The boys are in the Neola pelice station, and will be held until their parents can get hold of them, in case they want to.

The property owners along Indian creek from Benton to Bryant streets have decided to come enmasse before the council at its next meeting and air their grievances. Their perty has been greatly damaged by the late high water and they want the council to take some steps to prevent the recurrence of any more trouble of this kind. Large quanlities of real estate have been washed away in some cases sheds and outbuildings have been loosened from their moorings. Mrs. P. Nelson, who lives at 2009 Sixth wenue, lost a purse containing $89 and an Old Fellows' receipt while riding from her home up town. As soon as she noticed her loss she drove back over the same route by which she had come, but could find no trace of the missing purse. A lady who lives near the corner of Fifth avenue and Twentieth street stated that she saw a man alight from a wagon, pick up something and go on his way. The case was reported to the police.

Complaint was made to the police last evening that a man named W. S. McCoy was creating a disturbance in the vicinity of the corner of Seventh street and Avenue F by running the women of the neighborhood out of their houses. Mrs. McCully and Mrs. Dempster were the comptainants. McCoy was arrested and charged with disturbing the peace. THE OMAHA BEE. NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

What the City Offers for the State Republican Convention.

IT, IS LIKELY TO BE DECIDED TODAY

It is Understood That the Delegation Has Little Prospects of Success, Notwithstanding the Liberal Indocements Offered-Local News Notes.

Today the republican state central commitee will hold a meeting to decide where the republican state convention will be heid. There are only two cities in the race, Council Biuffs and Des Moines. A delegation of Council Bluffs citizens consisting of W. J. Davenport, I. M. Treynor, J. J. Steadman, Spencer Smith, Hon. John Y. Stone, A. S. Hazelton and Lucius Wells has started for Des Moines and will present the claims of their city to the committee. Letters received their city to the committee. Letters received by members of the delegation, however, have convinced them that the state committee, or a part of it at least, is prejudiced against Council Bluffs, so that they will not be much disappointed if the decision goes against them, much as they would like to play a winning game.

The Bluffs delegation will make the com-mittee an offer, the substance of which is to mittee an offer, the substance of which is to furnish the opera house for the holding of the convention, headquarters for the various districts, hotel accommodations for the members of the state committee, badges for the delegates, and pay all the expenses of the convention. This is a more generous offer that has ever been made by any city for the convention, and is undoubtedly more generous than will come from Des Moines, as it has been given out openly that Des Moines does not want it, but only takes it as an accommodation, because so many of the delegates want it to be

Footed the Sheriff. D. P. Magner, sheriff of Woodbury county, was in the city yesterday in a very much disturbed frame of mind. Sunday night he was bringing a prisoner from the eastern part of the state to Sioux City. When the train arrived in the vicinity of Cedar Rapids the prisoner improved an opportunity out of the car window to liberty. The authorities of Cedar Rapids made a thorough search for the fugitive, but without success, and Sheriff Magner returned home. Monday night at his home in Sioux City he received a telegram purporting to come from Council Bluffs, stating that a man wearing a pair of handcuffs had been captured by the authorities here, and was prob-ably the one he wanted. He at once tele-graphed Sheriff Hazen and Chief Scanlan that he would be in the city on the morning train, and asked them to hold the man with Both the sheriff and the chief of police were very much surprised to receive such a telegram, as no one of that description had been captured by them. With the morning train appeared Sheriff Magner, and he was utterly astounded when he was informed that there must be some mistake. He did not seem to have the time to show the telegram which had caused him his trouble, and the fact caused a slight suspicion in the minds of those who knew of the circumstances that the telegram might have come from some other place than Council Bluffs and that the address might have been misunderstood by him is his excitement. It was the opinion of Sheriff Hazen, however, that the escaped prisoner had succeeded in getting one of his friends to send a bogus telegram in order to throw the Sioux City sherin off the track. probable that he is in the eastern part of the state somewhere, while the officer is hunting for him along the Missouri river bottoms. Looking for Cullis' Confessor, Ernest Cultis and his attorney both appeared in police court yesterday morning and the trial on the charge of vagrancy took place, a number of witnesses being summoned whose testimony made talings look exceedingly dark for the young man. His trial will be resumed this morning, the extra time being taken in order to allow the state further time in which to work up its case. It is stated that some time ago Cullis made a full coofession of all the bad things he had ever done, and that this confession is now in the possession of Mrs. Myers, an evangelist who held a series of meetings at the Fifth evenue Methodist church and who is now in Panama. In this confession Cullis not only made himself out a liar and a thief, but stated that he had bad to leave his old home in England and flee to this country because one day he worked himself up into a the trial on the charge of vagrancy took cause one day he worked himself up into a rare and killed a man. A letter has been written to Mrs. Myers asking her to send further particulars as to this confession. It has been found that the wey which was found in Cullis' possession indecks readily the doors at the First Presbyterian church that were opened on the night when Dr. Phelps' typewriter and nine dozen silver sucons belonging to the Indies of the church were stolen. Cullis made the Presbyterian church his lodging place during a large part of last winter, but gave up his quarters there as soon as the robsery became known.

High Water at Big Lake. Big lake is reported to be much higher than for several years past, and the inhabitants of the northwestern part of the city are somewhat alarmed at the prospects for an overflow. The banks which ordinarily separate the lake from the river at both its ends have been torn away by the high water, ends have been torn away by the high water, and the river is running clear through the lake, the water coming to within three feet of the top of the bank along the ripraps.

Peter Nelson, who lives on Avenue E between Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth streets, paid a visit to the lake yesterday and on his return distinguished himself by telling one of the biggest fish stories that has appeared this senson. At the south end of the lake he found a small bayon, into which huge schools of carfish were drifting in such numbers that all he had to do was to station himself a little way out from shore and scoop up handfuls of the finny piuguglies and deposit them in a basket. After he had filled all of the washtubs, baskets and other things he could get held of he left for home, and on measuring he found his catch amounted to measuring he found his catch amounted to five bushels. The truth of this story is vouched for by B. S. Harrington, who saw
