The hest race in which Lobasco will particitate will be at Des Moines. From theace be will go Snapper Pulls Montana Through the Winner of the Great Suburtan. BEAUTIFUL RACE AND CLOSE FINISH

First, Second and Third Horses Could Have Been Covered with One Blanket-How the Trick Was Turned-Sporting News.

HEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK, N. Y., June 18.- The Suourban handleap has been almost has been almost since its inception a race of surprises, but that of this afternoon was an exception, Montana, the first choice at 2 to 1, in a field of eleven horses, winning the rich prize by a head from W. J. Shire's Major Dorio, who in turn defeated Captain Sam Brown's S-year-old colt Lamplighter by a head.

The race was a grand one, the result being in doubt up to the very last stride. The day broke with a clouded sky which threatence a down pour of rain at any moment. Because of this militating feature there were not more than 25,000 spectators present when Starter Rowe, with red flag in hand, awaited the coming of the grandest lot of thoroughbreds that ever came together in one race. Only a few druzzling splotches of rain fell, and despite the heavy rain of Friday the track was fast albeit a triffle deep in dust. It was a rattling betting race, and the eighty bookmakers were well loaded down with money of all denominations when the crowd emptied itself out on the lawn and into the stands in order not to miss a single feature of the big race.

Trouble at the Start.

There were four false breaks, one of them being further than a sixteenth of a mile being further than a sixteenth of a mile in length. On the fifth attempt they wore running in a compact bunch, all being in motion. Starter Rowe glanced over the bunch, saw that the riders were waiting for the word, and quick as a flash down went the flag, while above all else could be heard his voice shouting

"Go." Lambley, who has no peer at getting away from the post ahead of all other jockwys, occupied first place with Major Domo. Littlefield, another beginner, had Russell at Domo's head. Then came the western colt, the long tailed Poet Scout. His Highness being fourth and Locohachie last. Russell made a bold old for the inner rail, as they were leaving the bome stretch pranarathey were leaving the home stretch preparatory to making the turn into the back stretch, but Lamley appreciated his advantage and cut the rail so close that the spec-tators expected to see his leg crushed. At this point Locobachie was absolutely last, while Montana was only a length in front of him. Major Domo was speeding along in front of his field as steady as if he were a machine instead of a. quadruped. Garrison, however, did not become rattled or disheartened. He knew that the leaders were going too fast for so carly in the race, and that they would be all pumped out before the finishing line was passed.

Snapper Getting in His Work.

In the middle of the back stretch he made his first move on the favorite. Ten lengths in front of him he saw that the horses that had been hugging the rail begun to wobble efforts to keep up with their companions. The alert Suapper drove Montana with bis hands a few times and the game son of Ban Fox rushed up game soa of Ban Fox rushed up to the tail end of the bunch like a shot out of cannon. His rush electrified the spectators, and whenever they cried out "Why look at Montana; he is not beaten at all," they were right. Garrison had just commenced to make his run.

Lamley, on Major Domo, glanced over his shoulder and saw the favorite coming through the bunch like a frightened deer. He to Detroit, Cleveland, and elsewhere on the grand tour. Mr. Ladd is quite confident that Lobasco will take at 2:12 mark before the season closes, and his friends who are acquianted with the great horse's abilities generally concur in that idea too.

Rain Spoiled St. Louis' Sport.

Sr. Louis, Mo., June 18 .- Several heavy showers made the track heavy and a magnificent card was damaged very much by free scratching at the fair grounds today. The attendance was kept down considerably by the rain. The faithfull missed their guess in a majority of sevents, only two favorites being first to the winning line.

The Osage stages for 2-year-olds at six fur-iongs was won handily by King Les, the favorite. It was worth $2,040 to the winner. The other stake was the Cyclone and it was captured by Guido in a whipping finish with Oregon Eclipse. The stake was worth $1,505

Latonia Winners Spotted. CINCINNATI, O., June 18 .- A very large crowd visited Latonia this afternoon. The betters picked three winners of the six. Track was fast till after the fifth race, when a terrific storm came up and the last race was rin over a muddy course to thunder and lightning accompaniement. The Hyman, the disappointment of the day, won easily. Springaway and London Smoke were unex-pected winners and the time, 1:40, made for the milicu the third, near by Springaway

EMMONS BLAINE DEAD.

The Ex-Secretary's Eldest Son Dies After Very Brief Illness.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 18.-Emmons Blaine. son of ex-Secretary Blaine, died at his residence in this city at 11:15 this morning. He had been ill several days with blood ing, resulting from a disorder of the bowels. The fact of his death was concealed for some time, the object being to reach his father with the news in a less shocking manner than the public announcement. Efforts to get telegraphic communica-tion with him failed, however, and at 12:15 the news became public. It was only a quarter of an hour before the fatal end came that the least intimation that young Blaine was in a dangerous condition became known and then only to a few of his most intimate friends. At the Baltimore & Obio railroad headquarters in this city his associates were only aware that he was ill and had been so several days. Young Blaine was not able to figure in the exciting scenes in connection with his fath-er's presidential candidacy at Minneapolis and he took his father's defeat greatly to heart. He was confined to his bed shortly after his return from the north. It is thought

Cabinet Officers,

(Copyrighted 1932 by James Gordon Bannett.) CURACOA, Venezueia (via Galveston, Tex.), June 17 .- By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald-Special to THE BEE.]-I am at last enabled to confirm the news from Caracas, Venezuela, about the overthrow of Palacio. The verification has just been received in reply to my latest dispatch. Palacio has retired from office and isa hiding somewhere. According to one story he fled to La Guarya and wentaboard a vessel which was kept in waiting for him. Another, and I should judge a more reliable account, states that he has not yet left the country. He would have done so but the members of his cabinet would not permit him. They held him responsible for the trouble they are in and say that they will not allow him to run away and leave them to shoulder the blame.

It was a hard matter to persuade the hot headed dictator that his power was at an end and that the only thing left for his followers was to protend compliance with the will of the people, substitute a provisional government for the dictatorship and issue a call to congress to meet and choose his successor as president of the republic.

Palacio Finally Weakened.

Palacio and his ministers had many meetings before the latter could prevail upon him to follow their advice. He would never have given in to them had it not been for the report of disasters thick and fast that came in from the battlefield. Defeat after defeat weakened Palacio's determination and finally he announced that he would abide by his cabinet's decision.

gestion he handed in his notice of retirement. The next thing was to phoose his temporary successor. Naturally their choice was Vice President Pilleges, who was present at the conference. He declined. He did not propose, he said, to offer himself up as a martyr. He could not, in justice to himself, accept the responsibility. This threw the meeting into consternution for some time. The cabinet could not think of anyone to fill the perilous post.

At length one of those present suggested Minister of War Sarria. After some hesitancy he accepted, but on the condition that Palacio should do as he said. This was agreed and then Sarria made known his possible that the strain and excitement at Minneapolis, followed by the keen disap-polatment at the outcome, had much to do with the prostraton ensuing. Death occurred in the home of Blaine's father in law, Cyrus H. McCormick. Only is wife son and Mrrs. McCormick, Only

AHAL

Committee of Investigation. Wasnington, D. C., June 17.-The demo-cratic majority of the house committee on reform in the civil .service has agreed upon a report drawn up by Representative Boater of Louisiana upor the results of the committee's investigation of the alleged violation of the civil service law at Baltimore. The reof the otvil service iaw at Baltimore. The re-port quotes the postmaster general's state-ment that none of the persons whose dis-missal from office had been recommended by the civil service commission for violation of the law had been dismissed or prosecuted of the law had been dismissed or prosecuted and gives at some length his reasons for fail-ing to act, according to his testimony before the committee, which reasons the committee characterize as contradictory. It says: "It is singular that the postmaster general should have endorsed the idea that the men charged with the violation of the civil service were entitled to notice before any action as to their guilt was entered upon, and that they were entitled to assistance of counsel in they were entitled to assistance of counsel in

"The examination of the testimony taken "The examination of the testimony taken by the inspectors and which the postmaster general claims to have acted on, shows that neither their conclusions nor his are sup-ported by the statements of the parties im-plicated; or the contrary, testimony reported by the inspectors confirms and corroborates fully that taken by the civil service com-mission. Substantially the same facts ad-mitted by the parties before the commission were sworn to before the inspectors and the severe strictures and criticisms which the severe strictures and criticisms which the inspectors passed on the work of Mr. Roose-velt in making the investigation are not borne out by any facts stated by the wit-borne out by any facts stated by the wit-nesses on that examination. "The socoptance by the postmaster gen-oral without further investigation or inquiry of the report of the inspectors, which if proved convicted the civil service commis-sioners of gross official misconduct and most dishonorable practices, is to say the least, extraordinary."

The report, continuing, says: "The an-swers of the postmaster general to many of the questions propounded by your committee were evasive and utterly inconsistent of the evidence on which he claims to have acted." It also comments on the failure of the post-master general to produce a written opinion from the assistant attorney general of his department to the effect that participation in the primary elections, on which the case was based, did not constitute a violation of the based, did not constitute a violation of the laws, and doubts whether any reputable at-torney would risk his reputation by giving such an opinion. Further, it says: "The garbled statement of evidence taken before the inspectors furnished by the postmaster general shows the desperate straits to which he is driven in the attempt to sustan the action of his inspectors and his own." The report holds that the accused employes were actually guilty of a violation of law were actually guilty of a violation of law and that their excuses were "transparent evasioe." It says: "Had the postmaster general been able to show that he had been advised by the Department of Justlee that the law did not apply to contributions for political primary purposes, or had pe fairly defended his belief that the men were in ignorance of its provisions, or were he invested with a discretionary or were he invested with a discretionary power not to execute the laws, and had he exercised his discretion in refusing to remove these men there might have been some excuse for his failure to do so, but on the ground stated oy him his action indicated either a determination not to enforce the law or negligence therein to the last de-

The report concludes as follows: *W/ herefore find that the report of the civil therefore and that the report of the civil service recommending the removal of certain employes in the postoffice at Baltimore was well founded; that the postmaster at Baltimore has not removed any of these parties substantially by direction of the postmaster general: that the report of the inspectors upon which they were retained is unsupported by the evidence taken by themselves and indicates evidence taken by themselves, and indicates either complete ignorance of the provisions of the civil service law or a determination

The secretary of the treasury frankly ad-mitted his attention had not been called to report of the civil service commission until the report on which this investigation is made was adopted and that he had construed the recommendation of the civil service comnission in regard to the mon in the custor service as not requiring their dismissal and that a reprimand was sufficient punishment.

had two turns of the reins of his wrist. Off they came and Major Domo, finding his head free, bounded further out into the light and increased his lead to five len ths. His backers down in the grand staud and on the lawn shouted excitantly, while the backers of Montana groaned. Turning into the stretch Garrison settled himself for business. and Berger on Lamplighter also began to ride. A furlong from the finish and Domo was still a length in front of Montana.

Got a Genuine Garrison Finish.

With only a sixteenth to go Domo had still a short length the best of it and Lamley began whipping for dear life. Garrison assumed his famous position, his back taking on a hump and he looked for ali the world like a jack rabbit about to spring. On came Montana as steady as a piston rod, while Domo swayed pathfully. Garrison's admirers cheered him and his gallant horse repeatedly as they passed by the judges first in the race for the great Suburban, with Major Domo a head away. Lamplighter finished at the Major's throat latch. In another stride he would have been second and Domo would have been third. There was an open space of daylight of about two lengths be-tween Lamplighter and the long-tailed Poet Scout. They Drive Engineers From Their Posts and Shoot at Officials.

Tower, Minn., June 18.-The Minnesot mine in this city, employing 1,400 men, shut down last night and the shafts are filling with water. About 300 Italians and Aus trians concluded to have a holiday Thursday. the result being that the operation of the mine was somewhat crippled. Yesterday 315 Italians and Austrians were laid off. Shortly before 7 o'clock last evening the night shift arrived at the mine. They were met by strikers armed with clubs and driver down the hill. The engineers were driven from the engine rooms, the firemen and pumpmen from their positions and the fires extinguished. G. G. Wallace, superintendent of mining, while endeavoring to in-duce the engineers to remain at their posts, was fired at twice, but escaped. A few men were hurt, three Cornish men being carried home. Any one seen with a dinner pail was promptly held up and prevented from going down the shaft. Surfacemen's wages were reduced 10 per cent last week and they demand that former rates be restored. Strikers were stationed at the various shafts all night, preventing the starting of pumps until the company ac-cedes to their demands. Shipping is stopped and twenty ore trains on the Iron Range, road are tied up.

No one was killed within fifteen miles of this city, and only one house was demolished within five miles of here. No children were killed in the school house at Sherburne, but twelve were hurt, none seriously. A messenger from Wells says only three were silled in that neighborhood. Every point in the path of the storm has been heard from. A conservative estimate puts the number of tilled at five instead of fifty, as at first reported. The loss of property is not nearly as great as first reported. Worse Than First Reported.

ACTONVILLE, Queboc. June 18 .- The des truction by the recent storm here was very great. Sixty families are homeless, ' 150 buildings were destroyed, three chil dren killed, and eight persons dangerously hurt. One can drive miles without seeing a house unharmed. The condition of the homeless people is really pitiful. The loss to crops is very heavy. Interstate Associated Dailies.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 18 .- "The Interstate Associated Dailies" had a mosting at the Grand Pacific today. Six states were represented by business managers or publishers of the leading daily papers in their respect-ive cities. The meeting was held to make final arrangements toward the incorporation. of an association with a capital of $50,000, T. C. Reynolds of the Akron, O., Beacon was elected president.

ria was to publicly announce Palacio's retirement, declare submission to his people and call upon congress to name the next president. This was accordingly done.

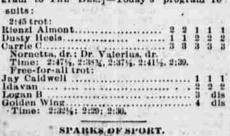

The result is not satisfactory to the revo lutionists, who declare that the present congress is filled with men who were not elected and that the new president must be chosen by the representatives, legally chosen to the national legislature, Crespo and his army are meanwhile continuing their march upor the capital.

INDIANAPOLIS, Inst. June 17.- A special to the News from Portland, Ind., says: A large crowd of sports witnessed a prize fight this moraing for a purse of $100 and gate re-ceipts between Jack Conley of Indianapolis and Hank O'Brien of Streator, Ill., champion welter-weight of Illinois. After four rounds of florce fighting the battle was declared a draw because Conley struck O'Brien while he was down. Conley would undoubtedly have won had the fight not been stopped. The men weighed about 155 pounds each.

Three peas (P. P. P.) represent Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are not like the old-fashioned pills. Bad to take, and bad to have taken. Inefficient, too. Try something better. With Pleasant Pellets the benefit is asting. They cleanse and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels. Taken in time, they present trouble. In any case, they cure it. And they cure it easily; they're mild and gentle, but thorough and effective. There's no disturbance to the system, diet or occupa-tion. One tiny, sugar-coated Pellet for a lanative—three for a cathartic. Sick and Billous Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are promptly re-lieved and permanently cured. They're purely vegetable, perfectly harm-besides that, they're the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're quaranteed to give sat-isfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. This is true only of Dr. Pierce's medicines.

The Last Drop Is as good as the first. No dregs. All pure and wholesome. The most popular drink of the day. Hires' Root Beer. A perfect thirst quencher.

and low spirits, trembling, caused by slight excitement sleeplessness, poor appetite, and, frequently, palpitation.

The causes of nervous debility are many: overwork, lack of bodily exercise, insufficient rest and nourishment, absence of amusement, loss of vitality, etc. The results, however, are the same: poor circulation of blood, impaired digestion, deranged nervous system; the heart loses force, the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels fail to perform their functions. This should not be, when a remedy is ever at hand.
