A Popular Millinery Display.

The attendance yesterday afternoon and last evening at Misses Spink & Fearon's millinery display was much larger than on the opening evening, when it was unequalied by any similar event during the season. The enthusiasm of the ladies is increasing, and their verdict is that the new season's millinery surpasses all the wonderful creations of the past. Among the visitors yesterday were a number of prominent ladies of Omaha. This afternoon and evening closes the display, and those who have not taken advantage of the opportunity to see the intest beautiful things must do so now or miss it.

Owing to the unfavorable weather of Inst week Miss Ragsdale will continue her millinery opening Monday, Tues-day and Wednesday of this week. 337 Broadway.

Settled in Peace. James Medicy and Eunice Swancy concluded to patch up their trouble yesterday morning by getting married. Justice Ham mer was summoned to the city jail, Mrs. Medley, the mother of the young man, was sent to the court house after a marriage license, and in less than half an hour they were united. Mrs. Medley, at the conclusion of the ceremony, gave her new daughter inlaw an affectionate kiss, and after remarking that the parlor where the marriage took place was not just what she wished, started off for home with the young couple in tow.

District Court Opens For Business with a Large Docket.

DISCUSSED AN INJUNCTION CASE

Question of Continuing the Sale of Liquor in the Grand Hotel Saloon to Be Settled-Bow the Beceiver of the Property Feels.

District court opened yesterday morning with Judge H. E. Deemer on the bench. Most of the day was occupied in calling the docket and going through the usual preliminaries. The grand jury was drawn, instructed and set to work bearug the testimoney in criminal cases. The men who make up the jury are as follows: O. H. Datrow of Crescent, J. C. Lewis of Lowis, Frank Guard of York, John F. Garrer of Garder, S. G. Underwood of Keg Creek, S. S. Frank of Harden and Max Mann of this city.

After making an assignment of equity auses the case of J. J. Shea against C. R. Hannan and others was called up by Shea. This is the suit which was commenced several days ago by Shea to have an injunction issued restraining the defendants from carving on the sale of intexicating liquor in the Grand hotel.

John Y. Stone, who appeared for Hannan, called the attention of the court to the fact that Hannan, as receiver, was an officer of the district court, and the Grand hotel, as the property of the Penn Mutual Insurance company, was in the hands of the court, con-equently Hannan had no power to allow or counive at the sale of liquors, excepting as that power was given him by the court. He held that an injunction was not needed, but that as Hacman had no power to bind the court, and his knowledge, if he had any, was of no consequence, a simple order of the court, such as would be issued in any other case where the property in the hands of the receiver was involved, was all that was nec-

Shea claimed that a case somewhat parallel had already been decided in accordance with his claims by the supreme court, and a somewhat extended argument was carried on, at the conclusion of which the court postpoped the further consideration of the case until evening.

At the evening session the defendants filed a motion for the dismissal of the case on the ground that the plaintiff had not chosen the proper remedy. Attorney Shea made his argument in opposition to this motion, after which the case was continued until Friday. Reiter, the tailor, 310 Broadway, has

ments Want More Pay. When the council at its meeting Monday afternoon decided to cut down expenses all along the line and to begin by reducing the salaries of the various city officers, it brought a hornets' nest clattering down about its ears. The members of the fire department were the first to take any definite action in regard to the matter, and yesterday morning when Chief Levin returned from his morning rounds he was surprised upon nearing the engine house on North Main street at seeing all the men with their apparatus from the other houses assembled there, apparently waiting for something. When he drove up R. H. Huntington of No. 4 company, acting | well worth their time to call and ex-as spokesman for the crowd, informed him | amine and inspect the goods. Don't let that the boys were dissatisfied and were going to quit.

"Hold on here," was the chief's reply, "I don't want to hear your complaint," and he ran to a telephone and called Aldermen Pace and Smith, two of the members of the fire committee, who soon arrived. Huntington then told the members of the committee that the men did not want to work for $50 a month, and a-ked that something be done. After talking a few minutes the men were induced to go back to their several houses ipos the promise that the case would be coked into by the committee.

The firemen then took advantage of the fact that they were all together and presented Chief Levin with an elegant solid gold badge, consisting of two bars and a large pendant, bearing the name of the colef, his position, the date of the presentation, and from whom the gift came. The whole is elegantly engraved end embossed, and makes a badge of which the owner may well be proud.

It not likely that the salaries will be put back where they were, for the present at least. The council has gone in for retrench-ment with a big R, and it is hardly probable that they will be run to cover so early in the chase. One of the main causes for the growling among the men is the fact that the captains of the various houses are put on a par with the other men so far as saisries are concerned. The office of captain has a number of unpleasant features connected with it which, it is said, more than compensate for what little honor there so that it is feared that trouble be had in inducing competent men to take the place. It is thought that before long a raise of $5 per month will be given the cap-tains and the sauries of the other men be

The police are equally out of sorts. There is no doubt that men can be found, and plenty of them, who would be willing to serve on the police force just for the fun of wearing blue jeans and brass buttons, just as there are men who would be president of the United States for $20 and their board, but they urge that they would not be men of the ort who could be trusted with the safety of

As the salaries of the police force, like all other salaries, are paid in city warrants, which are worth about 14 cents on the dollar when reduced to a cash basis, they amount to about $55 per month. The cut is very naturally the cause of a great deal of dissatisfaction, but it remains to be seen whether the city will find the experiment of employing underpaid officers a profitable

Deserted Her Family. Mrs. E. B. Edgerton, who has been living at 331 Tenth avenue, has left ber home and her relatives claim not to have the stightest idea where she has gone. The last trace of her was at the New York Life building in Omaha, where she went last Saturday after-men to pay some money on a note. Where she went from there cannot be learned. Mr. Edgerton is a blacksmith for the Milwankee road and is in well-to-do circumstances. He is prominent in secret society circles and his wife has been well thought of until recently, when some unwholesome stories began to circulate among her acquaintances and re-sulted in the cold shoulder being turned upon her by many of them. Her husband has ac vertised that he will not be responsible for her debts and the affair is being rolled as a sweet morsel under gossipy tongues.

Will Open an Intelligence Office. Colonel Alexander Hogeland, the "newsboys' friend," who is in the city for a few days in the course of one of his tours of the state, is organizing a society which is to have for its object the finding of employment for boys and girls in this city, and with this end in view a meeting was held vesterday at the Union Christian Mission, 238 Brondway, for the purpose of setting the ball rolling. It was attended by representatives from a number of the churches, and commenced at 9:30 ber of the exercises, and commenced at 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Cole was appointed secretary, and it was decided that the local organization should consist of three ladies and three gentlemen. It was decided to open an intelligence office and seopen an intelligence office and se-lect a permanent beard to take charge of the work under the supervision of the state as-sociation. Dr. Stephen Pheips was authorized to write a letter to the pastors' association at Des Moines recommending a state convention of those interested in the work, to be held at Des Moines in the near future, the exact date to be decided upon later. A number of interesting speeches were made by Rev. T. McK. Stewart, J. M. Holiaday, Rev. C. W. Brewer, Rev. Henry Detong, J. M. Smith, Colone Hogeand, Dr. S. Phelps, Rev. Clark of Omaha, A. W. A suit in which Rief was plaintiff and in which the ownership of a tract of farm land was involved, was set for trial before J. R. Boulden for yesterday. John Robenson was the defendant, and Rief filed an affidavit in which he allered that Boulden was so prejudiced in favor of Robenson that the case would not have fair trial. Although there was no counter showing made to this affidavit his motion for a change of venue was overruled and the justice went on and rendered a judgment against. That Heating Apparatus. The city council met gesterday afternoon as a committee of the whole in order to mok up some matters which had been referred to t at the meeting Monday evening. The question of putting a larger boiler in the city building so that the jail might be heated by steam was investigated, and it was decided bot to change the plan first proposed. The patrol wagon was then called up and the ouncil went out to look at the residence of Or. E. l. Woodbury, which was damaged by the storm of Sunday afternoon. It was decided that be might put up a storm curb as he hadrequested, at his own expense.

ARRIVAL OF FITZ AND VICK.

Omaha's Star Pitcher and Second Basemar Report for Duty. Second Baseman Pitzgerald, who by the way is rather a nobby sort of a citizen, along with Tom Vickery, Omaha's star pitcher, floated yesterday morning, leaving lvory and Sprague the only members now outside the fold. The two new arrivals are both in perfect physical trim, but have as yet had no prelimmary practice or limbering up. They are both exceedingly auxious to get at it, and Vickery expresses some fears of the teams eing unable to get sufficient exercise before championship season swoops down opon them. He says that Toledo, Columbus and even Milwausee have already had a week of outdoor work and in consequence are showing up in good form. Manager Rowe is keeping the entire aggregation, night and morning, on the hustle within the Collseum walls, and is determined to make the most possible out of an induspicious condition. All the poys who took a run, skir and a jump yesterday afternoon gave evidence of the stuff that makes winning ball players and Manager Rowe is exceedingly pleased with his outlook. In the meantline, Groundsceper Buck Keefe continues to pray nuremittingly for good weather.

Slavin and Mitchell Fall Out. New York, April 5 - Frank P. Stavin and Charlie Mitcheil are no longer partners. They have split up and hereafter each pur will travel on his own book. The Australian decided to quit Mitchell before they sailed from this country last month, for he realized that his association with England's boxing champion was not benefiting him to any alarming extent from a financial standpoint. The following cablegram shows the Antipo-dean has decided Mitchell shall not have a hand in his training:

LONDON, April 1. To the Sporting Editor of the World: Send Jack to trin me for the Jackson match. Have brosen of with Mitch-ell. Reply of he is able to come. SLAVIN. The man mentioned in the above cablegram refers to Slavin's brother, who will probualy sail for England tomorrow. Jack Slavia who is one of the three fighting brothers of that name, is said to be an excellent trainer The other brother Bill will remain in this city. There is no doubt that Slavin's asso-ciation with Mitchell in this country burt him to no small extent.

Changed the Date.

In order to accommodate some of the members, the directors of the Omaha Athletic dub have changed the date of "club night" from Saturday to Thursday. For tomorrow Light a fine program is announced. Dick Moon and Jack Stanley of St. Paul, and Danny Daly and Young Gallagher will "go" for scientific points. Considerable expense is attached to the affair and members will be charged St. M. at the control of the charged $1.50 at the door, in addition to showing a card. Only club members will be

Women Will Ride.

The match bleycle race between the local female champion, Luly Williams, and the Masked Byker, which comes, off on either Friday or Saturday night at the Coliscum, is attracting a good deal of speculation in cycle and sporting circles. The mystery that enshrouds the Masked Byer is lending interest to the affair. The match is twenty-five miles for $25 p side and a proportion of the rate receipts. Both competitors are training differently and determinedly, and both express confidence in their ability to carry off the honors. The night of the contest will either be that of Friday or Saturday, but a definite amounteement with be made hereafter. Good music will be in attendance, and everything done to make the evening's entertainment first class in all particulars.

Mr. Justyn's New Dog. The Boston Herald says: "Mr. E. H. Moore of the Melrose, Mass., kennels has sold his famous rough-coated at. Bernard. Safford, by Ben Lomend-Saffron, to Mr. George A. Joslyn of Omaha, Neb. Safford

Mr. Joslyn has secured in Safford a magnificent animal, from the very best strain of rough coat St. Berpards in the world, as his pedigree will show. His sire and dam, Ben Lomend and Saffron, are first and special prize winners. Neither of them were ever beaten. "Saffron," his dam, is by Ch. Pilnlimmon Ex. Bela Doon. Pilnlimmon is by Pilgrim and Bassie Second, who was by Ch. Bayard and Hebe. Safford thus combines in overy possible sense the best blood of the past. To say that he does credit to his lineage would be no praise, for he excels all those preed St. Bernards who figure in his pedigree. This Bernards who figure in his pedigree. This dog, while not so attractive as Mr. Joslyn's Edwin Booth, which recently died, and which was valued at $2,000, is a litter brother which was valued at $2,000, is a litter brother and a perfect specimen of the breed. His same and bone are wonderful, in color a rich orange white collar, even blaze and dark shadings so greatly desired in St. Bernards, stands thirty-three inches at the shoulder, good limbs and measures over seven feet from tip to the in good condition will weigh not far from 200 pounds. He has a perfect disposition and is as active as a grey hound.

HOME PATRONAGE PUSHERS Manufacturers and Consumers Association

Moving Along Stendily. A regular meeting of the Manufacturers and Consumers association was held last evening in their rooms in Tan Ber building. At the time of calling the meeting to order only fifteen out of 174 members were present, and only as many more came in later. The extremely light attendance was the subject of some comment and was hard to explain, in view of the fact that a written notice of the meeting had been mailed to every member. Previous meetings have been held in the afternoon, but the time was changed to the evening to accommodate those members who are too busily engaged during the day to give their time to public meetings. The president stated that articles of incorporation for the association were being drawn up, but were not yet completed. The following firms were elected members of the association: A. W. Wells, confectioner; Schnelibache & McBride, Omata Truck company; H. C. Todd, box manufacturer; C. D. Woodworth & Co., harness, etc.; G. A. Lindquest, tailor; Woodman ctc.: G. A. Lindquest, tailor; Woodman Linseed Oil company; Havden Bros.; proprietors of the Dadge county directory; W. H. Duffett, brick, Beatrice; Godfrey & Meals, water supplies, Fremont.

The secretary made a report a the financial condition of the association showing the receipt and disbursement of all funds. It was also reported that over 5,000 names had been signed to the agreement to give Nebraska-made goods the preference. The question of incorporation was again brought up, and it being deemed proper to obtain an expression of opinion from the members present, the articles as drawn up by Mr. Estabrook were read and approved after some few changes.

Mr. Hodgin said: "The members of the association are unading a great mistake in not using more of the labels of the association. There are a good many outside manufacturers who are representing that their goods are made in the state, when they are not, and that the consumers have no way of distin-guishing the difference. He therefore offered guishing the difference. He therefore offered the following resolution:

Reso ved. That it is the sense of this meeting that each and every member of this association should use the trade mark or labels on each and every writele manufactured by them, so as to protect the consumers or general membership from being misled by foreign manufacturers who are trying to force the sale of their goods on the state by representing that their goods are made by Nebraska labor.

The motion was unanimously adopted. President Page stated that out of 140 paces in the exposition building 124 spaces had been engaged by members who would make exhibits at the June exposition. Every thing will be in readiness to move in the exhibits June 1, the exposition opening on the 11th. The subject of the exposition was discussed at length, but no new points were
