

HOW THEY FOUGHT INDIANS Part Taken by State Guards in the Recent Campaign Revived. FORGOT TO RETURN BORROWED GUNS

Arms Forwarded to Settlers with Which to Repel the Threatened Attack Have Been Retained for Future Operations. Must Be Accounted For.

Lincoln, Neb., March 31.—[Special to The Bee.]—Several things occurred at the state house today to recall the famous Indian campaign of two years ago, in which the Nebraska National Guards won so much glory and renown.

General Vignau today addressed a letter to Congressman Bryan urging upon him the importance of doing everything in his power to have the bill passed by the house after it leaves the senate.

Another thing that served to recall the Indian campaign is the effort that is just now being made by General Vignau to secure for the state a military rifle from the Ordnance department.

WHERE'D THAT HAT COME FROM. "The Nebraska, you bet! I used to go to some hat store, buy a hat with some swell hat makers name on the inside, plank down five big, hard earned dollars and walk out into the cold world under the impression that everybody was admiring me and my new hat. I'm wiser now. I go to the Nebraska Clothing Company, buy a "Nebraska" hat, put up three dollars and walk out under just as good a hat as I ever wore. Another thing, I can always get a shape to suit me."

THAT MAN KNOWS HIS BUSINESS. We do sell as good a hat for three dollars as any five dollar hat that ever was made. The stock is there—the linings are there—the trimmings are there—it's all there but the two dollars we save you. This saving not only applies to the best hat made (the "Nebraska" three dollar hat) but it applies to low and medium priced goods as well.
