STONEHILL'S

Be Sure and Notice Our Stupendous Silk

STONEHILL BUYS 2,000 SILK LENGTHS IN

A Great Dress Goods Sale on the Docket for Monday-Unrelenting Cutting of Prices for Bargain Day.

We purchased of one of the largest houses in the United States every cut piece of silk they had in their house. That is every piece of silk that had been cut, no matter whether there had 5 yards been cut off or if there were fifty yards. No matter whether there was an end of 2 yards or 25 yards, as long as it had been cut, it was sold to us at a certain percentage. We tell you the gospel truth, that we purchased these silks 40 per cent off the warket price, and the small remnants at 60 per cent off. In consequence of which tomorrow we are going to offer the greatest bargains in silks of every description ever offered in this country. You have no conception of how cheap you can buy silks until you come in. We advertised silks Friday for Saturday to clear out our stock, as we knew these were on the road, and we received them yesterday afternoon per American express. Tomorrow without doubt you can buy a silk dress cheaper than you can get a wool one for ordinarilv. Read these prices.
5,000 yards of china and surah silks at

19c a yard. They come in every shade of the rainbow, 63 different colors. They are peautiful qualities, some of them worth up as high as $1.00 a yard. We also have blacks and white in them, as well as every color imaginable, and you can have your choice off this table Monday at 19c a yard. Bargain No. 2

2,800 yards of figured china and india silks, in all colors and all kind of figures and polka dots, with stars and crescents and every kind of figure imaginable. They will go tomorrow at 26c a yard. These will make beautiful summer dresses or waists. This is a chance to get silk for a shirt waist awful cheap. Bargain No. 3.

A great big quantity of plaid silks. They are not such awful expensive silks, but they are worth $1.25 a yard. To make these clear out in a short space of time, we will close them out at 39 c a yard. There are only about 500 yards of these, so come in very early.

Now comes a great plum. The greatest of the lot-unheard of and wonderful, stupendous bargain. Stupendous because we know our customers will come in and grab at this lot. Wonderful because it has previously been unheard of.

The bulk of this great purchase, worth $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 a yard, and comprising gros grains, satin rhadames, faille francais, bengalmes, changeable taffetas, changeable glace, in fact every kind of silk manufactured, and it will go Monday for 65c a yard. Now if you have any money come in, as it will be your last, greatest and only opportunity. This will be, as the auctioneers term it, first, second and last call. You won't get them DRESS GOODS.

Warm weather is at hand, You ought to have your new spring dress. We wonder if prices will sell it to you. Tomorrow we make a reduction on every piece of dress goods in our house. You may talk about an offer, but the prices at which we are going to offer our dress goods Monday ought to tempt every one who contemplates purchasing a dress this season. We have had such terrible weather that we are compelled to cut prices in order to reduce our stock, so now read carefully our wonderful offer.

First of all we wish to say that all remnants will go for half what they are marked. We have not over 65 or 70 remnants left in the house.

Now for the great bargains We shall offer S yards of 42-inch hen rietta for 95c, not 95c a vard, but 95c for the whole 8 yards. We have them in tan, ecru, scarlet, cardinal, wine color, navy blue, medium blue, slate, gray, shall sell only one dress pattern to a customer. Another bargain.

We shall offer for bargain No. 2 in dress goods 8 yards extra quality henrietta, imported goods manufactured in Manchester, England. The quality of this is very fine and comes in 19 differ ent shades. Syards of these goods will be offered for $1.86. Bargain No. 3.

65 pieces of goods selected from our stock, worth 50c, 65c, 69c, 79c a yard will go in for this sale at 37½c a yard.

22 pieces of broadcloths. These will make beautiful capes. They come in all colors and worth $1.25 a yard. For Monday and Monday only we are going to offer these beautiful broadcloths at 55c a yard. These goods are full 11 yards wide and guaranteed strictly all We will now offer some bargains in odd pieces of goods at such prices as you can tell is making a big loss, where we have one piece of a kind we want to close them out. Be on hand and get these single pieces. One piece of boucle plaid, sold for $1.50

DRUGGISTS, WHAT AILS YOU

Does Your Conscience Bother You for Charging Euch Exhorbitant Prices?

FINALLY "TUMBLING?" ARE YOU

Are Tired of Paying "Long Established Prices" and Are Going to Bennett's, Are you just "tumbling" to the fact that the general public are getting very tired of paying you your LONG ESTABLISHED PRICES, and are leaving you and getting Bennett to fill their prescriptions at quarter the prices you charge? Or were you afraid that "Bennett's pointers" would show you up in your true light and explain why you charged so much for filling prescriptions. It looks very much that way. You claim it is all on accout of the doctors.

You lay the blame all on the doctor, where it don't belong. Why don't you come right out and acknowledge the corn and say that upon reflection you have decided to reduce all your prices and expect thereby, not to make all your money off of one or two customers, but to so largely increase your trade that the general results will be equally as satisfactory. The doctors get a very small proportion of your profits.

If they are to blame why is it that you charge a customer that comes in with a prescription, NOT FROM the doctor for whom you pay office rent, percentage, etc., the same as you do the one who comes from your doctor, so to speak?

Your charges are the same to one as the other-exhorbitant. In order to roast the doctors justly you will have to get up a sliding scale of Twenty-Four Years Ago, In the course of an interesting sketch. Bishop Newman gives the following striking picture of early days: 'From the general conference in 1868, held in Chicago, fifty of us came to Omaha for an excursion on the Union Pacific railroad to Laramie, as far as the road was then completed. Onward we went; day after day we rode along the Platte over the virgin prairies. In dians and immigrants, antelopes and buffaloes, prairie dogs and prairie enickens attracted our attention. At nightfall we reached Laramie, a cluster of tents; the next morning Laramie was not; during the night the tents were folded and moved five miles beyond, to the end of a new section just completed." The great Overland road stands in its completeness today, the most delightful route for tourists in the country. 50c souvenir given away with every purchase at Stonehill's tomorrow.

All of the papers in the case had been referred to County Attorney Mattoney to prepare a contract for the signatures of the com-as a March hare because Mike Leahy had peen appointed superintendent of the court house during his absence. Andrew A. Donnelly asked to be appointed constable for South Omana, Mr. Berlin moved that the application be referred to the committee on judiciary. It was so referred. Mr. Paddock moved a reconsideration and then moved that the appointment be made.

Mr. Berlin stated that P. A. Barrett had applied for the position and that his applica-tion was in the hands of the committee. He did not want to railroad the matter through Mr. Paddock said that he knew but little "I guess that's true," responded Mr.

Mr. Paddock in replying stated that be was somewhat surprised to learn that Mr. Berlin opposed railroading matters. Donnelly was appointed and his bond approved.

The county clerk was instructed to adverat the county hospital. Court House Bonds. Mr. Berlin offered a resolution instructing the county clerk to advertise for bids for the purchase of $120,000 of court house bonds. These are bonds that were voted to sid in tise two weeks for bids for drugs to be used the construction of the court house and are due July 1, 1902, and payable July 1, 1892. At this time the bonds draw interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum. Mr. Berlin is of the opinion that the debt can be refunded at 5 per cent interest.

The resolution was referred to the commit-introducing an English sawmill in tee on finance. City Attorney Van Dusen of South Omaha operation, also River Thames and other appeared before the board to ask what had become of South Omaha's share of the road fund during the past three years. He said that the proportion to which his town was entitled would be at least $5,000 per annum. The city of South Omaha did not want to appear hasty, but if the county would not give the matter any attention the courts would be asked to furnish the relief.

favored meeting committees from the two city councils and reaching some understand-ing. The county, Mr. Berlia sud, did not have the money now, but would have the cash on hand July I.

Mr. Van Dusen stated that South Omaha had no desire to adopt barsh measures and was willing to meet the county commissioners for the purpose of a settlement.
Chairman Timme knew that Douglas county owed South Omaha, but, notwithstanding that fact, three times as much of the road fund had been expended in South Omaha as had been collected. Mr. Stenberg urged the settlement of the demand, and asked that the committee on roads prepare a statement showing just the amount due. Ex-Chairman O'Keeffe was called plain the matter. He stated that much of the road work done in South Omaha was with the approval of the council of South Omaha and was to have come out of its share of the road fund. The city of South Omaha was bound by the action of its officers, and the records of the county would show what money had been expended. Mr. Van Dusen replied that he understood hat the city council of South Omaha had not made any contract, accepting the money that vas spent by the county O Keeffe knew better. The council of South Omaha had officially requested the explanation of the road fund. The clerk dug up a resolution which had been adopted by he South Omaha council, requesting the county to expend the road fund in the grad-ng of Q and other streets.

The committee on roads will look up and report upon the matter. Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were isued by Judge Eller yesterlay: Name and Address. W. F. Brady, South Omaha...... Louisa B. Wolff, South Omaha....
