A Splendid Endorsement

Everybody in Council Bluffs knows George H. Meschendorf. He is one of our most enterprising business men and a very successful one at that. Mr. Meschendorf, like all human beings, is not without his faults and his greatest one was drinking. To a reporter yesterday he recited the facts which coroborate his statement given below, as follows: COUNCIL BLUFFS, April 29, 1892.—I the undersigned, am engaged in the meat market business in which I am quite extensively interested in Council Bluffs and Omaha and have been for the past twenty-six years. I finally con-tracted the liquor habit, so much so that nothing less than from five to thirty glasses a day would satisfy me. Feeling was injurious to myself, my family and my business I sought the aid of the Blanchard Gold Cure. After treating for the past twenty days am thoroughly satisfied that I am absolutely cured of the worst habit that man can acquire, The treatment left me robust and in the best of health and today liquor is distasteful to me. Therefore, I cheerfully recommend the Blanchard institue, 555; Broadway, Council Bluffs, to my many friends of this city and Omaha.

Improvement in Health. The report of City Physician Jenuings for the month of April shows the total number of deaths for the month to have been twenty, against fifty-three for the corresponding month in 1891. There were thirteen cases of contagious diseases reported, but only two of these were fatai, both being cases of diphtheretic croup. The statistics kept by the city physician show a much better mor-tality record for this year than for last. In March, 1891, there were thirty-live deaths, but during last March only fifteen.

THE OMAHA BEE NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Want the Indictments Quashed Against Champ and Kimball.

SEVERAL TECHNICAL REASONS STATED

Among the Thirteen Reasons Included in the Motion the Most Important is the Point Concerning the Legality of the Jury Law,

In the district court yesterday morning the attorneys in the embezziement case of the state of lows against J. F. Kimball and George H. Champ commenced the argument on the motion filed by the defendants for the quashing of the innictments. As grounds for the motion the following allegations are made. That the grand jury which returned the indictments was liegally drawn, that seventy-two names were returned by the election boards instead of seventy-five as required by law to constitute the list from which the jurymen should be drawn, that the jurymen were not properly apportioned; that the county clerk drew the jurors without the presence of the sheriff; that the defendants were given no chance to challenge the jury men. There were thirteen paragraphs in the motion, but the above are the main claims put forward by the defense. A number of affidavits were filed in support of the motion. The entire day was taken up with the arguments of the attorneys. Messrs. E. E. Aylesworth, J. J. Shea and Finley Burke appear-ing for the defense and County Attorney John P. Organ and J. N. Baldwin for the state. The case was submitted to the court and taken under advisement just before the hour of adjournment.

Not Insane. H. T. Cariher, who lives at the Western house on Upper Broadway, was brought before the commissioners of insanity yesterday on an information filed in the office of the county cierk by his wife. She said he had acted strangely for some time past, having threatened to kill himself and her if she left him. She accordingly concluded to stay with him, although she feared him and although he refused to do anything toward supporting her or the baby. While he was before the commissioners Cariber admitted that he had compelled his wife to support him by working out, and owned up to being shiftless and lazy. Dr. Thomas and Attorney Flickinger celivered him a lecture on the evils of laziness and threatened to send him to the insane asylum unless he mended his ways. He agreed to behave himself and go to work, and left the clerk's office hand in hand with his wife.

Sellers are to be on trial, charged with violating the pharmacy law in selling intoxicating liquors for other than medicinal purposes. When the auditor goes to Avoca he will be accompanied by sixty-one books of the records of his office. In each of these books there are receives for 100 charges? there are receipts for 100 "doses" of the liquor sold by Bruce, the size of the "doses varying from six ounces to a gallon, and from one to a dozen bottles of beer. All these receipts are for liquors sold in the past six months, so that 6,100 prescriptions have been filled by Bruce in that time where the medicine consisted of intoxicating liquors. In the Sellers case there are 3,200 prescriptions of the same sort.

The bids of several Omana Council Bluffs parties were in, but after opening them it was found that the bid of McSnane & Condon of Omaha was the lowest, and the sale was awarded them. They agreed to take the bonds at par value. A resolution was passed directing the president and sec retary to issue to them bonds in the sum o drawing interest at cent. The treasurer was also instructed e call in all outstanding bonds, which are drawing 6 and 7 per cent, and the date of their payment was set for June 6. All interest on the outstanding bonds will cease as soon as the holders are given legal notice.

Charged with Embezziement. An information was filed before Justice Hammer yesterday charging Emil Schurz, a rising young attorney of the city, with embezzlement. The complainant is Luther R. Wright of Omaha, and the particulars of the case are somewhat similar to the prosecution commenced against Schurz a few weeks ago by Attorney Simeral of Omaha. Judgment was rendered in Justice Hammer's court some time ago in favor of the plaintiff in the suit of Wright against Bowen, for $22. Schurz was attorney for the plaintiff, and it had been agreed that he should keep $5 for his attorney fee. Wright nileges that Schurz kept the whole judgment, and charges him with the embezziement of $17. Schurz gave bonds for his appearance next Monday norning at bo'clock.

Left Them Destitute. The family of Scott Layton, the railroad brakeman who was killed at Springfield, Neb., Monday by falling beneath the wheels of a freight train, is left to destitute eircumstance. The deceased left a wife and three et il res, without a dollar of insurance or anything laid up for them. He was at one time a mismber of the Masonic society, but allowed his dues to lapse nextly four years ago, so that his family is now almost without resources. The Rock Island railway company refused to telegraph to his father in New York or to bear any of the funeral expenses. They agreed, however, to transport the body free of charge as far as Chicago if the relatives wished to take them to New York for interment, provided the relatives would bear all other expenses.

An All-Around Forger, J. W. King was the name given by a J. W. King was the name given by a smooth looking customer who landed in the police station Tuesday evening. He is charged with forging the name of P. Gouhouce to a check for $10.80 and passing it at Welker's meat market on South Main street. While he was being searched at the station a telephone message was received from the Omaha police asking that a watch be kept for one J. W. Burke, who had been working the forged check game on the Nebraska side for all it was worth. On King's person was found a number of papers that showed his name to be J. W. Burke and not King. He is undoubtedly the man who is wanted by the Omaha authorities and it is said that half a dozen cases have already turned up against him. He was turned over to the Ousha police yesterday.

PLANS OF ALLIANCE LEADERS. Result of the Conference Held at Birming.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 4.- The Age-Herald is furnished with the following as a correct statement of the alliance proceedings and prospects:

The day has been spent in receiving reports from the different states upon the situation. Perfect harmony seems to prevail, and a wise conservatism that will prevent any radical action governs the entire work. All present express a determined support of alliance principles by their constituents and seem disposed to keep the order entirely free from any partisan entanglements. Within all probability the resolutions to be passed will favor preserving to the membership in violate their fullest right and freedom to affiliate politically with any party, making the support of the alliance principles the only test of fealty.
