

DILATORY COUNTY CLERKS

Representatives of Lancaster and Gage Failed to Report.

NOT INCLINED TO FAVOR THE PLAN

One of the Officers Refuses to Explain the Workings of the Mortgage In...

LINCOLN, Neb., June 29.—[Special to the Bee.]—The first year's report of the workings of the mortgage indebtedness record law will be ready as soon as the reports from Gage and Lancaster counties shall have been received.

Another Crossing Complaint. The Board of Supervisors of Clay county have filed a complaint against the Colorado & Nebraska branch of the B. & M. railroad to the State Board of Transportation.

Pardoned by the Governor. When Governor Boyd started for Omaha this afternoon he had several buttons in his inside pocket a pardon duly signed and sealed for Edward Huddard, the station agent at Portal, in Sarpy county, who was a short time since convicted of adultery with one Mrs. Peterson and sentenced to eleven months' imprisonment in the state penitentiary and to pay a fine of $300 and costs.

Artesian Wells in Nebraska. A tabulated statement has been prepared at the office of the bureau of industrial statistics showing the results of the efforts to promote irrigation in Nebraska by means of artesian wells.

Case of Nollie B. Weeks et al. against the Palmer Deposit bank was filed in the supreme court today. It comes from Merrick county.

B. A. Smith against First National bank of Orest is the title of another case filed in the supreme court today.

Supreme court will meet tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of handing down opinions. No new business will be taken up.

General C. J. Dilworth, department commander of the Nebraska Grand Army of the Republic, was a state house visitor today.

The State Board of Transportation today issued the blanks for the annual reports of the railroad companies doing business in Nebraska.

The lists of indemnity school bonds recently selected by Land Commissioner Humphrey and State Draughtsman Schlegel in the Valentine, Chadron, Broken Bow and Alliance districts were forwarded to the general land office at Washington. The list comprises about 32,000 acres.

State Treasurer O'Connor of New Hampshire was a caller at the state house this forenoon.

The case of the state ex rel Crews against the county commissioners of Hitchcock county was filed in the supreme court this afternoon.

Judge Johnson of Topeka, Kan., was a state house caller today.

Governor Boyd this afternoon appointed W. West of Polk county an alternate member of the gubernatorial commission, vice John P. Henderson.

School Board Manifesto. President Wickersham and Secretary Dowers of the Lincoln Board of Education issued an address to the people of the city this afternoon, calling attention to the fact that on next Saturday will take place the election on the proposition to vote $100,000 for the purpose of erecting a high school building.

Mrs. D. W. Camp and Daughter Hurt. Mrs. D. W. Camp and daughter Miriam were thrown from a buggy this morning, the former sustaining injuries of a painful though not serious nature.

Coupsed Against Her Father. A curious case was filed in Judge Lansing's court this morning involving a daughter's ingratitude to an aged father. It was filed by Griffith S. Cooley against his daughter, Marian Keefe, and her husband, Willard Keefe. Cooley alleges that in 1882 he deeded his home in Cass county to his daughter.

Lincoln in Brief. F. P. Newton reported to the police this morning that during the absence of his family from his home at 1101 G street, a house was entered by sneak thieves, who got away with $3 and a number of valuable articles.

Their Play Was Spoiled. PALLASBURG, Pa., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Fred Newkirk, residing near this place, aged 16, died this morning. He was shot last Sunday by Marcey McCormick, aged 15. The ball entered his forehead. The boys were playing Indian.

Heinrod Secures a Victim. SNEY, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Complaint was filed yesterday by Louis Heinrod, state oil inspector, against J. R. Young, a dealer in general merchandise at Lodge Pole, for a violation of the state oil law. Young was arraigned this morning before Judge De Castro and pleaded guilty of the charge, whereupon the court imposed a fine of $100 and costs.

SECURED A JURY. Case Against Ex-Treasurer Paul of Adams County Rapidly Progressing. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—At last, after many delays, Charles H. Paul is on trial in the district court on the charge of embezzling public money. At 9 o'clock this morning the task of selecting a jury was resumed.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.

Charles Jones and James Cook, the Wyoming chicken thieves, were found guilty yesterday and will go to the pen. Alonzo Moore, another member of the gang, asked for a separate trial.

Hastings' School Superintendent. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hard fight has been made on the appointment of superintendent of the Hastings city schools. Prof. J. B. Monlux, who has been superintendent of the city schools for a number of years, has been a bone of contention with a number of the school board.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.

Charles Jones and James Cook, the Wyoming chicken thieves, were found guilty yesterday and will go to the pen. Alonzo Moore, another member of the gang, asked for a separate trial.

Hastings' School Superintendent. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hard fight has been made on the appointment of superintendent of the Hastings city schools. Prof. J. B. Monlux, who has been superintendent of the city schools for a number of years, has been a bone of contention with a number of the school board.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.

Charles Jones and James Cook, the Wyoming chicken thieves, were found guilty yesterday and will go to the pen. Alonzo Moore, another member of the gang, asked for a separate trial.

Hastings' School Superintendent. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hard fight has been made on the appointment of superintendent of the Hastings city schools. Prof. J. B. Monlux, who has been superintendent of the city schools for a number of years, has been a bone of contention with a number of the school board.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.

Charles Jones and James Cook, the Wyoming chicken thieves, were found guilty yesterday and will go to the pen. Alonzo Moore, another member of the gang, asked for a separate trial.

Hastings' School Superintendent. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hard fight has been made on the appointment of superintendent of the Hastings city schools. Prof. J. B. Monlux, who has been superintendent of the city schools for a number of years, has been a bone of contention with a number of the school board.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.

Charles Jones and James Cook, the Wyoming chicken thieves, were found guilty yesterday and will go to the pen. Alonzo Moore, another member of the gang, asked for a separate trial.

Hastings' School Superintendent. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hard fight has been made on the appointment of superintendent of the Hastings city schools. Prof. J. B. Monlux, who has been superintendent of the city schools for a number of years, has been a bone of contention with a number of the school board.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.

Charles Jones and James Cook, the Wyoming chicken thieves, were found guilty yesterday and will go to the pen. Alonzo Moore, another member of the gang, asked for a separate trial.

Hastings' School Superintendent. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hard fight has been made on the appointment of superintendent of the Hastings city schools. Prof. J. B. Monlux, who has been superintendent of the city schools for a number of years, has been a bone of contention with a number of the school board.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.

Charles Jones and James Cook, the Wyoming chicken thieves, were found guilty yesterday and will go to the pen. Alonzo Moore, another member of the gang, asked for a separate trial.

Hastings' School Superintendent. HASTINGS, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A hard fight has been made on the appointment of superintendent of the Hastings city schools. Prof. J. B. Monlux, who has been superintendent of the city schools for a number of years, has been a bone of contention with a number of the school board.

BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The closing exercises of the school department of the institute for imbecile youths in this city took place today. A number of leading citizens were present and the exercises were replete with interest.

Entertained Their Friends. LITCHFIELD, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodge of this place entertained a large number of brethren from Mason, Ravenna and Loup City and many invited guests this evening. They were addressed by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tule, after which they banqueted their brethren and friends at the Hotel Litchfield.

Beatrice Chautauque Opening. BEATRICE, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Beatrice Chautauque assembly opens here tomorrow under the most favorable auspices. There is every promise of a big attendance. The first big day will be Saturday, July 2. Excursions are promised from all quarters of the state.

Burglars at Papillion. PAVILLION, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dann Bros' general merchandise store at this place was robbed last night. The thieves forced the street door and helped themselves to the goods. A few suits of clothes, some shoes and a lot of jewelry were carried off. No clue to the thieves.

Approps the Liverny's Flight. The license inspector, W. L. Vaughn, insists that he is on the right track in his efforts to collect license money from the lively stable men, notwithstanding that some of the councilmen declare that he has gone beyond his jurisdiction.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Editor King of the Litchfield Monitor was taken to the asylum at Norfolk today by Sherman county officials.

Rain Maker Melbourne at Work. NELSON, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—Melbourne, the rain maker, is here operating on the top of the court house. A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house yesterday and $1,000 guaranteed on condition Melbourne would bring one-half inch of rain in three days. The operations of Mr. Melbourne are secret. The people have considerable faith in the system.

Melbourne undertook to produce rain in three days and in case he does not he gets no pay. The country about here needs rain badly.

The sky was clear this morning. Reports from Red Cloud, Hebron and points north indicate a clear sky. This afternoon clouds gathered and a few drops of rain fell. A wind arose about 5 o'clock and drove the clouds to the south. Heavy clouds hang off to the south.

Indian Marksmen at Bellevue. BELLEVUE, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—A company of Indian soldiers are at the rifle range and are drawing large crowds of visitors daily. A detail of men are now at work preparing the range for the competitors.

Dr. Lewis Acquitted. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to The Bee.]—The case against Dr. Charles B. Lewis, a physician of Burr, Otoe county, was heard in district court yesterday. The doctor was charged with shooting with intent to kill one McNut. From the evidence it appeared that Lewis acted entirely in self defense, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The doctor had been in jail here since March, being unable to furnish bail.</