Murderer Therahil of Nebraska Believed to Be Secreted in the City.

HE IS WANTED IN HAMILTON COUNTY

Description of the Fugitive-He Was Seen by an Acquaintance in This Locallty Within the Past Two Weeks.

Something of a sensation has been caused in police circles by a report that an escaped murderer is at large and is now making Council Bluffs his headquarters. His name is Henry Thornhill, and he was convicted in Hamilton county, Nebraska, of murger in the first degree. He broke jail on the night of September 29, 1891, and has been at large ever since. The authorities have been unable to locate him until within the past two or three days, when they received word that he had been seen in this city within the lest two weeks and positively identified by a man who was acquainted with him. Color is given to the report by the fact that his mother, who lived in North Platte, Neb, had moved to this city several months ago, but the name of her present husband is not known.

The murderer is described as about five fost The murderer is described as about five feet eight and one-half inches in height, with brown hair, eyes and moustache, weight about 155 pounds, with scars on the first finger of the left hand and the lower part of the left jaw, and a long scar on the inside of the left wrist. A reward of $200 has been offered for his capture by the state of Nebraska and $3.0 by Hamilton county.

A Splendid Endorsement. Everybody in Council Bluffs knows George II. Meschendorf. He is one of our most enterprising business men and a very successful one at that. Mr. Meschendorf, like all human beings, is not without his faults and his greatest one was drinking. To a reporter yesterday he recited the facts which coroborate his statement given below, as follows: COUNCIL BLUFFS, April 29, 1892.-I. the undersigned, am engaged in the meat market business in which I am quite extensively interested in Council Sluffs and Omaha and have been for the past twenty-six years. I finally contracted the liquor habit, so much so that nothing less than from five to thirty glasses a day would satisfy me. Feeling it was injurious to myself, my family and my business I sought the aid of the Blanchard Gold Cure. After treating for the past twenty days am thoroughly satisfied that I am absolutely cured of the worst habit that man can acquire. The treatment left me robust and in the best of health and today liquor is distasteful to me. Therefore, I cheerfully recommend the Blanchard institue, 555 Broadway, Council Bluffs, to my many friends of this city and Omaha.

Still in a Deadlock. The crowd that attends every meeting of the city council had to hunt for the place of meeting last night, and by the time the aldermen were located in the patrolman's room in the Patron house, which was the best place to be found while the old chamber is undergoing repairs, the session was half over. The hope of breaking the deadlock was only partially realized, and from the present indications there will be no poil tax collected and no change in other offices during the year. The committee to whom was referred the ordinance for grading Oak street re-ported, with the recommendation of the engineer, that a new ordinance be prepared that will more nearly meet the approval of all the property owners. A communication all the property owners. A communication was received from Treasurer Kinnelian protesting against the decapitation of his deputy, but the protest was singly filed.

M. A. Moore was awarded the contract for grading Lincoln avenue. The election puzzle was brought up by Mayor Lawrence's announcement that there was no such personage as president of the council, which was accompanied by the remark that some many accompanied by the remark that some mem ber should have that honor thrust upon him. Alderman Brown, Jennings and Smith were nominated, and a number of votes showed three for Brown, three for Smith with the remaining votes scattered. There was no apparent hope of breaking the lock, and it was agreed that the council should remain

Alderman Page called attention to the fact that if the council expected to have any poli tax collected this summer it was high time to select a collector and got him at work. This was concurred in and half a dozen angues presented aways whom was R.S. names presented, among whom was B. S. Dawson, backed with a formidable petition; Joe Spaulding, P. D. Mottaz and A. J. McLaren. Roil call showed four votes for the democratic nominees and four for the republicans, and after several ballots had been taken the matter was laid over until the next meeting.

An effort to elect a city clerk fared the same way, the democrats nominating and voting solidly for A. T. Rice, and the republicans for A. J. Stephenson, present incumbent. A lot of time was wasted in the same manner in a useless effort to name a street supervisor. Avery, Huntington, Lucas and Mottaz being voted for. The chieftancy of the fire department came next in order, and Charles Walters, Charles Nicholson and Frank Levin were nominated, and on the second ballot Alderman Tiberts republicant and provinced the control of republican, unexpectedly smashed by voting for Nicholson, democrat, giving him five votes and a majority sufficient to elect him. An offer was received from the Chicago & Northwestern railroad o purchase the angular fragment of lot (block 13, Beers' subdivision, to be used in their new depoi improvements, and the ouncil as a committee of the whole will fix
