made against him, but it is likely that a more serious charge will be made against him in the course of a day or two. He was seen one that the back door had been opened with a skeleton key, and the owner of the key had proceeded to go through the larder with such a vengeance as to justify Mr. Brower in the suspicion that there was a tapeworm somewhere about the premises. Three leaves of bread, all the pie and cake in the house, and four quarts of milk were the main articles of diet that were missing. Among the effects of Cullis was found a small hand mirror which was identified by

Mrs. Brewer as having been stolen from her house on the night when he was seen about the place and when he made her house into a free lunch grab. In his pocket was also found a skeleton key which fitted the back door of the Brewer house. Altogether the chances seem to be very bright for Mr. Cullis to take a trip across the state.

Some Facts About Sargent's Shoes.

Sargent's is no high priced shoe store and when he says cheap shoes he means shoes cheap.

Remember it is the amount of business a store does that makes the price. It costs no more to do a $75,000.00 business than a $30,000.00 business, and that is the reason why Sargent can sell you shoes cheaper than any other house in the city.

I have the largest and best selected stock of shoes in the city, bought direct from the manufacturers for cash, thus saving the discount, and when I say I will sell you goods cheaper than the cheapest and guarantee every pair 1 mean what I say, and will do it every time. Come and see me. My motto is good goods, lower than the lowest.

The case of Jason Walker against the city still pending in the federal court, and in it the same question is reased as to the legal-ity of the condemnation proceedings. The state courts having made the law of their decision of Friday last there is no question as to what the decision of the United States court will be. The attorneys for the city are even more confident of success in the case now pending, for in addition to the point upon which the other decisions were rendered they have raised the pien that not Walker, but the firm of Wright & Baidwin, are the real parties in interest. Burglars Abroad. Yesterday morning Mrs. Theodore Benner, who hues at the corner of Eighth street and Fourth avenue, was somewhat startled to see her bed room window rise slowly and the head of a man stuck cautiously through the opening into the room. A moment later he took a match from his pocket, and lighting it, took a careful survey of the room. Mrs. Benner called loudly for help at this, and dropping the window the fellow took to his hedis. Some of the neighbors were aroused and a search for the would be burglary was commenced. Shortly after 2 o'clock he was found hiding about the premises and was given into the custody of a police officer, who took him to the police station and had him slated with attempted

Echoes from the Churches.

Bishon Walden of Cincinnati, who is attending the conference, occupied the pulpit yesteriay morning in the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. E. D. McCrary, D.D., in tde evening. Dr. McCrary was formerly pastor of the Broadway Methodist church of this city, and still has many friends, who were pleased to hear his voice again from the pulpit. The Congregational church was compelled to abandon its services all day iong on ac-count of the fact that water had accumulated in the basement to a depth of over two feet, so that there could be no fires built in the furnaces. In the evening they united with the Presbyterians in their services. At the Trinity Methodist church Rev. John Stafford, D. D., LL, D., of Minneapolis, Minn., breached at the morning service. HIS HAIR CHANGED COLOR. How Henry P. Green's Dream About His Son Came True.

Henry P. Green, an orange-grower of Florida, who has been at the Grand for several days, says the San Francisco Examiner, has been telling several of his friends a strange experience that has happened to him. Thegent leman, who is small of stature, with a swarthy complexion and eyes and hair like the color of a raven's wing and a manner both affable and courteous, had a dream last Tuesday night about his son, a young man 25 years of age, who had left him a day or two before to go from this city to New York and then back to his southern home. In his dream Mr. Green says he saw his son as plainly as if the circumstance had been a reality. He was standing at the side of the bed, and the first sight he got of him was when he heard him say: "Father, that was a queer thing, wasn't it. How do I look now with my He soon experienceding severe headache and felt quite sick the rest of the night. Looking at his son intently for a momont, Mr. Green saw that the boy had a poculiar appearance. He could not make out at first why he looked rather strange, but at a second glance he saw that his son's hair, which, like his own, was always very black, had to-taily changed its color. It was not ex-actly white, but very light all over his head, excepting a streak of the natural color here and there. "Why, John, what has happened to

Mr. Green remembered the dream on arising the next morning, but gave the incident no more thought except to smile good-humoredly at the oddity of the mental phenemenon.
