Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal. Wanted, good girl for general housework. Mrs. J. R. Snyder, 242 South Seventh street.

There is talk of organizing a republican club to attend the state meeting of republican clubs which is to be held at Des Moines on the 28th.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of Golden Rod camp No. 7. Royal Neighbors of America, will be held this evening in Knights of Pythias hall, on Main street, at 8 o'clock. Visiting neighbors are welcome.

A sociable will be held by the ladies of the Second Presbyterian church on Friday even-frg, June 17, at the residence of Mr. W. L. Baker, 245 Washington avenue. Refreshments and a literary program will be the order of the evening.

Yesterday afternoon, in the study of the First Prespyterian church of Council Bluffs, Mr. James G. Keysor of Plattsmouth, Neb., was married to Miss Della Smith of Grand Island, Neb. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Stephen Pheips.

Miss Elsie Butts was thrown from a car-riage Wednesday evening at the corner of Broadway and Fourth street, and fell, strik-ing her head upon the hard pavoment with such force as to stun her. She is still suffer-ing from the effects of her fell, although no serious results are looked for.

James Coyle, who was on trial before Jus-tice Cones several days last week for steal-ing a lot of property about which there was a dispute between him and an Omaha man, was discharged yesterday, the justice holding that he was acting in good faith and under the advice of an attorney.

Marriage ilcenses were issued yesterday to Augusta Maher and Della Sander, both of Omaha; James G. Keypor of Plattsmouth, Neb., John Grabel of Salt Lake City and Emma Goux of Hillsborough, O. The last named couple were married by Justice Hammer.

Some of the friends of John L. Templeton Some of the friends of John L. Templeton arranged a surprise party for him last even-ling at the Red Men's hall. He was escorted to the hall where he found about thirty five couples awaiting him. The surprise was a complete one, as the arrangements had been made with perfect secrecy. The evening was enjoyably spent in singing, card playing and dancing, and refreshments were served.

dencing, and refreshments were served. Mayor Lawrence says there must be a jai built at Cut-Off Island. The place is becom-ing the rendezyous of all the toughs from Omaha, who commit depredations and then flee to Cut-Off to get out of the state. His plan is to build such a jail as shall be needed for the accommodation of the prisoners, and have one of the justices of the peace hold court there whenever there is any bustness on hand. * on hand.

A pleasant entertainment was given last evening at the First Presbyterian church, in the shape of a lantern festsval. The parlors of the church were elegantly decorated with Chinese lanterns. A large number were present. An attractive musical program was tendered, consisting of selectious by a number of the young people of the church and congregation. A beautiful lastern drill was given by ten girls under the leadership of Miss Sadie Farnsworth, the different movements being executed with wonderful precision. At the close of the program te-freshments were served. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used in paving the umount still due for the Chautauqua lot bought by the Social Union last summer.

The residents of South First street beamed sweet smiles of contentment at one another yesterday morning when they awoke and discovered that a large force of men was at work laying a new track in front of the residence of J. C. Bixby. There had been rumors floating around for several days previous to the effect that inside of a week some move would be made which would result in the running of trains from Broadway to Fairmount park, and the people who beheld the latest move thought they saw the end of the trouble they have had walking back and forth on account of the inability of J. C. Bixby to come to an agreement with the motor company in the matter of damages.

Permission was asked from and granted by the owners of property on the other side of the street from Bixby, to lay a track on Saturdays. their side of the thorough fare, just west of the middle of the street, so as to take the line off the haif of the street which was sup-posed to belong chiefly to Bixby and which, it was thought, was covered by the injunc-tion issued from the superior court. Cullis in Court,

There was a double-barreled session of the district court vesterday, Judge Deemer occupying the north room with the case of Foster against Bellinger, and Judge Macy the south room, trying criminal cases. Tre case of the state against Ernest Cullis, charged with the burglary of the residence of Rev. C. W. Brewer, occupied the greater part of the day in Judge Macr's court. The evidence brought forward on the side of the state has already been given with considerable detail, and there was but little fresh testimony intro-duced. Cullis claimed that at the time the robbery took place he was at prayer meeting at the Fifth Avenue Methodist church, and he testified to this when he was placed upon the stand. He could get no other witness to testify to the fact, however. The case was given to the jury shortly after 4 o'clock.

The following criminal cases were disposed of: City against Dan Carrig, dismissed at plaintiff's costs; city against L. The whatever by saturating it with coal oil. The trial attracted a great deal of attention, and the little court room was crowded almost to sufficiation by a throng of spectators. On cross examination there was evidence brought out which tended to show that a scheme had been concocted to get Weiker to condemn a good pieze of meat as bad, in order that they might show him up before the public as in-competent. When court adjourned all the evidence was not yet in, and the case will be resumed at 9 o'clock this morning.

PROFESSIONAL JURORS,

How a Little Investigation is Affecting Certain Class of Citizens.

The action of Judge Deemer in refusing to allow the district court jurymen to receive pay from the county for any time when they are not actually in service is not reating very easily on the stomachs of the jurymen. They held a meeting a few days ago, at which they decided to go on a gore-hunting expedition. Judge Deemer was the prime cause of their dissatisfaction, but knowing that the passage of a set of resolutions denouncing him would only result in their admiring the scan ery from behind the bars of Sheriff Hazen's house for a few days, they wisely decided to iet him alone and seek satisfac-tion elsewhere. They accordingly prepared a statement, in which they denounced THE BEE for publishing an account of the throes of mental anguish through which they were passing. They also cited a number of figures which were intended to show that the wages paid to jurymen were so grossly inadequate. This statement was signed by several of the members of the jury panel and one of the city papers was induced to publish it.

The subject of professional jurymen is one that will bear ventilating and an investiga-tion is not at all improbable, judging from the remarks made by some of the county officers, and aiready quoted in these columns It is a well known fact in the neighborhood It is a well known fact in the neighborhood of the court house that the jury system, as it is carried on in the west end of Pot-nawattamic county, at least, is a howling farce. Year after year for the past ten years the names of the same individuals have been returned by the election boards of the various towr-bing throughout the county, as candidates ships throughout the county, as candidates for the grand and petit juries, and the faces of the men who compose the two juries have cone almost as familiar to the judges and the attorneys as the chandellers or other fix tures of the court house. Some of the jurytures of the court house. Some of the jury-men have been so anxious to serve their country for their own and their country's rood that they have gotten themselves ap-pointed judges of election and then have re-turned their own names to the county auditor on both the grand and petit juries. The evident anxiety of dozens of men in the county to have their names on the jury lists rather tends to throw discredit on their The evident anxiety of dozens of men in the county to have their names on the jury lists rather tends to throw discredit on their statement that they cannot afford to serve their country at the rate fixed by the court. J. R. Wilmott, whose name heads the list of signatures to the published statement, has had his name returned to the county auditor every year for the past seven years, with the exception of 1888. H. A. Smith has served on juries regulariy for three out of the last five years. S. Butler, another member of the regular panel, has been a resident of the county for only three years past, but he managed to get on the jury every year since he came here. The name of T. C. Jackson, another of the present jurymen, can be found on the books as a member of the jury in 1884, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1860 and 1802.
