

WINKEY ON THE FLOOR

Author of Tariff Bill Appears in the House and Hears It Criticized.

PERSISTS IN PURSUING PINKERTONS

Watson of Georgia Cannot 'Catch the Speaker's Eye'—Amusing Episode in a Generally Interesting Session.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31.—The people's party representatives made an attempt in the house today to call up the anti-Pinkerton resolution introduced some time ago by Mr. Watson.

The resolution was referred to the committee on judiciary before it came several times in advocacy of it, but thus far has been unable to secure any report from the committee.

Mr. Watson asked consent to introduce a resolution calling upon the judiciary committee to report the resolution to the house without delay.

Other members of the committee at that time, the speaker did not recognize Mr. Watson, and he was compelled to await the transaction of some preliminary business.

After that he again demanded recognition several times, but Mr. Burrows, Dallan and other leaders of the republican side, who refuse to stir up all possible strife between the people's party and the democratic majority, but the speaker failed to recognize him.

The regular order was ordered and the people's party was unable to get its grievance heard.

Watson Says His Party Will Persist. "It is our intention," said Mr. Watson, "to call the public attention, and the attention of the house, to this matter from day to day until we force the committee to act, which has been smothering our anti-Pinkerton resolution, to report it. It is in the hands of Mr. Oates, who is the chairman of the subcommittee which I referred to."

At that gentleman's request I have appeared before his committee several times to urge the passage of the resolution, and while we concede to him the right to oppose it, we do not concede any committee the right to smother any matter referred to this congress, and we will propose a remedy, or even to inquire into the subject of abuses, the people will know where to pick up the matter.

Immediately after this little episode, which was really a pantomime exhibition, the record showing that Messrs. Watson and Simpson either got their names on the committee to get recognition, the house resolved itself into committee of the whole for consideration of the tariff bill.

Government's Policy on the Floor. The most significant event in the tariff discussion today was the presence on the floor of Governor McKinley, the author of the law against which all the democratic speeches were directed.

Mr. Wheeler is an energetic talker and when he took the floor to conduct his speech began a week of debate on the tariff bill, he received the attention of the house. He spoke but for a brief space of time, which was devoted to a denunciation of the McKinley act.

Mr. Kyle, Mr. Stockdale and Mr. Norton of Missouri favored the measure, Mr. Horton of D. C., Mr. C. C. Johnson of Michigan, Messrs. Youmans and Stout of Michigan, but the majority of the committee were in favor of the measure.

Mr. Morgan's Little Scheme. The debate on silver in the senate will not begin until Monday and will, it is believed, last about a week. Mr. Morgan's purpose in introducing the resolution was to bring on a debate was clearly indicated in the remarks he made today in the senate.

He desires the people to know the attitude of the senators of both parties on the silver bill, and to turn the debate as to draw out their views, or to induce them to come from their hiding, and to be drawn from their silence. The vote on his resolutions will not be of any significance, as they propose an inquiry to which all senators are willing to assent.

Mr. Morgan has succeeded in disquieting the minds of a number of senators by the introduction of the resolutions.

RESULT OF REPUBLICAN CAUCUS. Congressional Campaign Committee Appointed.—Names of the Members. Washington, D. C., March 31.—Representative Henderson of Illinois, chairman of the house caucus, called the joint republican caucus of senators and representatives Friday night in the senate. Senator Culton was expected to preside, and Representative Dallan was elected secretary.

It was agreed that each state was to be represented by the name of its representative to the republican congressional campaign committee and where no name was presented from any state liberty should be given to present the name of the state.

Here are a list of the names of the members of the republican congressional campaign committee: California, Representative J. T. Cutting; Delaware, Senator Higgins; Idaho, Representative Sweet; Illinois, Representative J. C. Ketchum; Indiana, Representative John Johnson; Iowa, Representative Hull; Kansas, Senator Perkins; Kentucky, Representative L. M. Lyons; Louisiana, Senator Boutelle; Michigan, Representative O'Donnell; Montana, Senator Sanders; New Hampshire, Senator Chandler; New York, Representative J. C. Ketchum; North Dakota, Representative Johnson; Ohio, Representative J. C. Ketchum; Pennsylvania, Representative J. C. Ketchum; Rhode Island, Representative J. C. Ketchum; South Dakota, Senator Pettigrew; Tennessee, Representative Hovey; Vermont, Representative Groat; Virginia, Representative J. C. Ketchum; Wisconsin, Representative J. C. Ketchum; Wyoming, Senator Carey, and Oklahoma, Delegate Harvey.

CAPTAIN BOURKE'S ACCUSERS. Aided Garza Yet Claim Protection of the United States—General Stanley's Report. Washington, D. C., March 31.—General Stanley, commanding the Department of Texas, has made a report to the secretary of war, in which he states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

General Stanley also states that he has aided Garza's band in the state of Texas, which he claims to be a band of Mexican citizens, for although residing in Texas, they disavowed any allegiance to the United States.

AFTER SENATORIAL DODGERS

Democratic Presidential Candidates Must Pass on Free Silver.

WHAT MORGAN'S MANEUVERS MEAN

Hill, Gorman, Palmer and Bruce Will be Required to Meet the Question Squarely for the Benefit of Their Constituents.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Senator Morgan is bound to smoke out the presidential candidates in the senate. He indicated this today when he introduced a resolution for an inquiry by the finance committee into the relation between silver legislation and industrial depression.

His resolution was made sharply, too, and caused a sensation among his colleagues. The real purpose of Morgan's resolution does not appear on the surface. It is intended to forestall any possible defeat of Senator Stewart's motion next Monday, to take the free coinage bill from the calendar.

Should Stewart's motion fail, Morgan will keep his resolution blocking the pathway of morning business until he succeeds in making it uncomfortable for a good many dodgers.

This resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways. Morgan and the southern senators are not so much interested in the free coinage bill as they are in the question of the presidential election.

There is no doubt that Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

Morgan's resolution is aimed directly at Gorman, Hill and Palmer, who have presidential ambitions, and at Bruce, who is facing both ways.

WARRING FOR STATES RIGHTS

Venezuelan Insurgents Do Not Believe in the Centralization of Power.

THEY HOPE TO DEFEAT PALACIO

News of the Government's Defeat in the First Battle Confirmed—What One of Crespo's Sympathizers Says.

Caracas, Venezuela, via Galveston, Tex., March 31.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.]—The greatest excitement is reported at all Venezuelan ports, which are filled with refugees from this city and interior of country. The fugitives are all endeavoring to secure passage out on the steamers.

The Heretofore success of the first battle between the government troops and the insurgent forces is confirmed, which resulted in the triumph of Palacio's army, but the victory was a dear one to the government, costing it many lives. The regular troops were led into a trap which was skillfully laid by 300 revolutionaries.

When Palacio's men discovered the ruse they were in the power of the enemy. The government troops were a retreat in quick order. The number of dead and wounded has not been learned.

The national forces withdrew beyond Valencia to wait further information from the states of Lara, Neomora, Andes and Falcon. In official circles a strong anti-American feeling is apparent. Many foreigners are seeking refuge in the foreign consulates.

Some official rumors. Advice has just been received here that additional skirmishes have taken place between the government and the insurgents, and that the former has been victorious all along the line. The revolutionists are said to be in full flight on the road leading from Valencia.

General Crespo's forces are said to be completely disorganized and attempting to flee to the coast. It is reported to be fleeing on horseback toward Guanare.

It must be remembered that all these rumors come from official sources. The insurgent forces have a different story to tell. Among the many persons who have temporarily fled to the coast is a wealthy planter, who is a staunch friend of the insurgent cause.

Just before his departure he spoke to me very freely of the situation. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

FOLLOWED THE PRAIRIE BELL

With Her Nozzle Aiming the Hank the Golden Rule Began.

CINCINNATI, O., March 31.—Shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon the steamer Golden Rule was about leaving the wharf boat at the public landing just above Main street, and while the passengers were saying goodbye to friends, there was a sudden burst of smoke from the hatchway directly under the stairway at the front of the boat and in a moment the wildest panic seized passengers, friends, roustabouts and all.

Nobody could account for the sudden outbreak of the fire, nor for its rapid spread. Only the man nearest the stairway was able to get down to the lower deck and escape to the wharf boat. All the rest were driven to the rear of the boat, where the wildest scenes were enacted. Women shrieked and fainted and it required all the courage and presence of mind of the men to prevent a holocaust.

Lying alongside the stern of the Golden Rule was the Keystone State, next to the wharf boat. To her the passengers ran and clambered to her upper deck. Some sprang to the water, but most were unable to do so. Women shrieked and fainted and it required all the courage and presence of mind of the men to prevent a holocaust.

The national forces withdrew beyond Valencia to wait further information from the states of Lara, Neomora, Andes and Falcon. In official circles a strong anti-American feeling is apparent. Many foreigners are seeking refuge in the foreign consulates.

Some official rumors. Advice has just been received here that additional skirmishes have taken place between the government and the insurgents, and that the former has been victorious all along the line. The revolutionists are said to be in full flight on the road leading from Valencia.

General Crespo's forces are said to be completely disorganized and attempting to flee to the coast. It is reported to be fleeing on horseback toward Guanare.

It must be remembered that all these rumors come from official sources. The insurgent forces have a different story to tell. Among the many persons who have temporarily fled to the coast is a wealthy planter, who is a staunch friend of the insurgent cause.

Just before his departure he spoke to me very freely of the situation. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger. He said that he was a republican, but that his only object in leaving the country was to take his family out of danger.

THINK SHE WAS MURDERED

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the Des Moines Shooting.

Des Moines, Ia., March 31.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Some sad and painful scenes have been witnessed about the city hall during the past twenty-four hours, where the inquest into the shooting of Mabel Schwartz by Fred Crawford, her alleged husband, was being investigated by the coroner.

Crawford's former wife, Lizzie Dufford, and her mother, Mrs. Dufford, were present, and the meeting between them and Crawford in the jail was dramatic in the extreme. Today the dead girl's father, William J. Schwartz, arrived from Chicago. Mrs. Schwartz was so prostrated she could not come.

The grief of the widow was almost uncontrolable. He told the jury the story of the murder in detail. No plans will be made to draw out the truth, but the coroner's inquest will be held in Chicago for burial.

The coroner's inquest was completed this afternoon, resulting in a verdict of murder in the first degree. Crawford was found guilty of the murder of Mabel Schwartz.

James Kavanaugh, Law Foley and Ida Jamieson. The former was held to the grand jury, and the latter to the grand jury. The grand jury returned a verdict of murder in the first degree against Crawford.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 31.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Advices from Washington indicate that St. Louis City has been selected for a postoffice building for this year, although the total cost of the building is $2,000,000.

A site was agreed on, and the citizens $50,000. But when the government last fall called for the title the St. Louis City subscribers failed to come to the front. Thus the matter has been delayed for some time.

As nothing can be done till the title has been transferred, the government will not begin the work until the title has been transferred.

Prohibition in Creston. Creston, Ia., March 31.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Injunctions were issued against a half dozen of Creston's salaried men, and the owners of the buildings they occupied. This, however, is but a repetition of the tactics of former years.

There is not a single case of an injunction having any more effect, save than the prohibitory order, and the salaried men are now being usually closed, when the grand jury is in session.

LAW AND THE LAWBREAKERS. Death for the Dynamiter.—Havach's Associate Anarchists Reveal Things. Paris, March 31.—The senate has approved the bill imposing the penalty of death upon persons convicted of using dynamite for blowing up buildings and other unlawful purposes.

The anarchist prisoners who were concerned in the explosions in the Boulevard St. Germain and at the Louvre barracks have been detailed confession. They say that Havachol was concerned in a murder and robbery at Mont Brison, by which he realized 30,000 francs.

He gave the bulk of the money to associates in the dynamite business, who were required for dynamite purposes. Havachol assisted in stealing and burying the dynamite in the factory at Soisy, and they cleared these informants.

Chaumartin asks to be imprisoned, as he fears assassination if released.

Faint Prairie Fire in Kansas. Norton, Kan., March 31.—A prairie fire has swept over several townships in Norton county. Hundreds of families have lost everything. William Dunn was burned to death.

Cleveland Won This Week. Hot Springs, Ark., March 31.—Cleveland defeated Chicago in a very pretty eleven-minute game this afternoon. It was hotly contested throughout and was characterized by very fine ball playing on both sides.

Gumbar and Schirmer were in the points. Cleveland and Davis and O'Connor for Cleveland. Score: Cleveland, 10; Chicago, 9.

Crowding Toward the Cheyenne Land. Topeka, Kan., March 31.—John Sebastian, general passenger agent of the Rock Island

CONSOLE AT VALPARAISO

Consul at Valparaiso Charged with Assisting a Smuggler in Trade.

VALPARAISO, Chile (via Galveston, Tex.), March 31.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.]—During last August, W. S. Stern obtained a permit through American Consul McCree to ship north contraband goods actually belonging to the Italian firm of Zanelli Bros. It was alleged that the contraband stuff was the property of Stern, as an American citizen. Zanelli Bros' books show, however, that $2,000 was paid to Consul McCree for his services in the matter.

I saw Stern today. He alleges that Zanelli Bros. employed him and that Consul McCree had given him a permit after McCree had had shipped. He authorized his cousin to receive the money and it was only to be used to pay the duties on the goods. It is generally regarded as placing the goods in a regular light.

I asked McCree today what sanction he had given to the permit for Stern. He said that he thought he received the money on account of Stern, who was to Santiago, and the same. Mr. McCree denies giving money for his services in relation to exchange transactions. He says that he believes that his cousin's permit was given in exchange of consular instructions for a forbidding other than mercantile transactions.

These attacks upon and charges against the consul are running very unpopular among the residents of Valparaiso. The fact of Stern, an American citizen, acting as a shipper of contraband goods and of United States officials obtaining permits for him, knowing this to be the case, is considered ahead of neutrality observations. During the course of shipment the permit was revoked by order of Bainbridge's government, it becoming known that the goods belonged to the Italian firm, not Stern, and that Minister Egan obtained permission for the loading to go on.

Political Pointers. Buenos Ayres, Argentina (via Galveston, Tex.), March 31.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.]—Bainbridge's mother has crossed the Andes on her way to London, where she will visit her other sons, who in that city. It is expected that within two months there will be a large gathering of exiles in Buenos Ayres.

A fusion of Saenz Pena's party and the radicals has taken place under the name of constitutionalists. Montevideo state that the Lazaretto on Flores island is crowded with passengers for Uruguay. They are temporary prisoners, who are being sent to Rio Janeiro, Brazil (via Galveston, Tex.), March 31.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.]—A new revolution has broken out in the city here. Its members call themselves federal republicans. Their purpose is to oppose the present military domination.

OUR LATEST WAR MACHINE. Detailed Description of the Great Cruiser Raleigh, Launched Yesterday. Norfolk, Va., March 31.—The cruiser Raleigh was successfully launched at the navy yards at noon. The Raleigh is the first steel ship ever built in the Norfolk navy yard. She is 300 feet long, 40 feet wide, and has a displacement of 5,000 tons. She is of steel and has twin screws, with heavy protective decks, great speed, and heavy batteries of guns. She is a very modern and powerful vessel.

The vertical keel is thirty-six inches deep, or seventeen and one-half feet, with eight-inch angles on the upper edge, and six-inch angles on the lower edge. The inner flat keel is fifteen feet deep, and the outer twenty feet. The hull plates are of steel, and the gun turrets are of cast iron. The Raleigh has 10,000 indicated horse-power and a speed of nineteen