

READY FOR THE OCCASION

Arrangements Completed for the Silver Anniversary Celebration Tomorrow.

INTERESTING FEATURES OF THE AFFAIR

Wednesday Evening the Sons and Daughters of Nebraska Will Hold a Meeting—Something of the Survivors of the First Legislature.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 23.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Lincoln is already putting on a gala day appearance in anticipation of the big silver anniversary celebration to be held Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Good weather seems to be assured and nothing remains to make the affair a complete success but two bright sunny days. Probably the most interesting of the Wednesday evening meetings will be the one at representative hall under the auspices of the native-born Nebraskaans. This meeting will be devoted exclusively to the sons and daughters of Nebraska and will not be open to the general public unless it shall appear later that there will be seats to spare.

In the senate chamber on the same evening will occur the reunion of the survivors of the first state legislature. This reunion is in charge of General John M. Thayer and others, and while no regular program has been prepared the proceedings will doubtless be of great interest.

Every preparation has been made to entertain the guests of the day. It is upon that day that the biggest crowds will come. The exercises of the forenoon will consist of orations, poems, music, etc. In the afternoon will take place the industrial parade. This will be beyond question the most magnificent affair of the kind ever attempted in the state. That it will be a success is guaranteed by the work already done. Every first-class business house of Lincoln will be represented.

Work of Lincoln Burglars. Lincoln is again infested by a gang of burglars, as evidenced by several pieces of work done yesterday afternoon and last night by the same gang. The residence of J. J. Lighty at 1335 K street was visited, the thieves reaching the inside of the house by cutting through the door and the lock. The entire house was ransacked, bureau drawers forced and trunks broken open. Goods were taken to the value of $100. A residence at 1702 G street was also entered by a man, who, upon being discovered, walked a very clever race to escape. Running through the streets, he was detected by a policeman and taken to the station. The entire house was ransacked, bureau drawers forced and trunks broken open. Goods were taken to the value of $100. A residence at 1702 G street was also entered by a man, who, upon being discovered, walked a very clever race to escape.

The Rock Island has repaired its roadbed within the city limits and trains are running as usual. The mandamus case brought by Dr. C. W. Dennis to compel the State Board of Health to issue to him a certificate was dismissed this forenoon. A dramatic performance was given at the Lausling theater last evening for the benefit of the sick sufferers. The sum of $377 was netted. Governor Boyd today traveled the chief of police of Crete that notified outfit with a number of gladiatorial horses had left Lincoln for that city.

CLOSED ITS DOORS.

Venture of the Fremont Department Store Company Fails. FREMONT, Neb., May 23.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Fremont Department Store company, an extensive establishment, started here last August, closed its doors this evening. The creditors of the concern have already filed chattel mortgages against the building, and there are said to be several more to be filed.

Among the heaviest creditors are the First National bank of Fremont, $5,000; Fremont National bank, $10,000; Rigard & Son, $10,700; Frounlight, Dunker & Renard, $2,181; Spitz, Zander & Co., $1,890; J. V. Farwell & Co., $5,000; Switzer, Switzer & Co., $1,000; Foranick & Co., $1,135; C. C. Coffey & Co., $3,812; Henry W. King & Co., $1,602; Barley, Tynell & Co., $985; J. H. Walker & Co., $1,699; King, King & Co., $900; McCord, Bray & Co., $1,045; Paxton & Galbraith, $2,507; S. Elmer, $1,127; McGilchrist & Son, $647; Fremont Milling company, $85; and Schray, $29. The total amount of claims is $42,572, and the assets are $183.

Favored Judge Gasslin. ALMA, Neb., May 23.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The case of Lucinda E. Guyer against Judge William Gasslin, breach of promise of marriage, in which the plaintiff sued for $30,000 damages, which has been on trial here for the past few days, went to the jury Saturday night at 11:15, and in about thirty minutes they returned a verdict for the defendant. This case was commenced a few months ago, and was heralded throughout the country as one of the most important, owing to the very high social standing of the plaintiff and the notoriety of the defendant, who for sixteen years presided upon the district bench.

Death of a Pioneer. GRESHAM, Neb., May 23.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Great excitement was created here Saturday night by the report of a volcanic eruption about one and a half miles south of this city. Fully 1,000 people visited the place yesterday. The scene of the disturbance is the side of a hill which is full of springs. The soil is very sandy and had become so saturated with water that it was almost a soft mud. The pressure of the hill caused it to burst out, making quite a landslide, about fifteen feet wide and 100 feet long, of soft, muddy soil. The earth still continues to burst out at intervals, caused by the great pressure.

Two Papillion Citizens Inmate. PAPHILLION, Neb., May 23.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Edward Morrison of Springfield was today adjudged insane and taken to the asylum by Sheriff Whitney. It is Morrison's third time to the asylum. T. J. Remmy, another demented man, has suffered a relapse and will be taken to the asylum tomorrow. Both cases are violent.

Work on Fremont's Postoffice. FREMONT, Neb., May 23.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Work commenced here today on the new postoffice building by the contractors for the excavations.

Work of Horse Thieves. BEATRICE, Neb., May 23.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A valuable horse belonging to J. R. Burkes was stolen from the stable in the rear of his agricultural implements house last night. Friday night a horse was stolen from the farm of M. E. Clausen, four miles southwest of this city. Vague reports are current of the theft of other horses in several parts of the county during the past week.

PLATTSBOUTH'S NEW COURT HOUSE.

Formally Taken Possession of by Cass County's Officials.

PLATTSBOUTH, Neb., May 23.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Plattsmouth, the Cass county seat, today formally dedicated their $80,000 court house. It was an occasion of great rejoicing. The city was covered literally with a mass of bunting. A hearty welcome was extended to all visitors regardless of the section of the county from which they came, and they came from all sections and in all ways. There were mule teams and horses and railroad trains, and they were all loaded. From early morning until nightfall the people looked in.

The program began promptly at 11 o'clock, when Judge S. M. Chapman attended the bench and court was opened in old-time style. Immediately thereafter Judge Chapman tried his lungs upon a number of public letters and telegrams of regret. There were many messages. They came from the farthest part of the country and from men in all stations of life. As soon as his honor's lungs had been thoroughly tested, Judge A. W. Field of Lincoln delivered the address. He addressed the citizens of Plattsmouth, and in his address he reminded them of the city's history and its future.

Judge Chapman adjourned court until 3 o'clock. After dinner the B. & M. band played several of its choice selections at the court house, and promptly at 2 o'clock reassembled and Judge Chapman again tried his lungs upon a number of public letters and telegrams of regret. There were many messages. They came from the farthest part of the country and from men in all stations of life. As soon as his honor's lungs had been thoroughly tested, Judge A. W. Field of Lincoln delivered the address.

Following this Hon. George W. Covell, Captain H. E. Palmer and General George S. Smith of Omaha and Hon. J. B. Strode of Lincoln delivered brief addresses. A recess was taken until 4 o'clock when Hon. J. Sterling Morton delivered a pleasing address. Toasts were responded to by almost the entire membership of the court. Among those who responded were Hon. John C. Watson, Nebraska City; H. A. Gibson, E. H. Woolley, Lincoln; J. H. Haldeman, J. E. Douglas, Weeping Water; Byrd J. Sullivan, Sullivan; Matthew Gerring, J. L. Root, Allen Beeson, H. D. Travis, S. P. Vanatta, and others. Plattsmouth, Neb., Hon. K. B. Windham acted as toastmaster.

The building is a three story brick and stone structure, standing on the corner of Main and Fourth streets. Its cost, including the furniture, is $80,000. It is considered one of the finest for its size in the state.

Nebraska City News Notes. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 23.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Some time ago County Treasurer Houser levied on 1,187 head of cattle feeding at the district office. The cattle were the property of J. A. Hake & Co. of Omaha. The seizure and sale were duly advertised, but yesterday an injunction restraining the sheriff from selling the cattle was issued from Judge Chapman's court, accompanied by a writ for costs signed by John C. Watson and George L. Woolsey. The case will now go to the district court, where it will be bitterly fought by both sides.

The colored people of this city are insisting that their children shall be allowed to attend the public schools and not the separate school, as they have heretofore. This contention has been raised every year, until it has become a veritable nightmare to the Board of Education. Hon. John C. Watson and J. Sterling Morton will deliver addresses at the inaugural exercises attending the dedication of the Cass county court house at Plattsmouth tomorrow.

The high school alumni will entertain their associates at the city of 49, at the institute for the blind next Tuesday evening. The Republican club is increasing in membership and extending its influence for good. Silver Creek's Saloon Fight. SILVER CREEK, Neb., May 23.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The townships between the license agents and the saloon keepers are said to be several more to be filed.

Among the heaviest creditors are the First National bank of Fremont, $5,000; Fremont National bank, $10,000; Rigard & Son, $10,700; Frounlight, Dunker & Renard, $2,181; Spitz, Zander & Co., $1,890; J. IN THE COURTS.

Affairs of the Omaha Brewing Association Being Adjudicated. The complications of the Omaha Brewing association have assumed a legal form, and yesterday afternoon they were aired in court before Judge Irvine. The suit is the Omaha Brewing association against Gottlieb Storz. The petition recites that the association was organized, with Storz as a stockholder. The capital stock was fixed at $1,000,000, the id being to erect a mammoth brewery. It was on it was thought advisable to buy the Storz & Her brewery on North Eighteenth street. Storz was to receive a royalty of 25 cents, and when the final round-up was made he informed the stockholders that his share in the brewery could be purchased for $240,000, and that his interest could be bought for the same amount.

Then they issued him $200,000 of stock in the new company, and paid him $40,000 in cash, besides buying $75,000 of accounts which they have since learned were not worth more than $30,000. In addition to this, the plaintiffs allege that they induced him to buy a lot on Sherman avenue and Grace street, paying $22,500 for the same. This suit also was an exorbitant price. Now they want an injunction which will prevent Storz from disposing of the stock of the Omaha Brewing association. At the same time they want a return of the cash and the notes, after which they declare that all contracts between the association and Storz should be annulled. The court has heard the arguments and will take the matter under advisement.

Frank E. Munn, charged with having procured a man to steal some other kind of property, was arraigned before Judge Storz and pleaded not guilty. Bail was fixed in the sum of $1,300.

Peter Smith and Nels Johnson, charged with having obtained a license for a saloon, denied that they were guilty. They gave bail in the sum of $500 each and the cases were continued.

C. Geo. Wo was arraigned on the charge of having practiced medicine without being a graduate and the owner of a diploma. He denied the charge, and the case was continued.

In Judge Keyser's court the case of Joseph A. Ryder against the city of Omaha is on trial. The plaintiff seeks to recover $4,100, and alleges that on June 2, 1890, during a violent rainstorm, on account of a defective sewer at the intersection of Thirtieth and Leavenworth streets, the storm water flooded his basement and greatly damaged his property.

GERMAN MARKSMEN. Opening Shoot of the Season Booked for Next Saturday. This season's shooting tournament will be inaugurated Sunday, May 29, at Kruer's park by the Omaha Schuetzenverein. The shooting will begin at 9 o'clock in the forenoon and will continue until 6 o'clock in the evening. Four percent kinds of targets will be used—the Kruer standard, the man and the state medal target.

The 12-inch bulls-eye of the Kruer target is divided into three rings, of which the inner ring counts 3 and the outer ring counts 1. Ten shots cost $1. Permits can be purchased at will. The first and the last red ring will receive a return of 25 cents. Prizes: Fifty points are entitled to $20, points more are entitled to $5 additional. The American standard target is a ten-ring target. For each center, which is ten, the marksman will receive 50 cents.

For the man target the marksman is allowed to purchase as many tickets as he chooses. The state medal target is the fourth contest, value $175, to be awarded by the Schuetzenverein. It is a round of mutton tallow, and has resided in the state for a year or over.

Warmer Weather Starts the Missouri Toward High Water Mark. The Missouri is again on the boom, and yesterday morning touched the highest point reached this year—13.1 feet above low water mark.

The principal rise occurred Saturday night, the gauge registering just thirteen feet above low water. The change is attributed to the decidedly warmer temperature over the river.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood. Tramps Save a Train. DAYTON, O., May 23.—Two tramps walking along the Big and small tracks two miles east of here discovered a broken rail. One of them hurried east and the other west to signal trains. A westbound limited express was signaled and an awful calamity averted. Passengers realizing the escape raised a cheer of joy for the tramps and the Big Four officials telegraphed to give the tramps a free ride to Cincinnati, where it is expected they will be still further rewarded.
