Something Wonderful Going on at Stonehills Tomorrow, Monday.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS EVERY HOUR

Look to Your Right on Entering—Something Different in a Time Sale—Read the Introduction Below—It Explains Itself.

Tomorrow every hour we are going to place on a counter to your right on entering some wonderful bargains. We describe each one below, also the time they are going to be on sale. You cannot miss the counter. It is to your right as soon as you get into the door. Every hour the goods on this counter will be changed as you will see below. All we ask is five minutes of your time during every hour to change about these goods.

Read carefully below the following bargains which we offer every hour and be sure that you are on hand or you will not get the bargains we advertise. We shall begin the sale sharp at 9 o'clock, not before.

From 9 to 10 o'clock We offer 100 pieces of new spring calicoes, plaids, stripes and figures, at 31c a yard. We will not sell more than 20 yards to a customer. These are the Lodi calicoes and, as every lady knows, they are worth 8c a yard. We shall have enough clerks to wait on everyone that comes during this hour.

From 10 to 11 o'clock We give you a bargain such as you have never before purchased. It is about the same as giving the goods away, but for one hour the stuff goes. We will not guarantee this bargain to last the hour out, but think it will. If it don't, it'll be made better than the first one you see. We have a big lot of it, now, but as we shall not limit the quantity we do not know how long it will last.

It is about 10,000 remnants of silk elastic, running from one-quarter of a yard in length to two yards. We can have your choice of it for 1c a piece. We do not care how much is in the piece. It all goes at the same price. It is worth 25c to 35c a yard.

From 11 to 12 o'clock We offer 500 pieces of fancy plaid and figured spring dress goods, full 38 inches wide, double width, remember. It is worth 18c a yard. From 11 to 12 o'clock these goods go at 8c a yard. We shall limit this bargain to a customer.

We offer 500 pieces of shirting gingham, also a lot of blue and white checks for aprons. These goods are good quality, they having no starch at all in them. They go during this hour at 4 1/2c a yard. We guarantee them fast color.

From 12 to 1 o'clock We are going to give you a benefit. Our customers will no doubt remember the great sale of jewelry we held several weeks ago. We are now offering you goods that are worth from 50c up and place them on sale for the one hour at 19c. If you are a good judge you can get goods in this lot worth as high as $3.00, as we will hold nothing in reserve from this big stock of jewelry that we advertised, and we will sell everything for one hour at 19c. You can buy beautiful neck chains, breast pins, and the lace pins will sell well for 19c for as many as there is on a card that we throw on sale.

From 1 to 2 o'clock We are going to give the ladies who contemplate buying lace curtains a rare treat. We have 80 pair of lace curtains worth about $5.00 a pair. They are extra wide, so that one can be used for a window. In fact, they are the widest we ever had in the house. We offer these curtains for $2.95 a pair during this hour, and to make this hour extra interesting we shall give with each curtain a pair of fixtures. That makes, bear in mind, 2 poles and 2 pairs of fixtures with every pair of curtains free of charge.

From 2 to 3 o'clock We offer 25 pieces of extra quality, fancy outfitting of jewelry, for shirting tea gowns, wrappers, boys' waists, etc. This is none of your cheap stuff that has been selling around town for 5c a yard, but extra quality, worth 12 1/2c. It goes during this hour at 5c per yard.

From 3 to 4 o'clock We offer 50 pieces pants goods in remnants of from 14 yards up. They are the entire production of the remnants of a Trenton, N. J., woolen mill. They will make beautiful pants for boys, as well as wide, so that one can be used for a boy's men. For this hour we sell all these remnants at one-half price, and marked about one-half what they are worth, but for this hour they will go for just one-half what they are worth.

From 4 to 5 o'clock We shall offer 300 pieces of imitation china silks, worth 15c a yard, at 4c. We shall limit 20 yards to a customer. Do not forget that these goods at each hour mentioned will be placed on the right hand counter on entering our store.

Our spring opening of millinery goods will take place Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25. STONEHILLS.

GRAND SILK AND DRESS GOODS SALE

Monday the Banner Day for Silks and Dress Goods—Bargains Unheard Of—Prices That Will Surprise You Tomorrow.

Tomorrow we cap the climax by beginning the greatest silk and dress goods sale ever attempted in the state of Nebraska. We purchased from a New York importer 8,000 yards of dress silk. We placed part of them on sale Saturday, but have left the plums in reserve for tomorrow. We will not be advertised after tomorrow, as they will be all sold tomorrow, sure, without fail. If they are not the price will go up out of sight compared with what you can purchase them for tomorrow. Tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow is going to be the banner day. Be sure and come in tomorrow. What we want to impress upon you is that tomorrow will be a grand day, not the day after tomorrow.

Silks, just think of it, at 22c a yard. Such silks as other houses will sell for $1.00 for 22c. That is what we sell them at tomorrow.

At 6c we are going to offer tomorrow goods that the importer sold for $2.00 a yard to the wholesale trade, so you can have a fair inkling of the value of these beautiful silks. At 8c we shall offer silks that will retail in this city all over at $4.00 a yard.

All we want the ladies to do is to come in Monday and see this line of silks that we shall be selling tomorrow. There is at least one piece of every kind of silk made in this wide, wide world. There are china silks, Japanese silks, India silks, surah silks, glass silks, Peau-de-soie silks, gros grain silks, satin rhodames, crepe de choin, falles and in fact every kind of silk imaginable. Silks with two colors in them.

The magnificence of this sale is beyond our power to describe. All we ask of you is to come in and you will be pleased.

DRESS GOODS. If you are going to buy a dress, lady, this coming season, Monday will be your great opportunity.

We noticed in Thursday's paper an advertisement by a competitor advertising certain dress goods at certain prices. Well, we are going to offer them way below what they were advertised for by our illustrious competitor.

In fact we are going to use slang, "cut the life out of dress goods tomorrow." We have not the trade that want to buy a lot of truck for 5c or 6c a yard, consequently we are only going to advertise the better grades of dress goods, of which we received about 300 pieces by freight.

We will begin by advertising the very best grade. At 8c we offer in twenty-one different shades a line of extra quality and extra wide Henriettas. Genuine German goods, silk finished.

These are the $1.50 grade, the finest goods manufactured. At the same price we offer eleven shades in crepon cloth, worth $1.35 per yard.

At 7c we offer a line of Bedford cords, at $1.00 quality. One of our competitors advertised the Henrietta at 7c. We have thirteen shades in this same quality left which we offer tomorrow at 5c a yard. These goods are strictly all wool and the silk finished.

At 5c we offer a line of six different plaids and stripes in camel's hair and flannels, worth 85c to $1.00 a yard.

At three shillings we shall offer a line of plain dress goods that our competitors advertised at 30c a yard. In fact, they are worth 75c. They are the identical goods they advertise.

Do not get this opportunity pass if you want to get a dress way below the regular price. One of our competitors is advertising that they are sole agents for the P. & P. kid gloves. We handle this line, and our prices are 25c a pair below what they are advertised for by the firm claiming to be the sole agent.

Our opening of spring millinery goods will take place Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25. STONEHILLS.
