Wheat Was Quiet and a Shade Under Yesterday's Closing.

CORN WAS ACTIVE AND UNSETTLED

Heavy Rains Throughout Illinois Had r Strengthening Tendency and Under Urgent Demands from Shorts the Market Advanced le Over Yesterday.

CHICAGO, Iil., June 23.-The wheat market today was quiet. The opening was a share under yesterday's closing. The market fluctuated within parrow umits and finally closed about he lower than yesterday. The various rumors about the Atchison caused more of less uncasiness and had a tendency to make operators hold off. Cables were irregular.

Corn was active and unsettled with transactions on a large scale. The heavy rains throughout this section had a strengthening tendency and under argent dem ands from shorts dency and under urgent demands from shorts the market advanced le from vesterday's c.ose. Then local "longs" let go large quantities and the price went down 1%c, the fall being added by talk of unfavorable leg slation at Washington and the prevailing we kness in wheat. Demais of the Washington rumor soon caused a raily of he but the pressure was renewed and finally closed with a loss on July of from %c to le and September from %c to %c.

July of from %c to le and September from %c to %c.

Oats active and unsettied, following corn and closing with a net loss of from %c to %c.

Provisions opened higher on fight receipts of hogs and firmness then prevailing in grain. The advance was met by heavy selling, and pork closed 12%c lower than yesterlay.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 140 cars; corn, 1.775 cars; oats, 286 cars; hogs, 2.006 head.

Traders' Talk.

Traders' Talk.

Cutcago, Ill., June 23.—Counselman & Day to Cockrell Bros.: Wheat opened higher, on demand for the northwest from shorts, actuated by smaller receipts and poor quality of arrivals. The Hatch bill spectre started again, and on this account New York and Chicago holders sold from the start. Buyers limited their purchases to actual wants and the market closed dull at $\frac{1}{2}\text{ decline}$. Cornopened active and advanced from $\frac{1}{2}\text{ to Ic on various futures, but wonkened under free sellers by prominent longs and closed at from $\frac{1}{2}\text{ to Ic lower than yesterday.} The probability of favorable action by the judiciary committee on the Hatch bill was given as the main reason for selling. Provisions were sold by packers from the outset and kept up until a decline of $\frac{1}{2}\text{ cin pork and Isc in ribs was established.} The balance of the session sales were not pressed, but the product was peddled out as fast as buyers could be found. The market closed ensy at the declines quoted.

CHICAGO, III., June 23.—F. G. Logan & Co., to Duncan, Hollinger & Co.: Another dull day in wheat, July opened at 79½c, sold as low as 78½c, and closed at 78½c. There is no special feature to the market. Pardridge au-low as 78½c, and closed at 78½c. There is no special feature to the market. Pardridge aupears to be through buying and the excitement over the Hatch bill for the gresent has subsided. Reports of the growing crop of winter wheat are about all that could be desired and with fine weather to harvest it we are going to have a large yield and of superior quality. All reports from the spring wheat belt are favorable. Foreign advices are rather duil. The weather is unsettled, but not so bad has to injure the crops. The near future is a good deal of a weather question. All indications now do not point to any higher prices. Corn market has been active from the opening until the close. July sold at 51½c and closed at 40½c. The Hatch bill has caused heavy realizing. Urop reports are greatly improved, but the scarcity of the contract grade keeps the market strong and nervous on all declines or advances. The business doing in oats heavy, selling as high as 3% for July, the close 32½c. The reports of the growing crop are less premising than a for details and a for details business doing in oats heavy, seiling as high as Ele for July, the close 324c. The reports of the growing crop are less promising than a few days are. Hog products rather weak on considerable realizing.

Chicago, Ill., June 23.—Kennett, Hopkins & Co. to S. A. McWharter: The government weather report for the week is generally favorable for all grain in all states, with unimportant exceptions in Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota and Wiscousin. It was expected that hot weather and non-crous showers would bring in some crop damage reports, and so they did. But Pardridre was not much of a buyer today and the market failed to hold yesterday's advance. He says he is about in, wants to close up his deals and go away. The litatch bill has been the principal topic of discussion. Other news is of the same tenor as for some days past. Clique brokers were free sellers of corn, and as the wants of shorts were less urgent the market sold down gradually after the first buying rush in the morning. Reports from the growing crop are quite favorable, but it is said that receipts will fall off somewhat. Oats are rather steady and moderately active. are rather steady and moderately active. There was a smill stampede among local holders, with packers effering the product freely. Probably the weakness in corn started

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Volume of Business at the Exchange Growing Smaller.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The volume of business at the Stock exchange grows smaller from day to day, but there is still maintained nearly 1,000 head short of last Thursday the stubborn firmness, which, while based on the new crop conditions and the general bright business outlook of the country, is not supported in a speculative way, Operations in the stock market are confined to the trading of small pools on either side of the ac-

The opening was made on a very moderate ousiness and at small but irregular changes from last night's figures. Burlington at its lowest point was down over 14, but the rest of the market without exception fluctuated within the narrowest limits and developed no feature of interest whatever. The market gradually sank into the most intense dull-ness, the nomination having no effect either gradually sank into the most intense duliness, the nomination having no effect either to stimulate trade or cause any movement in prices, and the close was dull and fairly steady at insignificant changes for the day. The bond market was quiet except for the Atchison and the Richmond & West Point issues. The former wis especially prominent in the dealings. Total sales, 1424,000.

The Post says: There is reason to believe that today's gold shipment will bring the present movement to an end. Sterring exchange rates were reduced today and it may be presumed that further shipments will depend upon London's action in our security market. This week it has not figured as a heavy seller, but it has ceased almost wholly to buy, a fact which the narrowing bond m: relet best rates. The trading has averaged less than two-thirds of last month's record and this has been largely due to the almost complete withdrawal of foreign houses whose bonds were a noteworthy factor not long since.

arainst 8.319 cattle, 31.535 hogs and 391 sheep
the same four days a week ago.

The run of cattle was very light, even for a Thursday. There were fewer cattle here than on any day for the past six weeks and the quality out side of two or three loads was indifferent. Shippers did not want many, but bought a few. Dressed beef buyers had to have enough to make a partial killing at least and as supplies were light prices ruled stronger on desirable cornfed steers. The best cattle sold 5c to 10c higher. Common half fat and green stuff was in poor demand and barely steady. Trading was farrly brisk and an early clearance effected. One bunch of mixed western steers and spayed helfers averaging 1.435 lbs, went to a shipper at $1.10, but aside from this bunch fair to good 1,159 to 1,25c-1b. steers sold at from $1.70 to $1.5, with common light grades from $1.30 to $1.5.

Butchers' stock and canners were in indifferent supply, both as to quantity and quality. The trade was about like Wednesday, poor to rood cows and helfers selling at from $1.75 to $1.00. Bulls, oxen and stags were in poor supply and nominally steady on the basis of from $1.50 to $3.59 for poor to prime animals. Calves were in liberal supply, poor demand and prices ruled lower. Common to very fair veals sold at from $3.06 to $4.55.

Hogs—Receipts were by no means excessive nearly 1,000 head short of last Thursday the supply for the past four days failing over 3,000 short of the same four days last week. The quality ran rather to extremes of good and bad. There were more good heavy hogs here while the supply of common to poor light and mixed hogs was rather larger than usual. Shippers started in paying all of 5c higher than Wednesday for good heavy and medium weight hogs from $4.95 to $5.05. Packers, and in fact local buyers generally, were more or loss indifferent and bearish from the start, so that common hogs of all weights, especially light and mixed hogs, sold very unevenly. In some class prices were weak, in others there was close to a 5c advance. Sales of this class of stuff were largely at from $4.85 to $4.95. Business was not overly active after the first flush, and the close was slow with several loads unsold. The bulk of the trading was at from $4.90 to $5.04. gainst from $4.55 to $4.95. Wednesday. The general average of prices paid was $4.545, against $4.05. Wednesday and $4.75% last Thursday. Representative sales: No. Av. Sh. Pr. No. Av. Sh. Pr. So. 10. Sec. 10.

IN THE COURTS.

The Thomas Family's Troubles Being Aired Again - Other Cases, It is a family row that is monopolizing the attention of Judge Scott's court, and upon the records it is known as John D Thomas against John P. Thomas. The plaintiff is the uncle of the defendant, who is a cripple. and the bone of contention is a tract of land situated in Washington county and worth something like $4,000. The plaintiff, in his petition, alleges sundry and divers things which lead the court and the lawyers to believe that he has found "Jordan a hard road to travel." Under oath he says that he emi-grated to Nebraska in 1856 and soon after became possessed of the land which is now the subject of the litigation. Until 1872 he resided upon this land, but about that time his wife died and he removed to Omaha. In 1875, through and by deceit, fraud and misrepresentation, he was induced to marry one Sylvia Preston, after which his real troubles commenced. He avers that this woman set a pace that he could not fol-low; she connived with several wickedly inclined persons to cheat and defraud him, and did succeed in getting much of his property before the marriage ties were dissolved by an order of the supreme court in 1886. Dur-ing all of this time the plaintiff avers that he was subjected to innumerable annoyances by Sylvia, her relations, friends and accom-plices. He concluded that he could not get justice in the courts of law, as he believed that his persecutors could convict him of per-jury, arson, bigamy or horse stealing. About that time to end his troubles, he deeded his property to his nephew, who is the de-fendant in the case at bar. It was on Feb-ruary 5, 1884, that the deed was made, and the plaintiff wants it understood that the land was not deeded as a gift, nor for the advancement of any money. Some time ago the plaintiff wanted the land back, but the nephew said "no," hence the suit which is now in court. The defendant admits that he holds the title to the tract of land, but claims that he obtained it through an honorable business transaction.

The morning session was devoted to taking the testimony of witnesses to prove that John D. Thomas' reputation for truth was just what it should be.

just what it should be.

S. L. Wiley proposes to recover $8,000 from George R. Voss, and for a cause of action he complains and alleges that on April 18, 1892, the defendant offered to sell 400 shares of the Iowa Water Works stock of the par value of $100 per share, at the rate of $80 per share. On April 20 the plaintiff says that he accepted the offer and was to have the stock delivered on April 25. The stock was not delivered, and on June 18 the plaintiff made a tender of $32,000, demanding the stock. On account of the refusal of the defendant to carry out his part of the agreement the plaintiff places his damages at the amount sued for

In the district court John W. McDaniels has brought suit to gam possession of his son William, who is eight months old and in the custody of either Robert Bishop, Florence Bishop, William Armstrong or John Armstrong. He alleges that the boy was taken out of his custody by the Armstrongs and against his will. He further pleads that the mother of the boy is insane that the Armstrong has been supported by the Armstrong and against his will.

The Bureau believes in giving the veterans the benefit of the laws that were passed to help them. It wages war on the sharks-consequently the sharks don't like it.
