WANT TO MUZZLE WILLIAM

European Politicians Fear the Result of Humbert's Visit to Berlin.

Austria's Emperor Will Be Requested to Use His Influence to Check the German Emperor's Unruly Mouth —European News.

[Copyrighted 1892 by James Gordon Bennett.]

PARIS, June 21.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to THE BEE.]—King Humbert's visit to Berlin, though no importance was attached to it at first, is now beginning to cause grave uneasiness in the political world. The reason is because the visit is looked upon as a reply to the recent Franco-Russian demonstrations. As a result grave fears are entertained that during Humbert's sojourn at Berlin Emperor William will make some imprudent speeches, and steps have already been taken to induce Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria to use his influence with William with the object of preventing any such untimely display of eloquence.

The ovation which has been tendered to Prince Bismarck at Vienna has produced a lively impression, since it proves beyond a doubt that the aged ex-chancellor continues to hold a place of the first rank in the eyes of all Europe.

Ravachol, the notorious anarchist, bore himself with amazing impudence at his trial, which took place today at Saint Etienne. Instead of denying his guilt he admitted that he was an assassin and justified his murderous deeds on the ground that society was badly constructed and had never shown him any fair play.

There is a new financial scandal, the hero of which is the manager of the Societie do Dynamite. This gentleman, it is announced, has disappeared, and the result is a deficit of 4,000,000 francs. JACQUES ST. CERE.

DOMESTIC DRAMA IN TWO ACTS.

Runaway Wife and Her Lover Separated by a Clever Ruse.

[Copyrighted 1892 by James Gordon Bennett.]

LONDON, June 21.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to THE BEE.]—London society has been agitated for some time by the horsewhipping of a mysterious gentleman who had just landed from a transatlantic steamship. It was vaguely hinted at the time that the castigated hero was a well known English artist, and that the assailant was a prominent barrister whose wife had been so indiscreet as to run away with the victim of his wrath.

I have now learned that while the barrister was belaboring the runaway Lothario, another episode in this domestic drama was being enacted in the harbor of New York. Some months ago the heroine, who is closely related to the family of one of the wealthiest and most influential bankers of New York, fell in love and ran away with a young artist, who had been prominently connected with the foundation of the New England Art club. The couple went at first to Paris, where, after a short but delightful stay, their whereabouts were discovered by the erring wife's family.

A check for £1,000 brought the artist back post haste to London. For a further consideration he agreed to go to New York, and he faithfully carried out his part of the compact after having been plentifully supplied with letters of introduction and funds.

He had scarcely quitted Albion's shores when the fair, but frail, lady returned from Paris in search of her recalcitrant companion. By a clever ruse she succeeded in obtaining his new address and made arrangements to go in pursuit. She engaged passage on the Havel and journeyed to Southampton for the purpose of going on board there. The family learned of her intended departure and sent detectives down with instructions to detain her, but when the tender left the dock to take out the passengers the lady was nowhere visible. The fact was she had engaged another tender for herself in which she met the Havel off the Isle of Wight.

Notwithstanding this trick the wronged husband was certain his wife was on board the vessel and he instantly resolved upon doing an ingenious coupe. A cablegram was dispatched to the artist in New York requesting him to return forthwith and receive a further sum of money. Another cable informed the wife's relations that she was on board the Havel and that it would be best to detain her until medical men could be sent from London to take charge of her.

The artist snatched the bait and crossed the ocean at the very time when his lady love was speeding westward. He arrived at Southampton just as the Havel entered the harbor of New York, but instead of receiving £1,000 he took a good drubbing.

The Havel was met in New York by a revenue cutter, upon which were doctors and lawyers. Although the ship's doctor said the lady was perfectly sane, she was given up to those on board the cutter and conveyed to Ellis Island, where she remained a prisoner in the hospital until her brother and two English doctors reached New York, whereupon she was taken on board the Umbria and brought to Liverpool. Since her arrival here last week all trace of her has been lost. The artist has returned to New York.

BLUMENFELD.

LANDED HIMSELF IN QUEER STREET.

Attempted to Blackmail a Doctor and May Be Held for Murder Himself.

LONDON, June 21.—Thomas Neill was brought up on remand before Sir John Bridges in the Bow street police court to answer to the charge of attempting to extort money from Dr. Joseph Harper of Barnstable. It is alleged that Neill, who claims to be a doctor and the representative in London of G. H. Harvey, a drug manufacturer of Saratoga, N. Y., wrote, under the name of Murray, a letter to Dr. Joseph Harper, accusing him of being responsible for the deaths of Alice Marsh and Emma Shrivell, having poisoned these girls with strychnine, and offering to surrender the proof for money. When the case was first reported it was supposed to be merely a case of blackmail, but it is now believed Neill himself poisoned the girls, and he was again remanded to allow the detectives to work upon evidence. There is also a strong suspicion that Neill was concerned in the killing of two other girls—Ellen Dodsworth and Matilda Clover—whose deaths are now known to have been caused by strychnine. Great interest is manifested in the case and the court room was crowded with curious listeners, including a number of young girls of the unfortunate class to which the victims of the poisoner belonged.

French Russomania.

PARIS, June 21.—Grand Duke Constantine has left Contreville for St. Petersburg. At Nancy an immense crowd of students and townsfolk had assembled at the station to meet the train as it passed through, but the grand duke alighted at the last station before reaching Nancy, and drove into the town unseen. When he started for the station to resume his journey he was followed by an excited crowd of citizens who cheered enthusiastically for the grand duke and shouted "Long live Russia." The municipal authorities bade the grand duke farewell at the station. Many bouquets were presented to him and a number of enthusiastic speeches were made. The grand duke, who was evidently much gratified, warmly expressed his thanks.

Italy's Finances on the Mend.

ROME, June 21.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday Premier Giolotti announced that the financial situation had greatly improved and that a balance between revenue and expenditures would shortly be attained. After this statement a bill granting the government supplies for six months was approved by a vote of 99 to 106.

Agitated Over the Hurlburt Case.

LONDON, June 21.—In the House of Lords, Baron Coleridge, lord chief justice of England, called the attention of the house to the official correspondence on the impounded documents of the Hurlburt case and the difficulty the public prosecutor has had in obtaining copies of such documents. Plaintiff's and defendant's counsel, he said, had been allowed to inspect the documents. He never knew Hurlburt, and as far as he knew had never seen him. He did not know whether Hurlburt was entitled to the rights the American laws had given him, or not. He would spare neither pains nor expense to obtain possession of the impounded Murray letters. However, as a rule had been passed within the last few days which would prevent a recurrence of the difficulty by placing impounded documents henceforth under the control of the law officers of the crown, who would have the right to decide who should inspect them, he would allow the matter to drop.

Balmaceda's Ex-Soldiers Turn Robbers—Chili Refuses an English Loan.

[Copyrighted 1892 by James Gordon Bennett.]

VALPARAISO, Chili (via Galveston Tex.), June 21.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald—Special to THE BEE.]—The Herald correspondent at Santiago telegraphs that three English banks offered the Chilian government sufficient money to meet its liabilities, but that the offer was declined for the reason that Chili has no desire at present to ask loans of foreigners.

Bands of armed men are attacking farmers in the vicinity of Santiago. There are also said to be fully organized bodies for the purpose of robbery. It is asserted by the authorities that the bandits consist chiefly of ex-soldiers of Balmaceda's army. Robberies are of nightly occurrence in the streets of Santiago.

At a meeting yesterday of the parents and relatives of the young man massacred at Los Cemas and of the survivors of the tragedy, it was agreed to hold in the national congress hall services in memory of the killed.

The Herald correspondent at Buenos Ayres telegraphs that the secretary of the Argentine legation at Rio Janeiro has failed in his engagements owing to unfortunate speculation, and has been imprisoned. M. V. Ramirezes' resignation has been accepted.

From Yonguen word has been received that Governor Costilho remains firm in his position and that it transpires that Argentines have been tortured to death with the object of forcing them to reveal the conspiracy against the Brazilian government.

FIFTEEN SCALDED TO DEATH.

BREST, June 21.—A frightful accident occurred yesterday on board the new French cruiser Dupuy do Lame. A trial was being made of her machinery, when the head of one of her boilers was blown out, and an explosion occurred in one of the coal bunkers, totally disabling the vessel. The firehold was at once filled with scalding steam and smoke, while boiling water covered the floor to a depth of several inches. The unfortunate strikers and engineers imprisoned in the hold writhed in agony as the scalding steam filled their lungs, and falling to the floor were scalded by the hot water. In their agony they bit themselves and their companions, and fought and struggled together. Attempts to rescue them were met by the same frenzied resistance, biting those who tried to drag them out. Finally fifteen of them were taken dying to the hospital, and a number of others will undoubtedly die in a short time.

EXUBERANT LIBERALS.

Italians Noisily Celebrate the Defeat of the Clericals.

LONDON, June 21.—A special to the Globe from Rome says: When the results of the elections for ministerial offices become known a crowd gathered in front of the residence of ex-Prime Minister Crispi, the liberal leader, who was one of the successful candidates, and gave him an ovation. The crowd noisily celebrated the liberal victory, and amid cheers for the success of the candidate could be heard shouts of "Long live Crispi!" "Down with the clericals!" "Down with the pope!"

In response to repeated calls Signor Crispi appeared upon the balcony of the house and delivered a short speech, in which he congratulated the people upon the victories won by the liberals. His remarks were greeted with tumultuous cheers.

Afterwards the crowd marched to the palace of the propaganda, where a demonstration against the clericals was made.

Chinese Boycott American Goods.

LONDON, June 21.—The Standard Shanghai correspondent says: It is unlikely that the Pekin government will take serious notice of the Geary bill, although, in the event of further claims being made for damages resulting from the injury of American missionary property, China will not hurry to make monetary reparation, as hitherto. In Pekin and the north the people are indifferent, but in Canton and the south, whence the bulk of the emigrants are drawn, the commercial classes denounce America and endeavor to boycott American goods, especially kerosene which is being supplanted by Russian oil.

Rio Grande do Sul's Revolution.

RIO JANEIRO, June 21.—General Castilho holds the capital of Rio Grande do Sul and the principal cities of the states. General Tavares has made Bage his temporary capital, where he is organizing to oppose Castilho. Thirteen persons were killed in a fight at Livramento. Conflicts have also occurred at other points with slight causalities. The federal troops remain neutral.

Another New Republic.

LONDON, June 21.—Advices received here today from St. Paul de Londa, capital of the Portuguese colony of Angola, in West Africa, state that a large body of Boers has entered the colony and proclaimed a republic. The Portuguese force is not sufficiently large to repel the invasion, and unless Portugal is able to send reinforcements the Boers will retain the territory already siezed and expel the Portuguese from it.

Victoria Takes a Prize at a Cattle Show.

LONDON, June 21.—The prince of Wales and his son, the duke of York, accompanied by Lord and Lady Brooke, yesterday privately visited the Warwick agricultural show. By special request the incognito of the prince and duke was observed. The queen and prince of Wales are extensive exhibitors at the show. The queen has been awarded the first prize for a 2-year-old bull. The prince of Wales' exhibit consists of cattle and sheep.

Ravachol Again on Trial.

PARIS, June 21.—Ravachol, the anarchist, was placed on trial today. He is charged with five murders and the violation of a tomb for the purpose of plunder. The jury was drawn by lot and their names kept secret in order to guard them from the friends of the prisoner in the event of conviction. Few persons are allowed in the court room.

The Greyhounds Slipped the Leash.

LONDON, June 21.—The Telegraph, commenting on the transfer to an American registry of the steamers City of Paris and City of New York, expresses the hope that for the future the British admiralty will not permit Atlantic greyhounds to slip out of their hands.

Prince George's New Command.

LONDON, June 21.—The twin screw, second-class cruiser Melampus, eight guns, will be placed in commission and will be commanded by the duke of York (Prince George of Wales). She will take part in the maneuvers of the British channel squadron in the autumn.

The Fire Record.

MERCED, Cal., June 21.—A grain fire started on the ranch of F. McNamara, near this town yesterday. It burned his grain and that of M. Rohily and M. C. Healy, 7,000 acres in all. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Italy Irritates Them.

PARIS, June 21.—The French newspapers are chagrined over the visit of King Humbert to Emperor William. The Journal Des Desbats charges King Humbert with seeking the hand of a Hohenzollern for his son.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 21.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Omaha won two games today by clever and timely batting and Hoosier errors. Attendance, 1,000. The umpiring of Snyder was very yellow. No one scored on either side in the first two innings, and after Indianapolis had gone out in one, two, three order in the third, and Darby of the Omahas had failed to beat his bunted hit to first, Sheibeck hit safe and stole second, coming home on Gilks' single. Kelly hit to right and Visner sacrificed, but Rowe could not make a hit and the side retired with a single tally. This made the chief Indian rather sore, and he took occasion to roast Shortstop Sheibeck on the field for a trifling error in the following inning.

In the first half of the fifth Indianapolis got three runs on singles by Sullivan and Lawrence, Letcher's sacrifice and Berger's hit, the last named making second on an attempt to field out Lawrence at the plate, going to third an instant later on a passed ball. O'Brien brought him home with a single, but was forced out at second by Quinn, Carpenter having in the meantime lifted a fly to short center which everybody thought safe, but Gilks captured the spere, as usual.

In the seventh Indianapolis got another run on Collopy's low throw of Berger's grounder. The runner reached third before the ball was fished out of the bleachers. He came home an instant later on Carpenter's sacrifice.

In their half of this inning the Omahas won the game. Darby went out on a grounder to Lawrence. Then Sheibeck, Gilks and Kelly made singles, the first named scoring. Visner went out on a grounder but Gilks and Kelly scored on Rowe's single to right, which Madden let go by. A single by Hengle brought in the captain with the winning run.

In the eighth Indianapolis went out in one, two, three order, and in the latter half there was a pretty double play. Hayes made a single, Darby sacrificing, and Sheibeck then got his base on balls. Gilks then rapped a terrific liner to Lawrence, who caught Hayes off second. Indianapolis failed to get anything in the ninth. Score:

Won in a Walk.

The second game was simply a walk over for the Omaha batsmen, who touched up Madden of fourteen hits with a total of nineteen bases. In the first inning Sheibeck made a double and came home on Kelly's double, Gilks having flown out to Letcher. Visner's sacrifice and Rowe's single earned the second run for the Indians, Hengle retiring the side by striking out.

In the second Quinn made a double and scored on Nagle's single, he being forced out at second by Madden's short hit. Sullivan struck out and Rowe's error gave Lawrence a life, but Letcher flew out and the inning was over.

In this and the third inning, Omaha made four runs. In the second after two were out and Carpenter's error had given Handiboe second, Sheibeck hit safe and both came home on Gilks' two-bagger. In the third Visner rapped the sphere for two bases, Rowe flew out and Hengle knocked a foul outside the left field line, which Nagle dropped. Snyder's rank decision called the hit fair and Visner scored. Hengle got home on errors by Lawrence and Sullivan.

Omaha made two in the fifth on hits by Rowe and Hengle and Handiboe's double. Another was added in the eighth by Handiboe's second two-bagger and sacrifices by Gilks and Sheibeck. In the seventh and eighth the Hoosiers made one each by free use of the stick and a charitable error. Score:

Springfield Beaten.

SPRINGFIELD, Neb., June 21.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Grays dropped their first game this season to the Plattsmouth league team by a score of 5 to 12. The Grays were scared to death and put up the poorest game of the season, but did better than could be expected of them, as the management is very indifferent as to whether they have any practice, and the way they jumbled and fumbled balls today was a sight. The visitors were a little off, too, in fielding. The same clubs play tomorrow and the visitors remain tomorrow night and together with the T. K. quartette will give a concert at the opera house. The score:
