JACK WILKS QUITE WILLING

He Has Posted a Guaranty of His Anxiety to Meet Tommy Ryan.

HIGH FIGURES OF THE CHICAGO MEN

He Evidently Doesn't Care to Tackle the St Louis Bruiser-Rausas City Beats the Apostles - Sporting News of the Day,

CHICAGO, Ill., April 21 .- Special to THE Bee. |-Jack Wilks of St. Louis, the Missouri weiterweight pugnist, called at the Chicago Herald office yesterday and posted a forfeit of $100 to bring on, if possible, a match with Tominy Ryan, the welterweight champion, for $500 a side and a purse of $1,200 offered by the South Omaha Athletic club. "I have been trying to get a match with Ryan for over a year," said Wilks, "but be has appeared unwilling to give me his game. Just when I thought I had him he took on McMillan, then Howson and next Needham. I have been unable to get a go with him. He has a good chance to win my money, but I think I can make it hot for him." The fight, if arranged, is to come off within five weeks after the signing of articles, the winner to take all or $1,000 and the loser $200, as the men decide. The gloves will be the smallest allowed by law. Both men will be required to post a guaranty of $100 or $200 with the South Omaha Athletic club to insure their appearance in the ring. The club is to choose a referee, and the final stakeholder is to be chosen Lereafter. The men are to weigh in at noon at 142 pounds, give or take two pounds.

Ryan Feets Weatthy. Tommy Ryan, who has been giving sparring exhibitions in Dubuque, returned to the city yesterday. At first he was not inclined to view Wilks' challenge favorably, declar-ing that he would not arrange another match until he had settled accounts with Danny Needham. "I do not object to meeting Wilks," he said, "but I am unwilling to fight for so small a purse. I will, however, meet Wilks to a finish before the club offering the largest purse. I also want to make a bet with him of $2,500 on the side. I think hat if I get on a match with Wilks it will be like find ing money. It is true that I have fought for smaller purses than he offers, but I do not feel like doing so again. Wilks ought to find backing for that amount. I don't care where the fight takes place so long as it is before the club hanging up the largest purse." It is probable that if Wilks' backers come to course of a day or two.

THE BEE outlined the true status of affairs between Wilks and Ryan in last Sunday's issue. For over a year now the sporting edi-tor of The Brie, vested with full authority by the South Omaha club, and several prominent and wealthy sporting men of this city, has been endeavoring to make a match for Wilks with Ryan. I say for Wilks simply from the fact that he has begged his friends here to make the go for him and The Ber man was delegated by them to do so, if possi-ble. In pursuance of this desire on the part of Wilks' friends, no less than three several positions have been made to Ryan, viz. that he fight Wilks for a stake of $1,000 and a purse of $500; or vice versa, and then later a $1,200 purse with $500 on the side was offered, the winner to take the whole shooting match. These propositions were all made to Louis Houseman, sporting editor of the Chicago later Ocean and whilem manager of Ryan, and while he promised to consummate a match in acceptance of either one or the other of these propositions, noth ing definite was ever done. In fact no re sponse from either Ryan or Houseman-who has since quit the former's managementhas been received anent the last and most liberal proposition. Consequently it all looks very much as if Mr. Ryan would have nonof Mr. Wilks, that is unless he can pull off a go according to his own dictation and the Chiengo gang at his flunked ingloriously in his New Orleans with Danny ham, and is evidently far below the standard at which he rates himself. Last Monday $500 was telegraphed Wilks from this city to go to Chicago and arrange a meeting with Ryan if possible, the one strict stipulation being that the contest should come off in this vicinity. All of Ryan's talk about a $2,500 bet on the side is bosh. He couldn't get that much actual backing in the shape of whether he ever saw that much money at one time in his life. He has fought for $1,200, with a chance to lay $500 on the side.

WHIPPED A WHITE MAN.

Colored Charlie Turner of Stockton Finishe Jack McCann of Philadelphia,

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 21. - The quaters of the Pacific Athletic club at its new wigwam began to fill early tonight with spectators eager to await the opening of the finish fight between Jack or "E." McCann o Pailadelphia and Charlie Turner, the col ored middleweight of Stockton, Cal. Grea interest has been manifested as to this con test for some weeks and delegations from Stockton, San Jose and other cities were present tonight. The purse for which the men fought was $1,250. Time was called at 9:11. McCann showed up much larger tha per, though the latter was a little heavier. in the first round Turner forced the fighting, crowding McCann to the ropes. McCann fell short twice with a half left arm. In the second round Turner again was the aggressor and landed a left on the chest and again on the ribs. McCann got in his left, Turner clinched and landed his right on the neck. Both were weary at the end of the Third Round-McCann swiped Turner in the face with his left, missed in the attempt to renest and Turner got in one on the ribs.

Fifth Round-Turner's left found Mac's stomach and he crowded McCann to the ropes, upper cutting him, and soon found hi long range. McCann missed with two-handed swings, but landed on Turner's head twice as the round closed.

Sixth Round-Turner crowded the white man to the ropes, jabbing him in the face. Turner measured his distance very carefully and several times jabbed McCann in the fac with the left and knocked the latter down with a right as he rushed. McCann fellover the ropes in trying to got away from Turner's rush. It was Turner's round. Seventh Round-McCann made a fierce two-handed swing as the round opened, but the blow-curled around Turner's neck and Turner chopped him with the right. Mc Cann crossed once with the right on the head, but escaped from the rally with his left Eighth Round-McCann rushed it strong and the men slugged each other at close range, both scoring hot lefts, Turner getting the pest of ft. He plunged his left into Mc-Cann's face twice and the latter went down, Turner bestriding him. When he arose h essayed with the left but Turner reached him first with both hands, sending him down. McCann was not completely knocked out, but wriggled around on the floor trying to rise. Just before the gong sounded he crawled part way to Turner's corner, but could not rise and the call of time gave Turner the fight.

The spectators agreed that McCann could not have lasted another round.

Victous Fight at Enpid City.

RAPID CITY, S. D., April 21. - [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-A fight for blood and money occurred here late Tuesday night in the Gould gymnasium rooms between Gus Drager, who fought here two weeks ago, and Vie Zink. Personal feeling between the men added viciousness to the fight, and at one time a general free fight seemed imminent. In the first round Zink was knocked down and is the second, third and fourth rounds was punished severely. In the fifth, while clinching, Zink bit Drager in the shoulder and the latter was given the fight.

Progress of the Tug. There was another large and enthusiastic crowd at Exposition hall last night to witness the continuation of the tug of war. The excitement was even greater than on the two previous nights, and judging from the indications it will be on the increase from this on out. The surprise of the contest last night was the defeat of the splendid American team by the Scots, and while it required the full thirty minutes to accomplish this there was no question as to its decisiveness, as the Highlanders had a margin of fully two inches to go on. The Sweden pulled the Irish over on their vest front in just one minute and twenty seconds, and the Danes beat the Big Indians in just one minute longer. Then came another big sur-prise and that was the Waterloo the Bohemians gave the Germans, pulling them across the dead line in a fraction over two minutes.

It Was Ladies' Night. The lady friends of Omaha's amateur athletes turned out in full force last evening to attend the first public club exhibition given at the Omaha Athletic club since the opening of the house on November 12 last. Members of the club, accompanied by their ladies, filed the spacious ball and balcony. A program specially intended to interest the ladies had been prepared and was successfully carried on the control of the c ried out.

A tug of war between four club members and the Bohemian team followed the overture and was won by the club boys, who pulled remarkably strong. Wrestling, fenc-ing and horizontal bar work followed, and the evening's entertainment ended with a fine exhibition, of tumbling. An excellent orchestra, stationed in the parlor, filled the hall with sweet music during the changes, and the Sutorius Mandolin club sang a couple of pleasing songs. The entertainment was a complete success, and the ladies and their escorts left with the wish that the entertainment would soon be repeated.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 21, -The Evening News quotes a close friend of Senator Gormon as saying that Gorman has decided definitely to retire from the chairmanship of the national committee, as it requires too much of his time. Mr. Gorman is not a candidate for the nomination at Chicago in the sense that he is seeking the nomination, either personally or through his friends. But to be nominated. In a word, they want a man who can win. If such a convention nominates Mr. Cleveland well and good. If it nominates Mr. Hill no one can complain; but if it should, after mature deliberation, reject both Cieveland and Hill and take Gor-man, Mr. Gorman will not decline nor will he oo defeated.

Western Association Affairs. Cuicago, Ill., April 21 .- Wool rates have dropped. Chairman Midgley of the Western Freight association has authorized the western roads to make a proportional rate of 37 cents per 100 pounds from the Mississipp river to Boston via Chicago on all wools shipped from the west. This is a reduction and is made to meet the competition of the See line, which, in connection with the Canadian Pacific, has put into effect a rate of 55 cents from St. Paul and Minneapolis to New England points. The western roads are enabled to meet this cut through the action of the Grand Trunk, which has cheerfully agreed to pro rate with them on any basis made necessary by the action of the Canadian Pacific. None of the other roads have offered to accept less than the regular proportion. The Toledo. St. Louis & Kansas City road has with drawn the tariff on west-bound traffic be-tween Boston and St. Louis, whereby rates were reduced 3 cents on first class freight and proportionally on the others. Chairman Midgley received a communication from Gen eral Freight Agent Weed of the Clover Leaf, stating that the tariff had been issued by mistake and had been cancelled. A report prepared by a committee of the Western Passenger association to formulate regulations for sale of tickets to the trier nial conclave of the Knights Templar at Den ver next August recommends that the regu lar form of summer tourists tickets to Colorado points be used, tickets to be sold August 3 to 7 inclusive, good for continuous passage, commencing the day of sale up to the west-ern terminal in the association with a transit limit of five days and final limits October II, it being understood that tickets will be exe-cuted for return passage at Denver, Colorado Springs or Pueblo, and have a five days re-Tickets may be made good over one road and returning over another. ANOTHER CHANCE FOR WAR

Outrageous Treatment of a British Subject by the French Police.

BIG INDEMNITY HAS BEEN DEMANDED

Arrested on a Trumped Up Charge, Cruelly Beaten and Thrown Into a Foul Prison Cell - The Second Offense of Like Nature.

LONDON, April 21.-An arrest of an Englishman has been made in Paris which may result in trouble between England and France. The man arrested was a Mr. Delmard. He is the agent of an English projectile company, and had previously been employed by the Nordenfeldt company. On Murch 31 he was discharged, the manager informing him ne was in bad odor with the police. The following Monday he was arrested on the street, handcuffed and taken to the prefecture, no explanation being given for his arrest, the was confined in a cell at the prefecture until the next morning, when he was taken to his odgings. There he declined to move until a warrant for his arrest was sworn out.
Delmard informed the officers that he was a British subject, and said that he would ap-peal to the British embassy for protection. Chief Detective Goron said he did not care a fig for the British embassy.

Delmard refused to move, and was knocked down by a blow in the face. He was again taken to the prefecture and was placed in a cell filled with vermin. Confined with a Murderer.

The following day he was taken to the Mazos prison, where he was stripped and kept naked for an hour. He was then put in a cell with Anastay, who was executed re-cently for the murder of his benefactress, Baroness Dellard, At night he slept in a dormitory between Anastay and Ravachel, the anarchist. The next day he was placed in a cell with Rayachol.

Rayachol was indigmant at the treatment of Delmard and asked him: "Do you wonder now that we wish to blow up these people That is the only redress we have for wrongs. There have been thousands of ar-rests similar to yours." Ravachol declared that it was the intention of the anarchists to blow up the prison.

Delmard was given an examination and finally the judge stated that the charge against him was that he had in his possession letters from a foreign government ask ing him for information regarding the French pallooning corps.

Delmard proved that these letters were old and of no importance. The judge, however, sent him back to prison, but on April 15 lib erated him, apologizing for his arrest, laying the blame for it on the police. Delmard has arrived in Lendon and has lemanded through the foreign office heavy compensation from France for his outrageous French Newspapers Urge the Government to Use Vigorops Measures in Dahomey. Paris, April 21.—The cabinet has finally decided upon extensive operations in Da homey which will be sutrusted to the min ister of marine. La France today puts forth a strong argument, in which it accuses England in encouraging King Behanzin to resist the French. A dispatch from Kotonou states that a gun-boat has arrived there for the purpose of protecting the town should the Dahomeyans make an attack upon it. A most welcome addition has been made to the carrison at Kotonou by the arrival of the gunboat. The French force near Kotonou are building entrenchments and are making a road for the purpose of bringing supplies from the in-

The newspapers here demand that the present campaign against Dahomey be directed to effect the complete subjugation of the country and thus render turtuer action by the French unnecessary. It is judged by the tone of the articles that it is desired that a French protectorate be established in Dahomey.
