DES MOINES, Ia., May 25.-[Special Tele-gram to THE BEE.]-The case of John C. Newton, president of the Des Moines & Kansas City railroad, charged with padding the mails on his line with old papers for the purpose of defrauding the government, went to the jury this afternoon and a verdict has not yet been rendered. The opinion seems to prevail that the jury will either acquit or disagree. Judge Woolson in his instructions held that conspiracy must necessarily be be-tween accomplices and that if the acts of Oxford and others were simply performed as part of their duties as employes the verdict must be for the defendant.

HEADING FOR RICH FIELDS.

The Burlington Extending Its Lines of Sheridan and Wyoming Points. About the time snow flies again in northern Wyoming the town of Sheridan will have railroad communication with the outside world. The B. & M. has let the contract for grading the roadbed from the Powder river to Sheridan, a distance of about fifty miles, and the work will be pushed with a view to having the extension ready for operation in September or at the latest in October.

The line has been graded from Gillette to Powder river, a distance of forty miles, and about ten miles of track have been ironed. But for the bad weather the line would have been in operation to the river by the middle of June, and an effort will yet be made to have it opened by that time. Chief Engineer Gillette and Captain Palmer are reported to have laid out additions to the town of Sheridan, and a real estate boom is now looked for. Buffalo people are anxious about the ex-pected branch to that place, but the railroad has not yet decided to build it. Buffalo unfortunately is so located that the proposed line will have to be a stub, because the moun tains bar progress beyond.

Waenever the Denver papers run short of news they work up a fake article removing the Union Pacific headquarters or shops to that city. While Assistant General Manager Dickinson was out there the other day fixing up Colorato ore rates he was interviewed on this point by several reporters and gave them very cold comfort. He assured one of them "very emphatically that the headquarters would never be removed from Omaha," and to another said? "These rumors are all idle talk and can accomplish nothing whatever. The beadquar-ters of the company are at Omaha and will remain there. Nothing short of an act of congress would induce the company to make
