Massachusetts Democrats Cheer and Him at the Mention of Cleveland's Name.

HOW THEY STAND ON COINAGE ISSUES

Corrected Returns from Rhode Island—Complications in North Carolina—Anti-Hill Men Organizing in New York—A Resume of Political Events.

Boston, Mass., April 8.—The democratic state convention met this afternoon to choose four delegates to the Chicago convention. Hon. Edward Avery was chosen chairman. In his address accepting the position he expressed the pleasure of the democrats of Massachusetts that the danger of the passage of a free silver bill by congress had been averted for the present.

The convention proceeded to the nomination of delegates to the Chicago convention. The chairman of the committee on ballots reported that John W. Corcoran, Patrick A. Collins, John E. Russell and John C. Ryan were the candidates. The report was adopted. John H. Sullivan of Boston, Charles S. Hanlon of Brookline, Henry W. Ashley of Westfield, W. S. McHenry of Boston were also named.

The platform adopted declares that the power to tax, from which proceeds the power of government, must be jealously guarded; it should act through the house in the regulation of the expenses of the government; and under no circumstances has been to concentrate this power of congress in the senate.

On the question of coinage the platform says: "We believe in honest money, the gold and silver coinage of the country, and in a currency convertible into such coinage without loss, this declaration expressing the uniform history of the democratic party as contained in the platforms of 1855 and 1888. We unreservedly affirm, while we believe in the issue of both gold and silver coins, that we are equally opposed to a free and unlimited coinage of silver."

The resolutions were unanimously adopted, and when the name of Cleveland was uttered there was great excitement, with some hisses, but the convention was plainly in sympathy with the spirit of the resolutions.

An amendment was offered endorsing and endorsing David B. Hill, and caused a lively interchange of opinion. The eligibility of Governor Russell of Massachusetts, Governor Dole of Iowa and General Palmer of Illinois were presented.

Preparations for Another Engagement. Hundreds of Citizens Anxious to Favor the Rebels, But Fear the Result of Provoking the Anger of the Police.

Caracas, Venezuela, (via Galveston, Tex.), April 8.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to The Bee.)—General Crespo's revolutionary forces unquestionably met with a severe reverse in the recent fight with the government troops, but it seems pretty certain now that the arrangement was by no means decisive and the leader of the opposition forces in the field has not been utterly crushed. He has withdrawn from his former position and is engaged in organizing for a more effective position, and his adherents hope for a more successful movement.

I am informed from reliable sources that the revolutionists are constantly receiving accessions to their ranks and the activity of the leaders of the movement is meeting with gratifying results throughout the country. The main difficulty with the rebels is the lack of arms, and to supply this deficiency Crespo and his lieutenants are bending every energy. The government is doing all it can to make the country a lawless and telegraph service effective. They now examine all suspicious mail matter. Little or no criticism of the government is heard in Caracas. The imprudent and unscrupulous court has overruled the people and convinced them that any expression of opinion not favorable to the government is liable to unfavorable consequences.

It is asserted by those friendly to Crespo that a great majority of the people throughout the country are in sympathy with the revolutionists and are ready to support them, but they are afraid to declare openly for the revolutionary movement until it has been organized and shows strength enough in the field to make the country a lawless one. The condition of affairs here, and in fact throughout the country, amounts to almost a state of anarchy. The government is weak and the people are in a state of uncertainty and dread among all classes of the people.

Minister Egan's Plans. Valparaiso, Chile (via Galveston, Tex.), April 8.—(By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to The Bee.)—United States Consul McCrorey told me today that Minister Egan is expected to arrive in Valparaiso on Monday. No Wonder Hood's Sarsaparilla. That People Speak Well of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mr. R. J. Sandarapilla of Norwalk, Ct., of the firm of Buxton & Brundage, writes his experience below: "For a long time I have been troubled with a weak stomach, followed by Indigestion and Dyspepsia. A short time ago I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and took three or four bottles. Result: I feel much better and my stomach is much improved. My food settles much more easily. My system is much improved. I do not wonder that patients all along the line speak so well of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Don't see how any one can help it." R. J. SANDARAPILLA, Norwalk, Ct.

Six months ago my digestion was very bad, and I had almost a case of Chronic Dyspepsia. I was also broken down by overwork, so that I could not sleep nights. My stomach is now perfect, my nerves in excellent shape, and I have gained 10 pounds in 6 months. My blood is pure and healthy. I feel like a new man. Sarsaparilla. Accept my best wishes for your success." Hood's Sarsaparilla. The best medicine in the land. N. E. H. Rose, of Rose & Eddy, Rochester, N. Y. HOOD'S PILLS are best, yet promptly and efficiently cure the liver and bowels, cure indigestion, cod-liver oil is useful beyond any price it has ever won; and yet few are willing to take it—the taste is so vile and it lasts so long. Some stomachs cannot take it, and some are burdened with it. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is not offensive; it is pleasant to some, especially children. It is not often a tax on digestion. Scott's Emulsion is cod-liver oil made far more effectual. There is a little book on CAREFUL LIVING; sent free. Scott & Bowne, Chemists, 132 South 4th Avenue, New York.
