be issued by the government to meet the interest of any of our private institutions in sufficient amount to cover the business of the country, and such money should be full tender for all debts, both public and private.

That the national government should take the initiative in these matters, the chief fountain of corruption in our politics, and we demand a reasonable limitation of the individual right in the matter of beer drinking, held by them so tenaciously.

That we favor municipal suffrage for some of our educational institutions, and we favor municipal ownership of the same.

That we are opposed to speculation in land, and we favor the national government to acquire the land in certain extent, and we favor an exclusive coin diet for hogs.

That we favor municipal suffrage for some of our educational institutions, and we favor municipal ownership of the same.

That we are opposed to speculation in land, and we favor the national government to acquire the land in certain extent, and we favor an exclusive coin diet for hogs.

That we favor municipal suffrage for some of our educational institutions, and we favor municipal ownership of the same.

That we are opposed to speculation in land, and we favor the national government to acquire the land in certain extent, and we favor an exclusive coin diet for hogs.

That we favor municipal suffrage for some of our educational institutions, and we favor municipal ownership of the same.

That we are opposed to speculation in land, and we favor the national government to acquire the land in certain extent, and we favor an exclusive coin diet for hogs.

That we favor municipal suffrage for some of our educational institutions, and we favor municipal ownership of the same.

That we are opposed to speculation in land, and we favor the national government to acquire the land in certain extent, and we favor an exclusive coin diet for hogs.

PLEADED FOR TOM.

Mrs. Stevens Saves Her Abusive Brother-in-Law from Prison.

Tom Stevens is a blacksmith and boards with the family of his brother. Wednesday night he went home in a very jagged condition and seized his sister-in-law by the hair with the avowed intention of extracting enough to make himself a pillow.

Stevens was arrested just the same and yesterday his brother's wife appeared in court to testify against him.

The abused woman said that Tom wasn't really a bad fellow, but she thought about him being that he was a bachelor.

The judge was disposed to administer a whipping as suggested, but when he learned of the unusual good nature of the prosecuting witness, he concluded that Tom's offense was greater than he had at first supposed.

Stevens was allowed to go, but the judge left the court room smiling and shaking his head by turns at her exuberant relative.

Pastor First Baptist church, Pleasant Grove, Ia., Dr. J. B. Moore, Dear Sir: My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

My wife has been afflicted for several years with a complication of kidney and liver troubles. She has tried every remedy that has been recommended to her.

Pleasures of Memory.

What a blessed thing is memory! How it brings up the pleasures of the past, and hides its unpleasantness!

You recall your childhood days, do you not, and wish they would return? You remember the pleasant associations, while the unpleasant ones are forgotten.

Perhaps to your mind comes the face of some friend. It was once a pale, sad face. It showed marks of pain, lines of care.

It seemed to be looking into the hereafter, the unknown future. And then you recalled how it brightened when it recovered its rosy hue, how it became a picture of happiness and joy.

Do you remember these things? Many people do; and gladly tell how the health returned, how happiness came back, how the world seemed bright.

They tell how they were once weak, nervous, perhaps in pain, certainly unhappy. They tell of sleepless nights, restless days, untouched food, unstrung nerves.

And then they tell how they became happy, healthy and strong once more. You have heard it often in the past, have you not? You have heard people describe how they were cured and kept in health?

You certainly can remember what it is that has so helped people in America. It is not listed to what Mrs. Annie Jennett Miller, who is known universally as the great dress reformer, says: "Six years ago, when suffering from mental care and overwork, I received the most pronounced benefit from the use of that great medicine, Warner's Safe Cure."

Ah, now you remember. Now you recall how many people you have heard say this same thing. Now you recollect how much you have heard of this great Cure. Now you are ready to admit that memory is usually pleasing, that the highest pleasure comes from perfect health, and that this great remedy has done more to produce and prolong health than any other discovery ever known in the entire history of the whole world.

Denver Officers Knew Him. Chief Detective Howe of Denver has written Chief Seavey that Frank Miller, who was last week sentenced to sixty days in the county jail by Judge Holt, is a well known crook of that city.

Impaired digestion repaired by Beecham's Pills. Beecham's Pills are the best for all cases of indigestion.

Castle Rock Company. Institute treatment for liquor habit, $5.00; home treatment, tobacco habit $4.00.

Mrs. Seavey's Resignation. Mrs. Seavey has resigned her position as clerk and stenographer in the office of the chief of police, and left last evening for Hot Springs, Ark.

On the one hand there is $500 in cash; on the other, there is a cure for your Catarrh.

But, do you think they'd make any such promise if they weren't sure that you'd be cured?

George Augustus Sala writes to the London Daily Telegraph.

Russell Sage, the well-known financier, writes: "I have used ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for some years for rheumatism, and have found them to be of great benefit."

For the last twenty years I have been using ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for rheumatism, and have found them to be of great benefit.

Marion Harland, on page 103 of her popular work, "Common Sense for Maid, Wife, and Mother," says: "For the aching back ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS is an excellent comforter, combining the sensation of the sustained pressure of a strong, warm hand with certain qualities developed in the ingredients not found in any other plaster, and I find it superior to any other plaster for any other ailment."

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Dr. BAILEY'S Dentist. Third Floor, FARNAM STREET. A full set of teeth on rubber for $1.00.

Large advertisement for Dr. Acker's English Pills, Dr. Gluck's Specialist, and Joseph Gilloitt's Steel Pens, featuring testimonials and product descriptions.