looking callers departed, but returned in a few moments and knocked at the rear door and ordered the stranger away, saying that unless they left the premises at once she would shoot, at the same time displaying a revolver. One of the men hastily left but the other picked up a large rock and threw it at Miss Ward, striking her in the head, cutting her severely. It took six stitches to sew up the wound in her head. A description was sent to the police station and last evening Hugh Burns and Philip Corbett were arrested for the assault.

FOREIGN FINANCIAL REVIEW. Demands on the Continent Met by America's Supplies. LONDON, June 26.—Discount remains stagnant. Except a Prussian demand there are no calls from the continent where demands are met by American supplies. A temporary hardening of rates, however, is not unlikely during the week in view of the close of the half year and the probability of an exchange rate of 300 francs for the dollar. The Russian call arises from financial troubles in St. Petersburg and rumors of a loan of 500,000,000 rubles. It is a little surprise and would greatly assist a hardening of rates.

On the Stock Exchange during the week prices showed a general upward tendency. British funds were weaker. Bank of England continues to decline, dropping 9/4 during the week. Indian loans also receded. Rupee paper fell three-eighths of a percent in sympathy with silver. Colonial securities suffered by the unexpected issue of a Victorian loan of 2,000,000. Victorian 3 1/2% dropped 3 points. During most of the week foreign government securities were flat, but generally improved toward Saturday. General news was received from Russia that a point. Brazilians declined 3/4 per cent owing to news of fighting in Rio Grande do Sul.

British railway securities were irregular. American railway securities fluctuated moderately during the first part of the week, but afterwards became very quiet. The actions of the week in price of American railway securities include the following: Atlantic, 1/4 per cent; Louisville & Nashville, Lake Shore and Wabash, 1/4 per cent. The securities of Mexican railways were also irregular. Eastern securities suffered from the fall of silver. A continued decline of silver was noted and a fall to 39 pence is considered possible.

On the Berlin Bourse. BERLIN, June 26.—On the bourse during the week business was quiet. The chief feature was a fall in rubles, which on Friday dropped 4/25 on extensive selling orders from St. Petersburg and Odessa, but the ruble recovered somewhat on Saturday. The final quotations include: Deutsche bank, 163; Mexican 30 1/2; long exchange on London, 30 1/2; private discounts, 3 1/2 per cent.

On the Frankfurt Bourse. FRANKFURT, June 26.—On the bourse during the last week business was quiet. Internal stocks were lower. The final quotations include: Hungarian gold rent, 91; Russian, 90 1/2; Portuguese, 32 3/4; Australian silver rent, 70 1/2; short exchange on London, 30 1/2.
