BURNED OVER HALF A BLOCK

Fire Sweeps Away the Old Military Road Barn and Adjoining Buildings.

Fire sweeps away the old military road barn and adjoining buildings. Loss about twenty thousand dollars.

The old Military Bridge stable at the corner of Twelfth and G streets, which was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon together with the adjoining building to the east.

The fire probably started in an unoccupied room adjoining the drug store, where Dr. August Bang had some paints, oils and varnish stored. Some say that an explosion occurred just before the fire was discovered.

The frame building adjoining the stable on the east and owned by A. Pederson was damaged by the burning. The roof of the building was completely burned away.

Rheumatism.

Symptoms.—High fever, bounding pulse, swelling of the joints, with great tenderness and severe pain, especially if the patient attempts to move; and on moving after resting in one position, lameness, stiffness, and severe pain.

Rheumatism is a blood disease, and must be so treated. There is only one preparation of which it can be said that no instance of a failure to cure Rheumatism or any blood disorder has ever been recorded; and that preparation is furnished, not by science, but by Nature—a harmless vegetable compound of herbs, roots, and barks, called

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa

If you are rheumatic, and do not try this Nature's blessing to the human race, you are responsible for what you suffer. Here is a person who had faith.
