MR. EUCLID MARTIN is the democratic candidate of Douglas county.

A VERDICT of murder in five minutes is so unusual even in a coroner's jury that it excites comment.

IF MEETINGS of the national World's fair commission cost $15,000 each, it is in order for somebody to move their postponement until May, 1893.

AN AMERICAN scandal is bad enough at home, but when it appears in Paris or London it partakes of the local coloring and becomes simply awful.

OMAHA has crimes enough charged to her in the course of the year without going outside of the probabilities to make out a double murder.

SENATOR ROGER C. MILLS abandoned his purpose to signalize his departure from the house by making a ringing speech against protection.

THE present congress is wasting its time, the people's money and the gray matter of its members in a futile attempt to undo all that the preceding business congress accomplished for the country.

AMERICA can hardly hope for very much consideration from the Italian arbitrator in the Bering sea controversy.

WAGON loads of buncombe speeches on the tariff, silver and economy burdening the mails and wasting public funds are the only tangible results thus far of a congress in session four months having a majority of 148 democrats.

MODUS VIVENDI, terra natura, non persona grata, mare clausum, a verbis ad verba, mala fide, and so on ad finitum are hints to ambitious boys of the present age not to overlook the classics entirely if they expect to be diplomats.

NOTHING political has occurred in Norway which is quite so full of pathos as the fruitless effort of the free coinage man to secure signatures to a petition for a cloture rule under which to force a vote on the silver bill.

SENATOR CULLOM pronounces President Harrison's administration "able, clean, courageous and patriotic."

ONE by one the roses fall. Shelby M. Cullom has withdrawn from the presidential race, without even so much as scoring for a start.

REPUBLICANS are enjoying the contest now being waged between Governor Boyd and Euclid Martin for delegate at large to the national democratic convention.

GIVE a dog a bad name and he will always carry it. It is illustrated in the case of the Indian agent.

PRONOUNCING FOR HARRISON. The letter of Senator Cullom of Illinois, announcing his desire that his name shall not be longer used as a candidate for the office of president, and recognizing the popular demand for the renomination of President Harrison, reflects a feeling that is well nigh universal among republicans.

The promise is that the national convention will be entirely harmonious so far as the selection of the ticket is concerned. Only one state, Michigan, now has a "favorite son" whom it proposes to present to the Minneapolis convention.

The popularity and strength of the president are explained in the declaration of Senator Cullom that his administration has been able, clean, courageous and patriotic. It needs no defense.

Every duty devolved upon it has been met and discharged faithfully and with reference to the best interests of the government and the people.

WHAT ENGLAND COULD DO. Although there is no present danger of a war with England, and it may be a very long time before another danger arises, it is not wholly uninteresting to consider what Great Britain's resources would be in the event of a conflict with this country.

THE idea of an invasion of the United States from Canada will very likely be derided by most persons, but the militia committee of the house point out that England can now with her Indian army, owing to the increased facilities of transportation developed in the last few years, threaten the whole northwest, while menacing our St. Lawrence border and lower lake frontier with forces brought across the Atlantic.

REPUBLICANS are enjoying the contest now being waged between Governor Boyd and Euclid Martin for delegate at large to the national democratic convention. It is just the sort of harmony they most enjoy and it is highly interesting to read Carroll S. Montgomery's circumstantial history of the difficulty.

IN fifteen days our northern borders could be crossed by 30,000 soldiers, and there could be landed upon the shores of our lakes and bays, where there are no forts, 120,000 soldiers of all arms of the service in thirty to forty-five days.

VERY likely these opinions are substantially correct, and they make a good argument for improved defenses on our northern border and harbors, also, for a more liberal policy in maintaining a militia force that would be immediately available.

THE NEW RAILWAY ENTERPRISE. The propositions submitted to the Council and the Board of County Commissioners by the Nebraska Central Railroad organization deserve consideration.

THE enterprise, as outlined by the railway people, is of great importance to this community. It is a solution of the local railway problem for all time.

ORIGIN OF ALL FOOLS' DAY. Neither the Fools Nor the Wise Men Able to Solve the Problem. TRICKS PLAYED IN ANCIENT TIMES.

Much curiosity has been expressed at different times as to the origin of All Fools' Day, April 1. The beginning of it is wrapped in the misty past, but it is certainly very ancient.
