

QUESTIONED HIS MORTGAGE

Trouble Over a Team Causes the Arrest of a Lincoln Attorney.

HE WAS TRYING TO PROTECT HIMSELF

When Jacob Oppenheimer Saw That the Property Was Likely to be Seized He Immediately Foreclosed—Then the Other Side Acted.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 20.—(Special to THE BEE.)—Jacob Oppenheimer, a young attorney of Lincoln, was arrested today on the charge of horse stealing. The case is alleged to be a piece of spite work, and was brought by a young fellow named Cran. Oppenheimer held a mortgage on a team and wagon owned by Cran. The latter took the team and started to leave the city, but after going as far as Geneva returned and turned the horses loose in a pasture. Fearing that he might lose his security Oppenheimer foreclosed his mortgage and took possession of the horses. Cran undertook to replevin them but failing in this he had Oppenheimer arrested. His trial will take place June 30, and in the meantime he is taking the good natured chaff of his many friends here in good humor.

Sued the Burlington. Suit was commenced against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad today by Mrs. Carrie Grace Pennington of Omaha for $5,000 damages. Her husband, Lewis N. Pennington, was an engineer on the Burlington and early on the morning of February 3, last, was killed at the Twenty-seventh street crossing in this city. In her petition Mrs. Pennington alleges that the accident was caused by the imperfect condition of the road bed.

Myron Pratt's Condition. Myron Pratt, the murderer of Margaret Sperry, is slowly but surely dying in his room in the basement of the court house. For the past forty-eight hours he has been delirious. He has been hiccupping for twenty-four hours and is growing steadily weaker. He continually sings snatches of old army songs. His physicians think he will scarcely live till morning.

Gossip at the State House. Two cases, entitled Edwin R. Fay against John Peterson et al. and Swan F. Johnson et al. respectively, were filed with the clerk of the supreme court this morning. The case of the Horn, Brannon & Forsyth Manufacturing Company against the State of Nebraska, was filed in the supreme court today.

Red Willow County's Prosperity. McCook, Neb., June 20.—(Special to THE BEE.)—A special stock train, consisting of twenty-six cars loaded with fat steers, pulled out of this station Friday bound for Chicago over the Burlington. The entire train was loaded at this point by two men. One farmer drove in over 300 head and left over 300 in the feed yards on his farm. The past winter this farmer fed over 700 head, enough for a train of thirty-five cars, with twenty in each car. He raised 10,000 bushels of corn and bought 60,000 bushels from the farmers around him.

Another farmer fed 100 head and raised the corn to fatten them. The corn that fattened these steers was grown on land that is valued at $8 to $10 per acre and many fields yielded fifty to sixty bushels per acre. For raising and feeding stock this is the home of the stockman. This county, according to population, leads all others in the state in the number of stock raised, fed and shipped. Crops are looking fine, but late for the time of year. The warm weather is pushing crops right along.

Fremont's Chautauqua. FREMONT, Neb., June 20.—(Special to THE BEE.)—Work on the plunge bath and lake on the Chautauqua grounds was completed Saturday. The Fremont Chautauqua grounds have the only plunge bath and the largest lake in Nebraska. The grounds, which were naturally beautiful, are pronounced by all who have seen them as the finest in the country. The bath is 40x50 feet and covered with an artistic building. The lake furnishes a boat course three-fourths of a mile.

The annual Chautauqua opens July 1 and continues fifteen days. The program comprises the men who have made the Chautauqua platform famous, among whom are Dean Wright of Boston, Colonel George W. Bahr of Kentucky, John Dewitt Miller of Philadelphia, Leon Vincent of Philadelphia, Conrad Hanly of Chicago and Governor McKinley. L. A. Torrens of Omaha is director of the musical department. The Apollo club gives one concert.

Nebraska's Death Roll. HASTINGS, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Dr. Thomas H. Drughart died at the family residence here this afternoon. Dr. Drughart served through the civil war as a surgeon in the confederate army and for several years past has been one of the board of pension examiners. The veteran spent his last days in this city. He was always regarded as a good friend of the old soldiers. In addition he was one of the microscopists in the state. For nearly twenty years he has been a resident of Hastings.

Ponca's New Church. PONCA, Neb., June 20.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The corner stone of the new Lutheran church was laid yesterday with appropriate services. Rev. H. W. Kunas of Omaha, who was the first Lutheran minister to visit Ponca thirty years ago when it consisted of a half a dozen families in the then far northwest, and who preached the dedication sermon when the old church was dedicated twenty-two years ago, delivered the sermon for the occasion.

The new church is to have all modern arrangements and who completed the building in northeast Nebraska.

Press Association Excursion. SEWARD, Neb., June 20.—(Special to THE BEE.)—Arrangements have been made for an excursion by the members of the Nebraska Press association to Duluth and West Superior during the month of July. The trip will be made over the Sioux City & Pacific and the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad. The train will leave the Webster street depot in Omaha at 5:45 p. m. on Wednesday, July 14. The party will arrive at Superior on Thursday, July 16. The program after arriving at the head of the lakes cannot be accurately given now.

Ford's Death Wholly Accidental. BEAVERHEAD, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Owing to the peculiar nature of the death of young Ben Ford, of which detailed mention was made in THE BEE of this morning, it was deemed advisable to have an inquest to ascertain the true cause of death. The coroner's jury met this afternoon and after examining several witnesses and removing the bullet from the unfortunate man's brain, a verdict was rendered that the cause of death was wholly accidental and substantially as related in THE BEE.

Continuing the Street Car War. BEAVERHEAD, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—The case of E. G. Drake against the St. Paul, Omaha & Power company, wherein the defendant asks an order to show cause why the temporary injunction granted a week ago should not be modified to a permanent restraining order, was argued before Judge Bush today. The case is the initial legal ceremony of the street railway war. Judge Bush has taken the case under advisement and will hand down his decision Wednesday.

CITY PROPERTY MISSING. Judges and Clerks of Election Suspected of Robbing Their Booths.

A number of the judges and clerks who sat at the special election held last Thursday are in deep and serious trouble. This trouble they brought upon themselves, and if the proposed plans are carried out they are liable to land in the county jail to answer to the charge of larceny.

Prior to the holding of the election, the city council purchased some 600 camp chairs, paying for them at the rate of $10 per dozen. These chairs, the property of the city, were placed in the eighty-eight polling places in the city.

Saturday, when the contractor went around to the booths and polling places to gather up the furniture for the purpose of storing it in the basement of the city hall, he discovered that nearly all of the lamps, most of the tables and 300 of the chairs had been stolen.

The doors and windows of the polling places were examined and it was found that they were bolted and barred. This laid the theft at the doors of the aforementioned judges and clerks. The matter was reported to the council committee on public property and buildings, and the members of this committee started out to do a little detective work.

That they succeeded is very evident, as they now have in their possession a list which shows from which booths the particular evidence which shows that they have the names of nearly 300 clerks and judges who were seen to carry home lamps, tables and chairs after the votes were counted and the election boards had adjourned.

The members of the council state that they do not desire to resort to severe measures, but that unless the property is returned to the city hall within forty-eight hours they will prosecute every one of the thieves.

MANUFACTURERS EXPOSITION
School Children Packed the Coliseum Building Yesterday.

A GREAT DAY FOR THE LITTLE PEOPLE

Fourteen Thousand Tickets Were Issued and Nearly all Used—The Attendance of Grown People the Largest of Any Day Yet.

Yesterday was children's day at the exposition, and if any one thinks for a minute that Omaha's future citizens are not wide awake, a visit to the Coliseum building would have dispelled the illusion.

Although the exposition did not open until 10 o'clock the children commenced to arrive at 8 and when the doors were opened fully 500 were waiting for admission. By 10:30 the building was comfortably filled and the children were coming in droves. A great many parents came with their children and more tickets were sold by midday than on any other day up to 6 o'clock.

There was no end of amusement to be gained from watching the youthful visitors. A great many of them brought their lunch baskets with them, prepared to put in the whole day. One very small boy, with a lunch almost as large as himself, asked the doorman if he might not go back home and bring his supper too.

Inside the building the sight was one not easily described. The children, surging back and forth, praising this and criticizing that, and the babble of youthful voices drowned even the whirr of the machinery.

Picture cars were in great demand, and wherever a distribution was taking place the crowd was the greatest, and "give me one, mister," "give me one, mister," shouted incessantly by a hundred pairs of lungs at a time. At the least calculation 15,000 children passed through the Coliseum building before 6 o'clock in the evening.

In addition to the children, 15,000 tickets were sold to adults before 6 o'clock and 4,000 more in the evening. All told 30,000 men, women and children visited the manufacturers' exposition yesterday.

It was a hard day for the exhibitors and if Nebraska made goods did not possess good wearing qualities nothing would have been left.

Grocery Clerk's Day. Today will be grocery clerk's day, and all the grocery stores in Omaha and South Omaha will close at 6 o'clock p. m. Already 1,300 tickets have been issued to the clerks, but as every clerk is supposed to have a wife or a "sister" the number is expected to be doubled. There is not likely to be any lack of attendance Tuesday night.

Every day, since the opening one week ago of the exposition, there has been a steady increase in the attendance, showing that visitors have been well satisfied with the exposition and that their reports have been so favorable as to induce others to come.

The Close Near at Hand. Although many requests have been made to continue the exposition beyond the limit originally fixed, it is impossible to comply with them. Those who have not visited the exposition will have only two more days in which to do so, as it has been definitely settled that the doors will be closed on Wednesday evening at 10:30.

The manufacturers' have been highly pleased with the success of their exhibition and already many are talking about having another next year which will surpass even the present effort.
