AMONG THE SECRET SOCIETIES Commercial Pilgrims of America.

Without the usual flourish of trumpets at toudant upon such ceremonies, the lodges the Commercial Pilgrims of Nebraska met at the ball of the Omaha lodge in the Conti-nental building last Saturday afternoon and organized a grand lodge. After the forma-tion of the Nebraska grand lodge the supreme officers and delegates were banqueted at the Dellone and later the members repaired to Council Bluffs, where the first of the Third degree was given to all candidates desiring the same.
While organized in Council Bluffs, April

21, 1891, just a year ago, the order has already 2,700 members, extending as far east as Tolodo. The supreme lodge is located in our sister city and gives abundant of making a big stir in the world. fashioned after Masonic laws, the unwritte work is particularly appropriate and beautiful, teaching lessons of charity and loyalty to all members. The grand lodge of Nebraska is the second grand lodge in the country, Iowa being first. as it should be, being the home of the new and sturdy infant. There are four lodges in Nebraska-Omaha, Lincoln, Grand Island and Norfolk. The lodge here meets the second and fourth Saturany evenings in the month and has a large membership.

Entertained the Entre Nous. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Paxton threw open their beautiful home on Twenty-fifth avenue to the members of the Entre Nous card club, which has been in existence for several years, Tuesday evening.

In additition to a very full membership present Mr. and Mrs. Paxton invited a few friends to join in the pleasures of the even-ing. The house was prettily decorated with flowers, the posies of spring, jonquils and hyacinths predominating. Tables were scat-tered through the rooms and the guests enjoyed the evening very pleasantly.
Prizes were wen by Miss Sharp and Mr.
Brady, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Swobe, Mr. and Mrs. Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. There was a large at-tendance of members and the utmost good fellowship prevailed. The rank of knight was conferred on two candidates. It being the first time for Mars lodge No. 130 to work the Amplified third each member took extreme interest in it. It was worked to perfection, it being a thorough success. The brothers were congratulating each other for having made iso auspicious a beginning. A cordial welcome is extended to all members of the order. Nebraska lodge No. 1 debated the ques tion "Resolved, That foreign immigration should be restricted," Wednesday evening at the lodge rooms before a very large at tendance of members and visiting brothers. The affirmative was championed by Van Gilder and Dailey, the negative by Magney and Frank Spoor. Mr. Magney was compelled to leave early in the evening and the brunt of the battle was thrown upon Mr oor, who was compelled to answer a multi tude of questions from champions of the other side and the manner of their answers semblage present. A box of cigars was cir culated during the evening, the brothers e joying the evening hugely. Nebraska lodge is the pioneer of these weekly debates and

In diseases such as Consumption. Heart Failure. La Grippe and its after effects, where stimulants are indicated as medicinal agents, the best results are obtainable by using "Cream Pure Rye." This whiskey has no equal in purity or mellowness and, because it is distilled from rye, (the most nutritious of all grains), and doubly matured, is very wholesome as a beverage. "The Royal Arcanum is one of the largest fraternal or benevolent insurance societies in existence; it has been quite successful, and has been in existence since 1877. It makes an excellent showing for a company of the fraternal benevolent order, but its reserve is not large. In fact it does not pretend to keep much of a reserve. It is cheap because it applies its assessments almost entirely to meeting its neath losses."—Frank Luslie's Illustrated Weekly. Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in this city, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of preumonia while in the northern part of the state during the recent blizzard. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his re-turn he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia, or long fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlam's Cough Remedy, of which he had often neard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was preathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as sunply wonderful, and says he will never travel again without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.—The (Des Moues, lowa) Saturday Review. 25 and 50 cent pottles for sale by druggists.

Three royal golden weddings will be cele brated this year in Europe, two of them fall ing in May. The average mortality of unmarried men etween the ages of twenty and twenty-five is 1,174 in every 100,000, while that of married en is only 507. The man who has never made any mistakes in his life ought not to get married. His wife wouldn't have anything to remind him of, and no living woman could endure that. Sir Edward Watkin, the most powerful railroad magnate in England, is about to marry the widow of Mr. Ingram, the founder of the

The favorite present for bridesmaids just now is a double heart pin in pearls, with a tiny slipper of various colored enamels fastened across the heart. To be chie the slipper must match in tint the color of the brides maids' gowns. The marriage of Rev. John Jasper, the noted astronomical colored preacher of Richmond, Va., has caused an estrangement between himself and his daughter's husband, who had been living with him, and the sonthat. A number of New Yorkers will go to New buryport, Mass., to attend the wedding there of Miss Margaret Curzon Marquand and Mr. Herbert Dudley Hale, son of Rev. Edward Everett Hale of Boston. It will take place at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of After an absence of eighteen years James Griffin returned to his home in Plymouth, Pa., March 20. His wife received him at the door. She was very cool, recognizing her lord after his long vacation. She said:

"Begone. I will have no Enech Arden busi-ness." Griffin took the first train out of The marriages of Americans by special license are getting to be quite the fashion in London. There was one in St. Margaret's, Westminster, on the 28th, arranged at only twenty-four hours notice. The bridegroom was Frank Holmes Summer of Cheltenbam; the bride was Mrs. Hunt Thomsen, nee

Longstreth, of Philadelphia. Limited marriages are not recognized by the courts of Massachusetts. A man and a woman who signed an agreement to live to-gether so long as love and mutual respect continued asked for a divorce after fourteen years of such partnership. The courts in Massachusetts held that the agreement was not a marrirge and, therefore, there could be no divorce. There will be at least one decided novel feature at the marriage of Mme. Francesca

It is a purely Spanish idea and might be car-ried out very effectively—that of having sponsors for marriages. The queen of Spain has signified her intention of being god-mother at the approaching nuptials. The relatives of Miss Evelyn Van Wart, granddaughter of the late Marshall O. Roberts, disclaim all knowledge of her reputed engagement to the duse of Norfolk de Barrios and Senor Jose Martinez de Roda.

His grace has at various times before been reported engaged to Mrs. Antonio Navarro, formerly Miss Mary Anderson, and Miss Virginia McTavish of Baltimore. All the Eater brides that follows the English wedding customs will have an early afternoon wedding, followed by a reception. Very quiet is the wedding not followed by a reception. The bride's mother issues the invitations to her relatives and friends. When the bride is motherless they are issued in the father's name, and if the father is also
