After Years of Unsuccessful Search for a Cure, Martin Anderson Gets Relief from the Chinese Doctor A Voluntary Test

This is to certify that I have been a constant sufferer for many years with catarrh, asthma and bronchial affections of the throat, and tried all the patent medicines and remedies I ever heard of, but with no success. I treated with doctors in various parts of the country, but none of them could do me any good further than giving me shor temporary relief. I suffered night an-day, and continued to grow worse not withstanding all the medicine I had taken. I had almost given up my case as hopeless when I was informed by a friend of Dr. C. Gee Wo, the Chinese doctor, and advised to go and see him in the hope of getting relief at least, if not a permanent cure for my trouble. I was slow in making up my mind to make such a radical change in my treatment, as I knew a trial with the Chinese doctor would bring me, but I finally con-cluded to give him a trial, so I called at his office with that intention. I round the doctor a clever, entertaining gentle-man, thoroughly posted on my condi-tion, and it took only a very short time to convince me that he was the party I was so long in search of. He told me my case was curable, and that he could cure me, and prepared me a special treatment to suit my condition, and in two weeks I was so much better that I had the fullest confidence in the doctor's ability and committed my case to his treatment. I continued to grow better rapidly and am now entirely well. I owe my cure to Dr. C. Gee Wo, and am not ashamed to admit it. I advise all who want relief from their troubles to call on Dr. C. Gee Wo, and they will be cured. For all particulars apply or Republican Primaries Call Out a Very Enthusiastic Crowd.

GENERAL INDICATIONS OF HARMONY Usual Accommodations Entirely Insufficient to Satisfy the Hosts of the Faithful-List of the Candidates and Delegates Selected.

There were republicans visible all around last night.

They were as plentiful as they were dur ing the political landslide of last year. Contrary to all precedent established during the past ten years of the party's continuous defeat they attended the primaries. In all the wards the little bunches of stalwarts who never fall were swallowed up in multitudes too great for the accommoformal discussion took up the time of the enthusiastic republicans until nearly 11 This cannot be taken as anything else than an indication of the result that will follow the city election next Monday. In the First ward there was a spirited con-test between the friends of Alderman Casper and Henry Stevenson, and it took several ballots before it could be determined who should be the candidate for aldermanic honors. The last ballot resulted in a major-ity for Sievenson and his nomination was made unanimous. He is the manager of the Council Bluffs Lumber company and is a clean man and a strong candidate. The following delegates were chosen: W. C. Stacy, W. E. Rellen, A. N. Lund, E. C. Baldy, E. J. Abbott and L. A. Casen.

The longest and hardest fight was in the econd ward, where the crush was so great that it filled the city building and extended into the street. Several hundred votes were cast and it took a long time to count them, Five ballots were taken before it could be decided whether L. G. Knotts or C. A. Tippetts should be the candidate for alder man, and then Tibbets only secured it by one majority. Delegates; J. H. Pace, L. G. Knotts, J. C.Baker, C. M. Gould, C. S. Hubbard, C. A. Tibbets, J. J. Steadman and

In the Third ward there was about the same degree of enthusiasm, but it did not last long, as only delegates, were to be nominated. George F. Smith was chairman and L. Kinnehan secretary. Delegates: J. E. Harkness, M. H. Chamberlain, W. E. Haverstock, James Armstrong, L. E. Bridenstein, W. J. Sneathen, William Arnd and L. B.

The Fourth ward had an interesting caucus so far as numbers were concerned, but as no contest. Delegates: E. L. Shugart, Coory Reed, E. E. Mayne, — Fitzwarren, James Paterson and I. M. Trenor.

There was a love feast in the Fifth ward, and while it was at its height Alderman Smith was renominated by acciamation. H. O. Cook was chairman and Dell G. Morgan secretary, Delegates: W. A. Highsmith, George Gates, Thomas Peterson, Ed. Canning, John Madsen. Thomas Berwick, E. E. Cook and George W. Strong.

In the Sixth ward there was no contest.

but a great deal of interest and large attendance. Only delegates were selected, as follows: Wilson James, C. I. Clatterbuck, S. S. Elliott, F. M. West.

All day long yesterday one of the principal themes of conversation on the streets was the coming election and what the chances were for the various candidates that nad already been put up by the democrats and those who would be nominated by the republicans. On all sides could be heard expressions of dissatisfaction among the democrats. many of whom feel as though the ticket was the result of a put up job to oust a certain faction from power. Many who have nothing personally against any of the candidates announce their willingness to vote for anything except the democratic for anything except the democratic ticket, simply to show their disapproval of such tactics. A large share of this dissatisfaction, of course, came from those who sup-ported some of the unsuccessful candidates before and during the convention. The breach in the ranks is being taken advantage of by The breach the republican leaders, and every effort will be made to put up a ticket that will be ac-ceptable to the disgruntled democrats. The prospects are considered very encouraging for the success of the republican ticket at the polls next Monday, provided the right kind of men are placed in nomination.

Dr. N. D. Lawrence is being prominently mentioned by the republicans as among the possibilities for the nomination of mayor. His boomiet has sprung up within the last few days and be had made all his arrangements to take an extended ocean voyage dur-ing the coming spring. He has at last consented to allow his name to be used, and has given up the intended trip.

The New Directory. William Quigley of the Dubuque Dally relegraph is in the city distributing the copies of the new city directory to the subscribers. The book is to all appearances the most complete one that has ever been published for the city of Council Bluffs. It was compiled by J. P. Bushneil of Des Moines, and contains 10,600 names, which on the basis usually employed in figuring up the dations provided, and the caucuses that city's population from the directory, gives Council Bluffs a population of 35,000. In ad-dition to the list of residents of this city, usually occupy a few minutes of inthere is a complete directory of the county which takes up about one-third of the entire book. The front part of the book contains a great many engravings of buildings and scenes in and about the Bluffs, including those of every public school building in the city. All in all it seems to be a very creditable publication, and the people of and county are to be congratulated at their good fortune in having it.

> Skipped with the Stake Money. Andy Taylor, a well known barber of this city, acted as stakeholder at a wrestling match held in South Omaha last Friday evening, and about $150 was deposited with him by various parties who bet on the result. After the match was over Taylor was nowhere to be found, and he has not been seen by any of his friends from that day to this Some of his friends in this city claim to have received letters from him since his depart ure, but as these letters are dated from al over the country, from Kansas City to Denver, but little reliance is placed in these stories. Both he and the money have disapver, but little stories. Both peared, however, and the winners, who have never had a chance to see the color of their winnings, are anxiously looking for him.

> Surprised Their Pastor. The residence of E. M. H. Fleming, pastor of the Epworth Methodist church, 1150 East Pierce street, was invaded by about thirty of his members Monday evening without a word of warning. The visitors deposited with their host their tokens of esieem, among which was quite an amount of silver, after which they proceeded to enjoy them-selves. The surprise was in honor of the 70th birthday of Mr. Fleming. Among those present were Mr. Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Raney, Mrs. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smilie, Mrs. Rose Davis, Misses Cutler, Seymour, Davis, Nichols, West and others.

CHILL'S CABINET DIVIDED.

Propositions by the Minister of Finance Cause Resignations. [C+ pyrighted 1892 by James Gordon Bennett, 1

VALPARAISO, Chile, (via Galveston, Tex., March 1 .- By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald-Special to THE BEE. |-Ministers Pereira and Blanco Viel have resigned from the cabinet and Carlos Walker Martinez has retired from the council of state. All three of the members of the conservative party have likewise left the council. It is renerally believed that the other members o he cabinet will likewise surrender thei portfolios. The coalition ministry, it would seem, under the present liberal regime, can not attain any solidity. It is said that the cause of the resignations was dissatisfaction with the proposals of Finance Minister Valdes Vergara, to renabilitate Chili's finances and raise her credit in the world's Following England's Example. [Copyrighted 1892 by James Gordon Bennett.] Caino, Egypt, March 1 .- [New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE. |- The example of England in receiving credentials to the new khedive is being followed by other nations who have diplomatic agents accredited to the Egyptian government. Itata, the French minister, has already presented his credentials. Father Ohrwalder, the Austrian missionary, who recently escaped from the Soudan, on Friday made a touching recital to the Khedival Geographical society of his captivity among the Mandists. He says the Christian priests owed their lives to the opinion expressed by an Euleman to the effect that the doctrines of Mahomet ferbid that priests be killed or tortured.
