

NEBRASKA'S FOREIGN MARKET

How Local Manufacturers May Extend Their Interests in South America.

KINDS OF GOODS MOSTLY DESIRED

List of Firms Inclined to Compete in the Territory Most to be Filled with the Bureau of American Republics.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE, 513 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 24. Senator Paddock received today from William Curtis, in charge of the Bureau of the American Republics, a letter stating that if the names of any manufacturers in Nebraska desiring to introduce their goods into Mexico, Central and South America and the West Indies were furnished the bureau the latter would take pleasure in placing them in direct communication with importing merchants in these markets who deal in their line of merchandise. Mr. Curtis stated that there is a demand for all forms of provisions and other preserved foods, wearing apparel, ornaments, articles of household use, implements and machinery, vehicles, hardware, cutlery, building materials, drugs and medicines, stationery, toys, novelties, notions and luxuries of all kinds. Enclosed with the letter are blanks to be filled by the senator, setting forth the names of firms or company, postoffice address and line of merchandise of the manufacturer. Senator Paddock will be glad to furnish this information if the manufacturers and dealers in Nebraska will assist him with the information they desire to give.

Captain Grossbeck's Promotion. The long fight over the vacancy in the judge advocate's department ended today in the appointment of Captain Stephen Grossbeck of the Sixth Infantry to that coveted position. Captain Grossbeck entered the volunteer service in the Fourth Iowa cavalry in 1861 and was appointed to the permanent establishment in 1890. He has served for twenty-three years in the Sixth Infantry. He now becomes major on the staff. Major Grossbeck was promoted over the heads of more than 180 captains of infantry and nearly 500 captains who hold higher relative rank than himself. The president has as yet given no indication of his choice for the waiting brigadiership.

Miscellaneous. Senator Davis today made an argument before the United States supreme court in the famous South Dakota case of Smith against Gale, et al. Messrs. Totten and Mackey of this city appeared for the appellants and Senator Davis for the appellee. The house committee on public lands has agreed to report favorably the Doolittle bill for the relief of the settlers on Des Moines river lands in Iowa. The committee has struck out the provisions of the bill which the bill, as introduced, made, and directs as a substitute on that point that the secretary of the interior shall ascertain the amount of damages sustained by the settlers by investigation, after which Congress is to make the appropriation.

J. H. Baxter, recently appointed postmaster at Mills, Keya Paha county, Neb., vice E. K. Kuhn resigned; also W. S. Barton at Castana, Monona county, Ia., vice G. W. Carhart resigned; also J. H. Baxter at Van Buren county, Ia., vice O. H. P. Armstrong resigned. A favorable report was today made from the senate committee on public lands upon Senator Carey's bill providing that the Fort Fetterman old wood reserve, new land and the reservation and military reservations in Wyoming which have been abandoned shall be thrown open to settlement under the homestead law, 160 acres to each actual settler.

An application for a charter for the First National bank of Avoca, Ia., capital $50,000, was today filed with the controller of the currency by Charles E. Palmer of Sioux City.

In the homestead entry contest of Kate B. Jones against Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, the assistant secretary Chandler today affirmed the decision of the commissioner holding Burton's entry for cancellation. The motion for the entry for the redemption case of August Carter, legatee etc., against Luzero La Flamme, from Rapid City, S. D., has been denied by the assistant secretary Chandler and La Flamme's proof if satisfactory will be accepted and the entry will pass to patent.

The assistant secretary of the interior has affirmed the commissioner's decision in the desert land contest of James E. Fulton against James Peacock from the Salt Lake City district and the contest of Fulton is dismissed.

First Lieutenant Edward E. Dravo, Sixth cavalry, is relieved from duty at headquarters of the army and will join his station by April 10, 1892.

Senator Paddock is compiling an interesting directory of Nebraska officials and departments. Some days ago he sent out a note addressed to each man and woman listed as appointed from Nebraska asking for data of name, residence and date of appointment. His object is to ascertain whether appointments from other states have not been changed to his credit, and to insist that the state have credit therefor.

The house committee on agriculture has practically finished the consideration of the Paddock pure bill and expect to report it tomorrow. The committee has made a number of changes in the measure, most of which are of a technical character, intended to increase the stringency of the provisions of the bill. P. S. H.

Western Pensioners. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 24.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The following list of pensions granted is reported by THE BEE and Examiner Bureau of Claims: Increase Nebraska Original—Alfred F. Turpen, Louis W. W. Pryor, John J. Kipp, Stephen Arnold, James E. Morgan, Edward Matthews, Henry C. Beard, John S. Salisbury, John F. Lafferty, George G. Gibson, Thomas R. Acorn, Jerome Potter, John C. Engstrom, John Merrill, Jonas P. Nixon, Zachary T. Potts, Benjamin S. Taniguchi, Donald Seneca Wing, Christian Hoover, Robert Foster, Increase—Charles A. Groves, William R. Calvert, Reissau—Henry Mack, original widows, etc.—Russell Sweet's father.

Iowa: Original—Zimri Elliott, Francis H. Leaning, Samuel Miller, James Drake, William Hillerman, Arnold, Olson, Nelson Jones, Sylvester Moacham, Henry Green, John S. Anderson, Christian T. Fossum, Joseph Wirtner, deceased, Joseph S. Taniguchi, Edward Crosby, James Jones, William A. Wright, William Fry, Henry J. Deaton, Almon D. House, James Cambridge, Daniel A. Miller, Burton L. Cummings. Additional—Donald McDonald, George W. Hampton, Henry W. Clark, Melonchon Doren, Joseph States, William G. Treagan, Increase—Lebanon Kinnes, William Antrim, Alonzo T. Foster, Francis M. McAtee, Gottlieb Benning, Levi H. Meads, Ezra J. Hardest, Thomas Fisher, Reissau—Lorenzo B. Young, Daniel P. O. Cattel, Charles J. Goldswaite. Original widows, etc.—Minors of George H. Snell, Mary E. E. Miller, Minerva Moore, Jane B. Clark.

South Dakota: Original—John Johnson, Daniel Ryan, Edward Burgey, additional—Charles P. Hurd, George Kennedy.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla destroys your poison, all remedies for skin disease, eczema, rheumatism, its timely use saves many lives. Dr. Birney, nose and throat. Itz big

He Robbed a Boy. Yesterday afternoon 13-year-old William Noble, who lives with F. Lauchinger near the Union Pacific freight yards, was sent to the depot with $15 to pay a freight bill and was held up and the money taken from him by a tall, well-dressed man. The boy ran home and told his story. He said that the man held him by the arm while he searched his pockets for the money. After finding it the highwayman gave the lad a slap in the face and quickly disappeared. A description of the robber was left with the chief of police.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the best of all remedies for children teething. 25 cents a bottle. Cashier Dawson's Body Recovered. LARAMIE, Wyo., March 24.—The body of

WHERE DID THE MONEY GO

World's Fair Funds Vanish and Leave No Indication of Their Presence.

ANOTHER SET OF ACCOUNTS MIXED UP

When President Strang Comes Back from Texas He May Tell What Was Done with the Money—Sentiments of the Commissioners.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 24.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The Nebraska Columbian commission held its regular monthly meeting today, there being present Messrs. Sawyer, Mobley, Gale and Weiss, the latter two attending the meeting for the first time since their appointment by Governor Boyd. Commissioner General Garneau was also present during the forenoon session, but he did not attend in the afternoon, he took the train for Chicago on business connected with his office. But little of importance was done at the meeting. There seems to be a general feeling that the commission as at present constituted is not destined to exist much longer. The day was passed mostly in a general discussion. The approval of the journal went over until the next meeting. D. P. Ashburn, representing the Nebraska State Dairyman's association, addressed the commission respecting concessions to be asked from the national board of control in regard to dairy exhibits. Mr. Ashburn was given a letter of credentials and endorsement. Commissioner General Garneau was instructed to advertise for bids for the erection of the Nebraska pavilion immediately upon receipt of notice of the national board of control in regard to dairy exhibits. Plans and specifications of Architect Woods by the proper authorities at Chicago, the advertisement to be inserted in two issues of THE BEE and World-Herald of Omaha, the Journal of Lincoln and the Herald of Chicago. Bids are to be received within ten days of the date of the first insertion of the advertisement. Commissioner Weiss offered the following resolution which was adopted: Resolved, That in the event of the rejection of the plans and specifications of A. W. Woods by the authorities at Chicago, Commissioner General Garneau shall immediately advertise for new plans and specifications, said advertisement to be inserted one time in each of the following papers: THE BEE, World-Herald and State Journal. Plans and specifications to be sent to the commission at the next regular meeting at the governor's office in Lincoln on April 1.

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

WHERE DID THE MONEY GO

World's Fair Funds Vanish and Leave No Indication of Their Presence.

ANOTHER SET OF ACCOUNTS MIXED UP

When President Strang Comes Back from Texas He May Tell What Was Done with the Money—Sentiments of the Commissioners.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 24.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The Nebraska Columbian commission held its regular monthly meeting today, there being present Messrs. Sawyer, Mobley, Gale and Weiss, the latter two attending the meeting for the first time since their appointment by Governor Boyd. Commissioner General Garneau was also present during the forenoon session, but he did not attend in the afternoon, he took the train for Chicago on business connected with his office. But little of importance was done at the meeting. There seems to be a general feeling that the commission as at present constituted is not destined to exist much longer. The day was passed mostly in a general discussion. The approval of the journal went over until the next meeting. D. P. Ashburn, representing the Nebraska State Dairyman's association, addressed the commission respecting concessions to be asked from the national board of control in regard to dairy exhibits. Mr. Ashburn was given a letter of credentials and endorsement. Commissioner General Garneau was instructed to advertise for bids for the erection of the Nebraska pavilion immediately upon receipt of notice of the national board of control in regard to dairy exhibits. Plans and specifications of Architect Woods by the proper authorities at Chicago, the advertisement to be inserted in two issues of THE BEE and World-Herald of Omaha, the Journal of Lincoln and the Herald of Chicago. Bids are to be received within ten days of the date of the first insertion of the advertisement. Commissioner Weiss offered the following resolution which was adopted: Resolved, That in the event of the rejection of the plans and specifications of A. W. Woods by the authorities at Chicago, Commissioner General Garneau shall immediately advertise for new plans and specifications, said advertisement to be inserted one time in each of the following papers: THE BEE, World-Herald and State Journal. Plans and specifications to be sent to the commission at the next regular meeting at the governor's office in Lincoln on April 1.

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

At the meeting this forenoon it transpired that the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Woods of this city and adopted by the board were rejected by D. H. Burnham, superintendent of construction at Chicago. Mr. Burnham pointed out his objections and Mr. Woods has prepared a new set of plans of his own, which he has submitted to the powers that be. At the suggestion of the supervising architect he made certain alterations to his plans to Lincoln with his revised plans. In order to ascertain whether the Chicago authorities had arrived at any conclusion in regard to revised plans received from Lincoln, Mr. Woods a telegram was sent to Chicago this morning. This afternoon the following letter was received: "Woods to Mr. Garneau: Your revised plans to Woods. This information created something of a flurry among the members of the commission who favor the plans of D. H. Burnham."

Continental Clothing House. Men's Department.

Special Sale of Men's Cheviot Sack Suits, $5, $6.50, $7.50, $7.75 and $8, unequalled in the history of the clothing business for quality, finish and price. Styles all new and material fresh from the looms.

Men's Fancy Cassimere Sack Suits, Price $5.

Don't try to figure out how we can sell such a suit for $5. What you can afford to pay is the thing for you to settle. We have resolved to make this sale one long to be remembered and prices must not stand in the way. The regular price of this suit is $9. As a big leader at this sale we will sell them at $5, in all sizes. See samples in show window.

$6.50 is the price for a neat gray check cheviot, medium color, elegantly made and trimmed, equal to any $12 suit in our stock and would be cheap at that price. We will sell them for $6.50 as long as they last. See samples in window, but don't be satisfied with looking at them through glass, step inside and we will cheerfully let you examine them.

$7.50, $7.75 and $8.—Three of the greatest bargain suits ever shown in Omaha. Remember, we sell no shoddy at any price. Our special sales always means honest clothing, made in our own work rooms. There can be only one verdict about this line of suits and that is that they are rare values and the sooner you own one the better. One of these $7.50 styles is sold in Omaha today for $12.50. Our price remember, is $7.50. We don't offer you only a few suits. We have plenty of them and all sizes.

At $9.50 to $12.00 you can have your choice from the best goods produced this season. Our stock of men's nobby, medium cost business suits surpasses any ever shown in Omaha, in extent, variety and quality.

Spring Overcoats.

We have no room in this ad. to talk about Spring Overcoats. They are all ready. Just notice some of the leaders in our window. $10, $12 and $15. How is that! Handsome light cheviot, full box, silk-faced to the edge, tailor-made for $11.50. You can have them as long as they last at this price.

On Saturday we will sell 350 pairs of genuine Sawyer cassimere pants at $3.50 a pair, worth $5.50, and sold in every clothing house in the country at this price.

Saturday, Boys' Department. Suits $2 and $2.50. We will sell 250 Boys' Knee Pant Suits, all wool cheviot and cassimere at $2 each, ages 6 to 14. At $3.50 we will sell 150 suits marked down from $5 and $6. Pants 25, 35 and 50 cents. 500 pairs of Knee Pants, 25, 35 and 50 cents for Saturday, and your choice of our boys' nobby spring hats at 50 cents.

FREELAND, LOOMIS & CO.

If the plan is finally adopted arrangements will be made to hold battalion encampments this fall instead of a general state encampment. It will be impossible to hold the latter as the appropriation for the purpose is already exhausted.

Leighty Held for Trial. The hearing of W. C. Leighty for unlawful tampering with the mails was continued today. Most of the forenoon was consumed with the testimony for the defense. Leighty was released on $1,000 bail, which was held by the president upon the recommendation of the commissioner after the claim for which it was drawn had been duly examined and audited by the commission at a regular meeting. The hearing was held in the morning at 10 o'clock. Leighty was held for trial on the charge of tampering with the mails. He was held for trial on the charge of tampering with the mails. He was held for trial on the charge of tampering with the mails.

The Lincoln team in the state base ball league will soon be complete. Manager Howarth has signed nearly the full complement of players, but is still looking for good men.

A violin recital by August Hagenow, assisted by Mary E. Latimer, soon will be one of the musical events of the week. It will take place at the Conservatory of Music Friday evening. No admission fee is to be charged.

Fred Reinhart has obtained a judgment against the city of Lincoln for the sum of $225. He was awarded a verdict of $25 for grading and exposing his office and $190 amount in order to prevent the case being appealed.

Five or six parties have made application for liquor licenses. Lieutenant Wilson G. Stammer, the recruiting officer for the Twenty-first infantry, will be ordered to leave the city and return to his post early in April, owing to the transfer of his regiment to Forts Porter and Niagara in New York state.

Four minor permits, aggregating $700, were issued by the superintendent of buildings yesterday.

Frank Powell, the chicken thief, was fined $100 and costs by Judge Berra for carrying concealed weapons.

Matt Neu was held to the district court by the police judge yesterday for resisting a lawful arrest.

Officer Vizard yesterday afternoon found in a pawnshop a $70 overcoat, which was identified as one recently stolen from Charles E. Bibbens of the city by the police.

The South Side Citizens club was to have held a meeting last night at Eighteenth and Vinton, but as the attendance was small an adjournment was taken until Thursday night, April 7.

The Unitarian church people, who have secured Prof. John Flato to lecture on "The Discovery of America" in their church on Monday evening next, propose to charge only 50 cents admission to the lecture. Tickets will be on sale at Chase & Eddy's.

Frank Kitchell, who was arrested and held to the district court on the charge of having obtained $1,400 from the proprietors of the Casey hotel by false pretenses, was released from the county jail yesterday afternoon. He gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance.

Dave McAnis, a farmer living near Florence, has a dislocated shoulder. He was injured by a fall from a wagon while attempting to handle a runaway team. The accident occurred at Seventeenth and Nicholas and the injured man was taken by the patrol wagon to the residence of friends at 3428 South Ninth street.

Judge Ferguson is hearing evidence in the case of August Hagenow against the Metropolitan ice company. The plaintiff was in the cold storage business at Ninth and Harney streets and claims that he was damaged to the extent of $8,000 on account of the defendant having failed to comply with the terms of a contract agreeing to furnish ice.

The husband of Mrs. Koskoph, who was convicted of shooting and killing $200 worth of game, arrived in the city yesterday and attempted to settle the matter. Hayden Brown was willing to settle the matter for $17 and the money was paid. Stonehill was next seen and wanted $500 to call the thing square. Mr. Koskoph hopes to have everything arranged today and will take his wife back home with him.

Dr. Birney cures catarrh. BEB bldg PERSONAL PARAPHRASIS.

F. L. Howell of Albion is at the Dellone. L. Jacoby of Des Moines is at the Murray. V. C. Stickle of Geneva is at the Paxton. F. L. Huston of Kearney is at the Arcade. W. C. Price of St. Joseph is at the Murray.

H. A. Blenkinson of Hastings is at the Millard. E. H. Decker of Des Moines is at the Dellone. H. G. Leavitt of Grand Island is at the Paxton.

Frank J. Galbraith of Albion is at the Arcade. John T. Mallalieu of Kearney is at the Millard. G. E. Donnagton of Falls City is at the Millard.

P. H. Hovverman of Arlington, Neb., is at the Arcade. E. P. Fountain of Lincoln is registered at the Paxton.

R. A. Harton of Weston, Neb., is stopping at the Arcade. W. M. Evans of Malvern, Ia., is at the Paxton.

W. M. Alden of Hyannis, Neb., is registered at the Dellone. J. J. Farley and wife of Marquette, Neb., are registered at the Paxton.

Miss Annie Strook of Peru, Neb., is among the lady guests at the Millard. Dr. A. Franklin R. Carpenter of Rapid City, S. D., is stopping at the Paxton.

L. M. Littlewood and Alex. C. Gutz of Norfolk are registered at the Millard. J. S. Edwards, J.