IOWA'S DELEGATION DIVIDED

Unable to Agree on the Question of Free Coinage.

NO FAVORS FOR THE BLAND MEASURE

Thayer County's Citizens Will Be Relieved of the Necessity of Paying Taxes for the Benefit of Indians-It Will Be General.

Washington Bureau of the Bee, 513 Founteenth Street, Washington, D. C., March 23.

It is reported that the democratic wing of the Iowa delegation in the house are wavering on the question of free coinage. Today THE BEE correspondent sought to ascertain their position as they know it at this time. Mr. Hamilton is counted and will probably vote against the bill. He says he has not declared himself publicly. Mr. Bowman wants to vote against it, but he says his constituents have told him to vote for free coinage. Messrs. White and Butler will cast their votes for the free silver bill. Mr. Hayes is the outspoken opponent of free coinage in the entire delegation and is an earnest advocate of an international bimetallic agreement before anything is done with the free silver bill. Mr. Secriy is also a believer in the international plan for settling the silver con-troversy, but he says he has not made up his mind whether he will support the Bland bill

Indian Lands to Be Taxed.

Senator Manderson has prepared a bill of great importance to all states having within them Indian lands. It provides that the lands which have been allotted to any Indians in severalty under the provisions of any law or treaty by which the lands are to be held in trust by the United States or are to be exempt from the taxation or which may here-after be so alloted, shall be subject to state and local assessment and taxation, the same as any other lands similarly located in such state, provided, however, that this act shall not authorize the sale or incumbrance of any such land on account of such assessment of taxation or in any manner interfere with the trust in which such lands are held by the United States while such trust continues, and further that no lands shall be assessed or taxed under the provisions of this act for a period of five years from the date of the approval of the allotments, and further that during the continuance or exemption the taxes so taxed or levied shall be paid from the treasury of the United States to the county treasurer or other legally authorized officer of the county or municipality to which such taxes are payable at such time as they shall become due and payable, and further that the taxes shall only be paid on receipt of the sworn statement of the county treasurer, or other legally authorized officer of the county or municipality to which such taxes are payable, showing that such tax has been legally assessed and levied and that it is then due and payable and the sworn statement of the United States Indian agent, or if there be no agent, of some officer of the United States designated by the secretary of the interior that the lands upon which taxes have been levied have not been assessed at a higher rate than other lands in the vicinity similarly located and improved, accompanied by the certificate of the secretary of the interior that the lands are within the state and courty described in the statement and that the lands therein described have been allotted in severalty.

The bill makes a continuous appropriation to meet the taxes and assessments authorized. This bill, it is understood, was sugsted by the condition of affairs which ex is at and near Pender, in Thurston county Neb., mentioned some months ago by The Bre specials as having been brought to the attention of Senators Manderson and Padlock and the Interior department officials by Mr. Pecbies. It would turn into the counties of Nebraska and some other states a per manent tax of considerable proportions. The bill has been submitted to Secretary Noble, his assistant, Judge Chandler, and Indian Commissioner Morgan, and meets their approval. The officials say there can be no doubt that the burden of taxation is borne by white property holders in many localities the latter got most of the benefit of the

he was confident his bill fixing $1.25 an acre as the uniform price for government lands would be passed by both houses of congress. It has aiready been favorably reported from e senate committee. Senator Carey says further:

"A circular was issued by the general land office in 1887 declaring that thereafter pur-chasers of desert lands would be required to pay 50 cents per acre at the time of original entry and $3 per acre at the time of final proof. Rulings in compliance with this circular at local land offices were contested. Though there appears to have been a great difference of opinion on the subject, the secretary of the interior on an appealed case held, in 1889, that the act of March 3, 1853, fixing the price of public lands within rail road limits at $2.50 an acre, was not repeated by the desert-land act, which fixed the price of desert land at $1.25 an acre.' This decision was reached under the rule of con-struction that statutes are repealed by express provisions of a subsequent law, or by necessary implication, and in the latter case there must be such a positive repugnancy between the provisions of the old and new law that they cannot stand together or be consistently reconciled.

"In some cases the land was entered at $1.25 an acre, and at the time of final proof the entrymen were required to pay for the land at the rate of $2.50 an acre. Applicaland at the rate of $2.50 an acre. Applica-tions were made by entrymen in some instances for the amount overpaid on final cer tificates. These applications were rejected on the ground that repayment cannot be recognized in the absence of express statutory authority.

"The committee finds that since the passage of the act approved March 3, 1800, which, among other things, amended the desert land law of March 3, 1877, the uniform ruling of the land department has been to declare the price of all lands subject to entry under the desert land laws at $1.25 an acce

"Desert lands are those that will not pro-duce agricultural crops without artificial in-rigation, which under the most favorable con-ditions is expensive. The committee, with-out questioning the decisions of the land department, thinks that the government is amply paid for these lands at $1.25 an acre, especially if an incident of their sale is a reciamation of the land.

"The second section of the bill authorizes the repayment to entryman of the excess which was required to be paid by them of over $1.25 an acre for desert lands."

SEVERAL IMPORTANT CASES

Contest of the Decisions Rendered by the Supreme Court Yesterday.

LINCOLN POLICE REGULATIONS SETTLED Powers of the Mayor and Excise Board Defined-Who May Discharge and Commission City Guardians-Many Omaha Interests Affected.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 28 .- [Special to THE Bur.j-The supreme court today handed down several important decisions affecting matters of interest and importance to the cities of Lincoln and Omaha, as well as to the state at large.

The case in which the people of this city were more particularly interested was the one in which the long contest between the excise board and the mayor was settled in favor of the former, The trouble out of which the litigation grew originated last July. The power to appoint and remove members of the police force was claimed by both parties to the controversy. During the temporary absonce of Mayor Weir from the city, Messrs. Kelly and Dooittle, who with the mayor compose the excise board, removed six members of the police force in order to guard against a deficiency in the police fund. When Mayor Weir returned to the city he at once reinstated the men who had been removed and removed six others. He claimed to be the sole judge as to which members of the force should be removed when the necessity for such action arose. A test case was made in the district court and Judge Field decided in favor of the position taken by the mayor. The case was then carried to the supreme court. The decision handed down today establishes the following points:

First—The excise board of the city of Lin-coin, under the charter thereof, has exclusive newer to appoint members of the police force power to appoint members of the police force of the city.

Second—Said board has power to remove and discharge members of the regular police force for cause, including the want of funds to pay saiarles thereof.

Third—The last ciause of section 91 of the charter of the said city, which authorizes the mayor to remove the police thereof for the purpose of discipline, is not in conflict with the provisions of the charter which confers upon the excise board the general authority to appoint and remove the police.

The original winds up with the following. The opinion winds up with the following clincher: "We conclude that the power of the excise board to appoint the regular po-lice is exclusive, and that they are authorized to remove them for cause, including a want of funds to pay salaries thereof." McNamee to Have a New Trial.

Thomas McNamee of Omaha was, by an opinion handed down by the supreme court this forenoon, granted a new trial upon the charge of murder. The case is not a savory one, but there is but little doubt of the fact that McNamee was convicted without much regard to the evidence in the case. He was charged with the murder of one Kate Nichols, an inmate of a house of ill-repute. The testimony taken in the lower court proved that the woman died from the effects of cerebral hemorrhage. The prosecution introduced testimony to show that the hemorrhage was the result of blows inflicted by McNamee some weeks previous. The defense proved that the woman had been s confirmed drunkard for years and that between the time the blows were said to have been inflicted by McNames and the day upon which she died she received severe in juries, once by climbing out of a transom and falling upon her nead while under the influence of liquor and at another time by falling down stairs. The supreme court de-cided that the evidence was not sufficient to convict McNamee and remanded the cause back for further proceedings.

Another Omaha Case.

An opinion was also nanded down today in another Omaha case, but the party most di-rectly interested did not meet with the same ess as did the more fortunate McNamee Henry Roush was tried in an Omaha court and convicted of forgery. He was tried under an information charging him with the crime under two counts. In the first count he was charged with forging an indorsement on a draft drawn by the cashier of the First National bank of Seneca, Kan., and in the second he was accused of knowingly forging to defraud. The verdict found him guilty on the second count, but made no reference to the first. In his application for a new trial he alleged two objections to the sufficiency of the information: First, that it was not made to appear that the draft was genuine; and second, that the intent to defraud was charged in general terms only. The supreme court denied the application for a new trial. The opinion is to the effect that it was not necessary to establish the fact that it was not by which the draft was drawn was a corpo-ration and that in an information for forgery it is sufficient to charge an intent to defraud in general terms. It is not necessary to alege or prove an intent to defraud any par-

Interested Parties May Not Testify. In the case of Rakes against Blazer, on appeal from Cass county, the decision of the lower court was affirmed. In the opinion handed down today Chief Justice Maxwell said:

Second—On the death of an intestate, his lands immediately decend to his heirs, subject to the right of possession by the administrator pending administration and to his power to self the real estate to pay the deuts of the estate, in case the personal property is insufficient for that purpose.

Third—Where, pending an action to set aside a deed to real estate and to quiet title, the plaintiff dies intestate, the action may be revived and continued in the names of the heirs at law of such deceased person.

Fourth—The mode provided by title 13 of civil code for reviving actions by conditional order of revivor is not exclusive. Section 45 of the code confers authority upon the court to allow the action to be presented by or against the representatives or successors in interest of a decased party. For this purpose supplemental pleadings may be filed and summons served as in the commencement of an action. Fox vs Abbott. 12 Nebraska, 33; Carter vs Jennings, 24 O. S., 182.

Fifth—Heid, that the present case was properly revived in the names of the heirs of the deceased plaintiff.

Sixth—Evidence held to sustain the findings and decree of the district court.

Of Interest to Adams County. Chief Justice Maxwell handed down as opinion in the case of Reynolds against Dietz, in which many people of Hustings and Adams county are interested. A synopsis of the opinion is as follows:

Adams county are interested. A synopsis of the opinion is as follows:

In appeal cases where the interests of the parties plaintiff or defendant are so connected that the appeal necessarily will bring up the entire record the failure to serve the bill of exceptions on some of such parties will not be cause for quashing the bill.

Second—In an action to foreclose a mortgage on certain real estate it was alleged in the petition in substance that after the execution of the mortgage the land had been sold to B. and others named, who assumed the mortgage as a part of the consideration for the land, the title being taken in the name of R as trustee. The proof tended to show that the land had been valued at $25,00.00; that certain parties named had each taken a tenth interest in the land, paying therefor in cash $1.184.00. subject to the mortgage of $5.00.00 on the entire tract. Held, that the trustee had the title in trust for those who advanced the consideration, and that in case of deficiency after sale of the mortgage premises each shareholder would be liable therefor in proportion to the amount of his separate interest in the property and no more.

Third—That the counterclaim of S. for services was properly rejected, as the proof failed to show a contract with the defendants which authorized him to render such services.

An Omaha Bank Case.

An Omaha Bank Case. In the case of the Union National bank of Omaha against Hickey, brought up on error from Douglas county the supreme court af firm the decision of the lower court in a pro-ceeding of garnishment in aid of execution under sections 344-249 of the code where the garnishee has been properly served with summons and appeared and answered and an order been made by the court requiring him to pay a certain sum owing by him to the debter into court, such order is final and will be conclusive unless appealed from.

WHEN MAY COMES. Omaha Will Show the World How Great is Her Hospitality. Omaha is going to go through the month of May 1892 in a manner that will cause the people to sing her praises from end to end of the continent. In May the Methodist general conference will be here and it will be the greatest test of Omaha's ability and willingness to entertain a large number of guests for weeks at a stretch that the city has ever experienced. It is encouraging to state, however, that the problem of securing private entertainment for at least hult of the 500 delegates is atready solved and the private entertainment committee has pretty good hopes of finding entertainment for about 300 by the middle of April or sooner. Considerable rivalry has sprung up among citizens who desire to have the honor of en-tertaining some of the most distinguished among the guests. Several parties are anxious to entertain the delegates from Mexico and from England.

Senator Stanford and wife of California will spend a week at the conference. They will leave for Europe immediately after conerence, accompanied by Bishop and Mrs. Newman. It is probable that both Boyd's theater and the old exposition hall will be retained by the local committee for the conference. The theater will probably be used in day time and the hall for lectures and night meetings. The two delegates from Japan are said to be highly educated gentlemen. One is a silk merchant and the other a leading educator.

 Indigestion, Dyspepsia

Symptoms. - Distress or oppression after eating, acid eruptions, belching up of gas or acid, loss of appetite and strength, nausea, headache, palpitation, sallow complexion, depressed spirits, hideous dreams, and a multitude of other miseries too well known to the average American.

To us science has never given a remedy for this distressing disorder, but Nature has given to the untutored Indian a never-failing remedy. It is undeniable that Nature provides for every want of man and beast; and, through the noble Kickapoo tribe of Indians, she has given us a vegetable compound of herbs, roots, barks, and flowers, called which is unfailing in its cure of all digestive and blood disorders. Indigestion and Dyspepsia are frequently caused by impure blood. Sagwa is Nature's own blood purifier and regulator of the human system. "Deputy Sheriff ORDWAY, of Epping, N. H., says: "I have used your Sagwa for long-standing Dyspepsia with unqualified success. I would not be without it."
