

WORKING FOR OMAHA'S TEAM

Western League Managers Arranging to Secure This City Its Base Ball. RIGHT NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE

Business Men and Property Owners Will Be Asked to Make Up a Small Bonus—Outlook for the Season. JOHN W. SPEARS, president of the base ball club, is in the city, and after an afternoon with the committee appointed, will wait on Omaha's business men with the view of raising the small bonus the Western league asks for putting in and maintaining a club here.

At the most it is a negligible amount that is asked, compared with the amount necessary to make, and as long as the league guarantees the city a club during the existence of the organization, let it be one, two, six or ten years, vigorous support of this generosity should be demonstrated. The plans and specifications for the new building in the new park across the river are very elaborate and will be an ornament instead of an eyesore.

There is no time to lose. In six weeks more the season opens, and Omaha's grounds must be in shape for the preliminary practice by April 1. The live business men of this city know full well that conducted under proper conditions, the game of baseball deserves all the prosperity it has attained. It is not open to criticism by reason of the brutality which often attends foul ball or the gambling practices which surround horse racing. As played in these modern times it has almost been reduced to an exact science. Few pictures of outdoor life in America more stirring and diverting than those presented on the panorama of the national game as the car of summer rolls on from spring to its autumnal destination. That they will be reproduced and elaborated in the new Mid-City park can be anticipated confidently.

Mike Cudaby of Chicago arrived in the city yesterday and will remain at least for some days. He is a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination. He is a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination. He is a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination.

General Alger, speaking of his candidacy, said, "I have received many letters from southern republicans, and I am glad to hear that they are so interested in my candidacy. I have no fear of the result. I have no fear of the result. I have no fear of the result."

organized. The force of the wind made it impossible to repair the breaks during the day, but fortunately there was no occasion to do so. The roof of the building was in the rear of Collins' music store was lifted by the wind and dashed against the windows of the second story of the store, breaking every pane of glass in that end of the building.

T. B. Hatcher had just finished a 130-foot ball of twine, which was to be used for advertising purposes, which was completely wrecked. There was scarcely a movable sign left in the city, and although the total damage done to the twine was over $500, it will require considerable trouble to repair it.

Will Submit Bonds. The Board of Education held a special meeting last night to consider the question of submitting a proposition to the people to vote $25,000 in bonds for the purpose of building two additional school houses this spring. One of the contemplated buildings is to be located on the corner of 16th and Franklin in the northern part of the city.

Notes and Personalities. Ray Hall has returned from Lincoln. J. L. Butler of Danville, Ia., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Chairman Walker Reverses a Decision on Western Freight Arrangements. COLORADO AND UTAH LOCALS AFFECTED. Agreement of the Roads to Withdraw from the Defense of Roadside Traffic—A Decision That Came Too Late in the Season.

Chicago, Ill., March 8.—On December 10, 1891, the commissioners of the Western Traffic association passed upon various questions that had been referred to them, and the withdrawal of certain traffic subject to different local agreements in Colorado and Utah. One of the agreements referred to was that of the Colorado-Utah association, composed of the Colorado Midland, the Denver & Rio Grande, the Rio Grande Western and the Union Pacific roads, which had adopted rules and regulations covering all freight and passenger traffic originating at and destined to Colorado and Utah common points.

He Was Anxious to Marry. KRAMER, Neb., March 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—John Tatum, a young man living a few miles north of this city, was arrested yesterday charged with attempted seduction. It is alleged that he took two horses from parties living near the city and sold them at Gibbon in order to get a surplus of money for a wedding cap and suit. The preliminary trial was postponed until Friday, and in the meantime he is out under bonds. The wedding has been postponed also.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Washington office of the U. S. Bureau of Claims today secured for Alfred I. Spear, Davis Lake, N. D., a patent on an improved envelope. This case was only pending in the patent office a few days, and the fact that it was so promptly secured is a perfect blank for as changing the patent notes is concerned.

Buying South Dakota Lands. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., March 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There is no adequate number of buyers for the lands in the Sioux reservation. Scores of settlers are arriving here and the rush has not been equaled since the boom times ten years ago. The U. S. land office is now offering for sale 100,000 acres of land in this section and one real estate dealer sold sixteen quarter sections of 160-acre lots to one party of settlers from Chicago in a few days. It is expected that this section and crop prospects could not possibly be better.

At the Council Meeting Last Night it Was Decided that it Must Go. MIGHT BE MADE TO LAST A LITTLE LONGER. Experts Tell of Its Unsafe Condition—Park Lands—Voted by the Mayor—Ordinances Passed and Other Business Transacted at the Meeting.

The city council has decided that the old wooden structure along the line of South Sixteenth street, known as a viaduct, must go. This was decided upon at the meeting held Tuesday night. The ordinance declaring the necessity of having a new and modern viaduct was passed, but not without an interesting fight, which started soon after the council adjourned.
