Mayor Weir Sued for Damages.

Mayor Weir Sued for Damages. Mrs. Anna Riggs today commenced a sult for damages against O. P. Dinges and A. H. Weir, placing the figures at $10,000. She alleges that at 2 o'clock on the morning of February 12 last O. P. Dinges, who was at that time chief of police and acting under the orders of Mayor Weir, visited the Sheedy block and arrested herself and some thirty roomers on the charge of prostitution. All this was without authority of law. All thirty roomers en the charge of prostitution. All this was without authority of law. All of the parties arrested with her were re-leased, but she was held on the charge and fined. Afterwards when she appealed the case the defendants failed to appear against her. She further alleges that Chief Dinges caused the news of her arrest to be printed in the newspapers in a manner derogatory to her character. Mrs. Riggs also alleges a her character. Mrs. Riggs also alleges a number of things against the chief, one of them being that he had visited balls and parties which she had attended and pointed her out as a prostitute. She makes Mayor Weir a party to the suit because, as she alleges, he instigated the action against her.

After Her Wayward Daughter.

Louise Lindsey, a young miss whose escapages has brought her to the police court, is again in trouble. Last night her mother ap-plied to the police for assistance in finding the girt whom, she claimed, is only 15 years old. After a brief search Louise was found in a house of ill repute on South Ninth street. She passed the night at the station and when brought before Judge Waters this forenoon streauously insisted that she was 10 years old and mistress of her own actions. Mrs. Lindscy testified that the girl was but 15 years old and asked that she be sent to the Girls Industrial school at Geneva. Louise is is the same girl who some months ago publicly assaulted another girl on the streets and afterwards attempted suicide.

For six years-constantly-continually-every day-day in and day out-Sunday's excepted-through the columns of The Bee-we've endeavored to impress upon you two facts; that we carry the very best class of ready made clothing manufactured in the whole United States-and that we are in a position to-and do,-give you more value for the price than you can get of any other house-east or west. We have tried to impress you with these facts-not only in newspapers but in our transactions with you We have sold you good goods. Not in all our immense stock of men's clothing do we carry one single solitary satinet or shoddy suit-not one. Not many clothing houses-big or little-can truthfully make that statement. Every garment that we offer for sale is honest-has honest goods in it-is honestly madeis honestly trimmed-will wear honestly-and is marked with an honest price. According to an order issued by Judge F. B. Beall a special term of the district court of Adams county was held this morning. Jeff Teemer, who has been in jail now for two months charged in aiding Captain A. D. Yocum in the killing of Myron Vantieet, was brought into the court room by the sheriff. County Attorney Chris Hoeppner arose and stated that as it would be folly for the state to prosecute the case against the colored man inasmuch as the executive in order to be con-sistent with his action of the 16th in pardoning Captain Yocum, would have to also par-don Teemer should a conviction be secured, that the state would noise prossequi the action. General A. H. Bowen, counsel for the defendant, said that while they were ready to try the case upon its merits they could not, of course, enter an objection to a noile prosequi. Judge Beal then made an official discharge of the prisoner. This disposes of the Yocum-Vanfleet murder case.

It was witnessing a mute performance, as it applauded heartily and clapped its bands loud on encores, but the actors paid no at-tention to the recalls and did not come before the curtain with smlles and accept stock boquets.

The performance was not as satisfactory as it might have been. There were twenty-three acts and before they were played the audience became tired and restless, as the piece dragged. More time was consumed between acts than was required by the per-formers while the curtain was up. With this exception the mutes achieved a great hit in their pantomimic production.
