SHOT A BOY,

Bullet Intended for a Fleeing Criminal Lodges in a School Boy,

Adjournment was taken until Monday

Little Johnnie Skarda, a 10-year-old boy, lies at the home of his parents, 2819 E street, with a bullet in his hip. The bullet was fired from Officer William Hughes' revolver at a fleeing criminal, and the boy was the inno-cent victim of a careless shot.

A little before 4 o'clock yesterday afterneon Officer Hughes attempted to arrest Harry Herry, a notorious vagrant, at the corner of Twenty fifth and M streets. The man broke away and ran up Twenty-fifth street toward the High school building. The officer called on him to stop, and finally drew his revolver and fired. The street was full of children just out from scool, and the bullet struck the Saarda boy in the hip and glanced downward. He was taken home and a surgeon called, who was urable to find the ball. It is not thought that the injury will result fatally, unless inflammation Officer Hughes was suspended from duty and placed under arrest to await the result of the boy's injuries. This is the first time that Officer Hughes has ever fired at a criminal, and he is nearly crazed with grief over the unfortunate result of his carclessness.

Board of Trade Meeting. The Board of Trade woke up long enough to hold a meeting last night. David Anderson of the committee on a government build lng read a letter from Congressman Bryan, in which the latter stated if his special bill failed to pass Senator Paddock had agreed to secure the passage of another bill, to be known as the Paddock bill.

known as the Paddock bill.

The South Omaha Planing Mill company wanted $2,000 bonus and a site on Twenty-seventh or Twenty-eighth streets to erect a two-story sheet iron building, 40x80. L. J. Gardner & Co. of Omana wanted $5,000 bonus and a site for the same purpose. Both requests were referred to the committee on manufactures.

Mr. Anderson took the floor to state the

Mr. Anderson took the floor to state that the present assessor and his assistants were men "without character, ability or responsibility," and he wanted a committee appointed to watch them. He was accommodated. He then registered another and a very lurid kick against the Metropolitan Street Railway company for obstructing N street. He promised that if a committee was appointed including himself to attend to the matter the "fur yould fit?" very could. matter the "fur would fly" very quick. His suggestion was acted on and the committee appointed.

The board will meet tonight to consider the occupation tax.

FOURTH WARD BOLTERS.

Inside Facts About the Selection of the Ward's Primary Ticket. OMAHA, April 20. - To the Editor of Tan Bee: Last Friday night republican caucuses were held in the various wards of the city under the new rules recently adopted by the county committee. The Fourth ward caucus, held in Judge Anderson's offices near the corner of Fifteenth and Farnam, was called to order by T. K. Sudborough, member of the county committee. On motion to nominate a chairman for the caucus three names were presented, T. K. Sudborough, D. H. Wheeler and Gustave Anderson, The vote was taken by ballot and Judge Anderson vote was taken by ballot and Judge Anderson received 51 votes as against 42 cast for both of his opponents. After Judge Anderson had taken the chair a resolution was adopted that the republicans present place in nomination any persons they might desire to support for delegates to the county convention and that the nine persons securing the highest vote shall be declared the choice of the gracus and shall receive the support of the caucus and shall receive the support at the primary election of republicans participating in the caucus.

A controversy arose over the question as to the form of the ballot to be voted in the caucas, and it was resolved that printed bal-lots should be ruled out and every delegate's name should be written.

name should be written.

Thirty-live names were presented to be balloted upon and ninety-eight ballots were found in the hats of the tellers. The result was announced as follows: T. W. Blackburn, 65; R. D. Buncan, 52; N. B. Hussey, 46; F. Swartzlander 45; A. Lockner, 44; Charles R. Turney, 44; F. Haller, 43; J. T. Lucas, 43; A. C. Troun, 44; W. F. Bechel, 38; C. E. Hammer, 36; N. A. Kann, 36; E. H. Scott, 32; D. H. Wheeler, 31; M. L. Learned, 25; G. Anderson, 24; C. A. Goss, 23; J. L. Webster, 23; T. A. Creigh, 21; C. B. Denny, 18; E. R. Overall, 16; W. F. Gurley, 15; A. H. Briggs, 13; P. L. Perine, 11; C. P. Hailigan, 19; C. B. Elliott, 8; A. Wertz 7; George S. Smith, 7; and scattering votes for ten S. Smith, 7; and scattering votes for ten other citizens of the ward. Messrs. Blackburn, Duncan, Hussey, Swartzlander, Lock-ner, Turney, Haller, Lucas and Troup were declared duly nominated to represent the Fourth ward in the coming county con-vention to elect delegates to the state and congressional conventions.

No protest was entered by anybody pres-ent against these delegates nor was there any intimation of fraud or irregularity in the ballot or count. Under all party usage every republican present and participating was in honor bound to abide the action of this can cus. But the very (next day, the men who were most prominent in the caucus, but who were out-voted more than two to one, got up a petitition and had their own names presented to the county committee as contestants of the caucus nominations. The ticket gotten up Telegraph companies 25 00 Witter works company 150 00 Undertakers 160 00 Undertakers 160 00 Undertakers 160 00 Undertakers 160 00 Witter works company 160 00 Undertakers 160 00 Witter works company caucus cannot be excused upon any reasona-ble ground. They simply want to go to the convention and having failed to secure the endorsement of the representative republi-can caucus of their ward they appeal to the primaries. This is their privilege if they de-sire to set the example which they have so frequently frowned upon in the days when they were managing the politics of the ward. The only excuse that the bolting faction sets up is that printed tickets were brought sets up is that printed tickets were brought to the caucus, but the fact that these tickets were discarded and that every man present wrote the names voted for on his ballot shows what a flimsy protext these parties have set up for bolting a caucus, which Mr Sudborough their chief fugler had called, and in which they had taken part from first to last. They do not charge that any voter that took part in the caucus was imported from another ward or that any of the votes were east by democrats or independents.

The real metive for this bolt is kept in the dark. It is a scheme to control the convention in the interest of a clique that has furnished the Fourth ward with professional delegates and standing candidates for the last ten years. All fair-minded republicans must concede that it is not healthy for the party to keep the same old ward politicians in the front year in and year out. In any event it doesen't become men who have bossed all our caucuses to get up a boiting ticket to beat men in whose nomination they had taken part. FOURTH WARD REPUBLICAN.

CHAMPION OF THE WORLD.

Miss Katharine V. Curry Beats the Record

for Fast Typewriting, the presence of about seventy persons Miss Katherine V. Curry of 402 Jackson st., Syracuse, N. Y., attempted to break the world's Y., attempted to break the world's record of fast type-writing. The time-keepers were Oramel G. Jones, president of the Board of Fire Commissioners and J. A. Dakin, professor of stenography at Wells' Business college. The judges were, District Attorney Theodore E. Hancock, Giles Stilwell, president of the Board of Education and Cyrus L. Hasbrouck, secretary of the Business Men's association. Among those present were, Attorney Lawrence T. Jones, Fred C. Eddy, cash-ier of the Bank of Syracuse; Attorney Donald McLennan, Alderman E. J. Mack, L. A. Eddy, superintendent of Bradstreet's Mercantile agency, a Jour-nal reporter and a number of well known stenographers and typewriters. It is said that the fastest sworn record of typewriting is 172 words a minute. Miss Curry last night made a record of 182 words a minute, and the timekeepers and judges made affidavit to it. She used the test sentence, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party," which is one of the fairest criterions of fast work. The typewritist operated a Smith Premier typewriter, which worked perfectly, and showed a wonderful capacity for speed. Miss Curry first undertook to write 160 perfect words a minute, and succeeded in rattling off 172 words, but some of them were not perfect. Then she attempted to write 180 words in a minute. On the first trial she wrote 176, all perfect save one. Then she succeeded in getting 180 words on the paper, but some of them were not perfect. On the third trial, however, she wrote 180 words all of which were perfect. This was greeted by applause. Miss Curry then endeavored to break her own record. the first trial she made 180 words in a minute, next she fell off a little and only got 179, but on the third trial attained the unprecedented speed of 182 words in sixty seconds. Those persons who witnessed the exhibition were simply astounded, and they most heartily congratulated Miss Curry.

The young lady has run a typewriter for the last five years, but it was only last July that she began to practice for speed work. She has charge of the "practical" department of the Henley college. It would seem that now is the time for fast typewriters of the country to come to the aid of their profession, and beat Miss Curry's remarkable rec ord if they can. She proposes to hold the world's championship against all professional stenographers and type-writers, and no test will be considered by her that is not under affidavit by reputable people.

After Years of Unsuccessful Search for Cure, Martin Anderson Gets Relief from the Chinese Doctor A Voluntary Till

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 18, 1892. To whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that I have been a constant sufferer for many years with catarch, asthma and bronchial affections of the throat, and tried all the patent medicines and remedies I ever heard of, but with no success. I treated with doctors in various parts of the country, but none of them could do me any good further than giving me shor temporary relief. I suffered night an day, and continued to grow worse not withstanding all the medicine I had taken. I had almost given up my case as hopeless when t was informed by a friend of Dr. C. Gee Wo, the Chinese doctor, and advised to go and see him in the nope of getting relief at least, if not a permanent cure for my trouble. I was slow in making up my mind to make such a radical change in my treatment, asI knew a tria I with the Chinese doctor would bring me, but I finally con cluded to give him a trial, so I called at his office with that intention. I found the doctor a clever, entertaining gentle-man, thoroughly posted on my condi-tion, and it took only a very short time to convince me that he was the party I was so long in search of. He told me my case was curable, and that he could cure me, and prepared me a special treatment to suit my condition, and in two weeks I was so much better that I had the fullest confidence in the doctor's ability and committed my case to his treatment. I continued to grow batter rapidly and am now entirely well. I owe my cure to Dr. C. Gee Wo, and am not ashamed to admit it. I advise all who want reliable from their troubles to call on Dr. C. Gee Wo, and the result of call on Dr. C. Gee Wo, and they will be cured. For all particulars apply or MARTIN L. ANDERSON, write to
