Arrangements Perfected for Buying Furniture for the New City Hall.

HOME INDUSTRIES TO BE PATRONIZED

Aldermen Sign an Agreement with Reference to the Subject—Members of the Committee May Settle the Business at Once.

The Board of Health held a meeting last evening and considered a number of matters in connection with the building certain new buildings in the city. Alderman Tibbitts, Paes, Smith and Gilson were the only ones present, and as there was not a quorum present there was but little business that could be done. The meeting of the council which was to have been held immediately after had to be postponed for the same reason until next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The rest of the evening was spent by the aldermen in talking over in an informal way the question of buying furniture for the new city hall.

An agreement was drawn up and signed by each of the aldermen present, allowing the members of the committee appointed some time ago to go ahead with the necessary arrangements for procuring the furniture without consulting the council as a whole. This agreement will be signed by some of the other aldermen today, and then the committee will be ready to go on with its work. An architect will be employed to draw plans and specifications for the furniture, and the local furniture makers will be asked to bid for the work. The chairs, tables, etc., will be bought ready made, and it is the intention of the committee to patronize home manufacturers almost exclusively. All the furniture will be of oak, and it is expected that the work will be completed inside of sixty days. The work on the city hall is rapidly nearing completion. The plastering has been finished and the workmen have been laying the floors.

A Modern Laundry. Ever been in a first-class, latter-day laundry? No? Then you have missed one of the wonders of the age. The modern laundry, equipped with its wondrously intelligent machinery, is as much a marvel and a mystery as the most intricate looms which spin out fabrics as beautiful as a dream.

Ever been in a first-class, latter-day laundry? No? Then you have missed one of the wonders of the age. The modern laundry, equipped with its wondrously intelligent machinery, is as much a marvel and a mystery as the most intricate looms which spin out fabrics as beautiful as a dream.

A Trip through the big establishment on the corner of Sixteenth and Pearl street yesterday afforded a BEE reporter a great deal of information concerning the modern methods of cleaning clothes. The Evans laundry is one of the largest in the west and city process used is the most advanced and most approved. It is filled with machinery on every floor, but it is machinery that is meant to clean clothes quietly and quickly, and not to kill and maim employes while engaged in their work. From the moment the finish there is not a process through which the goods are put that subjects them to any more wear than the gentlest handling. The entire lower floors are devoted to the first processes, which consist of washing, sorting, marking and washing. The washers are simply huge polished brass cylinders that contain nothing but the wash and hot suds, and the dirt is washed out solely by the agitation of the water. It need not be supposed that the rubber wringer afforded the least destructive method of removing surplus water, but in this laundry the clothes are not put through any process half as destructive as rolling and wringing. When the clothes are taken from the washers the water is driven out by centrifugal force, no pulling, wrenching or twisting.

The cardinal idea or principle that governs everything is rapidity and gentleness. When the clothes have gone through the various processes of washing and are ready to bid adieu to hot suds and cold water they are spread on racks and run in the drying closets, where they are dried. Besides this is another sentiment mass of brass and steel that stretches collars and another that does the same to the blades of cuffs. Each does in a second more than could be done in five minutes by hand and does it just right. There is a machine that has nothing to do but raise the collar-bands and polish them; another that hunts out the wristbands of shirts and leaves them bright, glossy and shapely. But the most intelligent machine that watches the bosoms of shirts at the rate of from 60 to 80 a minute. It cannot be described; it must be seen at work to be understood. Watch it seize and polish a shirt front. Not a false motion, not a pull nor a stretch; the sinuous gliding of a bright cylinder underneath which the linen is sliding with a positive motion and that ends it; the shirt front has received a degree of lustre that would have been deemed an impossibility a short time ago. There is a machine for everything and that machine is perfection. Of course there are about 50 men, employed, but the work is light and their employment is light and clean and convenient. The entire lower floors are devoted to the first processes, which consist of washing, sorting, marking and washing. The washers are simply huge polished brass cylinders that contain nothing but the wash and hot suds, and the dirt is washed out solely by the agitation of the water.

Hot water, a farmer living west of the city, had his two boys out riding last evening on Pierce street, near the corner of Grace, when his horse took fright at a motor train and ran away, overturning the buggy and spilling all the occupants out on the ground. Charles, one of the boys, had his collar bone broken, and his brother and father were badly shaken up and bruised, although none of the other injuries were at all serious.

Will Hold an Inquest. The remains of Lewis Wehrli, who died Thursday night from injuries received in an accident on the motor line, were taken to the rooms of Undertaker Loukey yesterday and an autopsy was held for the purpose of discovering, if possible, the exact cause of his death. It was decided to hold an inquest. A jury was empaneled and allowed to view the remains, after which it was given a recess until after the autopsy is completed this morning.

Escaped Lunatic. A man named Cochran, who has been confined for some time past in the insane ward of St. Bernard's hospital, escaped yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock by breaking a hole in the high steeple that runs around the building for the purpose of keeping the inmates from getting away.

stists chiefly of watching the machines do the work. "We could take in 600 shirts here in the morning," said Mr. S. F. Henry, the proprietor and manager, "and when night comes we could have them ready for delivery without interfering with our regular wash." This gives an idea of the capacity of the plant. And it has to be large, for it is doing the work for an immense territory, reaching as far as 150 miles from Council Bluffs. The soiled clothes are brought to the laundry by express in huge papers and, after receiving ideal treatment, are returned at the expense of the laundry in the same way.

As large as it is, however, the plant is still being enlarged, a 60-foot addition now being in progress. It is one of the cleanest, brightest and most interesting places in the city to visit besides being one of the most important commercial enterprises in the Missouri valley. Mr. Henry is always glad to see visitors and does not object to show them through and reveal the mysteries of a modern "washer" establishment.

W. C. T. U. Convention. The second day of the Women's Christian Temperance union convention of the Ninth district of Iowa was much more largely attended than the first, as the delegates here come from a great many outside towns who were unable to get here on the opening day on account of the failure of the trains to run. The program was very interesting and the address by the ladies showed a great deal of careful preparation. Among the speakers were Mrs. Dr. Snyder, Mrs. L. W. Tuley, Mrs. S. S. Hooper, Mrs. J. G. Lorenson, Mrs. Henry Delong, Mrs. Stephen Phelps, Mrs. K. K. Stoddard of Council Bluffs. In the evening the women were made by the officers of the city and members of the ladies' delegates. The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: President, Mrs. M. E. Crandall of West Omaha; secretary, Mrs. S. S. Curtis, Atlantic; treasurer, Mrs. K. K. Stoddard of Council Bluffs; vice presidents, Mrs. Della C. of Audubon, Mrs. H. L. Craig of Delta, Mrs. M. E. Lawrence of Tubor, Mrs. S. S. Hooper of Council Bluffs and Mrs. E. C. H. of Hartney. The close of the evening session the convention adjourned. Arrangements are to be made with one of the city papers for the publication of some of the papers which were read during the convention.

FINEST SODA FOUNTAIN IN AMERICA AT KUHN'S, 15TH ST.

HAD A TOUGH FIGHT. Firemen Called Out to Save Tons of Fine Hay.

An alarm of fire from box 10, Sixth and Pierce streets, shortly after 8 o'clock last evening, called the department to the south side of the Willow Springs distillery, where a great pile of hay was burning. The fire caught at the west end of the big stack, which contained between 400 and 500 tons of hay, and spread with great rapidity. At the time the department arrived nearly half of the pile was ablaze. Five streams of water were laid in and the work of the fire fighters was made by the officers of the city and members of the ladies' delegates. The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: President, Mrs. M. E. Crandall of West Omaha; secretary, Mrs. S. S. Curtis, Atlantic; treasurer, Mrs. K. K. Stoddard of Council Bluffs; vice presidents, Mrs. Della C. of Audubon, Mrs. H. L. Craig of Delta, Mrs. M. E. Lawrence of Tubor, Mrs. S. S. Hooper of Council Bluffs and Mrs. E. C. H. of Hartney. The close of the evening session the convention adjourned. Arrangements are to be made with one of the city papers for the publication of some of the papers which were read during the convention.

It was impossible last night to estimate the loss, as a great deal of the hay which was not burned was damaged by water. Chiefs Saller and Barnes, with three hose companies, remained on duty at the fire all night in order to extinguish every spark of fire in the smoldering mass.

A Commercial Traveller. CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., July 30th, 1891.—I have suffered intensely for a number of years with catarrh of the stomach and inflammation of the bladder and after being incapacitated for business by an acute attack of nervous prostration, which almost threatened my reason and not receiving any benefit from my physician, I was induced to go to Excelsior Springs, Mo. I spent a month drinking the Sulpho-saline and Ferro-Magnesium waters, with the very prompt result of what I believe to be a perfect cure of all my ailments. At any rate I am now free from all pain and distress, my appetite and digestion could not be better and my strength is fully restored. I cannot say enough regarding my recovery from this disease, and would like to see visitors at the wonderful healing properties of the waters. Yours truly, R. T. JEWELL, With Wither Bros., Wholesale Grocers.

DON'T GET HOT.

If a good sensible republican happens to meet you on the street and tells you "Ben Harrison will be re-elected as sure as the sun shines," don't get hot. If a rockribbed democrat insists on cornering you, and in excited tones informs you that "Grover Cleveland will do Ben up so hard that he'll never be heard of again"—don't get hot. If an honest old "Alliance Farmer" catches you in his strawberry patch, and tells you that "General Weaver will dispense public patronage from the White House after next March,"—don't get hot. If somebody happens to tell you that the "Nebraska Central" will never be built—or that your pet company drilled like a lot of old cows—don't get hot.

KEEP COOL.

Under all circumstances—keep your temper—come down to the store some day this week and buy a fine black alpaca coat for seventy-five cents—or a fancy brilliantine coat for a dollar—and a Yeddo straw hat, like the hat fellows sell for a dollar twenty-five, for eighty cents—and some very fine balbriggan underwear (cool weight) at thirty cents—(the forty-five cent kind)—a fine negligee shirt that's worth dollarnahaf, for ninety cents—and a silk grenadine windsor for a quarter—and a Guyot style suspender for a quarter—and silk embroidered socks for a quarter. Then put on a pair of old slippers and a pair of ventilated pantaloons, find an inviting hammock—get a good cigar and—two's company.
