Others Favor Harrison.

On the other band C. P. Williams, C. H. Gere, J. L. Webster, Judge Cobb and others ennounced that obedience to instructions would compel the united delegation to sup-port President Harrison.

National Committeeman Robertson said:
"The state in my judgment is for Harrison, and I cannot see how the delegates can fail to voice its wishes."
C. P. Williams seld: "President Harrison has Nebraska republicans' best wishes, and the delegation will be for him first, last and all the time, if instructions mean anything.' Editor Gere said: "Mr. Blaine's resigns in my juagment is bound to injure him. He has been taken at his word and it is too late for him to recall his words. Nebraska 1. for Harrison and will vote for him, work for him and give him her electoral vote." The irrepressible Church Howe added his word to the consensus of sentiment. He said he believed Nebraska republicans would stand by instructions. "The state," said Mr. Howe, "is close. Let the people who instructed for Mr. Harrison take any responsibility for possible bad judgment. I believe Harrison will be nominated and elected."

There are a number of Nebraskans already here. All of the delegation except Stewart and Chadwick are on the ground. Dr. S. D. Mercer, Nathan Blakely of Beatrice, W. F. Gurley, John Allen of Grand Island, Ed Peck and H. T. Ciarke of Omaha and Waiter Seeley are also here. There will be more tomorrow. W. E. A.

RUMORS AND RUMORS.

Different Views of the Situation-Warner Miller Arrives.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- Around the headquarters of a number of delegations which have arrived here inquiry shows that the changes, as a result of the resignation from the cabinet of Blaine, have not been so numerous as many persons expected. Indeed, in many delegations, the reports thus far do not indicate any change. In others, notably South Dakota and Texas, the changes have been marked. A great many delegates, however, are to be put on the doubtful list and nothing can be predicted of these men, as they are awaiting the incoming of other delegates, perhaps a majority of whom have yet to arrive, before aunouncing themselves

The political chess board is being worked with skill and vigor, notwithstanding this is Sunday. One of the reports was to the effeet that Depew and Hiscock had a scheme on foot by which the New York delegation was to be divided and strength taken from Mr. Blaine where he needs it most. The rumor was that two members of the big four, knowing the friendship of Mr. Warner Miller for Senator Sherman, intended to join forces with him, provided he would agree to urge Senator Sherman's candidacy. The effect of such a lessening of the Blaine strength in one of the pivotal states is obwas no truth in it, all persons alleged to be parties to it denying that it was a fact.

How Warner Miller Stands, Mr. Warner Miller arrived in the city early in the morning and was at once asked for an interview as to his position on the presidential contest. Mr. Miller said that he had just arrived and was not prepared to talk for publication until he could have a conference with his friends. From Miller's friends it was learned that his position was the same as it had always been. He was op-posed to Mr. Harrison as the nominee and was prepared to vote for Mr. Blaine. The New York delegation will take a poll of the delegation to ascertain just where it stands.

Sheridan Hook was enthusiastically for Blane, putting his strength at fifty from New York, and declaring that the man from Maine could win the fight in New York if New York was a strong Harrison man, and, according to his figures, the delegation stood evenly divided so far as the two leaders were each having thirty-two Eight of these Harrison voters, he said came from New York City and seven from Brooklyn. Mr. Quackenbush thought the resignation had strengthened the Harrison men in New York. At the Harrison head quarters they figured their New York

Mr. Platte says that Harrison has not over seventeen votes in New York state. Injured Blaine in New Jersey.

The New Jersey delegation got in this morning with General Sewell, their leader, at its head. General Sewell was originally a Blaine man, but he is a strong personal friend of the president and will head the del-egation in line solidly for Mr. Harrison if it possible.

Representative Buchanan is not a delegate but he accompanied the delegation here. He said that there were three of the delegation not with the party. All on board were Har-rison men and about the absentees he had no knowledge. Speaking of the Blaine resig-nation Mr. Buchanau said: "Yes, I do think that letter had some effect; it stiffened the Harrison men. Most of the New Jersevite: Blaine men. They took him at his . They then decided for Harrison and will stand by him."

Congressman Bergen, from further north in the state, said that be thought there was one Blaine man in the delegation and he added: "He ought not to be." Harrison Men Pleased with the Outlook

At the Harrison beadquarters, away up at the top of the West hotel, men were being sent out to buttonhole delegates and others Land Commissioner Carter and Mr. Michene were on hand to receive the assurances o those who came in, Mr. Carter said: "W are perfectly screne. The people at head-quarters are absolutely confident. They have received assurances that their delegations are going to stand firm." Powell Cisyton was present and said Arcansas would not change.

General Cogswell, a strong Harrison man was also there, having arrived ahead of the delegation. He said: "Before the announce-ment I think Harrison had a clean majority made the Harrison men twice as strong as ever. These announcements have made the Harrison men quite confident and they ap-peared to have recovered from the first alarm at the change in affairs.' Sublime Assurance of the Blaine Men A story was in circulation at the Harrison headquarters to the effect that tomorrow Mr. Blaine would withdraw from the race, but it is pronounced a canard by Mr. Blaine's

The South Dakota delegation reached town early in the morning. Senator Petti-grew said that the delegation stood four for Biaine and four for Harrison, and he had strong hope that it would be solid for Biaine. The state has been regularly counted for Harrison. The Harrison men acknowledged this, but claimed that it will aever be solid for Biaine.

Mr. McComas and others are doing their pest to hold Maryland for Harrison, but it is admitted that four of the delegation are

DELEGATIONS CAUCUSING.

Secret Sessions Held-Guesses at Blame' New York Strength. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- Caucusing, the inevitable accompaniment of a troublous situation anywhere, began here this after noon. New York led the caucus movement. The delegation from the Empire state, or rather a large part of the membership, got together behind closed doors at the New York narters in the West hotel. The spacwas a number of notable absentees from the enucus, Senator Hiscock was one, Chauceey Depew only looked in. It was decided to hold another cancus tomorrow.

Probably the most notable outgrowth of the New York caucus was the talk as to the organization of a general caucus tomorrow before the convention assembled, or at least before the balloting began. A caucus of the entire 900 delegates was not discussed, how-ever. The idea is that after each state dele-gation has elected its chairman, he should be taken for the state's representative for a general caucus. In such an event it was argued that the caucus would be composed of the pick of the convention, and would not prove unwieldy. Indiana also had a caucus. General Lew

Wallace said the Indiana delegation in their gathering decided to stand solidly for Harrison from the opening to the close of the convention, come what may. No other action was taken.

CONVENTION HALL

Its Decorations and Interior Arrangements -A Splendid Meeting Place, MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5,-The conventon hall, which is to be dedicated by a national concert tomorrow evening, is regarded by experts as superior to any of past conventions-not only as to its accoustic qualities but in the taste of its decoration. The adornment of the interior has just been completed and today for the first time a visit to the hall gave the visitor accurate ideas of what art and ingenuity have done to make the opening scenes of the convention spectacles long to be remembered. The decorations, in their perfect ensemble, display all the genius of a Worth. They are in no sense elaborate either in color or in drapery, but they are dignified and becoming.

National Colors Everywhere, The national colors here dominate as is fitting on such an occasion. There are inscribed on pillars of bronze at points of vautage the cardinal principles of the national party. The dome of the convention hall is supported by a series of columns, around which have been gathered in folds chocolate colored drapery interwined with sheaves of Minnesota wheat. The heavy timbers supporting the dome are painted in blue colors, spangled with stars. The quadrilateral, in which the delogations will sit, is immediately in front of the chairman's platform, the latter, in fact, forming one side of it. Between the central columns on either side have been festeoged the national colors, the folds of the flags di-vided and held in the talons of an American In the rear form the same decorations pre vailed and on either side of it a column has been surrounded with old gold displaying sheaves of wheat, on which is perched an eagle contemplating the auditorium below and appearing to be on the eve of flying. On the right of the platform has been placed a handsome apright urn of bronze, How the Delegations Will Sit.

Suspended from piliars skirting the seats assigned to delegates are the shields, flags and banners of the states; as the chairman faces the audience are seen the arms of Vermont, Alabama, South Dakota, Missouri, Massachusetts, Ilimois, Minneseta, Wis-consin, Rhode Island, California, North Dukota, Maryland, Georgia, Maine, Indiana, Virginia and Onio. Above the arms of other states and territories are exhibited as follows: Commencing as be-fore on the chairman's right hand, Delaware, Idano, Iowa, Arizona, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Texas, New Hampshire, New Jersey, District of Columbia, Oktaboma, New Mexico, West Virginia, South Carolina, Oregon, Washington, Utah, Nevada, Ar-kansas, Connecticut and Florida.

The delegates-at-large, the national com-mitteemen and the alternates will be readily recognizable. The seats assigned to the spectators in the gallery will afford an excellent and satisfactory view of the pro-ceedings of the convention and there is con-siderable space between them. The arrangements in this regard surpass those of any other convention halls. Openings into mrre rooms and corridors of the building are found in every section and room aisles traverse the It is a Thing of Beauty.

The elevated band stand has been decoruted and is situated immediately over the main stairway leading to the hall. The grand stairway has been profusely ornamented and is brilliant with color. Yesterasy afternoon workmen and decorators were busily engaged in completing the work of adorning the hall, the remaining interior and per of ladies and gentlemen were inspecting the scene of the coming convention and praised the taste which had suggested and executed the decorations. It is thought that the audience which will attend Monday's concert will be one of the most interesting congregations of persons ever assembled in this country. Thousands of ladies will at-tend and the hall on that occasion will be filled with teshion and wealth. The building will be fitted with divers commercial faculties to contribute to the comfort of the delegates and to aid news paper men in the rapid transmission of news

CAUGHT ON THE ROAD.

Delegations Interviewed at Chicago Blaine's Action Unpopular. CHICAGO, Ill., June 5 .- Large crowds of republicans on their way to the Minneapolis convention were at the hotels today. The topic of conversation was the Blaine resignation and while Mr. Blaine's adherents were enthusiastic. Harrison men held steadlly to their faith.

Some members of the Cincinnati Blaine club created a sensation by appearing with hands full of waving pampas plumes and wheat heads. "American Wheat," "Protection," "the Plumed Knight," were the cries and the crowd took them up.

Alger had a little boom on the arrival of a legation of prominent men from Michigan. R. B. Hawley of Gaiveston, Tex., declared the would vote for Harrison and if the presi lent is not to be the candidate then for The Texas delegation, said he, is largely for Harrison.

B. B. Smith of Toledo said the Ohio delegation had divided—Blaine, 20; Harrison, 26. The Connecticut delegation remained in the city but a short time. The majority o lelegates are said to be for Blaine. Wilson Smith, postmaster of Lafayette, Ind. talked warmty for Harrison, and said it was astonishing how many Harrison men the letter of resignation made in Lafayette

REACTING IN FAVOR OF HARRISON.

Delegates Who Have Not Been Attracted by Blaine Magnetisu MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- The silent soldier of the Harrison forces, ex-Attorney General Michener of Indiana, seemed to feel this evening that he had matters sufficiently well in hand to step aside for a momen He said: "The reaction today has been distinctly in favor of the president. I counted four men in one state alone who are claimed for Blaine who have, since the latter's resignation and in a measure as a result of that action, been brought to the support of General Harrison, and have signified their intention to cast their votes for him in the convention. This is only an instance of many similar changes constituting almost a general movement today. The president's triends movement today. CHEERED TO THE ECHO.

Enthusiasm Created by the Arrival of Harrison Club. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5.-The big event of the day from a spectacular standpoint was the arrival and reception of the banner Harrison reinforcement-the Columbia club of Indianapolis. With light groy hats and long lines dusters, preceded by a Minneapolis escort in scarlet, the long line of Columbians came up the street from the aspot to the West hotel with bands playing music that was better than a tonic for the Harrison legions already on the ground. Cheers met them at every street corner. The Columbians presented i splenuidly disciplined appearance as they marched straight into the thickest of the proceeded to take possession of everything Around the solid white phalanx formed by the hats and dusters of the columns surged a black-hatted, dark-clothed mob of delegates and camp followers, yelling like Indians, the uproar sounding loud, first for Harrison and then drowned momentarily by shricks for Blaine. The Columbia club memoers held their ground manfully in the rush of friends and foes and struck up a rousing Harrison campaign song. The burden of the song was that the president was a vote getter, and in the chorus he was the "Man from Indianer, That's What's S'matter wid Hanner.' He is for the Nominee. One of the more enthusiastic of the Harrisonians grasped General Fairbank by the arm and catechised him as to who he was "Oh, I'm for the nomines," said Fair-

PENNSYLVANIA BLAINIACS.

They Given New Version of "Ta-ra-boom MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- One of the most enthusiastic as well as the noislest delegations arrived at 2 o'clock. They were the staiwart Biaine men of Pennsylvania. The citizens of Minneapolis were not long discovering the political complexion of this delega tion as they heard the following original refrain, which had been composed enroute by the various enthusiastic young Blaine mep in the party:

We are for the man from Maine, He will get there just the same. Pennsylvania's here to stay, And she stands by Matthew Quay.

Ta-ra-ra boom de-aye. Jerry Rusk for second place, He will help us win the race, Won't they make a dandy pair, For the presidential chair, (Chorus.)

Jim and Jerry are the stuff, Benjamin has bad enough. There are no fless on M. S. Quay, Beeder will help us win the day. (Chorus.)

Minnesota's a dandy state. She'il heip to break the Harrison slate; Republicans all throw up their hats, Clarkson will be at the democrats Paid Their Respects to Quay. The delegation started from Philadelphia Friday afternoon by the Columbian express and arrived here on a special train on the Milwaukee & St. Paul road and marched to their headquarters. After a short stop there they formed in line and marched to the republican headquarters to pay their respects to Senator M. S. Quay and to make formal announcement of their arrival. The singing of their verses on Hennepin avenue as they marched up to the hotel attracted the attention of large throngs, which were both amused and enthused by the stirring

As they entered the general headquarters at the West hotel the first verse was being sung, telling in a nutshell the story of the ielegation and its preference. Enthusiastic cheers greeted the new arrivals and the corridors of the hotel were instantly a mass of enthusiastic cheering republicans. Attempts were made to drown out the Blaine shouters from the Keystone state by the Harrison men, and wave after wave of alternating Blaine and Harrison cheers swept over the crowd, now one and then the other sentiment seeming to be the prevailing one.

ALGER HAS NOT WITHDRAWN.

His Friends Emphatically Deny the Report -Billy Mahone's Work.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- Quite a senation was created tonight by a rumor which spread like wildfire through the hotels that General Alger had retired from the contest in favor of Blaine. The Blaine people did considerable shouting on the strength of this report, and the knowledge that a majority of the Michigan delegation are friendly to Blaine caused general credence to be given to the rumor. A thorough investigation of the matter, however, established the faisity of the statement. The Michigan delegation and leading Michigan politicians, so far as seen, deny the report.
Colonel Duffield of Michigan, a personal representative of General Alger, and the man who is to place him in nomination, said he had heard nothing of the contemplated withdrawal of the general, and that he exsected to place him in nomination in the conrention. It was stated later that a telegram had merely been received from the general by a personal friend in the delegation, in which Alger stated that he did not desire to be con sidered antagonistic to the candidacy of Bialpe. The interpretation of this was that secure the nomination from the convention the Alger people would merely withdraw the their candidate and move to make Blaine's nomination unanimous.

Mahone is for Alger. Mahone is for Alger, rie is not taking any very prominent part in the present con est, except that he is very desirous of de feating the resomination of President Har-"It seems to me that Blaine is in it very decidedly," he said.

"How about a dark horse?"

That does not look very likely but if there is to be a dark horse I am for Alger, rie is the man who took the stand which made it possible to defeat the renomination

FORAKER DOES SOME TALKING.

He Will Place Blaine in Nomination-

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- No man has been more occupied during the day than ex-Governor Joseph B. Foraker of Ohio. He has engaged spacious headquarters in a convenient place in a leading notel, and nis rooms are crowded day and night with visitors. The knowledge that it is he who is to place Blaine in nomination makes him the object of more than usual interest,
"What has been the effect of Blaine's resignation on the contest?" ex-Governor Foraker was asked tonight.

"The effect has been to remove all doubt as to his willingness to accept if nominated."
"Do you think that Blaine will be nom-"Yes, I do. I think he has a majority the delegates and that the majority of the republicans want him for their leader."

"It is stated that you will place Blaine in nomination, Is that true!" "Yes, probably. I have been requested to do so."
"Do you think there is any possibility of a dars horse carrying off the nomination"

"No, I have no idea there is."
"If there is, will Sherman receive the solid vote of Ohio?" "I rather think he would, though there has been no discussion of the matter in our delegation, and I have no authority to speak for teem, but I think he would."

DEPEW AND EMMONS BLAINE

Embarrassing Meeting of the Two at the West Hotel-A Little Scene. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- The meeting of Chauncey Depew and Emmons Biaine today on the field of battle was a picturesque sight. The fald was the big dining room of the West hotel, and the meeting was witnessed by hundreds of less distinguished guests, scores of whom for the instant stopped, knife, fork or coffee cup in mid-air, scarcely breathing, as if half expecting to see young Mr. Bisine draw a revolver on the great ex-supporter of his father. As a matter of fact, Emmons Bisine did not even attempt to draw a pistol, but Mr. Depow could scarcely have been more embarrassed if such a sensational move had been made. The famous afterdiner orator and reputed ready tongued man in the world for interviewers actually stammered and reddened as he simost matter who is in the field they are for Harrisawkwardy extended his hand to young son. HARRISON NOT ALARMED.

Time of the President Occupied as Usual at Washington. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5 .- [Special Telegram to fire Ban !- A welcome calm has succeeded the excitement of yesterday, and today has passed with absolutely no new developments. The politicians who renfain in Washington were glad of the opportunity afforded by the day of rest to survey the situation in the light of the doings of the day before, and they contributed nothing to more heighten the interest with which the proceedings at Minneapolis are univer sally regarded. At the white house everything was calm and serene. President Harrison attended church this morning as usual, and took part in the communion service at the close of the public exercises. In the afternoon he went driving with Mr. McKee who had just arrived, and the day was passed the same as other Sundays. There was no display of anxiety or of any special interest in the fact that the convention was to close at once.

Secretaries Eikins and Attorney General Milier called during the day and had a few minutes' conversation with the president, but the story that they were especially called to confer with Mr. Harrison is entirely without foundation. There was very little interchange of dis-patches between the white house and Minne-apolis, only two messages being received from administration headquarters at the convention city. A number of communica tions, however, came in from other parts o the country, and they were all of a satisfac-tory and encouraging nature to the pres-ident, and showed that his supporters intend

Blaine Watching the Wires. Mr. Blaine also spent the day very quietly At about 11 o'clock he went out driving with Mrs. Blaine, and later in the afternoon took another airing in the elegant equipment of Representative Hitt, who, during his own absence, has placed his team at Mr. Blaine's disposal in the interim. A number of callers endeavored to see him, but a very few were admitted. One of these was Senator Chandler of New Hampshire, and during his stay several telegrams were sent out.

There is nothing of a definite nature to be learned as to who President Harrison will appoint to succeed Mr. Blaine as secretary I state. From the fact that General John W. Foster called today on the president there is a rumor to the effect that he is to re-ceive the appointment. It has also been suggested that Secretary Tracy will be transferred from the Navy department to the transferred from the Navy department to the State department, but there are no facts upon which to base any surmises for course there has been a good deal of discussion about Mr. Blaine's action yesterday, and its probable effect, but not a new idea has been advanced. There is only one opinion as to the meaning to be attached to it, and that is to at he intends to be an open candidate before meaning to be attached to it, and that is to at the intends to be an open candidate before the convention, and resigned in order to be absolutely untrammeled. The talk here, however, does not by any means echo the sentiments of General Glarkson, Mr. Platt and Senator Quar, a reported from Minneapolis, that Mr. Blance is now assured of the nomination. The friends of the president are fully as confident now, as at are fully as confident now, as at any time, that the convention will be wise and renominate him, while the conservative friends of Mr. Blaine freely admits there is a probability of a dark horse being selected. This is re-garded by the administration men as an evidence that, the secretary's coup d'etat has not been so positive in the effect as its author had intended. The situation does not appear to have been altered in the least by yesterday developments and the Harrison men are not at all uneasy as to the outcome of the week

NO DOUBTING INDIANA'S LOYALTY.

Solid for Harrison-Rumors Concerning Other Delegations. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- The train that arrived during the day were in from two to four sections, and all trains were very heavily toaded. Every section had from one to half a dozen delegations and they represented all parts of the union. The Kansas City brought in two heavy trains during the morning. The first one, of thireen cars, carried the Indiana, Alabama and Louisiana delegations, the first sleeper having in very large letters the legend: "Evansville, Ind., Solid for Harrison," The second section on the same road brought delegates from further west. As they came into the city they were met at St. Paul by representatives of the Minneapolis flambeau stubs and others, in full marching regaila, and escorted up town with brass bands. The city had turned out and the crowd has been added to by many St. Paul and other Minnesota people, so that the march was some thing of a triumphal journey.

How Michigan Will Vote.

In the matter of sentiment of state delogations there are many conflicting opinions. The Michigan people are are undecided as yet as to whether Alger will come before the convention. Some of his friends intimated that in view of the fact that he is a strong Blaine man himself he may not allow name to come up for consideration, that is mere conjecture. It is stated by Col-onel Atkinson of Detroit that as between Harrison and Blaine the latter will have all out a few of the delegation. On the other hand all prominent Michiganders say that Alger will have the support of the delegation first, last and all the time. Colonel Atkinson says: "I hope that Aiger will be nomi James H. Stone, another prominent Michigander, says that "Michigan will stick by Alger."

Ohio gid New York. As to Ohio, ex-tayernor Foraker and other strong Blates men ciaim only one-half or a bare majority of the delegation for Blaine. It is assyrted on the other side that Blaine will have not to exceed sixteen votes, and possibly not sider than thirteen out of the Ohio delegation.

BLAINE WRITES A CARD.

He Denies Statements Made by the United Press, but Refuses to Be Interviewed. Washingrox, D. C., June 5 .- Mr. Blaine spent the whole day quietly at his home, except that toward evening he took a drive into the country with Mrs. Blaine. He received a few calls from personal friends, but admittance was refused to all other persons.

All efforts to interview him were unsuccessful, the ex-secretary of state aither ing to the determination which he announced immediately after his resignation, that he would let the published correspondence speak for itself without a word of explana-tion from him. Mr. Blatue has, however, sent to the Asso-clated Press this evening for publication the following (autographic) communication: A CARD.

17 MADISON PLACE, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5, 1892.—The United Press yesterday sent out an alleged interview with me, and also with Mrs. Biaine, for which there was not the slightest foundation in truth. It was a forgery from the first word to the last. I warm my friends that similar faiseloods may be expected.

NOTES OF THE DAY. Depew Will Nominate Harrison-New Jersey for the President. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- Mr. Mich ener of Indiana, one of the president's managers here, was asked tonight who would present the president's name to the convention. He said Chauncey M. Depew, and added that Mr. Depew had accepted. At the headquarters of the Maine delega tion it was stated that no one had been selected to present Mr. Blaine's name and it was not known whether he would formally be placed in nomination or not. The New Jersey delegation have consulted together, and, at present, stand nineteen for Harrison and one for Blaine. The Blaine man is Mr. Haifrey.

The rexas delegation, which has been for Harrison, split up, and ten of them have come over for Biaine.

The subcommittee, consisting of Messrs. Brady, Conger and Filley, held a five-hour session this afternoon and then resumed the sitting at the hotel, and at 11:30 were still in session. Maine Men Organize. The Maine delegation held a meeting to night and it was unanimously recommended that Hen. J. H. Manly be elected as national committeeman from Maine for the next four years. Organization was effected by the election of officers.

Shortly before midnight a message was received by the Michigan delegation from General Alger stating that he entrusted his interests entirely to the hands of his friends. This entirely refutes the rumors of his with-drawal, but it is understood to leave the delegation free to drop the Michigan candi-date and go for Blaine at any time should the interests of the latter demand it. General Alger has explicitly stated that he does not desire to antagonize Mr. Blaine.

ONE OF WYOMING'S DELEGATES.

Mrs. Carleton the First Woman to, Sit in a National Convention. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- The unique spectacle of indy delegates to a national convention is a matter of unceasing interest today to the old time politicians of the party. Mrs. G. C. Carieton, one of the two women delegates from Wyoming, was the recipient of numerous calls today from the party leaders and received numerous congratula-tions on the triumph of her sex in obtaining recognition in the lar west. Mrs. Carleton is of medium height, rather slender and is a decided brunette. Her voice and musica enunciation are her greatest charms, and few vomen are so well fitted for public speaking, "For twenty years," said Mrs. Carleton, Wyoming has enjoyed woman suffrage and the women have voted as naturally as they have fulfilled any of the duties of life; there has never been anything disagreeable con-nected with going to the polls; the right has been exercised freely, as a matter of course. Mrs. Carleton is quite up on the situation and appears to know all that is going on.

Official from Miller. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- Ex-Senator Warner Miller of New York at midnight made the following statement, declaring for Blaine, the choice of the majority of the New York republicans: "I have arrived here after six weeks travel over the country, in which I have not been able to confer with my friends in New York. Since coming here I have consulted with as many of the delegates as I could meet in the short time I have been here. I find a large majority of the delegation are decidedly in favor of Mr. Biaine as repre-senting their constituents. I will support Mr. Biaine in the convention."

This is the first official announcement from Mr. Miller since the opening of the campaign, and is regarded here as of great sig nificance and likely to influence the action of the convention to a considerable extent. It is said that this gives Mr. Binine at least forty-six votes from New York in the convention, leaving not more than twenty-six votes for Mr. Harrison, and it is claimed by the anti-administration men that at least four of these twenty-six votes should properly be put in the doubtful column.

London Press Comments, London, June 5 .- Most of the morning papers devote space to a discussion of Mr. Biaine's chances of obtaining the presidency. The News says that the coming election will be primarily a conflict of principles, not conflict of men. The Chronicle thinks that Mr. Blaine may be seasoned over, as he has been before, solely because rivals attogether inferior to himself are jealous of his name and fame. The Standard thinks that Blaine will be the favorite, as compared with Mr. Harrison, and adds that as the democratic candidate is almost equally certain to be Mr. Cleveland, lively times are in store for the people of the United States. Tue Graphic says: "If Mr. Blaine's resignation from the capinet meant his retire-ment from public life it would be a real misfortune for America. Happily, the death to which he is committed is illuminated by the hope of a splendid resurrection. Cincinnati's Blaine Club. CHICAGO, Ill., June 5 .- The Cincinnati Young Men's Blaine club arrived here this morning 200 strong. Many prominent republicans of Onio were in the party and their enthusiasm for "Blaine and reciprocity" seemed to be contagious.

Mayor John B. Mosby of Cincinnati said: "In my opinion Harrison's name will not go before the convention. He can't consciontiously allow it to stand, because he distinctly said he would not run if Blaine decided to be a candidate. Of cours Binine's resignation means that he is a can didate and it cannot be otherwise construed.

California's Delegation MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5.-M. II. DeYoung, chairman of the California delegation, said: "The California delegation have not yet had a meeting on presidential preference, and until we have considered the matter carefully I would prefer not to speak for the delegation. From another source it was learned that two of the delegates are for Harrison, four in doubt, and the remainder are strongly for MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5 .- The city is secoming well crowded tonight, and as was expected there is considerable difficulty in obtaining suitable accommodations. The delegates, however, are well provided for.

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 5.- This entire sec tion was swept by the worst flood in its his tory tast night. A mid-day rain of great volame swelled every stream bank full and the storm which followed brought the flood. In this city Mill run overflowed its banks and swept the whole business portion of the city, demolishing a dezen or more buildings and entailing a loss of $150,000, of which $50,000 is to the streets. The loss throughout the country cannot be estimated. Bridges were washed away in every direction, leaving scarcely a passable road in the country. The damage to growing crops is heavy

Four Pullman sleepers filled with convention spectators left the Webster street depot last evening bound for Minneapolis. Although the big guns had gone in advance, there was an abundance of Harrison enthusiasm in the party that went out last night. This makes about 800 Nebraskans who have already gone, and tonight's quota will swell the number to fully 1,000.
