It was a good fight from start to finish. At the end of the tenth round both were fresh. The referee accordingly declared the fight a draw. Weir, however, apparently had the pest of the fight.

The city council indulged in a spirited contest last night when the question of park matters came up for consideration. started when Mr. Edwards introduced the following resolution:

Resolved. That the council does hereby Resolved. That the council does hereby ratify, approve and confirm the recommendation of the Board of Park Commissioners of the city of Omaha in the selection of sites and grounds for public parks, and does hereby ratify, approve and confirm the selection of such sites, rounds, lands and locations for public parks as hereofore made by said park commissioners, and at the price, compensation and consideration named, reported and recommended.

Discussing the Resolution.

Mr. Prince opposed the adoption of the resolution. It was a direct slap at the city attorces, who had prepared an elacorate opinion upon the subject of condemnation proceedings.

Mr. Edwards saw no new points in City Attorney Connell's opinion. The attorney, he said, did not show that the council had any right to condemn land for park pur-Mr. Edwards defied any man to prove that the council had such power, Further than that, he did not think it was right to condemn a man's property and say what it should be worth. That was not all. After the council had condemned, granting that it had such power, where would the money come from to make the tender. The city had no money to make such tenders. No attorney, Mr. Edwards said, would doubt but that the city would have the right to purchase. 'The bonds were voted with such an understanding and nothing else was thought of until ome person sprung upon the public the right of eminent domain. Mr. Tuttle agreed with Mr. Edwards, and hoped that the resolution would pass.

Mr. Eisasser hoped the city had the right of eminent domain. If people knew that the city wanted a tract of land they would ask the highest market price for everything they and to sell. He wanted the had to sell. He wanted the resolution re-ferred to the same committee that had the oity attorney's opinion.

Mr. Muuro did not favor condemnation proceedings if the city could buy the land at fair prices.

Mr. Howell thought the land given for boulevards would offset the difference in price if condemnation proceedings were inand maintained.

Mr. McLeariedid not think any of the prices asked for park lands were too high. If the city had the right of eminent domain he did not think it would be wise for the city to exercise such rights. If the city was going to assess benefits it should commence on the people owning acre tracts.

Mr. Prince did not hold that the prices were too high, but he thought there was scheme. The Bemis Park company he offered seven acres at a fair price, and at the same time if the seven acres were improved, the value of its other property would be inoreased at least $1,000,000.

Mr. Specht did not think that the city had authority to place a value on any man's property.

Mr. Bruner ventured the opinion that the proposition to condemn was simply for the purpose of delay.

Mr. Tuttle said the whole matter was to of the anarchists lots had been drawn to de-cide which should kill the boy king. Specia nock out the park proposition.

The motion to refer was lost by a vote of precautions are being taken to prevent the consummation of the regicide. Several of the anarchists under arrest have confessed 10 to 4 after which the resolution was adopted by a vote of 12 to 2. that un attempt was to be made to blow up

What Each Thinks of the Other,

The ghost of the street sweeping contract was called up. Chairman Birkhauser of the Board of Public Works, in a letter stated that he was ready to go on with the work if the council could find funds to pay the me whom he might employ.

Mr. Elsasser thought some action should be taken, but the matter was referred.

To again start the ball to rolling Mr. Elsasser introduced this resolution: Resolved, That the Board of Public Works liesolved. That the Board of Public Works be hereby directed and ordered to at once cause the paved streets to be cleaned and swept by employing the necessary men and teams required for the purpose.

It is a considered for the purpose. It is a considered for the purpose of the team of the acceptance of bids to the end of the term prescribed in the contract with C. E. Squires, said Squires having refused to do the work.

City Attorney Connell stated that he approximation of the team of the said squires having refused to do the work.

City Attorney Council stated that he approved Mr. Elsasser's resolution and that it was the proper action to take if the council proposed to do anything towards cleaning

Then there was a tilt between the city at torney and President Davis. The president stated that he did not like the resolution it was not in proper form and would no have been in such shape if prepared by the "The city attorney not only suggested the resolution, but wrote it himself," responded Mr. Conneil. "If that is true," answered President Davis, "I have less regard for you and your ability than I did before " "You have as much regard for my shifty as I have for yours," retorted Mr. Connell.

"Hold on there," said the president, as he shut Mr. Connell off, "You are out of order and I don't want to hear from you."

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Steel then affect a resolution providing that cost of cleaning the streets be charged arainst Squires and his bondsmen.

Mayor Bemis velded the concurrent rese Mayor Bemis velded the concurrent resolution appropriating the sum of $275 for the purpose of tendering a reception to the members of the Methodist conference that meets in Omaha in May. The mayor stated that his sympathies were with the movement; but that he regarded she expenditure illegal. He inclosed his personal check for $25, and suggested that the members of the council raise the balance of the sum by subscription. The veto was rejected, all of the members voting to has the resolution. The clerk was ordered to return the mayor's check.

The opinion of City Attorney Connell with reference to parks and boulevards; the right of the city to institute condemnation pro-ceedings, and which is published in full elsowhere in The Ber, was presented, read and referred to the committee on public property and buildings.

As for the reliability of this report, the governor has no means of knowing definitely. He states that he has ordered no such move.

There are two very interesting subjects for speculation with reference to the matter. First, did Colonel Van Horn forcibly take from the county jail the two stockmen now confined there, and if he aid, what occurred Second, if the troops have marched southward with the cattlemen, has there been any fighting? The feeling here is that the sheriff and posse would give no violent resistance to the United States troops because of the flag and uniform, but in the present innamed condition of the public mind no one the conductors and trainmen of the Rock knows what may have occurred.
