of the Committee on the Company's Bill.

It will be some days before the Ketcham Furniture company gets $20,000 of the city's money to apply on the city hall furniture contract, as the council has concluded to take a little time for the purpose of investigating the matter.

Last Tuesday night, George C. Whitlock, the resident agent of the company, asked for the payment of $20,000. This was referred to the committee on public property and buildings and isst night the committee re-ported back this communication, which was annimously adopted:

unanimously adopted:
Your committee to which was referred the communication from George C. Whitlock, asking for an estimate of $3,000 in favor of the Ketcham Furniture company, respectfully report that owing to the fact that by paying any of the money for said furniture we would thereby accept the same, we; therefore recommend that the communication be placed on file.

Then came another report from the same committee on a request to use a vacant room in the city hall, in which to store the furni

The Board of Public Works submitted the plans and specifications of the proposed new viaduct along the line of South Sixteenth street. All of the papers in the case went to the committee on viaducts and railways.

The semi-annual bill from the water works company for hydrant rental, amounting to the sum of $38,065.41, was presented in the form of an ordinance. The ordinance brought out a large amount of discussion when it came up on its first reading.

President Davis urged that the ordinance should be referred with instructions to re-

The ordinance to pay for lands for park purposes was read twice and referred. The amounts which it is proposed to pay are as follows: The Richardson tract, $34,271.10; the Dali tract, $33,399; the Bemis park tract, $30,000; the Bell tract, $46,530; the Ried, Curtis and Eddy tract, $12,000; the Dali tract, ten acres, $0,000; the Distin tract, $90,000.

The committee having charge of the Fourth The committee having charge of the Fourth of July celebration invited the council to participate in the festivities. The invitation was accepted. By resolution the council voted the sum of $1,000 to aid in the Fourth of July celebration. Mr. Munro hoped that every dollar would be expended for the benefit of the people.

Mr. Lowry replied that the committee would account for every dollar of the money.

Mr. Fruner voted "no," but as he had signed a paper asking the council to appropriate the money, he changed his vote. That made the vote unanimous and the resolution

PAID A BIG LOBBY BILL.

Five Thousand Dollars for Putting the Contract Through the Council. While it may not be in good taste to go own into the grave and turn over the corpse

HAVE HUNG UP THE CONTRACT

It is only proper to give the Omaba public an idea of what it cost the Ketcham Furniture company to secure the contract.

A. F. M. Billingslea, who was the vice president and general manager of the company, spent a greater portion of the summer of 1891 in Omaha lobbying this contract through the council. When he first reached this city he was strong, vigorous and a picture of health. For days, weeks and almost months he labored with certain members of the old council. He dined and wined them and then defended the investigation. When it was all over, he returned to his home, where, a few weeks later, he yielded up the ghost and died.

Cost of the Lobbying.

Not long ago the administrator, with a view to settling up the estate, scheduled the debts, liabilities and assets. Among the latter was a claim against the Ketcham Furniture company. In plain and unmistakable figures it read, '$5,000 expended in as Colonel Billingsien had passed to the great and unknown beyond, the expenditures could not be explained. The claim was contested, but subsequently it was allowed and the money paid over. Yesterday an expert furniture man, one who has been in the business in this city for more than twenty-five years, made a critical examination of the furniture now in the three offices, and unnesitatingly and unso-licited stated that the city had been mulcted to the tune of several thousand collars. The prices charged for the furniture in the office of the comptroller will furnish a fair illustration of what the city is paying the Detroit firm. Detroit firm. Exorbitant Prices.

The counter, a plain affair made of oak, cost $705, while the top price should be $275. There are two flat-top desks charged up at $48 each, when $25 would be the retail price with a good profit. A plain flat table is put in at $48, when $25 would leave a good profit. Two $48, when $25 would leave a good profit. Two very ordinary arm-chairs are down at $18 each, and these any furniture man in the city will duplicate at $9 each. Two arm-chairs are charged to the city at $14 each, and in any furniture store they can be duplicated at $8. A standing desk ten feet long is charged at $45, and this the furniture man said he could furnish at $25 and make a good profit. Another standing desk, exactly the same, is put in at $52, while acrew top stools that retail the world over at $3 each, are listed by the Ketcham people at $5 each. Curtain top desks that came out of stock and are without any special design go at $75 are without any special design go at $75 cach, while the retail price is $40. The plain leather couches are charged at $55 cach and the Omaha price lists show that better arti-cles are retailed at $30.

Arm-chairs have crept in and are charged

Arm-chairs have crept in and are charged at $16, while similar ones can be bought out of the Omaha stores at $8 per chair. But the worst of all is in a lot of umbrella stands, little low, plain affairs. They go at 1821 and 1821 stands, little low, plain affairs. They go at $28 each and can be duplicated at $3 in any store in town.

When the blds for the furniture were submitted they went in on a cash basis, and upon this basis John F. Coots bid $0,000 below the Ketcham people, but why he did not get the contract no living soul outside of the ring will ever know.

The entire stock will be disposed of as announced at the present location, 1314

Those who expect to attend the World's fair and desire to avoid excessive charges will do well to reserve their accommodations beforehand. Desirable rooms in hotels and private apartments have already been engaged in large numbers. It will be exceed-ingly difficult to secure good accommo-dations within easy reach of the grounds if the matter be delayed till next season, while the pressure upon the street and cable cars, if the experience of visitors at the Centennial be repeated, will be such as to make transit from other parts of the city a matter of vexatious delay. One of the best things that has come to our attention is the Columbian Visitors association. A group of men in Chicago, whose standing and character are such as to make certain that they will more than fulfil their agreement, are erecting the "Hotel South Shore" on the lake front just be low the exposition grounds. The hotel will contain 1,000 rooms and accommodate 2.500 guests at one time. Rooms may be reserved by prepayment of a membership fee of $2.00, and $1.00 or $1.25 a day for ten days. Board will be on the European plan and as low as consistent with first-class service. The hotel will be built and managed by Christian men for Christian people and the Sabbath duly observed by services in a large audience room connected with the hotel. Every precaution will be taken to assist the inexperienced and protect them from those who might overcharge or mislead. As is being done by the students of Oberlin college, the students and friends of Gates colege at Neligh are raising funds for the erection of a gymnasium by selling memberships in this association. They have secured the state of Nebraska as territory and receive a moderate com-mission for their work. The association is commended to the people of Omaha and vicinity by Rev. Drs. Thain, Dur-yea and others. Circulars and other information may be obtained by a card-
