William Filfeld commenced a suit for a divorce in the district court yesterday against his wife, Moray Filfeld, alleging desertion as a ground.

The Royal Neighbors of America, Lady camp No. 1, will give one of their delightful socials in Knights of Pythias hall on Wednesday evening, March 22.

A team belonging to E. Evers ran away yesterday and collided with V. Slend's delivery wagon at the corner of Broadway and First street, badly damaging it.

John Marbury was fined $10 in police court yesterday for committing an assault and battery on H. A. Wolan a few nights ago while attending a dance on Eleventh street.

Francis M. Churchill and Mrs. Martha Bradstreet of York, Neb., were married yesterday afternoon at Kiehl's hotel, Rev. H. Barton of the Trinity Methodist church officiating.

Mayor Lawrence has taken the private office of the chief of police in the patrol house for his own office, and will be there each day from 10 to 11 o'clock and from 1:30 to 2 for the transaction of city business.

An appropriation of $10,000 has been made by the legislature for improvements at the Dead and Dumb institute during the coming year. The crates total $25,000, but this sum was set aside, along with a lot of others.

P. Potwin, a porter at the Ogden house, was arrested yesterday morning for hitting up on something stronger than water and causing a disturbance at the hotel. He was released with a $100 bond and a warning.

Interesting meetings are being held every night at the Union Christian Mission on upper Broadway. One of the largest audiences of the season was present at the one held last night. Rev. Springer of Taylor street delivered an address.

Pottawattamie tribe, No. 21, improved order of Elks, will meet this evening in regular council in their wigwam, corner of Broadway and Main streets, at 7:30 o'clock for work in the hunter's degree. Visiting chiefs are welcome.

Special session of Harmony chapter, No. 25, Order of Eastern Star, will convene in regular council in their wigwam, corner of Broadway and Main streets, at 7:30 o'clock for work in the hunter's degree. Visiting chiefs are welcome.

The following foreclosure suits were commenced in the district court yesterday: Charles Elmendorf against George W. Scott, W. S. Mayne and R. S. Mayne; A. M. Rich against M. L. Sears, Russ Brothers Clear Manufacturing company and P. E. Seabrook.

A decree of foreclosure was handed down by Judge McGee yesterday in the superior court in favor of Augusta Lohan against the Council Bluffs and Omaha Chautauque assembly et al, for five acres of land included in the grounds, the value of the judgment being $750.57.

An alarm of fire was sent in yesterday morning from the Garrig House on Fourth street. A defective fuse had set fire to the wainscoting in the kitchen of the house occupied by W. W. Garrig and family. The fire was extinguished by the fire department before the women arrived, and the damage was very slight.

The committee that has been circulating the subscription list for the Chautauque assembly guarantee fund has succeeded in raising over $7,000. They claim that the prompt response to the list will enable them to prepare the finest program that has ever been presented since the starting of the assembly.

Marriage licenses issued yesterday to the following parties: E. M. Heinson and Rosa Wherry of Omaha; F. M. Churchill and Martha Bradstreet of York, Neb.; James E. Taylor and Mrs. M. A. Taylor of Iowa; and Hattie Hillman of Walnut; Jens Nielsen and Marie A. Seniberg of Rock Creek township; Fred A. Spencer and Anna Conover of Council Bluffs.

A mistake of the printer in leaving out a cipher in yesterday's report of the city council proceedings caused the statement to be made that the total amount of taxes made over to the city treasury by the marshal during the past year was $4,346.62. If this were true the marshal would have received several thousand dollars in the hole, but the item should have read $43,346.62, which leaves a net profit of nearly $15,000 to the city.

The man who attempted to burglarize the residence of Postmaster I. M. Troyer last night before last and who refused to give his name to the officers, and who is charged with the break into the Metropolitan house safe, is George Anderson. It is pretty well settled, however, that this is an alias, as the officers are positive that he is Bill, who was sent to the penitentiary for attempting to break into the Metropolitan house safe. He and his confederate, George Wells, will have a hearing in police court this morning.

Miss Councilman, an accomplished trimmer, has arrived from the east and will have charge of the trimming department of Miss Davidson's millinery parlors. Miss Councilman comes highly recommended and Miss Davidson is prepared to meet all the demands of the ladies.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Defeat of the Gatch License Bill Causes Much Sorrow.

COULD SCARCELY BELIEVE THE REPORT

Disgust Expressed on All Sides at the Prospects of a Continuance of the Present Whisky Hoop Through-out the State.

The arrival of a telegram yesterday announcing that the Gatch liquor license option bill, which has been before the legislature so many weeks and which had aroused so many hopes in the minds of temperance people in the various cities of the state, had been defeated was anything but welcome in Council Bluffs. It was pretty well understood beforehand that the fate of the bill would be from the telegraphic dispatches from Des Moines, but many continued to hope that something would turn up at the last moment to avert the doom which had been decreed upon the bill.

The dispirit at the fate of the bill was not confined by any means to the democrats. Hardly a republican could be found that would not launch forth an invective at the heads of the republican representatives of the legislature for their failure to carry out the resolution to stand by prohibition, and it was not until the telegram was received that the last ray of hope flickered and went out.
