FOR PARKS AND VIADUCTS

South Side Citizens Express Their Sentiments on Two Important Matters.

THEY WANT A PAIR OF BOTH AT ONCE

Syndicate Park and the Clark Tract Looked Upon With Favor—Citizens of the South Side and the Urgent Need of Viaducts.

In response to a published call a large gathering of south side citizens assembled last evening in Mueller's hall at Eighteenth and Vinton.

Dick O'Keefe thought that the main thing was to get parks and roadways would come as a matter of necessity.

That disposed of the park matter and Hassel then moved that the council be requested to pass the ordinance ordering the erection of viaducts on Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets.

It was seconded by Mr. Kasper, who stated that the railroads were continually working against the city, and now that the city had the power in its own hands, it was advisable to bring the stiff necked corporations to time.
