When the trouble between Rev. L. A. of Council Bluffs and the Hail First Baptist church, of which he is pastor, was settled some three months ago it was supposed to have been settled for good. The six or seven members who had been ac cused of fomenting discord among the mem bers were allowed to leave the organization in peace, the salary of the pastor was raised $300 per annum as a token of the good will of the survivors, and all appearances indicated that the difficulties had been overcome. But was a mistake. Last Sunday night at the conclusion of the church services a special business meeting was called and Mrs. A. E. Crafts, Mrs. L. B. Crafts, C. J. McNitt and Frank Compton were unceremoniously excluded from the church. No preliminaries had been taken the first intimation that the four unfortu-uates had been preferred, so that the first intimation that the four unfortu-uates had that anything was going to happen was whe, they were informed that it had aiready happened. They had a large num-ber of friends and sympathizers in the church, however, and a meeting of these was held Tuesday evening at the house of one of them to lay plans for a campuign. Some of the more hot headed ones were in favor of excluding the pastor at once, but cooler heads prevailed and it was decided to hold a pusl-ness meeting at the close of the praver meet-ing last evening and reinstate the four who had been excluded.

Biederman Assigns.

Yesterday noon the clothing store of 1 Biederman, at 502 Broadway, was closed up on a chattel mortgage which was placed or file a few minutes before in the recorder's office. The mortgagee was the Council Bluffs Savings bank, and the amount was $3,500, being represented by two notes running thirty days each, one of which was dated January 25 and the other January 27, 1892. The mortgage covered the stock, fixtures, book accounts and bills receivable. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon ar assign ment was placed on record, transferring the property to O. H. Lucas as assignce the benefit of the creditors. The value of the Biederman's store at $18,000, the stock in Biederman's store at Avoca, which is also covered by the assignment, at $4,000, and the bills receivable amount to $450.

temper of every one present was nearing the bolling point. At last the hubbub ceased sufficiently so that an organization could be effected, and just about the time Harry Westcott had taken the chair Hall and Henry left the church, announcing that all who did not wish to be arrested would better leave the place at once, as the patrol wagon would be on the ground as soon as it could be summoned. After the pastor and his friends had left the church things cooled down considerably and The meeting went on in comparative quiot. The first thing was to roinstate the four nembers who were excluded Sunday night. and this was done unanimously. After a long discussion, in which the difficulties between the pastor and the members were aired at length, it was decided to lay the troubles betaken by those who were dissatisfied with done, and that very soon. Either Mr. Hall must go, or a large portion of the church will be excluded. There were forty-five votes cast in favor of submitting the difficulties to a council, and from the remarks that were freely made on all sides it can be readily seen that no middle course will be tolerated. It was supposed at the time that the threat of Hall and his followers to invoke the aid of the police was a bluff game, intended to frighten the opposition into laying down their arms. Later developments, however, showed that the police were really sum-moned, but refused to come to the aid of the pastor, stating that it was none of their busi iess so long as nothing was done to disturb the peace of the community.

On Monopoly's Trail.

A bill, which has already been briefly montioned in the dispatches, has been introduced in the state senate by Senator Groneweg of this district. It proposes an amendment to the law which regulates the duties of the state railway commission, and provides simply that the word "steam" in the original bill shall be followed by the words "and electricity." If vassed, and it is said its chances are good, the electric raliways throughout the state will be put under the control of the raliway commissioners in the same way that steam railways are at present.

Thrown from a Cable Car.

Henry Gibson, the printer and book manu facturer, was thrown from a Dodge street cable car Monday night by a conductor. As the result of the ejectment Mr. Gibson is badly bruised. The cause of the trouble between the pas songer and conductor was that the night was cold and Mr. Gloson was riding on the grip car. He mid his fare on a seat near him and buttoned up his cost and thrust his hands into his pockets to keep warm. When the conductor came around collecting fares Mr. Gibson told him his money was "there on the seat." This wouldn't go with the con-ductor, who stopped the car and threw Mr. Gibson into the street.
