THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR.

TWELVEPAGES

OMAHA, SATURDAY MORNING JULY 2. 1892-TWELVE PAGES.

TWELVE PAGES

THE PEOPLE'S CONVENTI NENTAL OTH In Full Blast at the Continental on Today. Close Buyers Invited. All

DEPARTMENT. MEN'S

Special sale of men's all wool cheviot and cassimere suits on Saturday at $5, $6 and $7.

Don't miss this sale. 500 men's all wool Cheviot and Cassimere suits will be placed on sale Saturday morning at $5, $6 and $7 per suit. These are the best values we have offered this season. The lot includes sacks and frocks in Cheviots, Cassimeres and worsteds. The cheapest suits in this lot retail for $10 everywhere, and some of the best styles as high as $15. Samples are shown in our windows.

SUMMER GOODS.

Thin coats and vests at January prices on Saturday.

All our mohairs, alpacas, flanneis and serges at cut prices on Saturday to close.

COME EARLY SATURDAY. Continetal Clothing House

MEN'S DEPARTMENT

SPECIAL SALE OF Men's Fine Cassimere and Cheviot Suits. Prices unheard of to close the season

$15 worth $25.

On Saturday morning we will place on sale 75 fancy worsted Suits which have sold all season for $25. The cloth is made by the celebrated Hockanum M'f'g Co. and is one of the best fabrics in the market. Our price for these suits on Saturday will be $15. All sizes. Sacks and frocks,

A big cut in the prices of all our high cost suits has been made for this sale. Come early on Saturday.

SUMMER GOODS.

Thin Coats and Vests at January prices on Saturday.

All our Mohairs, Alpacas, Flannels and Serges, at cut prices on Saturday to close.

COME EARLY SATURDAY. Continental Clothing House

DEPARTMENT. BOYS

Long Pants Suits, Boys Ages 13 to 18.

> Boys Three Piece Suits. Ages 12 to 16.

At prices never heard of in Omaha to Close the Season.

Our boys' department will be the busiest part of our store on Saturday. Prices on Boys' Long Pants Suits have been almost cut in two, beginning as low as $6.50 for all wool cheviots, $10 and $12 will buy the best in our stock. In three piece suits, 12 to 16, we will sell several styles of fine goods at $6.75.

Boys' Hat Department.

Remember we undersell all others in Boys' Headwear. Saturday will be our clearing up day on boys' straw goods, at 25c, 35c and 50c.

COME EARLY SATURDAY. Continental Clothing House

Thousands of boys have been fitted at the Continental this season and on Saturday we expect to fit a few hundred more. We offer you the goods for less than they cost to make. Our leaders tomorrow will be 300 suits of Boys' Knee Pants Suits, ages 6 to 14, at $1, $1.50 and $2, and have cut the prices on fine suits so that for $3.50 and $4 you can have your choice of some of the best in our stock.

COME EARLY SATURDAY. Continental Clothing House

	Continetal Clothin	g House. J Co	ntinental Clothing	Touse Continental Clothing House Continental Clothing House
	NEBRASKA ALL RIGHT	are in easier circumstances financially than	wheat and oats, and prospects were never	ield for wheat in the entire county was		fairly well. Prospects at present are good	crop. The acreage of oats is larger this
	MEDRASIA ALL MIGHT	for years. Mortgage indebtedness has been largely	better. Trade is 33 per cent better than last year, but collections are only fair at present.	raged about thirty. This year there is a	good; trade is fair, and the farmers and mer- chants are in good condition. Merchants	all around. Frontier.	year than last, while the acreage of corn is less, on account of the late spring. There
	 A second sec second second sec	reduced in many localities and new lands purchased from speculators in others.	The future looks promising for both farmer	arger acreage than last and prospects are excellent. The increase in screage is esti-	report business increasing.	Frontier's principal crops last year were	is more winter wheat this year and sliph 'y more outs, but less flax. Flax has been a
		Although all the local banks are in funds the	Brown,	mated at 75 per cent and the acreage in corn	Dawes. Wheat and oats were the principal crops	wheat and corn. The acreage this year has been increased about 10 per cent. Corn is a	large crop here, but is decreasing, while
	Wet Spring Notwithstanding, '92's Harvest	demands for loans are very light and inter- est is generally below the rate fixed by law	The principal crop last year was whea though considerable rye, oats and corn wet	is decreased about the same per cent. The corn crop is small but of healthy color.	last year. There was some flax, a little bar-	little late, but is looking good generally, and growing very fast. Prospects at the present	winter wheat is coming into favor. Ti q prospects for crops are good at the present
	Will Ee a Good One.	Adams,	grown. This year there is a large area i O'	Wheat and oat crops are exceptionally good and are assured now. Vegetables of all	ley, rye and corn. This year the acreage in wheat has been considerably increased.	time are very flattering. The volume of	time. Winter wheat, without exception is looking well, and spring wheat and oats are
	······································	The principal crop of Adams county, last	newly broken ground on which flax is the principal crop. Less corn and more out	kinds are in good condition. Trade is grad-	However, the yield is not likely to exceed	trade has increased 30 per cent over last year, although somewhat light at present.	a good average. Flax promises well at this year, was corn. About the same acreage of that cereal is in cuttivation this year, and	than a year ago. There was no failure		the 1891 crop, as a great deal has not been put in in the best order, the season being	Collections are easy.	time. Corn planting was from a week to ten days later than usual, but the cereal is
	EIGHTY-SEVEN COUNTIES HEARD FROM	is in excellent condition and growing rapidly. Winter wheat is gaining in favor in Adams	any crop last year and at present prospect are good, although all crops are rather back	after the narvest no trouble will be ex-	late and farmers in a hurry. The county is receiving copious rains. Corn looks rather	Furnas,	now up and with a good stand and the ground is generally in good condition. At the second s	and the present crop is above the average, Spring wheat is not more than a fair crop.	ward owing to the cold, late spring. Collections and trade are fairly good and merchant	perienced with the farmers. Cheyeane.	poor this season, owing to the cold, back- ward spring. The prospects for an abundant	about one-third more this year than last is	present the weather is favorable and corn is
2		In the acreage of oats and barley there is	and farmers are very hopeful.	The principal crop last year was wheat, rye, cats and corn following. There is a	crop are regarded as flattering. Trade is	in corn and more than twice as much wheat, mostly fall wheat. Fall wheat has been	making a very rapid growth. Prospects are good for crops of all kinds and trade is fair
	Dry Mercantile Agency's Review of Condi-	but little change and both will fall short of the average. Potatoes are fine, and several	Buffalo.		fair. Collections average as to ease and merchants and farmers are hopeful and in	raised only a few years, but it is fast coming	and collections better than the average,
	10621 tions at End of June.	largo fields are being grown. Clover and	The principal crops are wheat and co- Owing to the wet and cold spring corn h	crops are all looking well. Corn is very	good spirits over present prospects, which	into favor. It is in fine shape now. Corn is good but late. Collections are fairly good.	Oats, flax and wheat never looked better, Harlan,
	1.001	timothy are grown extensively and are in splendid condition. Last year the farmers	been rather backward but the present wa i weather is bringing it along finely. T a	backward. Collections are easier, and there seems to be plenty of money where there is	are the best for three years. Dawson,	Gage.	The principal crops last year were wheat,
	INCREASE OF ACREAGE IS GENERAL	reduced their indebtedness $05,030, This represents debts actually paid (mortgages)	growing fields of cereals are all looking gol .	security to put up for it. Farmers are look- ing forward to good grops, and land is ad-	Principal crop is wheat. The condition of	Principal crop last year was corn and the acreage this year is about the same as last.	corn, rye and oats. The acreage this year is 25 per cent larger than last. The prospects
	MONEAGE OF AGREAGE 13 GENERAL	and less than 6 per cent of this amount was	and with present promises fulfilled the a will be a bounteous yield which will ename	vancing in price.	this section of the country was never better and the prospects for an excellent crov of all	Crops are not more diversified than usual.	are most flattering for the largest yield of released by foreclasure. The fruit crop will fal short as compared with last year. Collec-	will be a bounteous yield which will enable both farmers and merchants to square up their accounts and lift the mortgages	Clay. The principal crop last year was corn. The	kinds are very flattering. The general acre-	Small grain looks well. Corn is a good stand but very small as yet; it is at least four	small grain ever known, both in average and acreage.
	Merchant and Farmer Alike Look to a Year	tions are somewhat improved, but merchants have not yet, experienced any marked im-	their homes, which owing to the crop fail re	acreage this year is not so great as last, being	ace is increased probably 10 per cent over 1891. All kinds of small grain ara well ad-	weeks late, and an early frost would seri- ously affect a crop. It seems hardly proba-	Hitchcock.
	of Prosperity.	provement in trade. Future prospects of all	for the past two years they were forced to place there. There have been quite here	estimated at 90 per cent. This difference was caused principally by the late spring	vanced and looking fine. Corn is nearly a	ble that there will be more than 75 nor cont	The principal crops last year were wheat, corn and oats, the largest acreage being in
		are improved since a year ago. A great deal of prairie was broken up last year and sowed to wheat, oats and barley. The season is a	corn shipments of late and good prices fal- ized. There is a decidedly better for ng	and the poor condition of the ground for planting. On account of this much ground	month behind but is doing nicely, and with favorable weather will make an excellent	quite as good as usual. Trade is fair, but not	wheat. Wheat averaged last year about 26 bushels per acre, corn 35 and oats 60 bushels to wheat, oats and barley. The season is a little late, but there is no prospect of a	among the merchants who are anticipaling	that was to have been planted in corn was	crop. The yield last year was abundant. Collections are generally easy. Money is	as good as at this time last year. The future of merchants and farmers is good. Have had	per acre. The acreage this year is at least
	BANKING BUSINESS ALONE IS SLOW	failure and there seems to be no scarcity of	a good and profitable fall trade. The ate showers have done much good, cattle are	seeded to millet and sorghum. There is 50 per cent more winter wheat growing this	plenty. Trade is generally quiet, but pros-	no total failure of crops here. Farmers are	50 per cent larger. Crops consist of wheat, corn, oats, flax, barley, potatoes, corn and money. Antelope.	fattening and, in fact, everything best liks better times all around. The acreage this	year than ever before. This looks well and the prospects are for an enormous crop. All	pects are very good. Deucl.	thrifty and hard working, not making large stakes, but almost all of them accumulating	broom corn. Crops all look well here, espe- cially small grain. The average of oats, bar-
	Piethora of Deposits-Farmers Don't Need	Principal crop last year was corn, and the	year is lar, er than heretofore to a conspera-	kinds of small grain are in excellent condi-	Wheat, oats, rye and barley are the crops	each year. Merchants are conservative, doing a good deal of credit business at cer-	ley and broom corn is double that of last to Borrow and Merchants' Slates Are	acreage is at least one-fifth more this year than last. The yield last year was large in	ble extent. There appears to be piener of money with light demand. Collections and	tion and prospects are good for a large crop. Corn, although small, is in good condition	in this county, with wheat the principal one. There is an increase of about 500 per cent	tain times of the year, but bad debts are	year and the prospects are good. There having been plenty of rain, small grain is in Clean-Let the Farmer Bearken,	all kinds of grain and the prospects, at pres-	trade are fairly good.	and the warm weather is producing rapid growth. Much of the corn that was planted	this year in acreage and prospects are good.	few. Trade is quiet.	good condition. It is thought the average per acre will not be as good as last year, but FilGIJAcknowledge, and Applaud.	ent, are good, in fact better than a year ago. Do not think crops more aiversified than last	Burt. The principal crop last year was corn The	early had to be planted over on account of	Collections are reasonably good - the best, in- deed, for five years. Future prospects for	Gartield.	with the increase in acreage everything in-
	Lawrence of the second s	year, although all kinds of grain are raised. Crops are well advanced considering the late	acreage this year is one-fourth less that last owing to the lateness of the season. fops	cold wet weather. The fruit crop will not be so large by 50 per centas that of last year.	merchants and farmers are cortainly flatter-	The principal crops last year were corn, wheat and oats. The acreage is larger this	dicates that this county will have a large in- crease in bushels of small grain over last
	Readers of THE BEE are herewith pro-	season and prospects are good. Collections	are a little more diversified but ever ining	Potatoes have made a good growth and give promise of a large yield. Collections and	ing. Dodge.	year than last. All crops are doing well, al- though rain is needed. Considerable grain	year. The prospects for farmers and mer- chants are good. Land is increasing in value sented with a full, careful and candid review	are reported as fair and trade with merchants good. In fact, everything looks promising.	is growing rapidly and prospects are for a rood crop. There has never been bad	trade are good. Prospects were never	Corn, wheat and oats are the principal crops, corn leading in acreage, which will	has been marketed within the past two	and some is being sold at good prices. Col-
	of the present condition and future prospects	Banner,	failure of crops in this county. Collections	better for farmers and merchants. A large number of farmers held their last year's	probably fall a little short this year owing to		lections are only fair on account of last year's crop being about all marketed.
	of this year's crops and the general condition of trade in eighty-seven counties of the state	Wheat was the principal crop last year and	are close and trade is lighter than it has been for some time. However, prospects we fa-	crop of corn until recently and disposed of it upon the advance in prices. Sorghum, which	wet weather. However, the crop so far looks exceedingly well, better than last year	slow at this time of year, although money can be had at reasonable rates. The pros-	Holt.
	as they stood on June 30. The report is the	the acreage this year is about three times as large, with an increase of 20 per cent in	vorable and the impression prevail that merchants will do a good trade this y or.	has heretofore been grown in the nature of	at this time, and growing rapidly. Wheat and oats were poorly put in, but look fairly	pects both for farmers and merchants look	The principal crops last year were corn, oats, wheat, fye, potatoes, millet, flax and work of the R. G. Dun & Co. mercantile	acreage of oats. Rye and barley about the	Butler.	an experiment, has been largely planted this year as a crop and is in good condition.	well; will probably make a fair crop. Farm-	bright. Gosper.	buckwheat, and there is thought to be fully ngency, and is here printed through the courtesy of the Omaha representative of the	cellent for all kinds of small grain. Corn	Cort was the principal crop last your and	Grass is in excellent condition and stock is doing well. Farmers who have heretofore	ers have nearly finished marketing last year's crop of corn and money is plenty.	Principal crops are corn, oats, wheat and	one-third more acreage in crops this season. There is a larger acreage of wheat this year.
	firm, Mr. W. A. Roberson. Thurston, Dixon,	very late and it is impossible as yet to deter- mine accurately about it. Business better	the acreage this year is about the same. Owing to continued wet weather is early	grown cattle for feeding are now turning	Trade good for the season. Collections fairly	broom corn. Acreage of corn some what less, wheat is one-third more and broom corn 50	Corn was the principal crop last year, and
	Dakota and Cadar counties in the northeast of the state report to the Sioux City office	than a year ago toth as to collections and	part of season the crop is rather backward, but it is growing well at present and she out-	their attention to cattle for milk and are well pleased with the results,	good and improving. The stend and pros- pects are very good.	per cent less. Prospects for a full crop are conditioned upon rain. Collections have	there is planted three acres to one of it this year. The corn this year is about twenty of the agency, and these four counties are		look is favorable for an average crop. There	Colfax.	Douglas,	been good. Some old ones are left over.	days late; the other crops are in a good coa- dition. Notwithstanding the late wet not included in this review. McPherson is	Blaine,	is more small grain this year than ast and the prospect is fair, notwithstancing the	The principal crop isst year was corn. Acreage this year is about the same as last,	Crops in this county are greatly diversified.	Future prospects are good. Grant.	spring, the crop is cortainly more promising than last year. Collections show a marked sparsely settled and inaccessible and is therefore, perforce, omitted. All the other	There is an increase of about 50 per cent in the acreage of corn and wheat this year.	rains beat the ground and the sufsequent warm weather baked it so that the clop does	from 80,000 to 90,000 acres. Considerable	Corn and hay, with some oats, are the prin- cipal ones. The acreage of all is diminished	This and the adjoining counties are,	improvement over last year, as the farmers counties of the state are heard from.	Corn is late, but wheat is looking fine, with	not look as well as usual. The prospects are	prairie has been broken and while the farm- ers were late in getting crops planted they	from last year on account of the backward spring. Corn and oats are about 30 per cent	strictly speaking, adapted to cattle raising only, there being not one person who farms	are in easier circumstances generally. The present condition of trade is good, there
	While the reports below tell their own tale, it may be permissible to point out that in	prospects for a large crop. Present condi- tion of trade and collections are good, show-	that if present warm weather continues corn will have its usual growth by the first of	have grown well the last month and appear- ances indicate an A No. 1 yield. Wheat,	less, with poorer crop prospects than any	as a business. All settlers have cattle and	being a careful, conservative plan of do ng business, and the prospects of merchants it may be permissible to point out that in view of the discouraging conditions prevail-	ing considerable improvement over a year	July. Money is plenty in banks and individ- ual depositors have nearly doubled in num-	about 16,000 acres, same as last year, and	year for at least two. Hogs and dairy pro- ducts form a considerable industry. The	horses and make stock raising their bysi- ness. Small quantities of grain are raised,	and farmers are much better than last year.
	ing in May It is quite remarkable that the	Boone.	ber within the last year. Merchants are	prospects good. Very little flax was sown. Potatoes, about 5,000 acres, prospects good.	dairy business is increasing. Are shipping from the creamery here about fifty cans of	but none for the market. Owing to the se- vere snow storms this spring many cattle	Rye is about the same acreage as last year and has matured, if hall does not destroy.
	statements from nearly all parts of the state should indicate so fair a prospect for both	At the present time crops are looking fine and promising. Smail grain of all kinds is	doing a fair business, but collections are slow. However, merchants and farmers are	There is an increased acreage of rye over	milk and cream each day, an increase of	perished, but they are now doing nicely, and	Oats, about 25 per cent more acreage than corn and small grain.	doing nicely. Corn is rather backward, but	hopeful and anticipate good times this year.	last year, say about 7,000 acres, prospects ex- cellent. The hay business in this county is	about ten cans over last year. This is a monthly cash income to the farmers. The		last year. Corn is about 25 per cent to 40 per cent greater in acreage than last year,
	There is no politics in the mercantile	the opinion is expressed that the crop will be good notwitstanding the late season. The	Cass. The principal crop inst year was corn and	a large item every year. Collections are slow. The present condition of trade a.d the	potato crop is fair as to acreage and pros-	is very duil and no improvement is expected until fall. Now times are snug, money	and, though somewhat backward, is in good condition, except on low land, where ex-agency business, its tendency being gener- ally, if anything, to underestimate rather	acreage this year is larger than ever before, more land baying been broken this season	the acreage and distribution this year are about the same. Corn though small is in	future prospects of merchants and farmers	stroyed the fruit, except in a few well pro-	scarce and collections slow.	cessive rains have drowned it out.
	than overastimate favorable conditions.	than for the past three years. Merchants	excellent condition and a splendid crop is ex-	were never better. Cuming.	tected localities. Everything is late, but if the frosts cone late all will compare favora-	Greeley.	Hooker,
	The aeroage in western counties is largely	express themselves well satisfied with trade, but are still looking forward to improve-	bected. Small grain is looking medium. Trade is good, about the average, and farm-	The principal crops last year were wheat,	biy with last year, as everything at present is growing very rapidly. Collections are fair.	The principal crops last year were corn, wheat and oats. All were good. The acre-	The principal crops last year were corn and wheat. It is thought there is more corn
	Increased. The fruit crop may be reckoned a failure	ment. Collections are good and more farm- ers have money deposited in banks this sea-	ers are cheerful, Collections slow, old claims	oats and corn, corn comprising about three- fourths of the acreage. There is a slight in-	Present trade is dull. Crops are becoming	age this year is greater than last, and diver-	planted this year, and about double the acreage of wheat. Crops are looking well, hearly everywhere.	son than in any since 1882. The market in	being gathered up somewhat, especially those against farmers. Only one recent fail-	crease this year, and in' some portions of the	more diversified each year, and now several hundred acres are planted to melons.	sified about the same. The prospects are fair, but more rain is needed. Collections	and if frosts do not come too early, every-
	Corn planting was much delayed by the	cattle and hogs is moving some, several large shipments having been made recently, and	ure, and that a small one, caused by competi- tion and injudicious buying combined with	county more small grain has been sown. All crops are in good condition and as far ad-	squashes, etc., for the seed, also a few acres	are fair and prospects good for the fall trade.	thing points to a good corn crop. Trade is very quiet. Collections are slow. Prospects wet weather, but what is in has a good stand and a full average crop may still be looked	the produce market is also beginning to liven up. Pasturage is good and the general	small capital. Prospects are good and on the	vanced as they were inst year at this time,	busugar beets. Dundy.	Corn, oats and wheat are the principal	for the future are fair.
	for.	outlook is for the better.	whole trade and farmers seem to be slightly better than the average.	with the exception of corn, which is rather late to make a full crop, but it never did fail	The crops of 1891 were corn and wheat, with a small amount of barley and oats. The	crops. The acreage of corn is about the	Howard. The condition of all kinds of crops in
	Sugar beets, flax, sorghum, broom corn,	Box Butte,	Chase,	in this county and farmers are still hopeful. Trade has been slow and collections only	acreage of all is increased 25 per cent this	same as last year. The same with oats, and there is an increase of 5 per cent in wheat.	this county is excellent. The principal garden seeds and millet are the only crops putside of staples mentioned in the reports	Wheat was the principal crop last year, al- though a great deal of corn and oats was	The principal crops last year were wheat and corn. The acreage of wheat this year is	fair. Money rather scarce. One reason is that during the last year the farmers have		Cold weather has materially retarded crops, but prospects generally for small grain are	crops raised are corn and wheat and acreage is about equally divided. The acreage of
1.14	and these appear to be grown profitably, and	raised. The acreage this year is more than	about twice as large as last, with a decrease of probably 50 per cent in the corn cron.	bought up nearly all lands held by nonresi-	Fillmore.	good. Owing to excessive rains some corn	Corn is somewhat less that last year on ac-
	the acroage is rapidly being increased, except	double and the prospects are excellent for a	Gauge and lass distantified farmons and	dents and used up all the money they could	The principal crops last year were corn and	on low lands will be late, but it is generally	count of the mes spring, one the piece is bit the acroage is rapidly being increased, except in the case of flax. Corn continues to be king in all the older counties, though winter wheat is coming into favor along the southern tier. In western Nebraska, in spite of short seasons, elevation and want of rain, the corn acreage shows an almost phenomenal increase. Collections appear to be good in most sec-tions of the state and trade, except in very few counties, is all that could be expected. The farmers have more money in bank and double and the prospects are excellent for a large wheat crop. Corn is a little backward. Oats in good condition. Future prospects regarded bright, everybody confident and some very enthusiastic. Boyd This is a new county and was sparsely se t-tled last year, so that it would hardly be pos-sible to make comparisons. There are about

Crops are less diversified, farmers confining themselves to small grain and paying but little attention to any other crop. The crops are now looking well, but it is not believed the yield will be as large as formerly. It is estimated that there are about 75,000 acres of small grain out. Collections are good, better than last year. Trade is improved and future prospects for merchant and farmer are bright. Everything is in a healthy condition.

Crops are less diversified, farmers confining are now looking well, but it is not believed the yield will be as large as formerly. It is estimated that there are about 75,000 acress of small grain out. Collections are good, better than last year. Trade is improved and future prospects for merchant and farmer are bright. Everything is in a healthy condition. Wheat was the principal crop last year, form second and cats third. The average bought up nearly all lands held by nonresidents and used up all the money they could raise for that purpose. The prospects for future trade and collections are good. The principal crops last year were corn and frames being 25 to 30 bushels. The acreater to miss, with good prospects for a large yield for a large yie

CONTINUED ON TWELFTH PAGE.