

ARRIVING THE CENSUS BUREAU

Charge of Extravagant Management and Costly Favoritism.

DEBATE ON AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS

Democrats Assert That American Made Goods Are Sold Cheaper Abroad Than at Home—Want Their Own The Free List.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—The census bureau, its management and the extent to which it has been subsidized to political ends was the subject for two hours' spirited discussion in the house today.

While the discussion in a general way was upon party lines, the superintendent of the census was not without supporters on the democratic side, Representative Stone of Kentucky being among the warmest champions of Mr. Porter's efficiency and official zeal.

Mr. Henderson of Iowa—Do you refer to the number of Mr. Sayers—to both.

Mr. Sayers insisted that he had, that evidence had come to him from outside sources. It had been in the hands of the salaries of incompetent persons had been largely increased. There had been a useless expenditure of public money.

Mr. Henderson of Iowa—Do you refer to the number of Mr. Sayers—to both.

Mr. Sayers insisted that he had, that evidence had come to him from outside sources. It had been in the hands of the salaries of incompetent persons had been largely increased. There had been a useless expenditure of public money.

Mr. Henderson of Iowa—Do you refer to the number of Mr. Sayers—to both.

Mr. Sayers insisted that he had, that evidence had come to him from outside sources. It had been in the hands of the salaries of incompetent persons had been largely increased. There had been a useless expenditure of public money.

Mr. Henderson of Iowa—Do you refer to the number of Mr. Sayers—to both.

Mr. Sayers insisted that he had, that evidence had come to him from outside sources. It had been in the hands of the salaries of incompetent persons had been largely increased. There had been a useless expenditure of public money.

Mr. Henderson of Iowa—Do you refer to the number of Mr. Sayers—to both.

Mr. Sayers insisted that he had, that evidence had come to him from outside sources. It had been in the hands of the salaries of incompetent persons had been largely increased. There had been a useless expenditure of public money.

TENTATIVE TARIFF REFORM

Another Political Shibboleth Manufactured for the Democracy.

STORY OF JOHN BULL'S TARIFF WEANING

Elaborate Outline of the Democratic Scheme to Tear Down the Protective Tariff Piece by Piece—A National Political Gossip.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—The Springfield policy of attack on the republican high tariff by separate bills has found endorsement from the great political economist and father of tariff reform, Hon. David A. Wells of Connecticut. At the next conference of the democratic members of the ways and means committee a letter will be read, not only endorsing the Springfield policy as the wisest course at this time, but also suggesting that, even if the democratic controlled houses of congress and the executive, the separate bill plan, rather than a measure for general revision, would be the wiser course.

That the gentleman whose works and essays for years served as the chief democratic literature in the agitation for tariff reduction should approve the plan now adopted by the democratic committee is naturally a source of great gratification to Mr. Springer and the other members of the house who have stood as advocates of the separate bill policy as opposed to the demand for attempt at general revision.

The Democratic Scheme.

Now, North, Conn., Feb. 1.—My dear Mr. Springer, I have given considerable thought to your question as to the best method of procuring tariff reform by legislation, and find myself more and more inclined to the opinion that, even if the democratic party was in full control of both branches of congress and of the executive, the wisest and most practical plan would be what might be termed the "tentative" tariff plan.

Those Mean Republicans.

Suppose, for example, the proposed bill puts in force the tariff on such ordinary merchandise, on the free list as would be desirable. The argument in favor of such legislation is, that such tariffs do not use domestic industries, that all civilized countries make a point of encouraging such imports and exports, and that the tariff on such goods in the country develops artistic tastes among our people, which in turn creates a demand for artistic products and so calls into existence the industries of painters, engravers, highly skilled labor at high wages, both of men and women. But now we have a tariff on such agricultural districts with a political opponent's counter assertions that pictures are made by the hand of the slave, and that Europe usually pays better prices for meats if the American market would only be kept steady.

NEWS FOR THE ARMY.

Complete List of Changes in the Regular Service Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The following army orders were issued today: Captain Frank K. Upton, First cavalry, having been found by an army retiring board, incapacitated for active service on account of disability incident to the service, is retired from active service this date.

Western Promises.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The following list of pensions granted is reported by The Bee and Examiner Bureau of Claims: Nebraska: Original—Jesse Ingalls, Frederick A. Sibal, Seth M. Baker, J. A. Bear, William J. Moore, James O. Baker, Ernest Frank, Charles G. Levy, Anna Harris, William A. Hunt, Alexander Sample, George W. Wood, John R. Nunnley, Robert S. Roberts, E. W. Moore, Lewis C. Jackson, Robert B. Fulton, John Greenback, William J. Creech, Enos H. Kirk, Thomas C. Cunningham, Samuel H. Brown, Anton Dantz, William E. W. Moore, William W. Moore, Original widows, etc.—Mary F. Lambert. Iowa: Original—Myron Underwood, John L. Lewis, Edmund G. Baily, Orestes Maloney, Matthew P. Ryan, William B. Price, John T. Palmer, David H. Suttling, Austin J. Lewis, George W. Fisher, Thos. F. Beede, Melancho Bristol, Jeremiah S. Alexander, Alonzo F. King, Bennett Gayfer, B. H. Smith, James G. Smith, Wm. H. L. Petterman, John M. Peterman, Charles S. Holt, Henry Linsley, Deceased—Charles Chandler, James Young, Stephen V. Percival, James M. Johnson, Thomas J. Johnson, John H. Ston, Levi P. Wilson, Addison Dowdy, James McKinley, William Wall, Original widows, etc.—Anna Glad, Mary A. Glad, John H. Glad, John M. Vanzo (father), Catherine McGuire, Anna S. Linsley.

Crisp Forward to Leave the Chair.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—Speaker Crisp called the house to order today. He was very hoarse and his voice was hardly audible. Finally he left the chair and yielded the gavel to Mr. McMillin.

TO TRY DUNN'S SLAYERS.

FOUR TONESOME STEAMERS

Sole Representatives of America's Merchant Marine Leaving New York.

GRAIN SHIPPED FROM THE PORT IN '91

Annual Exhibit of Statistician Ferguson of the Export of Grain—Interesting Figures on the Trade—Largest Shipments in Ten Years.

New York, Feb. 5.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—William E. Ferguson, secretary of the New York Produce exchange, who is a recognized authority on the statistics of the grain export trade of this port, has just made his annual report. The table compiled by Mr. Ferguson shows the enormous increase of the grain export trade of New York and the dwindling away of the American marine. The American merchant flag is being driven off the seas by Great Britain.

The Completeness with which steam has superseded sail in the ocean carrying trade may be seen from the fact that 1,338 vessels which carried cargoes of grain from this port during the year 1891, only fifteen were sailing vessels. There were shipped from New York during 1891 68,222,538 bushels of American grain to feed the hungry mouths of Europe. Not included in this were 290,377 bushels of buckwheat which appears in the statistics for the first time, buckwheat never having been exported before in any quantity.

Kind and Quantity.

There were 47,706,253 bushels of wheat, 11,329,000 of corn, 1,401,913 of rye, 2,707,773 of oats, 1,943,019 of barley and 2,185,906 of flax seed.

There are only four American steamers left in the grain carrying trade. They are the old passenger steamers of the late American line which used to run from Philadelphia under control of the Pennsylvania railroad.

England Gets the Most.

The shipments of American grain to Europe during the year 1891 were larger than they have been for any year for ten years past as the following comparative table, prepared by Mr. Ferguson, will show:

DECEASED BY EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 5.—Twenty-five laboring men passed through here on foot today on their way from Oklahoma to Kansas City. They were accompanied by an employment agent and subjected to hard work and suffering.

ACCIDENTS AT LEADVILLE.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Feb. 5.—A run of accidents and tragedy has struck this place and vicinity. Hans Sorrenson, a miner in the Cronos, was instantly killed today.

MEMPHIS' MURDERERS.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 5.—Miss Alice Mitchell, the slayer of Fred Ward, when informed that the lawyers had said she would escape the gallows, became frantic and said that she looked forward to the day when she should be hanged as the happiest of all.

IN THE HANDS OF APACHES.

They Hold a White Girl Captive—A Pursuit Organized.

HE OUTLINES HIS POLICY AT A DINNER GIVEN BY THE REFORM CLUB.

New York, Feb. 5.—A dinner was given tonight at the Reform club to Roger G. Mills in honor of his return from his tour in the G. Shearman, Ex-Secretary Charles S. Fairchild, Francis L. Stetson, Congressman A. P. Fitch, Everett B. Wheeler, Louis B. Windmiller and other well known Cleveland democrats were present.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

He outlined his policy at a dinner given by the Reform Club.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action he would follow by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first words were in reference to the check which tariff had received in the house of representatives.

WINCHESTERS IN ELECTIONS

Louisiana Democrats Heeling Themselves for the Coming Contest.

THEY ARE BOUND TO HAVE A FAIR COUNT

Preparing for Possible Contingencies—River Factious in the Mist of a Big Row—Aiming to Induce Fair Play—Lively Times in Prospect.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 5.—The steamer El Paso arrived from New York. Her cargo included forty cases of Winchester rifles and thirteen boxes of cartridges, arms valued at $10,000.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

They are bound to have a fair count.

FIRE HAD A LUNCH.

Three-Story Residence on Woolworth Avenue Licked Up This Morning.

Cleaned Them Out.

At 9:30 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Gardfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechtel. Three one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Wilkes as a general store, were totally destroyed.

Cleaned Them Out.

At 9:30 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Gardfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechtel. Three one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Wilkes as a general store, were totally destroyed.

Cleaned Them Out.

At 9:30 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Gardfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechtel. Three one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Wilkes as a general store, were totally destroyed.

Cleaned Them Out.

At 9:30 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Gardfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechtel. Three one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Wilkes as a general store, were totally destroyed.

Cleaned Them Out.

At 9:30 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Gardfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechtel. Three one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Wilkes as a general store, were totally destroyed.

Cleaned Them Out.

At 9:30 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Gardfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechtel. Three one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Wilkes as a general store, were totally destroyed.

Cleaned Them Out.

At 9:30 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Gardfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechtel. Three one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Wilkes as a general store, were totally destroyed.

Cleaned Them Out.

THE DEATH ROW.

A Day's Record of People Who Have Passed Away.

KNOWVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 5.—Hamilton Gray, the oldest postmaster in the United States, is dead near Kingston. He had served as postmaster at Gray's Mill since his appointment by President Polk.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 5.—Dr. Gilbert Thayer died at his residence in Morgan park yesterday morning. He was 82 years of age. For the past fifteen years he had been president of the Chicago medical college.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 5.—Denny Killen, a well known business firm and a brother of Pat Killen, who died in Chicago in October, died at the city hospital yesterday. He was 75 years of age.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 5.—General James F. Robinson, the well known turfman, died at his residence in Lexington yesterday morning. He was 82 years of age.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 5.—David Clanton, associate justice of the supreme court of Alabama, died of pneumonia this morning at his residence in Montgomery.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Mr. John Hogan died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Rev. Benjamin St. James, F. D. D., editor of the Central Christian, died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Mr. John Hogan died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Rev. Benjamin St. James, F. D. D., editor of the Central Christian, died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Mr. John Hogan died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Rev. Benjamin St. James, F. D. D., editor of the Central Christian, died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Mr. John Hogan died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Rev. Benjamin St. James, F. D. D., editor of the Central Christian, died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Mr. John Hogan died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—Rev. Benjamin St. James, F. D. D., editor of the Central Christian, died at his home today at the family residence in this city from the effect of a paralytic stroke.