DEAF FROM CATARRH. I was the victim of the worst case of Catarrh that I ever heard of. I was entirely deaf in one ear, and all the inside of my nose, including part of the bone sloughed off. No sort of treatment benefitted me, and physicians said,

"I would never be any better." As a last resort I took Swift's Specific, and it entirely cured me and restored my hear ing. I have been well for years, and no sign of return of the disease.-Mrs. JOSEPHINE POLHILL, DUEWEST, S. C.

The postmaster finally set a watch upon the boxes that had been robbed, and last Wednesday evening he caught a 13-year-old boy named Andrews in the act of stealing letters from one of the boxes. The lad was arrested and ledged in jail.

He said that he met a man in a billiard room under the hotel in the same block with the postoffice, who gave him 50 cents to go up to the postoffice and get the mail out of three boxes. LOTS OF TROUBLE FOR THE DEMOCRATS

Plans for Building Beet Sugar Factories Abandoned Until After Election-A Relative of President Tyler Dies in the Poor House,

CHICAGO BURBAU OF THE BEE, I

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 29. Much soiled linen will be washed at the next democratic convention. Quite a batch was left over from the laundrying done at St. Louis four years ago. To this store much has been added, notably State Treasurer Ed Wilson's $5,000 note and the true inwardness of Senator Palmer's election to the senate. The quarrels of the democrats to be adjusted or to be fought out date back to the Morrison-Logan fight, when General Palmer and his friends allowed W. R. Morrison to make his canvass without their assistauce or co-operation. The Morrison-Logan contest was clean up to the time Morrison withdrew. Logan and he understood each other thoroughly on this particular point. The fight was to be fair and open, without resorting to outside influences. It degenerated into another species of battle subsequently. The apathy of the Palmer-Springer faction at that time has rankled ever since in the hearts of Mor-rison's friends, who, by the way, being in possession of all the facts relative to the election of the United States senator last winter, and nettled by the jeers of some of the other faction, are getting ready to oppose Palmer in the state convention. No Sugar Factories This Year.

Glenn, who represented an eastern syndi-Gienn, who represented an eastern syndi-cate of capitalists who intended build-ing extensive beet sugar factories in Galesburg, Marshalltown, Ia, and other cities, says that after a comparison of views and interests, all parties have decided not to do anything this season until after the presi-dential election is decided. Not a single fac-tory will be built in the United States this season on account of the doubt as to whether the sugar bounty is to be repealed or not. M. H. Weed of San Francisco, who represents Spreckies, that great sugar man, said to a reporter: "Spreckles is not going to give in to the trust and the report that he is give in to the trust and the report that he is going to sell his faterests to them and take stock in part payment is un-true. On the contrary, he is at the present time planning a coap for the trust. Oh, I can't tell you what it is, but the next move will surprise some people. I am on my way to New York now to consult with certain parties with regard to the matter."

The friend was the keeper of a boarding house at Thirty-sixth and Armage Grove avenues, with whom Mrs. Cooper boarded just before going to the hospital. Why Mrs. Cooper left the associations of her early life and went away to die among strangers is not known. It is learned that she was the divorced wife of a wealthy New Orleans ant W. J. Parke, Major Albert Hartsuff, lumber dealer. Her maiden name was Cooper and ner girlhood home in Atlanta had been supplied with every luxury.

Odds and Ends. Another historical museum is to be built on Wabash avenue. The principal feature of the new museum will be the old engine house at Harper's Ferry in which John Brown made his famous stand. Recent plans of the Baltimore & Ohio railway will make it
